Parish Notes

WE ARE KEEPING THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE this week. It is hoped that every member of the congregation is remembering this great cause in their prayers. Many have resolved to assist at Mass every day, and to receive Holy Communion with this intention. The prayer is as follows:

ANTIPHON—One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all; Who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

V.—In that day there shall be one Lord:

R.—And His Name One.

PRAYER—O Lord Jesus Christ, Who saidst unto Thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: regard not our sins, but the faith of Thy Church, and grant her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will, Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

ONE GOD AND FATHER OF ALL is the title of a new book just published in England, and to be found at Jacobs' Book Store on Chestnut Street, which sets forth a most admirable and complete defense of the Catholic Faith for Anglo-Catholics. It is most highly commended by the English press, and should have a wide reading in this country. The editors are The Rev'd Eric Milner-White, Dean of King's College, Cambridge, and The Rev'd Wilfred L. Knox, Warden of the Oratory, Cambridge.

FR. KLINE, S.S.J.E., has been a frequent visitor in the Parish during the past week. He has been giving a Mission at the Eastern Penitentiary for Fr. Smith.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN PLAYERS' CLUB and The Pennsylvania Chapter of The American Guild of Organists will give an Organ and Choral Recital in S. Clement's Church on Tuesday evening at half-past eight o'clock. Mr. Fry will be at the organ and he will be assisted by The Choral Club of the Musical Art Society of Camden. No tickets are required. The program is built up of Christmas and Epiphany music.

THE FOLLOWING HYMN is sung at the close of Benediction every Friday evening. It should be committed to memory, or else paste these verses in your prayer book:

Holy God, we praise Thy Name!	Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Lord of all, we bow before Thee!	Angel choirs above are raising:
All on earth Thy sceptre claim,	Cherubim and Seraphim,
All in heaven above adore Thee:	In unceasing chorus praising,
Infinite Thy vast domain,	Fill the heavens with sweet
Everlasting is Thy reign.	accord;
	Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord!

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name Thee,
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we claim Thee:
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

Parish Notes

THE SISTER'S BIBLE CLASS will be resumed this morning, and will meet as usual in S. John's Chapel. The Mothers' Meeting Devotional Service has been resumed in the Chapel. The first Mass in the renovated Chapel will not be said until the Altar hangings are completed.

THE ANNUAL SERVICE in honour of S. Vincent will be held this evening. The Rector will preach. There will be a Procession, followed by a Solemn Te Deum. The Servers and some of their friends will have supper in the Rectory before the service.

THE MISSIONARY QUOTA for the Parish is about $7,500 for 1930. This is a large sum for us to give, yet I feel sure that we could do it. We gave $5,000 in 1929. We have been gaining each year in our gifts. There are heavy expenses in the organization, and these must be met by missionary gifts. Your offerings to Diocesan Missions do not go through New York, so such allocations go in their full amount to the work that you specify. Perhaps some definite Diocesan work may appeal to you. The Italian work at S. Mary of the Annunciation is thoroughly Catholic. The work of the Priests on the City Mission Staff is likewise Catholic. The Welfare Federation assists the City Mission with their social work, but the Priests' salaries are taken care of by the Diocese. Would it not be splendid if we could adopt Fr. Smith's salary as a member of the City Mission Staff, and call him "Our Missionary," and carry his name officially on our list? Fr. Smith would be pleased. It would give a very personal touch to your giving.

NEXT SUNDAY is Candlemas. It is many years since it has fallen on a Sunday. Candles will be blessed before the Solemn Mass, and there will be a Procession. The following day is the Feast of S. Blase, and throats are blessed. For the convenience of those who cannot get here on Monday, throats will be blessed before the High Altar immediately after the Solemn Mass next Sunday.

NASHOTAH ALUMNI in the Eastern States are gathering in New York City tomorrow for a Luncheon at the Hotel Pennsylvania, to meet the Dean and hear the latest news from the Seminary. The Rector is President of the Eastern Convocation of the Alumni.

THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION will be administered in this Church on Friday evening, 14th February. It will be the first visit of the Bishop Co-adjutor to S. Clement's. Any who wish to be prepared for this Sacrament should speak either to one of the Priests or to the Sister-in-charge.

THERE IS A DEVOTIONAL SERVICE in the Church every Friday evening. It lasts but an hour. The Rector usually makes the address. It is in the form of an instruction. This is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. There were seventy people here last Friday? Why not more?

PRAYER-BOOKS, HYMNALS and KNEELING CUSHIONS are needed for S. John's Chapel. $250 will buy the lot!

THE CHURCH WAS WELL FILLED for Mr. Fry's splendid Organ and Choral Recital on Tuesday evening. There will be another one next month.

Parish Notes

THROATS WILL BE BLESSED, with the invocation of S. Blase, after the Solemn Mass this morning, and before and after all Masses and Offices on Monday. Two crossed and lighted candles are held near the throat, and the form used is: "At the intercession of S. Blase, Bishop and Martyr, may you be delivered from all diseases of the throat, and from every other evil; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. A-men."

BOXES OF CANDLES will be found in the Church Porch after the Solemn Mass. Your offerings for the candles taken may be placed in the Tract Case offering boxes.

$5,339.64 was the exact amount contributed by S. Clement's last year for missionary purposes. $4,981.31 applied against the quota.

ANOTHER DEVASTATING FIRE wrought its havoc in another of our Church Institutions last week. The main building at S. Andrew's School in Sewanee was destroyed. The dining halls, kitchens, offices, supply closets, and faculty sleeping quarters were entirely destroyed. There is immediate need at the School for supplies and clothing. We will be glad to forward anything that is left in the Parish House and marked for S. Andrew's. Bedding, table linen, kitchen towels, and all kinds of clothing for men and boys, are most urgently needed. "He who gives promptly, gives twice."

THE FIRST WEEK IN THE MONTH brings several meetings. S. Mary's Guild meets on the first Monday. This is a devotional guild for women. There is a very simple rule. The monthly meetings are followed by a social hour in the Parish House. Last month there were eighty women at the meeting of the Guild. On the first Wednesday afternoon in the month there is a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. This is the Church's Missionary Society. All women of the congregation are most cordially invited and welcomed to the meetings. On the Friday following the monthly meeting of the Auxiliary, there is a Corporate Communion of the women, for God's blessing on the Church's Missionary Program. On the first Friday evening of each month we keep the Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament; there are simple meditations, and it closes with Benediction.

TWO WEEKS FROM TODAY the Lord Bishop of Algoma will be with us for the opening of the Eucharistic Mission. Has everybody got this week set apart for this purpose? Has everybody got this great undertaking for God and His Church on his intercession list? You must be getting ready now if you are hoping to be spiritually benefited by the exercises and devotions of the week.

FR. WAGENSELLER and Fr. Kellogg have been guests in our house during the past week. Fr. Kellogg preached for the Guild of S. Vincent Festival Service last Sunday evening.

TEN MONTHLY SUBSCRIPTIONS to The American Church Monthly have been received. We are much pleased with this response. If any more are wanted, they can very easily be ordered.

THE DEATH OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP is a great shock to us. He has served for scarcely more than two months. His death is a tremendous loss to the Church. He was a great saint—there will be a Solemn Mass of Requiem here on Monday at 11 o'clock.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER at the Solemn Mass this morning is the Reverend Gregory Mabry, Rector of Holy Cross Church, Kingston, New York.

THE EUCHARISTIC MISSION begins next Sunday. The Mission Sermons will be preached in the evening. The two Sunday morning sermons by the Lord Bishop of Algoma will be independent of the Mission series.

THE CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY because of the moving of the Church for the widening of Twentieth Street has been satisfactorily settled, and the actual money should soon be in hand. Laus Deo!

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS on the five weekday mornings following Septuagesima Sunday, as a part of the Devotions in the Eucharistic Mission. These Masses will be followed by Sermons, which local Priests have generously consented to preach.

ALMOST THE ENTIRE AMOUNT for Fr. Smith's salary has been subscribed in the Parish, so we shall be able to feel a deeper and more intimate claim on Fr. Smith and the fine work he is doing with the City Mission. And incidentally it will enable us to meet our Missionary Quota.

YOU MUST INVITE YOUR FRIENDS to the Eucharistic Mission. This is something different in the way of a Mission. It will be a means of acquainting Church people with the history, doctrine, devotional and liturgical character, and the benefits of the Eucharist. You will be happy to hear the old truths again. There are many who have never heard them. Here is the Church, the Altar, the Bishop, and the Opportunity. You must bring your friends.

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR will make his first visit to S. Clement's Friday evening. He will preach to us at eight o'clock, and administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a small class. It is hoped that a goodly number will come out, not only to welcome the Bishop, but to pray for the newly Confirmed.

ARE YOU SETTING ASIDE NEXT WEEK FOR THE MISSION? There are a great many who will make the effort to assist at Mass every day, as well as to attend all the Sermons. Ask yourself, very seriously, how often you can come. No one is so near perfection that he cannot be benefited by this Mission.

A MOVEMENT TO HAVE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS released for an hour every week that they may attend religious instruction has been inaugurated, and a petition presented to the Board of Education. Dr. Burchett, a member of S. Clement's, has been instrumental in bringing the matter before the Board of Education. There will be a demonstration class in the Parish House, Thursday afternoon at four.

THE COLLECTIONS at the weekday services during the Eucharistic Mission will be devoted to the extra expenses in connection with the Mission. The collections on Sunday will all go, as usual, to General Parish Expenses. Thank offerings to the Missioner had better be made through the Rector.

Parish Notes

THE EUCHARISTIC MISSION opens today. The Lord Bishop of Algoma will Pontificate and preach at Solemn Mass and at Solemn Vespers today and next Sunday, and will preach each evening during the week, except Saturday. Begin the Mission with your Confession, strive for Mass and Holy Communion every day, the Mission Sermon every evening, and your Thanksgiving and Resolutions next Sunday.

THE BISHOP CO-ADJUTOR made his first visit to S. Clement's last Friday evening, and gave the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation to a small number. It was a real joy to have the Bishop with us. He has been a regular worshipper with us on S. Clement's Day for many years.

THERE WILL BE A DAY OF RETREAT on Washington's Birthday, next Saturday, for teachers and business women at the Mission House of the Sisters of S. Margaret, 1831 Pine Street. If you wish to attend, please notify the Sister-in-charge by telephone.

WE ARE VERY GRATEFUL to the Priests who are coming to us for the sermons after the Solemn Masses during this week, and also to our many friends who are remembering us in their prayers during the Eucharistic Mission.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING of S. James' Church is giving a Supper Thursday evening in their Parish House, 2210 Sansom Street. It would be a splendid place to stop for your dinner that evening on your way to the Mission.

DO NOT FAIL to tell your friends about the Mission. Do not fail to bring your friends with you. Do not fail to come yourselves. Remember the importance of Mass and Holy Communion. Remember the Mission Sermons and Benediction in the evening. And your Communion of Thanksgiving and Resolution next Sunday, Sexagesima.

THE COLLECTIONS at the week-day services during the Eucharistic Mission will be devoted to the extra expenses in connection with the Mission. The collections on Sunday will go, as usual, to general Parish expenses. Thank offerings to the Missioner had better be made through the Rector.

S. JOHN'S CHAPEL, it is expected, will be ready for the week-day Masses during the Mission. The Solemn Mass at 11 each morning will also be in S. John's Chapel. The evening Mission services will be in the Church.

COME TO THE MISSION. PRAY FOR THE MISSION.
BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

Holy Sacrament of the Altar

Parish Notes

TODAY marks the close of the Lord Bishop of Algoma's Eucharistic Mission. It has been a most stimulating week. The Parish has responded most enthusiastically to the opportunities of the Mission. We have had some extraordinary congregations. The Masses have been well attended. So many Communionists must bring a blessing on the Parish, as well as on all who assisted in this way at the Holy Mysteries.

THE OBJECT OF THE MISSION was not to stimulate interest and devotion for the week of the Mission alone. It is hoped that the fruits of the Mission will be even more evident, as the days and weeks go on, in increased devotion to our Lord and His Church in the Holy Eucharist. That the larger numbers at Mass will continue. That the number of Communionists will grow. That many more will come to the Friday evening instructions and assist at Benediction. That the Parish will exhibit a more active faith in the Real Presence of our Lord in the Holy Eucharist.

THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA will speak before the Clerical Brotherhood at the Church House tomorrow morning at 11.30. In the evening he will speak to the Church Club of the Diocese. His evening address will be in the character of a lecture on "Burma," illustrated with lantern slides. The Lord Bishop spent five years in Burma, as President of one of the Church of England Colleges there. He has had innumerable invitations to preach and visit while here, but pressure of work in his own Diocese forces him to return late Monday night to the Province of Ontario.

THE RECTOR is attending the College of Preachers in Washington this week, at the invitation of Bishop Rhinelander. He will be absent from Monday afternoon until Saturday.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE MOTHERS' MEETING had an evening coffee party in the home of a member and made almost forty dollars for the Mothers' Meeting Fund. They are grateful to their many friends who helped them.

THE CHEQUE FOR THE DAMAGES to our property has been received from the City authorities. The cheque has been cashed, and our bills are all paid. The Committee of the Vestry are now preparing a report of the whole matter. They have been most untiring and faithful in the performance of this very difficult and exacting task. We are most grateful to them.

ASH WEDNESDAY is March 5th. Palm Sunday is April 13th. Easter Day is the 20th. Pentecost is the 8th of June. Corpus Christi is June 19th.

TWELVE PERSONS were presented to the Bishop Coadjutor for Confirmation on the 14th. They are making their First Communion at the Lord Bishop's Mass this morning. Pray, please, for their faithful perseverance.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FRANK GAVIN of the General Theological Seminary in New York, conducted the annual Quiet Evening for men last night. It was very well attended, and Fr. Gavin's addresses were most helpful. He will return to conduct the Women's Retreat on Mid-Lent Sunday.

BISHOP ROWE, of the Missionary Diocese of Alaska, will give a missionary address at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel on Thursday evening next at 8.30.

THE CHURCH IN RUSSIA is suffering from great persecution. It is the intention of those in power to stamp it out completely, if possible. Our prayers are sought in behalf of our suffering brothers and sisters. Those who will promise to say the following prayer every day for a year may be enrolled in "S. Clement's League of Prayer for Russia," a league of the English Church, which has its center at S. Clement's Church near Eastcheap. Intercessions are offered daily in this Church at 12.10 and The Holy Sacrifice is offered with this intention on Tuesdays. We will join here in the daily intercessions, and on Tuesdays we will remember the Church in Russia and her suffering members at our Altars.

PRAYER FOR RUSSIA—O God, our Refuge and Strength, Who art a very present help in trouble; have mercy, we beseech Thee, upon the Church in Russia, in her hour of need. Deliver her by Thy most mighty protection from tyranny and the dangers that beset her, and grant her people rest: through Christ our Lord.

FIFTEEN PEOPLE have subscribed through the Rector for The American Church Monthly, which will be distributed each month, and may be paid for by the copy. If any others want this monthly publication, it will be very easy to increase the number.

THE RECTOR will preach at the Solemn Mass on Sundays a course of sermons during Lent on "The Symbolism of the Sanctuary," to borrow a very familiar title. For several years we have had such a teaching course at this season, and this year the subjects will be, The Altar, The Tabernacle, The Lamp, The Candles, The Crucifix.

LAST YEAR a number of the people in the Parish subscribed to the Church's Missionary work through a monthly envelope and offering system. This has not been resumed this year, but it is hoped that all who are able to do so will make frequent offerings to Missions, no matter how small, and place them in the collection plates. They may be marked for any field of work that especially interests you.

THE LENTEN EMBER DAYS occur on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week. They are days of special prayers for the Sacred Ministry of the Church, and for those preparing for Holy Orders. The Revised Prayer Book now has a proper Collect, Epistle and Gospel for Ember Days.

MITE BOXES, for special Lenten self-denial offerings, may be had from the Clergy.

LENTEN ASPIRATION!

"As we have known the Incarnation of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, by the message of an Angel, so by His Cross and Passion, we may be brought to the Glory of His Resurrection."

PRELUDE (MR. FRY)—“Retrospection”.....Parke V. Hogan

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—“Litany for Lent” (Part 1)..Hymn No. 762

INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.

Psalm—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

KYRIE*Edward Hardy*
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel on page 125 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—He shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noise-some pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Parish Notes

THE LENTEN SERMON TOPICS are as follows: At the Solemn Mass on Sunday mornings, the Rector's subject is, "Symbolism in the Sanctuary;" First Sunday, The Altar; Second Sunday, The Tabernacle; Third Sunday, The Lamp; Mid-Lent Sunday, The Candles; Passion Sunday, The Crucifix. Tuesday afternoons, at 3.30, the Rector will give a course of addresses on the new Prayer Book. For Friday evenings, at 8, his subject is "The Precepts of the Church"—1, The Proper Observance of Feast Days; 2, The Proper Observance of Fast Days; 3, The Proper Observance of Ecclesiastical Customs and Ceremonies; 4, Attendance upon the Church's Public Services; 5, Reception of the Holy Communion at least Three Times a Year; 6, Preparatory Confession of Sins to a Priest, when Occasion Requires. Sunday evenings at 8, Fr. Bulkeley is preaching a course on The Sacraments.

THE WOMEN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING is presented at the General Convention, which meets next in Denver in October, 1931. The Offering is made through The Women's Auxiliary. Miss Hoffman is the Parish Treasurer. She has small blue boxes for your convenience. She will be glad to send them to any who wish to use this means for accumulating their offering.

S. JOSEPH'S DAY, which falls on Wednesday of this week, has been designated by His Holiness, the Pope, and His Grace, the Archbishop of Canterbury, as a day of solemn prayer before God for the Church in Russia and her suffering members. It is hoped that all Catholics will assist at Mass on this day and receive Holy Communion for their persecuted brothers and sisters. There will be a Solemn Mass at S. Clement's at 11.

THE WOMEN OF THE CONGREGATION are reminded of the Annual Retreat on Mid-Lent Sunday. The Conductor will be the Reverend Frank Gavin, Ph.D., of the General Theological Seminary in New York. The Addresses will be at 10, 2, and 3.30. The subject will be: Temptation. The Retreat begins with Mass at 8, and closes with Benediction at 4. Every one is welcome. We have a small mailing list to whom cards are sent. If you are interested, we would like to have your name on the list.

COPIES of the AMERICAN CHURCH MONTHLY are for sale in the Cope Room today.

FR. SPENCE BURTON, Superior of The Society of S. John the Evangelist, was a visitor in The Rectory on Tuesday.

AT LOW MASS, The Benedictus Qui Venit and The Agnus Dei are said in their entirety by both people and Priest. When the Mass is sung, there is a formal precenting, which gives the idea of a versicle and response, but at other times they are said in full. When the Priest says, "Lord, I am not worthy," it is the signal for the faithful to come to the Altar to receive Holy Communion. Communicants should be already in their places at the Rail when the Priest turns with the Sacrament.

OF YOUR CHARITY, Pray for the Repose of the Souls of Charles Van Dyke Joline, Addie Goodridge, and Mabel Robinson. R. I. P.

PRELUDE (MR. FRY)—“Arabesque”.....Louis Vierne

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—Litany of Penitence.....Hymn No. 466

INTROIT—Call to remembrance Thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and Thy loving-kindnesses towards us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Psalm—Unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in Thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded. Glory be.....

KYRIE*Edward Hardy*

GRADUALE—The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring Thou me out of my troubles, O Lord. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sins.

TRACT—O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious: and His mercy endureth forever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord, or shew forth all His praise: blessed are they that alway keep judgment, and do righteousness. Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that Thou bearest unto the people: O visit me with Thy salvation.

SEQUENCE HYMN—“Jesu, our Lenten fast of Thee”....Hymn No. 90

CREDO (Mass in E Flat).....Gottfried H. Federlein

SERMON—“The Tabernacle”THE RECTOR

Parish Notes

NEXT SUNDAY is the day for the Annual Retreat for Women. It begins with the eight o'clock Mass. The Meditations will be given at 10, 2 and 3.30, by the Reverend Frank Gavin, Ph.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History at the General Theological Seminary in New York. Fr. Gavin is well known in the Parish, where he has been a frequent visitor and preacher. Breakfast and Dinner will be served in the Parish House for all who notify Sister Katharine, at Spruce 2044. Breakfast costs 25 cents, and dinner 50 cents. Those spending the day are asked to bring their own reading material. The Intercessions will come between the two afternoon addresses, and the Day will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4. Please make this opportunity known to your friends.

TUESDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is the great feast of the Incarnation. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11.

THE RECTOR is preaching at S. John's Church, Newport, Rhode Island, on Wednesday evening, and will remain for a day or so for a visit with Fr. Hutchinson.

BISHOP MANNING of New York will be the preacher Thursday evening at the Lenten Service in the Church of S. Luke and The Epiphany, which begins at eight o'clock.

AN UNUSUAL NUMBER OF OUR PEOPLE are out of work, and the demands on the Poor Fund for relief have been correspondingly heavy. If you can make an offering for this purpose, please send it either to the Rector or to Sister Katharine, S.H.N.

MASSES HAVE BEEN SAID in both of the renovated Chapels, the Crypt, and S. John's. The Mothers' Meeting Service and the Tuesday afternoon devotions and address are being held each week in S. John's Chapel.

THE DECORATORS are working on the Font Cover in the Church. A careful use of gold and colour is bringing out the real beauty of its workmanship. It is hoped this touch of colour may be an inspiration for some further decoration in the nave, which is very dull and sombre.

MR. SELLERS is preparing some designs for contemplated improvements in the Church. If any one is considering a memorial gift to the Church, it would be a great help to us, and a saving in expense to the giver, to consult with Mr. Sellers at once.

DO NOT FORGET THE MISSIONARY OFFERINGS. We should have one-third of our quota paid by the first of May—$2,500.

LENTEN ASPIRATION

"As we have known the Incarnation of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, by the message of an Angel, so by His Cross and Passion, we may be brought to the Glory of His Resurrection."

Parish Notes

THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK, April 10th, Fr. Smith will conduct the annual Retreat for S. Mary's Guild and their friends. This day is open to all women who may care to attend. Please notify the Sister at SPRuce 2044. The Day begins with the Parish Mass at 9.30. The Meditations will come at 10, 2 and 4. There are devotional exercises every hour. The Day will close with Vespers at 6, and Supper will be served for all who can stay.

One of our good women was clothed as a Novice in The Community of the Transfiguration, Glendale, Ohio, on Lady Day. She has been given the name of Sister Alexena Mabel. Please pray for her.

NEXT WEDNESDAY is the regular day for the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. The speaker will be Fr. Biagini, who will tell of his work with his native people, the Italians, in the Mission of S. Mary of the Annunciation. Since this work is situated in our own Convocation, it should be of special interest to us. All of the women of the congregation are welcome at these meetings. On the Friday following, the Women of the Auxiliary make their Communions for God's blessing on the Missionary work of the Church.

THIS SUNDAY is often called Laetare Sunday, because of the opening words in the Introit. It is Refreshment Sunday, when we pause in the midst of the Lenten Fast to survey the ground over which we have come, and take a fresh breath for the rest of the way. The word Refreshment may be attached to the Sunday, too, because of the Miracle in the Holy Gospel.

THE ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN is being held today. The Conductor is the Reverend Frank Gavin, Ph.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History at the General Theological Seminary in New York. Fr. Gavin is a frequent visitor and preacher in the Parish, and we are always happy to welcome him. The Meditations will be given at 10, 2 and 3.30. Their subject will be "Temptation." The Program is as follows:

Mass	8.00 A. M.
Breakfast	8.45 A. M.
First Meditation	10.00 A. M.
Solemn Mass	11.00 A. M.
Dinner	12.45 P. M.
Second Meditation	2.00 P. M.
Intercessions	3.00 P. M.
Third Meditation	3.30 P. M.
Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.	4.00 P. M.

If you are unable to spend the whole day, come to as much of it as you can. You are welcome to come to one Meditation. You are welcome for the whole day. The offering is to cover the expense of the food, and will be made at meal time.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING, made every three years by the members of the Women's Auxiliary, may not be familiar to every one. It is presented at the meetings of the General Convention. "The United Thank Offering supports over ninety women workers in the mission field, and not only pays their salaries, but pays for their training, and takes care of them when they are sick or disabled. A certain amount of the offering every three years is used for building purposes, so that all over the mission fields there are buildings, parts of schools and hospitals, which stand as witnesses to the thankfulness of Church-women everywhere, as well as the great witness of the lives of women themselves, who serve God in the far corners of the earth."

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED to the Kalendar for next Sunday. Owing to the length of the Palm Sunday Liturgy, the Blessing of the Palms and the Procession begins at 10.30. This will bring the beginning of the Mass at about 11.30. The Mass at 9.15 will be a Low Mass without Hymns. It is hoped that those who come on Palm Sunday, intending to remain during the entire ceremony, will fill the front pews in the Church, and leave the rear seats for those who must go before the Liturgy is completed.

DURING PASSION-TIDE the CROSSES and STATUES in the Church are veiled. Kenneth Ingram, in "The Adventure of Passion-tide," says: "At first I was disposed to question the Church's rule of covering up the symbols of the Passion at the very moment when the Passion was to be the object of concentration. Gradually I have learned to appreciate the Church's wisdom. All through the year these symbols have been exposed for our meditation. Now they are partially removed, so that we may see the substance which they represent. It is like a lesson-book which is open before one, until the lesson. The time has come to know the lesson without the lesson-book. The mind is strengthened by having to rely on itself."

THE SEVEN SORROWS of the BLESSED VIRGIN MARY:
1. At the prophecy of Simeon. 2. At the flight into Egypt. 3. Having lost the Holy Child at Jerusalem. 4. Meeting Jesus on the way to Calvary. 5. Standing at the foot of the Cross. 6. Jesus being taken down from the Cross. 7. At the burial of Jesus.

OFFERINGS FOR THE ALTAR OF REPOSE on Maundy Thursday may be handed to the Rector at any time.

THE ANNUAL DUES FOR THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS are now payable, and may be sent or handed to the Rector.

THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA asks our prayers. The Church in Canada is fifty years behind the times in its knowledge of the Anglo-Catholic movement. Algoma is being attacked, with the same arguments and by the same methods that were used against the Cowley Fathers in the old days here. These attacks cannot be dispelled by argument. Prayer, and the quiet living of the Catholic Life, will win the day. Our Thursday Masses, hereafter, will be offered for the Diocese of Algoma and the Lord Bishop.

"GOD FORBID THAT I SHOULD GLORY, SAVE IN THE CROSS OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST."

PROCESSIONAL Improvised

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succor afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE—(In E Flat).....S. Tudor Strang
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 134, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well nigh slipt. And why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying; He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—(In E Flat).....Gottfried H. Federlein

SERMON*THE RECTOR*

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man: neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Parish Notes

IT WILL BE A GREAT HELP, both in comfort and reverence, if the regular members of the Parish and Congregation will take the front seats in the Church today, and throughout the exercises of Holy Week. Also at the preaching of the Passion, on Good Friday, it will help in every way, if those expecting to remain for the full three hours will come to the front of the Church, and leave the rear pews for those who can stay but for a part of the service.

OFFERINGS FOR FLOWERS for the Altar of Repose, and gifts of flowers for the Altar and Chapel, should be at the Church by Wednesday afternoon.

THE ALTAR OF REPOSE, from the Mass of Maundy Thursday until the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified, will be in S. John's Chapel.

PLEASE MAKE THE SERVICES OF HOLY WEEK at S. Clement's known to your friends. What is better, is to bring them with you.

THE SERVICE OF TENEBRAE, in English, will be found in the Tract Case. They may be borrowed for the Services, but if taken away, twenty-five cents should be left in the Box for each copy taken.

WILL THE REGULAR PENITENTS in the Parish please come as early as possible in the week for their Easter Confessions? When you find others waiting in the Church, before a Confessional, await your turn. Politeness is a mark of a true Christian.

THE EASTER OFFERING, as usual, is for regular Parish Expenses.

The Rector's Easter Letter

MY DEAR PEOPLE:—

If you would have an Easter filled with joy and peace, you must at least begin your preparation with Palm Sunday. In Passion-tide the Catholic attempts to follow the actual experience of each of the days leading up to Easter. This is not a memorial. Passion-tide presumes to be an actual recurring history, a drama which is annually re-acted. We believe that the Passion did once take place. But we believe that, in a manner which no finite language can express, it is there—in the womb of an eternity which knows no past nor present, and that each Passion-tide there is reflected in the Church this still-existing Sacrifice—that Passion-tide is a sacrament and not merely a memorial. "Our Lord is the Lamb which is slain from the foundation of the world."

The Holy Week Liturgy of the Church is a divinely-inspired drama to lead the devout worshipper, in company with his Lord, to the Easter Feast. The Liturgy moves as a whole, and the more of it at which one is able to assist, the more thankful he will be, and the more he will enter into the suffering life of the Man of Sorrows. No Cross, no Crown!

The Mass and Tenebrae should be followed by all. Every one can make the sacrifice necessary to be at Mass every day. Certainly every evening should be spent in the Church. If you follow such a week, Easter will be indeed the Queen of Feasts in your spiritual experience. Easter cannot be prepared for at the last minute.

We cannot pretend that any other Communion in the year is quite so real as Easter Communion. There ought, I suppose, ideally to be no degrees, no comparative difference. But Easter morning you are less unprepared, a shade less blind and dull. And the magnetism of the Resurrection is so strong that one must be very dull not to be affected. This is the gift our Risen Lord ~~would bestow upon all~~ His children—He wants to come in the Blessed Sacrament—in the act of Holy Communion, to every one of you!

The Kalendar speaks for itself. Keep it by you. Make it your engagement book for the week. A good Holy Week will mean a good Easter; a quickened soul will mean a quickened Parish; and so the whole round world will be the better for even one more faithful Watcher at the Passion.

May all Easter joys be yours, now and at all times.

Faithfully and affectionately your Pastor,

FRANKLIN JOINER.

and his mercy endureth for ever.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

SEQUENCE—Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises.

A Lamb the sheep redeemeth: Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?

"The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection:

Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

Parish Notes

FR. SOUDER, who preaches for us today at the Solemn Mass, is an old friend of S. Clement's. His brother is a member of the Parish. Fr. Souder spent a number of years in Wuchang, China, until the uprising of recent years, when so many of our missionaries were sent to other fields. In 1927 he was transferred to Baguio and Sagada in the Philippine Islands, and he is now in this country on a furlough.

THE EASTER COLLECTION amounted to $1,315. This was $35 less than last year.

SOME OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE, who style themselves "S. Clement's Dramatic Club," are preparing several little plays, which they are planning to present in the Parish House on Tuesday evenings, May 6th and 13th. While the tickets are dated for the 6th, they will be good for either of the two evenings. The plays will be followed by dancing. The proceeds of these entertainments are given by the young people to "The Rector's Discretionary Fund."

ON EASTER MONDAY, Messrs. Bayard, Mayer, Sellers and Woodruff were re-elected members of the Vestry for the ensuing three years. The other members of the Vestry are Messrs. E. A. Casey, F. Y. Casey, Clay, Homan, F. D. W. Lukens, W. W. Lukens, Ritter and Tyson. All of the former officers and committees were re-elected, and the Rector re-appointed Mr. E. A. Casey as his Warden.

A MASS MEETING, in the interest of the Church's advance program for the Missionary Work, will be held in the Academy of Music on Monday evening, May 5th. The Rector has a small number of tickets for this meeting, which he will be glad to give to the first-comers. The annual Diocesan Convention will meet the following day.

ON SATURDAY, MAY 3RD, Miss Florence Nightingale, a former member of S. Clement's, will be solemnly professed in the Community of All Saints, at the Mother House in Orange Grove, Maryland. She will be known in Religion as Sister Fidelia of All Saints. The Rector is to preach the sermon at the Profession.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL MASS for The Guild of All Souls will be sung in S. Ignatius' Church, New York City, Monday, May 12th, at 11.15 o'clock. Fr. Hutchinson will preach the sermon. The Mass will be followed by a luncheon and the annual business meeting. Fr. Joiner is the national Superior of the Guild.

DURING EASTER-TIDE, instead of the ANGELUS, is said the REGINA COELI.

O, Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia,
For He whom thou wast meet to bear, alleluia,
Is arisen as He said, alleluia,
Pray thou unto God for us, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. For the Lord hath arisen indeed, alleluia.

PRAYER. O God, Who by the resurrection of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, hast vouchsafed to give gladness unto the world: grant, we beseech Thee; that we being holpen by the prayers of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, may attain to the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. A-men.

THE PASCHAL CANDLE was painted by Miss Janette Newman. We are most grateful for her beautiful work.

Parish Notes

THE WOMEN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING in the Parish, presented at the annual service during the past week, amounted to $209.50. This offering is presented every three years, at the meeting of the General Convention of the Church, and is used for advance work in the Mission field. Miss Hoffman is the Parish Treasurer.

THE MAY MEETING of S. Mary's Guild will be held tomorrow evening in the Chapel of S. John, and the usual social hour will follow in the Parish House.

YOU ARE REMINDED of the entertainment in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, and its repetition next Tuesday evening. The young people have been working during Lent with their rehearsals, and we are promised a very delightful evening. There will be music, and dancing after the performance.

MEMBERSHIPS IN THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS are now solicited. These annual subscriptions may range from one to ten dollars. The Congress is now permanently organized, and there will be occasional bulletins, one of which has just been issued. The next Congress will meet in Buffalo in October.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION will be held this week in Holy Trinity Church. The opening Mass will be at 9.30 o'clock. The parish delegates are Messrs. Ritter, Sellers and Woodruff, with Mr. Tyson as an alternate. There seems to be nothing of special moment to come before the Convention this year, nevertheless the routine business and annual reports should be of vital interest to every Churchman in the Diocese.

FR. SOUDER'S SERMON last Sunday should have stimulated deep interest in Missions, and especially in the missionary work in the Philippine Islands. You may designate your offerings for Fr. Souder's work by marking them "BAGUIO."

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the repose of the souls of

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Guild of All Souls will be held tomorrow in S. Ignatius' Church, New York City. There will be a Solemn Requiem at 11.15, at which Fr. Hutchinson will preach. Luncheon will be served, and the annual business meeting will follow. Fr. Joiner is the Superior of the Guild, and Mr. T. E. Smith, of Kingston, New York, is the Secretary and Treasurer. S. Clement's Parish has the largest number enrolled of any parish in the country. We are anxious to have more members, and more contributions. The Guild makes a very special work of supplying poor parishes and missions with the proper Altar appointments for Requiem Masses.

THE ANNUAL DIOCESAN CONVENTION closed at noon on Wednesday. All of the business of the sessions came under the heading of "routine." Following the Bishop Co-adjutor's address Tuesday afternoon, there was a most inspiring Missionary Meeting, at which Bishop Creighton, Bishop Schmuck, Bishop Beecher, and Fr. Johnson of North Carolina, spoke of their work and their needs. We need the personal appeal to touch our hearts. When once our hearts are moved, then we need say nothing about money.

THE CLOSING MEETING FOR THE SEASON of The Women's Auxiliary was held last Wednesday. At the election of officers for the ensuing year, the present officers were asked to serve again. So the Auxiliary continues with Mrs. Mowry for President, Mrs. Luckenbach for Vice-President, Miss Haffelfinger for Secretary, and Miss Connelly for Treasurer.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB will be repeating their little plays on Tuesday evening. They were very well given last week. The young people deserve your support. There will be dancing after the plays, and ice cream will be offered for sale. The proceeds will be given this year to the "Choir Outing Fund," for which your additional offerings are solicited.

THE CHURCH GARDEN, along the Apple Tree Street side of the Church, has been replanted this week, and the grass seed has been sown. This little tract is one of the most attractive features of the exterior of our property. It is a great boon to the neighborhood, and one often finds the children of the vicinity peering through the fence, and enjoying its green freshness. Other plants and bushes may be added from time to time as additional funds are available. We want the garden to be, eventually, as beautiful as we can make it.

Parish Notes

THE STANDING COMMITTEE of the Diocese, at their regular monthly meeting last December, elected The Rector to fill the unexpired term of Bishop Taitt. This election was confirmed at the Annual Diocesan Convention last week.

THE MISSIONARY BUDGET of the Church provides for the carrying on of the Missionary work that is already in existence. The need for advance work is not provided for in the Budget. An effort will be made in the future to raise an extra sum of money every three years for this purpose. Our Diocese is asked to contribute $115,000 before the next meeting of The General Convention. The Accounting Warden is mailing a few appeals, and any other offerings will be gladly accepted for this needed work. It is felt, though, that this advance work must not be supported at the expense of the existing work, so if you have but one offering to give, do please give it to the Budget.

THE VESTRY met for their last meeting before autumn on Tuesday afternoon. The usual reports were read, and some plans for summer work about the property were formulated. An estimate for Stations of the Cross was accepted, and designs are now being made for them. The total cost will be about $8,000, or about $565 each. Eight of these Stations have been given as separate memorials, and a memorial inscription will be arranged for each gift. It is hoped that the remaining six Stations may be given as Memorials, and the Rector will be glad to talk with any who may be considering the matter. The Upper Sacristy will be renovated and some new cases built there this summer, and the Cope Room will be rearranged. And kneeling cushions will be placed in all the pews throughout the Church.

A VERY BEAUTIFUL BOOKLET, describing the moving of the Church, telling some of the details in connection with the plans, and setting forth our hopes for the future, has just been compiled, and will be mailed to all members of the congregation in a short time. There are some very interesting pictures of "before" and "after," and it is hoped that many will be inspired to give a Thank-Offering to Almighty God for His great goodness in preserving our Church home and this Shrine of the Catholic Faith.

FR. EDWARDS is spending this week at Nashotah, keeping the first anniversary of his graduation, and acting as Master of Ceremonies at the Commencement Mass and ceremonies.

DO NOT FORGET THE POOR when you are planning your summer holidays. We have a number in the Parish for whom we must provide during the summer. Please remember The Summer Outing Fund and The Poor Fund and The Rector's Discretionary Fund.

THE GIRLS' CLUB is arranging for a "Radio Bazaar" on Tuesday evening, June 3d, in the Parish House. Further details will come later, but reserve the evening!

Parish Notes

THE GIRLS' CLUB have postponed their Radio Bazaar until Tuesday evening, June 10th. There will be plenty of attractive things to buy, and to eat, and to hear. And there will be dancing!

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will close their winter's work with their Annual Meeting and Service at the Church Women's Club Rooms at S. James's Church, Tuesday evening, June 3rd. There will be an exhibition of Vestments in the Club Rooms at five o'clock. Supper will be served at six. At eight, Vespers will be sung in the Church and Dr. Mockridge will preach. This meeting is open to all friends of the Altar Guild, as well as to its members. It is hoped that S. Clement's will be well represented. Some of our Vestments will be in the exhibition.

THERE WILL BE A SERMON and Benediction in S. John's Chapel on Wednesday evening, the eve of the Ascension. Priests will be in the Church at 7.15 for Confessions. There will be a Solemn Mass on the Feast Day at 11.

THE CHOIR BOYS, and the Choir men with their families, enjoyed a party at the Circus Saturday afternoon.

FLOWERS FOR THE ALTAR have been given for many of the Feast Days as memorials for the Faithful Departed. Ascension Day and the Sunday in its Octave have not as yet been taken. Flowers for these days could be provided for about ten dollars for each day. If any one would like to give for either or both days, they may speak to the Rector or write to Miss Arnold at The Monterey.

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the repose of the soul of Janette Davidson.

Parish Notes

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet for the last time this season tomorrow evening. The Guild Office will be sung in S. John's Chapel at 8, and a Social Hour will follow in the Parish House. S. Mary's Guild is a devotional Guild for women, who keep a simple rule of prayer and Communion-life. It is open to all women in the Parish, and new members are welcomed at the monthly meetings.

THE NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST is being kept as usual in the Parish this year. This Novena commemorates the nine days of prayer and waiting spent by the Apostolic Band between the Ascension and Pentecost. We try to spend it in the same way. The best way to observe it is by daily attendance at Mass, and daily Holy Communion, if possible. Add the Veni Creator, with a Pater Noster and an Ave Maria to your daily prayers. The special Novena Prayers are said after the Low Masses each day.

THERE WAS A PROMPT RESPONSE to the appeal for flowers for the High Altar for the Feast of the Ascension and for the Sunday in the Octave.

THE ANNUAL DUES for the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament are now payable to the Treasurer, Mr. Alger L. Ward. They may be placed on the collection plates, if carefully marked, and will be forwarded to the Treasurer.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI falls on the 19th of June this year. For many years S. Alban's Church, Olney, has had a special festival service at this time for their Acolytes, and all the Servers' Guilds in the city. Fr. Knowles has arranged this service for the Feast Day itself this year, and invites our Congregation to assist at Solemn Vespers and Benediction in the evening, and to be S. Alban's guests at a lawn fete immediately after. S. Alban's and its good Rector are noted for their generous hospitality, and it is hoped that our people will, in goodly numbers, be present for this Festival at Olney.

THE CONGREGATION is beginning to scatter for the summer. It will be a great help in the maintaining of the Parish if those who subscribe through the duplex envelopes will leave their subscriptions for the summer before they go away. The summer is a lean season, numerically and financially. The offering on Pentecost is for "Parish Summer Expenses."

THE RECTOR HAS APPOINTED Mrs. Charles Van Dyke Joline to be President of S. Clement's Altar Guild, in place of Mrs. Harry Connelly, the Month's Mind of whose death and burial we have been remembering this week. Too much cannot be said for Mrs. Connelly's faithfulness and generosity in this position, which she held for so many years. Mrs. Joline has had long experience with Altar Guilds in the Diocese of New Jersey, and will strive to maintain the high standard set by her predecessor.

"I believe in the Holy Ghost"

The Holy Ghost, or the Holy Spirit, is the third Person of the Holy Trinity. The Holy Ghost is God equally with the Father and the Son, and since He is God, He is to be worshipped and prayed to.

The Holy Ghost is not an influence coming out from God, or a mere spiritual quality that comes as a gift from God. He is a Person. According to the Holy Scriptures He can teach, He can guide, He can call things to our remembrance. He can intercede, He can be grieved, He can convict a soul of sin, He can be lied to, and these things can be said only of a Person.

Ten days after our Lord ascended into heaven He sent the Holy Ghost to dwell in His Church. To-day is the 1900th anniversary of that great day. Without the presence and help of the Holy Ghost we can do nothing that would please God. S. Paul says that no man can do so simple a Christian act as to say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

The disciples, after our Lord's Ascension, did nothing until the Holy Ghost came upon them on the day of Pentecost, 1900 years ago to-day. They did not try to teach or to convert a single soul, for they had no power until the Spirit came upon them.

The Holy Ghost proceeds from the Father through the Son. He dwells in the hearts of all who are members of the Church, and He is the inspirer of every good thing that is done. If you have an impulse in your heart to think, or say, or do, some good thing, these impulses come from the Holy Ghost. Nor are we able to follow these good impulses unless we allow the Holy Ghost to help us.

The Holy Ghost is the agent of the Godhead on earth. All that God does is done through Him. The Holy Ghost works especially in and through the Sacraments.

It is God the Holy Ghost who regenerates a child in Baptism. It is He who comes into the soul in the fulness of His gifts in Confirmation. It is God the Holy Ghost who at the Mass makes the bread and wine to become the Body and Blood of Christ, and it is He who, applying the Precious Blood to our souls, cleanses us in Absolution.

God the Holy Ghost is the Giver of Life. There can be no spiritual life without Him. He gives it to souls, first of all in Baptism; and afterwards in the other Sacraments, and in numberless other ways according to the working of His divine wisdom.

The teaching work of the Holy Ghost lies (1) in guiding and instructing the consciences of men, (2) in directing the Church in defining and propagating the Faith, and (3) in inspiring the authors of Holy Scripture in such manner as to ensure truth in all necessary matters of Faith and morals.

The Holy Catholic Church is the chief sphere in and through which God the Holy Ghost does His work. The Church was founded on Pentecost when the Holy Ghost came down upon the Lord's disciples. To-day is the 1900th birthday of the Holy Catholic Church.

Parish Notes

"THE MEMORIAL ON THE MOVING OF S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH," a folder prepared by the Special Committee of the Vestry, has been mailed to all the members of the Church and Congregation. If any one has failed to receive a copy, the Clergy will be very glad to supply them with one. The story of the moving is well told, the illustrations are good, and the little publication is a great credit to its compilers, as well as to S. Clement's Church.

THE RECTOR leaves next Sunday for his holiday abroad. He sails at midnight on the S. S. Berengaria of the Cunard Line, and will be in London for the opening of the Catholic Congress on the following Sunday. If there are any occasions in connection with the Lambeth Conference where the Bishops use Chaplains, he will act as Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Algoma. He expects to be in England all summer, and returns on the S. S. Aquitania, sailing from Southampton on September 20th. He will be at home for Michaelmas.

FR. UNDERHILL has gone to Rutherfordton, North Carolina, for the summer. He made the journey south with Fr. Roseboro, who was going to Oteen to take the work which Fr. Lobdell has had to relinquish because of ill health. The work at Oteen is in one of the Government Hospitals, and Fr. Roseboro will be resident here as Chaplain until the autumn.

TO-DAY is the Twelfth Anniversary of the Rector's Ordination to the Priesthood, and completes his tenth year as Rector of S. Clement's. He will say his Anniversary Mass tomorrow morning at 7.

THE REVEREND B. STEWART BERT, student Pastor at Nashotah House, and for some years attached to the Church of the Annunciation, will be in charge of S. Clement's during the Rector's absence this summer.

THE SUMMER SCHEDULE, for the months of July, August and September, varies from recent years in but one respect. The eight o'clock Mass on Week-days will be omitted except on Tuesday and Friday. While this is the most poorly attended of all our Masses, yet there are a few people who do depend on it for their Communion. It is hoped that this will be a satisfactory arrangement. The Sermon will follow the High Mass on Sundays, and there will be an Address, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, on both Friday and Sunday evenings at 8. The Confession hour on Saturday morning will be omitted. The regular schedule will be resumed on October 1st.

OFFERINGS FOR THE SUMMER FUNDS, the Outings for the Poor, and the Camp for the Choir Boys, are still being received.

MISS MARIAN THOMPSON and Miss Geraldine Platt have been appointed as Secretary and Treasurer of S. Clement's Branch of The Guild of All Souls. Their address is 856 Perkiomen Street. All inquiries as to the Guild and the Intercession paper should be addressed to them.

THERE WILL BE A FESTIVAL SERVICE in honour of the Most Blessed Sacrament in S. Alban's Church, Olney, Corpus Christi evening at eight.

THE WEEK-DAY MASSES and the Services of Benediction on Friday and Sunday evenings will be in S. John's Chapel during the summer months. The Sunday Masses will be at the High Altar as usual.

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the Repose of the Soul of Anna Patruello Prichett.

THE RECTOR has returned from his holiday spent abroad. He preached at the High Mass last Sunday on the Catholic Congress, and will preach at the Solemn Mass this morning on the Lambeth Conference.

THE DAILY MASS at eight o'clock has been resumed. As you will see by the Kalendar, the usual order of Sunday masses is begun today for another church year. The Parish Organizations and Guilds will not return to the winter schedule until November 1st.

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS meets this month in Buffalo, October 28th, 29th and 30th. There are special rates on the railroad for those who are able to attend. The program is posted on the bulletin board in the church porch. Every member of the Parish should be a subscriber and a member of the Congress. Such membership costs but $1. At the opening Mass, when the Primate of the American Church, Bishop Perry, will preach, there will be a special collection for Catholic Missions in the American mission field. Contributions for this special offering may be handed to any of the Clergy. Mrs. Pendleton will gladly receive your subscription to the Congress.

FATHER SAUNDERS, who has been unwell for some weeks, is in the Episcopal Hospital for observation and treatment. Please remember him in your prayers.

THE TWELFTH PROVINCIAL SYNOD OF WASHINGTON will meet in Philadelphia on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 21st, 22nd and 23rd. The opening service will be a Devotional Service in Holy Trinity Church, Tuesday afternoon, October 21st, at four o'clock. Father Joiner is one of the delegates from the Diocese to the Synod and is a member of the committee for the annual meeting this year.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS have been undertaken in the property this summer, and are yet to be completed. The upper sacristy has been entirely renovated, and a new case for the copes is being built in the old cope rooms. The cupboards have been removed from the rear of the corridor—one placed in the basement and the other in the cope room. New screening has been put on the windows and kneeling cushions have been hung in all the pews in the church. Several new memorials are under consideration, and if any one else has a gift for the church in mind, it will help the Vestry very much to know about it now, so that more comprehensive plans for the further enrichment of the nave may be developed before next summer.

THE RECTOR has honored Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff by asking him to be Rector's Warden, in the place of Mr. Casey, who died during the summer. Mr. Woodruff has been pleased to accept the office.

SINCE THE LAST ISSUE of the Parish Weekly the following members of our Parish and Congregation have died. Of your charity please pray for the repose of their souls.

Parish Notes

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY, for several years, has made contributions of fancy articles for the Christmas Bazaar given by our Church's Mission in Mena, Arkansas. If any members of the congregation have suitable things for this Fair, or wish to make any contribution, they may be sent to Mrs. E. R. De Longy, Mena, Arkansas.

THE HUMERAL VEIL is a long narrow piece of silk, usually of the same color and material as the sacred vestments of the ministers at the altar, with which the sub-deacon during Mass covers his hands while bearing the Pater, to indicate reverence for the hallowed vessels of the Sanctuary, a custom borrowed from the ancient Jewish Ritual as directed in Numbers iv: 7. When the veil does not exactly match the vestments it is of a gold color, and such a veil has just been given to the Church and is being used properly this morning. A similar veil is also used during the Rite of Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament, to enfold the hands of the Officiant before he takes the Monstrance into his hands when blessing the faithful.

Parish Notes

THE SYNOD OF THE THIRD PROVINCE OF THE CHURCH, called the Province of Washington, will meet in the annual sessions in Philadelphia during the coming week. The business meetings, and the general Mass Meetings will be in the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Women's organizations will have their headquarters and their meetings at S. James's Church. There will be a Dinner, followed by Missionary speeches, Tuesday evening in the Ball Room of the Penn Athletic Club. The tickets are $2.00 and both dinner and meeting are open to Churchmen as well as to the Delegates. The Synod comprises the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia and West Virginia. The President of our Synod was the late Bishop of Harrisburg.

THE RECTOR will be absent from the Parish from next Sunday afternoon until the following Friday evening, while attending the Fifth Catholic Congress in Buffalo. The Rector is reading a paper Wednesday afternoon on the subject, "The Eucharist and the Body of Christ." The Railroads are offering special rates, which include a visit to Niagara Falls, and reasonable Hotel rates may be secured through the Congress committee. If you are thinking about going to the Congress, the Clergy will gladly help you with your arrangements.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS was given anonymously about a year ago, and marked "For Vestments." This summer the orphreys from one of the worn sets of white vestments, and the red velvet orphreys from an old white cope, said to be the first cope worn in an Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, were sent to England and made up with new materials. These new vestments have been paid for with this anonymous offering, and are now in use.

PLANS FOR A CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, to be held in the Parish House during the second week in December, are beginning to take shape. It will extend over two days, with supper and dancing both evenings. There will be cards and calendars, rag rugs, candy, flowers, and other articles suitable for gifts for sale. The entire proceeds will be given to Missions, and will apply on the Parish Quota.

NEW TRACTS are appearing in the Tract Cases every week. There are some very interesting subjects amongst them, and they are commended to your attention.

PLEASE DO NOT FORGET THE POOR and the unemployed. The needy of your own flesh and blood have the first claim, and then those of your Parish. We have many worthy calls. We want to take care of our own people. Will you help, as much as you can? Especially do we need clothing for men and boys.

MR. HERBERT M. MORRIS of Riverton, New Jersey, was elected by the Vestry to complete the unexpired term of the late Mr. Edward A. Casey. We are very happy to welcome Mr. Morris to the Vestry. He and his family have long been interested and faithful members of the Parish.

Parish Notes

THE NAMES OF DEPARTED SOULS, for remembrance on All Souls' Day, should be sent to the Rector this week. Please do not wait until next Sunday. All departed members of the Parish are already on our permanent lists, and these alone are read at the Solemn Mass.

TWO COMPLETE SETS OF COTTAS for the Choir have just arrived from England. They cost one hundred dollars. The Rector would be grateful for offerings towards this amount, so that we shall not have to draw on Parish funds.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. We want to have a Book Stall. Please look over your Novels, and send us any that you do not want. These will be resold for fifty cents. Any one will pay fifty cents for a good story. Then if you have any "White Elephants," send them, too. A "White Elephant" is anything for which you have no use. It may be a piece of bric-a-brac, a picture, a bit of china or glass. We want anything that is saleable. And remember the entire proceeds will be for Missions.

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS, the Fifth to be held in America, is meeting this week in Buffalo. The subject is, "The Church, the Body of Christ." The Rector is reading a paper Wednesday afternoon on "The Eucharist and the Body of Christ." Please remember the Congress in your prayers, and if possible, remember it at Mass every day. If you are not already a member, Mrs. Pendleton will enroll you for one dollar.

THE REVEREND FRANK HENRY ANDREW, who is a Deacon, and a Student at the Philadelphia Divinity School, is acting as Choir Pastor this winter, and will be Deacon at the Solemn Mass on Sundays. He helped us a great deal last winter, and we are very happy now to have him more officially attached to our life and work.

THE PREACHER NEXT SUNDAY MORNING will be The Very Reverend Archdeacon Austin Oakley, of the Diocese of British Honduras. We all remember with much affection the Lord Bishop of this Missionary District in the West Indian Church, Bishop Arthur Dunn, who has visited us on several occasions. The center of the Archdeacon's work is in Costa Rica. It is hoped that he will be the Speaker at the Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary next week, and that he will return later in November (Monday evening, the 17th) for a missionary talk in the Parish House.

AN EVENING MISSIONARY MEETING, in the Parish House, on the Third Monday in the month, is being planned for the winter. There will be some music, a missionary address, and a little social time afterwards. Please save these evenings.

THE PARISH GUILDS and SODALITIES will reassemble for the winter's work next week. S. Mary's Guild will meet on Monday, and the Mothers' Meeting on Thursday. The Women's Auxiliary will begin the winter's work on the first Wednesday, and, as usual, the Masses on the following Friday will be offered especially for the Missionary Work of the Church.

THE COLLECT FOR THE FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING is as follows: Almighty and everlasting God, who in thy well-beloved Son, the King of all, hast been pleased to make all things new: mercifully grant that all the kindreds of the earth being delivered from the wounds of their sins, may be made subject to his most gracious governance. Through the same.....

The Epistle begins with Colossians 1: 12. The Holy Gospel begins with S. John 18: 33.

FATHER SAUNDERS has taken up his duties as Latin Master in the Somerset Hills School for Boys at Far Hill, New Jersey.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER THIS MORNING is the Very Reverend Archdeacon Austin Oakley, from the Diocese of British Honduras in the West Indian Church. The Lord Bishop of this Diocese, Bishop Arthur Dunn, has been a frequent visitor to S. Clement's, and so we welcome most warmly the Bishop's co-worker. Archdeacon Oakley will be in Philadelphia for a large part of November, and returns to speak to us later more in detail about his work in Costa Rica.

VESPERS OF THE DEAD will be said in S. John's Chapel this evening, immediately after Solemn Vespers in the Church.

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF ALL SOULS, when in the midst of the Feast of All Saints we commemorate all the Faithful Departed. There will be a High Mass at 11, followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque.

S. MARY'S GUILD, The Women's Auxiliary and The Mothers' Meeting all resume their regular meetings this week. Archdeacon Oakley will speak to the Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR for Missions is now set for December 10th and 11th. It will be held in the Parish House. There will be supper both evenings. There will be dancing in the gymnasium. There will be all sorts of useful and ornamental things for sale, that will be suitable for Christmas presents. There will be an abundance of Christmas cards. Contributions in the way of saleable articles as well as of money will be welcome. We want to cover the few necessary expenses with gifts, so that the entire receipts may be given to Missions.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept as usual on the First Friday evening in the month. This is an hour spent in prayer and meditation before our Lord's Sacramental Presence. Is our Lord not saying to you, "Can ye not watch with Me one hour?" One hour a month in His Presence! You cannot possibly give Him this hour without receiving some great blessing. "Come unto Me.....and I will give you....."

THE FIFTH CATHOLIC CONGRESS IN BUFFALO last week was most richly blessed. Certainly all who attended came away with a new sense of the power of the Catholic Faith. The Worship of the Congress was most devout and moving. The Sermons were most helpful and inspiring. The papers were most instructive and valuable. The social contacts were most congenial and delightful. The Congresses are not only measures of the strength of the Catholic Movement in the Episcopal Church, but they are also occasions for generating power and stimulating enthusiasm for the Movement's further work and endeavor. If you are not already a member, join!

BEGINNING NEXT FRIDAY EVENING, the Rector will give a course of lectures on Christian Doctrine in S. John's Chapel, at eight o'clock, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. These lectures will serve as a basis of instruction for any who may be looking forward to Confirmation. They will be continued on each Friday evening, except the first Friday evening in the month, when the Holy Hour is kept.

NEW TRACTS are still appearing in the Tract Cases. Have you the Sunday Habit of looking over the Tracts and buying a few? It is a mighty good habit. Cultivate it!

Parish Notes

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. Please help us in every way to make this venture a success. The entire proceeds will be given to Missions. Send us, at once, any articles that we may place on sale. Save some of your Christmas shopping for this occasion. Tell your friends about it. Talk it up. The dates are December 10th and 11th.

WITH SO MUCH POVERTY AND HARSHIP prevailing in our city, we are finding it very difficult to provide for many needy members of the parish. We are especially in need of warm clothing for men and boys.

TWO WEEKS FROM TODAY will be S. Clement's Day. The Mass for the Feast Day will be Gounod's "Mass of the Sacred Heart," and the Preacher will be Father Joseph of the Order of S. Francis. On the following Sunday, the Octave Day, and Advent Sunday, Fr. Hughson of the Order of the Holy Cross, will preach at the Solemn Mass, and the music will be from Mozart's Seventh Mass.

PAPER BOUND BOOKS, containing all the addresses made at the Catholic Congress in Buffalo, will soon be put on sale at $1 apiece. As soon as they arrive, they may be had from Mrs. Pendleton. We also want more memberships in the Congress. Each membership means personal interest and enthusiasm and prayers. The next Congress will very likely be in Philadelphia, so we must begin now to prepare for it. We may not be able to give large sums for its support, but we can support it by many more individual memberships.

MANY MEMBERS OF THE PARISH find it increasingly difficult to get here for the early Masses during the week, and for their Communion. We are very glad to commend such people to other parishes which are more convenient for them. The daily Mass may now be found at S. Elizabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, where Fr. Smith is in charge, and at S. John Chrysostom's, 28th and Suequehanna Avenue, where Fr. Pierce has just begun his rectorship. It would be a great help to the Rector to know where you are making your Communion, if you are not able to come to the Parish Church.

REQUIEM MASSES will be said at all unhindered times during this month. With the Octave of All Saints and our Patronal Festival, there are not many free days left. When the dignity of a feast is that of a semi-souble, the Mass at 8 and 9.30 will be a Requiem.

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION on the Death of Mr. Casey was adopted at the last meeting of the Vestry, and a copy of it has already appeared in the pages of The Living Church. "Edward Augustus Casey was elected a member of the Vestry of S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, on January 12th, 1909, and was appointed Rector's Warden on April 23rd, 1923, serving in both capacities until his death on August 8th, 1930. He was a devoted Churchman, a loyal Catholic. A man of the highest personal probity, he was one who aided by his support and advice the work of the parish and advanced its various interests. His sweetness and persuasiveness were in the highest degree helpful. Not the least of Mr. Casey's contributions to the parish and to the Catholic cause was his splendid wife, who has since followed him in death, four sterling sons and a daughter, all devoted to the principles for which the parish of S. Clement's has stood for the past half century. It is difficult to write with moderation of the loss the parish and his colleagues on the Vestry have sustained in his death. Passing in the fullness of years, with a life of usefulness combined, he leaves a memory which will become one of the cherished possessions of the Parish. Requiescat in pace."

ARCHDEACON OAKLEY will return to us for a Missionary Address on Monday evening, November 17th. There will be music, and a social hour following. Please reserve this evening on your calendar.

TODAY IS RED CROSS SUNDAY. Please renew your subscription with Mrs. Mowry, the Parish Treasurer, who will be found in the Cope Room both before and after the Solemn Mass and Solemn Vespers.

Intercessions will continue from the last Mass until eight in the evening. Please sign your initials on the chart on the Bulletin Board, for the times that you can give for prayer in the Chapel on Friday.

TOMORROW EVENING we will have our first evening Missionary Meeting. So many people have asked for such a meeting, that it will be a great disappointment if there is not a good attendance. The Ven. Arch-deacon Austin Oakley of Costa Rica will tell us of his former Missionary Work in Zululand, South Africa. There will be some music before the address, and a little social hour afterwards. There will be a silver offering at the door.

CHRISTMAS CARDS have made their appearance, and are on sale in the Cope Room.

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS can claim 116 members in S. Clement's Church. We should have another hundred. The annual membership fee is $1.

A GROUP OF YOUNG PEOPLE, some of whom are members of our Congregation, are giving two plays in the Parish Hall of S. Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, on the evenings of December 2nd and 3rd. The proceeds of the first evening will be given to Fr. Smith, for his new work in South Philadelphia, and the proceeds of the second evening will be for S. Clement's Choir Outing Fund. Your subscriptions are solicited.

"THE BODY OF CHRIST," the subject of the recent Catholic Congress in Buffalo, is also the title of the book recently published, containing all of the addresses at the Congress. Copies may be secured through Mrs. Pendleton.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, the entire proceeds of which will be given to Missions, to apply on the Parish apportionment, will be held in the Parish House, Wednesday and Thursday, December 10th and 11th. Useful and fancy articles are asked for, as well as "White Elephants," and novels that are in good condition. Anything that you have to contribute to the Bazaar may be left at any time at the Clergy House. Please reserve these days, and also some of your Christmas shopping, for the Bazaar. Supper and dancing both evenings.

NEXT SUNDAY is the Patronal Festival of the Parish, the Feast of S. Clement, P. M. There will be a Corporate Communion of the Congregation at the early Masses. Gounod's Mass of the Sacred Heart will be sung at 11. There will be special preachers morning and evening. There are special hours for Confessions before the Feast. The offerings are for the current expenses of the Parish.

ADVENT SUNDAY is also the Octave Day of our Festival. Fr. Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will preach at the Solemn Mass, and in the evening, at the Annual Procession of Guilds, the Rev'd Thomas Burgess, Rector of All Hallows' Church, Wyncote, will be the preacher.

THANKSGIVING DAY offerings are for the Episcopal Hospital.

A NOVENA is being kept this week for God's blessing on the parish and for our Patronal Festival.

Parish Notes

MOZART'S SEVENTH MASS in B Flat will be sung next Sunday morning at 11. Fr. Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will be the preacher. There will be the Annual Procession of Guilds after Vespers in the evening at 8, when Fr. Burgess, Rector of All Hallows' Church, Wyncote, will preach the sermon.

THE PARISH TEA and RECEPTION will be held in the Parish House Tuesday evening, from 8 until 10. All members of the Congregation are most cordially invited. There will be music and refreshments.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY there will be a Solemn Mass in the Church at 11. The collection will be given to the Episcopal Hospital.

THE OFFERINGS THROUGHOUT THE FESTIVAL will be devoted to the current expenses of the Parish. Your generous contributions are solicited.

LECTURES ON CHURCH DOCTRINE are being given by the Rector in S. John's Chapel every Friday evening at 8. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament follows. Every one is invited.

CHRISTMAS CARDS, Copies of the Catholic Congress Book, The American Church Monthly and The Witness are for sale in The Cope Room. Have you enrolled in The Red Cross for 1931?

7. Sun. SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT. Low Mass and Holy Communion at 7 and 8. Matins at 7.30. High Mass, with Children's Hymn, and Holy Communion, at 9.15. Children's Catechism, and the Sister's Bible Class for Women, at 10. Solemn Mass and Sermon (The Rector) at 11. Solemn Vespers (I Vespers, Conception, B. V. M.) and Sermon (Fr. Bulkeley) at 8.

Parish Notes

THE SERVICE THIS EVENING concludes the Patronal Festival for 1930. There will be the Annual Procession of Guilds and a Solemn Te Deum after the Sermon.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet tomorrow evening. The Office and Address are open to any who may care to come, in S. John's Chapel.

DR. JOHN WIGHT CHAPMAN, who has been a Missionary Priest in Anvik, Alaska, since 1887, will address the Women's Auxiliary Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Dr. Chapman and his work have an international reputation, and it is a rare privilege to have him at S. Clement's. It is earnestly hoped that every woman in the congregation who can possibly attend will be at the meeting this week.

THE MASSES ON FRIDAY will be offered with the special intention for the Missionary work of the Church, and especially for the Women's Auxiliary.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. When news of the Bazaar first appeared in the Weekly Bulletin, it seemed a long ways off! But it is next week! Wednesday and Thursday evenings, in the Parish House. Supper each evening, from six to eight. Dancing in the evening. Ice cream and cake. Fancy things for Christmas presents. Hand-made rag rugs. Christmas cards.

HAVE YOU SENT the Novels you no longer want to the Rectory for the Christmas Bazaar? Have you any "white elephants" that may be saleable? If so, send them.

THE LECTURES ON CHURCH DOCTRINE which the Rector is giving Friday evenings will be interrupted this week by the Holy Hour. There were well over a hundred people here last Friday. "The Apostles' Creed" is the next subject.

A TRIDUUM FOR MISSIONS is a three days' prayer for Missions. We will be beginning such a Triduum tomorrow, the Feast of S. Andrew, and end it on the Feast of S. Francis Xavier. The following prayer should be said each day, with the Our Father and Hail Mary:

Antiphon: Enlarge the place of thy tent: and let them stretch forth the curtains of Thy habitations.

Versicle: Spare not, lengthen thy cords.

Response: And strengthen thy stakes.

Prayer: O God, the Father of all the families of the earth; Bless we pray Thee, our efforts to bring the message of Thy Love to our brethren, and to build them up in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE TOWN CRIERS give their entertainment this week in the Parish Hall of S. Elizabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets—Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at 8.15.

THE MEN AND BOYS OF THE PARISH are making a Corporate Communion this morning, in union with the general Communion made on Advent Sunday by the members of S. Andrew's Brotherhood.

Parish Notes

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR was a grand success. Ideas are already whirling around in our minds for a bigger and better bazaar next year. It is a bit too early to give the exact sum realized for Missions, but it will be in the neighborhood of $400. The social side of such an affair is the most important, especially in a parish where all of the worshippers come from such great distances. It gives an opportunity for the new-comers to meet the old-timers, and vice versa, for after all a parish is a sort of family, and the members must know each other. The workers were enthusiastic and untiring. The whole affair was a real delight, and a real benefit to the parish life.

DEACONESS SHAW, who has just returned this week from her work in the Philippine Islands, will be the speaker at the monthly evening Missionary meeting next Monday evening. The Deaconess's address will begin at 8.15, and there will be a social hour, with refreshments, immediately after. The offering, at the door, will be for Missions.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY of this week are the Advent Ember Days. They are days of prayer and fasting for all those in Holy Orders and for those preparing for Ordination at this time. The word "Ember" is a corruption of a Latin word meaning quarterly. The Ember days occur four times a year.

THE REVEREND FRANK HENRY ANDREW, Deacon, who has been assisting in the Parish work for the past year, will be ordained to the Priesthood next Saturday morning, in S. Stephen's Church, at ten o'clock. Mr. Andrew has been in the Episcopal Hospital for a couple of weeks, and may not be able to leave until the eve of his ordination, so the occasion of his First Mass has not as yet been arranged.

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY for the Christmas baskets. It has been a custom in the parish for many years to give these baskets to our own needy people. This year we are hoping to be able to extend this work a little bit, and give to perhaps a half dozen families who are not members of the parish, but who are known through investigation to be worthy. The City Committees for the Relief of the Needy tell us that by taking care of these investigated cases we are doing a better work than having a bread and soup line at the Parish House doors. Ten families have been provided with coal this month. Have you sent a contribution for this "your" work?

THE GREAT O'S, the ancient antiphons used with the Magnificat, immediately before Christmas, begin Tuesday evening. Each of these antiphons begins with "O", and points to the Incarnation, for which great Feast we are preparing.

KALENDARS, with pictures of the Church, are for sale in the Cope Room at seventy-five cents apiece. We will be glad to mail these to any who inquire for them at one dollar each. The pictures are actual photographs. There are four subjects. The Exterior of the Church. The High Altar. The Lady Chapel. S. John's Chapel. There are also small wooden figures, coloured, of S. Clement, for one dollar. You will also find a good assortment of Christmas cards. These sales are a continuation of the Bazaar.

Parish Notes

CHRISTMAS CONFESSIONS will be heard at the usual hours in the Church on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Rector will be in the Church Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, Tuesday afternoon, and Wednesday evening. The other appointments are as usual.

CHRISTMAS EVE, at 9, there will be the usual service of Christmas Carols, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the procession to the Creche. This Christmas Eve service is one of the loveliest extra-liturgical services we have. It is quite peculiar to ourselves. Many people outside our own Parish make a great point to spend Christmas Eve here at S. Clement's. We should make some extra devotional preparation for our Christmas Communion. Make your Confession, and then stay for the Carols and Benediction! Then your Christmas will be merry, and your New Year a happy one.

THERE WILL BE AN EXTRA Low Mass on Christmas Day at 6. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, with a Sermon. The Mass will be Mozart's Seventh. The Solemn Procession, with the Carols, will be on the Sunday in the Octave, which this year is the Feast of the Holy Innocents as well. Carols will be sung at the 8 o'clock Low Mass.

ON THE TWO DAYS FOLLOWING CHRISTMAS there will be Solemn Masses at 11.

FRIDAY EVENING, the subject of the Rector's Lecture on Church Doctrine will be "The Incarnation." These lectures are followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY for the children and their parents will be given in the Parish House Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5. There will be a tree, presents, and ice cream for all.

S. CLEMENT'S CALENDARS, Little Statues of S. Clement, and Christmas Cards are still for sale in the Cope Room. There are always some last-minute presents to buy; can you not use a Calendar?

FATHER SAUNDERS, who is now one of the Masters at the Somerset Hills School, is spending a part of his Christmas holidays with us, and helping with the extra Masses.

FATHER ANDREW, who was ordained to the Priesthood yesterday in S. Stephen's Church, will be saying His First Mass at the High Altar on Christmas Day at 9.30, and will give his Blessing to those who come to the Altar Rails immediately after the Last Gospel.

THE CHRISTMAS BASKETS will be packed Wednesday morning in the Parish House, and will be called for and delivered early in the afternoon. We are always very proud of these baskets, and will be very glad to have any of our friends come to the Parish House late Wednesday morning and inspect them.

THE EDITOR wishes you all a very Merry Christmas!

SEQUENCE HYMN—“First of Martyrs, Thou Whose Name”

Hymn No. 65

CREDO.....Missa de Angelis

OFFERTORY—The Apostles chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost: whom the Jews stoned, calling upon God, and saying; Lord Jesus receive my spirit.

CAROL—“Good King Wenceslas”

Good King Wenceslas look’d out

On the Feast of Stephen,

When the snow lay round about,

Deep and crisp, and even:

Brightly shone the moon that night,

Though the frost was cruel,

When a poor man came in sight,

Gath’ring winter fuel.

“Hither page, and stand by me,

If thou know’st it, telling,

Yonder peasant, who is he?

Where and what his dwelling?”

“Sire, he lives a good league hence,

Underneath the mountain;

Right against the forest fence

By Saint Agnes fountain.”

“Bring me flesh, and bring me wine;

Bring me pine-logs hither;

Thou and I will see him dine,

When we bear them thither.”

Page and monarch forth they went,

Forth they went together;

Through the rude wind’s wild lament;

And the bitter weather.

“Sire, the night is darker now,

And the wind blows stronger;

Fails my heart, I know not how,

I can go no longer.”

“Mark my footsteps, my good page,

Tread thou in them boldly;

Thou shalt find the winter’s rage

Freeze thy blood less coldly.”

In his master’s steps he trod,

Where the snow lay dinted;

Heat was in the very sod

Which the saint had printed.

Therefore, Christian men, be sure,

Wealth or rank possessing,

Ye who now will bless the poor,

Shall yourselves find blessing.

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI.....Missa de Angelis

COMMUNIO—Lo, I see the heavens opened, and Jesus standing on the right hand of the power of God: O Lord Jesus, receive my spirit, and lay not this sin to their charge, for they know not what they do.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

CHURCH DOCTRINE LECTURE: “THE INCARNATION”

BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Parish Notes

THE RECTOR, Fr. Bulkeley, Fr. Edwards and Fr. Underhill, wish to thank their many friends who sent them Christmas Greetings. After the Solemn Mass on Christmas Day, the Priests all scattered, to spend the balance of the day with their families.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for the new year are in the Cope Room, and may be had from Mr. Atkinson after the Mass. New subscribers are needed, and may secure the envelopes either today or next Sunday, from Mr. Atkinson.

THE PARISH IS SUPPORTED by Endowments, Pew Rents, Duplex Envelopes, and the loose collections. The endowments are largely allocated, and can therefore be used only for specific purposes. There are but few pews rented now, so this income is small. The Duplex Envelopes have been well paid up during the past year, unusually so. Some people have died and others have removed from the Parish. We want new subscribers, so as to keep this income up to par. The loose offerings have fallen off considerably this past year. This must be due to the general financial depression, for the congregations are good. Your more generous support is most earnestly solicited.

ON NEW YEAR'S EVE there will be a short meditation at 8, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS at eleven on New Year's Day, the Feast of the Circumcision of our Lord.

THE EDITOR wishes all the readers of this page a very happy New Year.

CHILDING OF THE MAIDEN BRIGHT

Childing of a maiden bright
Life today hath brought to light;
And hath put that prince of might
With his flock of fiends to flight;

CHRISTUS NATUS HODIE.

Whoso aught hath done amiss
An it rue him sore for this,
Mary's Babe will thrive i-wis.
Gentle as a Lamb He is.

MISERERE, DOMINE.

He at Bethlehem was born,
Salem gave Him crown of thorn,
Life of want and death of scorn—
All for love of man forlorn.

ERGO BENEDICITE.

On this Infant may we call,
Born for man in oxen-stall;
He vouchsafe us bliss withal
In His everlasting Hall.

CUM MARIA VIRGINE.

Parish Notes

THE COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY is the annual offering for the Poor Fund. We are confronted on all sides by appeals for help. We try to help all who have any claim on us. Many of our own faithful people are in very sad straits. Please help us to help them.

THERE WILL BE A SERMON after the Solemn Mass on the Feast of the Epiphany. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, the Co-Rector at S. James's Church, will be the preacher. The Philadelphia Catholic Club will be meeting with the Parish Clergy that day and the Bishops of the Diocese will be their guests at luncheon in the Rectory.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY meets on Wednesday afternoon of this week. All women of the Church are members of the Auxiliary. The speaker this week will be the Reverend Robert I. Johnson, of New Bern, North Carolina. He will present the Church's work among the coloured peoples in the South. The address will be followed by the annual election of officers.

THE LOW MASSES ON FRIDAY will be offered for the Women's Auxiliary, and the Missionary work of the Church. The members of the Auxiliary are urged to make their Communion on Friday with this intention.

THE BISHOP will visit S. Clement's for the Sacrament of Confirmation on Friday evening, February 20th. The Rector's course of lectures on the Doctrine of the Church, which are being given Friday evenings in the Chapel, may be taken for instruction by those looking forward to this Sacrament. If any one is thinking of being Confirmed, will they please speak to one of the Priests or to one of the Sisters.

POOR FUND COLLECTION next Sunday. Please be generous. "He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord: and look, what he layeth out, it shall be paid him again."

THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN reports that the treasurer's books will be closed again without a deficit. This does not mean that we are affluent; far from it; it means that we are very careful, and spend only as we see we have the money with which to pay our bills. The continuance of your generous offerings is the only way by which the present running expenses of the parish can be maintained.

THE EPIPHANY CAROLS will be sung in Procession before the Solemn Mass next Sunday.

THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS and VESTRYMEN are giving a dinner in the Parish House, Thursday evening, January 15th, in honour of the Men's Choir and the men of S. Clement's Choir. Invitations have been issued to the men of the Parish, and Bishop Taitt has accepted our invitation to be the speaker of the evening.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet tomorrow evening. Vespers of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be sung at 8. The Rector will make a short address. After the Chapel service, there will be a Christmas Party for the Guild in the Parish House.

Parish Notes

DURING THE PAST YEAR there were 12,016 Communion made at our Altars. There were 1,339 Masses, and there were 210 Communion given from the Tabernacle to the sick. The Rector knows of no Church in America where this record can be equalled.

ON THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY the Catholic Club had luncheon with the Parish Clergy in the Rectory. Bishop Garland, Bishop Taitt and Bishop Booth of Vermont, were also present, and spoke informally after the luncheon. Bishop Garland spoke most delightfully of his recent visit to the Holy Land and of his experiences at the Sacred Shrines. The Club gave the Bishop $25 for the Russian Orthodox Sisters and their Convent in Jerusalem.

THE CLOTH OF GOLD Solemn Mass Vestments worn on the Feast of the Circumcision, the Second Sunday after Christmas and the Feast of the Epiphany, are the gift of Mrs. Eugene Forrester Caldwell. These vestments will be worn on "White" Feasts when there is no Procession before the Mass.

THE ANNUAL OFFERING FOR THE PARISH POOR FUND is being received at the Solemn Mass this morning. All offerings, outside of the Duplex Envelopes, will be included for this Fund. The need is very pressing this winter.

THURSDAY EVENING, in the Parish House, the Rector, Church-Wardens and Vestrymen are giving a dinner for the Men's Choir of Philadelphia and the Men of S. Clement's Choir. Bishop Taitt has accepted our invitation to be the after-dinner speaker. Cards have been mailed throughout the Parish, and the men invited are asked to respond promptly. The dinner will be prepared under the direction of Sister Katherine, and a number of the ladies will serve it.

MONDAY EVENING of next week, the 19th, is the regular evening for the monthly missionary meeting. Please reserve this night. There will be some music, and refreshment after the missionary address.

MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION are urged to subscribe to the support of the Parish through the Duplex Envelopes. In this way a regular sum is set apart for the Parish and for Missions each week. It enables you to be regular and systematic in your giving. It enables the Parish to know its income and budget its expenses more intelligently. While the idea of "rented pews" is not to be encouraged, yet we are able to arrange for individuals or families to rent seats or pews. Of the 650 seats in the Church, less than 65 are rented.

THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION will be administered by the Bishop of the Diocese in S. Clement's Church, Friday evening, February 20th. Please speak to the Clergy or the Sisters at once if you wish to be prepared for this Sacrament.

Parish Notes

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE, which we observe every year, begins today. It is hoped that every member of the congregation will have this great cause in their prayers during the week. Better still to assist to Mass every day, and make frequent Communion with this intention. This Octave was founded by one of the Priests of our Church, and many years later was observed by the Roman Catholics. During this week Anglicans and Romans are praying together for the Reunion of Christendom. We do not know how it will come. We do not know when it will come. We are just praying for God's will to be done. The prayer to be said every day is this:

ANTIPHON:—One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all; Who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
V. In that day there shall be one Lord;
R. And his Name one.

PRAYER:—O Lord, Jesus Christ, Who saidst unto thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: regard not our sins, but the Faith of thy Church, and grant her that peace and unity which is agreeable to thy will, Who livest and reignest for ever and ever. A-men.

THE MEN'S DINNER on Thursday evening was a great success. About eighty men were present, and the Bishop Coadjutor made a most delightful address. The dinner was prepared under the direction of the Sisters, and a number of the good women served it. It was a most delightful occasion.

TOMORROW EVENING is the time for the regular monthly evening missionary meeting. The speaker will be Miss Dean, who works amongst the Italians in our own Diocese. A male quartette will sing several numbers before the address, and there will be a social hour, with refreshments, afterwards. This is the third of the evening meetings this winter. The other two were very poorly attended. Unless there is a more enthusiastic response, they will be discontinued. Are men not interested in Missions?

THE RECTOR is preaching at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, Sunday morning, February 1st, when Fr. Mabry assumes the Rectorship. The Rector will be absent from his Confessional Saturday evening, January 31st.

THE VERSES IN THE PSALMS in the Prayer Book are marked near the center with a small star. This marks the breathing space, and there should be a decided pause at this point when the Psalms are being read publicly.

FATHER LONGRIDGE, S.S.J.E., died at Cowley, S. John, Oxford, December 29th. He was stationed here at S. Clement's from 1883 to 1892. From 1892 to 1899 he was the Provincial Superior of the Society in America, in residence at the Church of S. John the Evangelist in Boston. He was one of the editors of the two volumes of Fr. Benson's Letters, and he also translated and edited The Spiritual Exercises of S. Ignatius Loyola. On Thursday, January 29, a Month's Mind Solemn Requiem will be sung in S. Clement's Church at eleven o'clock, with Absolutions at the Catafalque.

FATHER WAGENSELLER is spending the week-end with us. He goes the first of February to try his vocation with the Cowley Fathers in Boston, where Fr. Ewing has already been clothed as a Postulant. Please give these Priests a place in your prayers.

DUPLEX ENVELOPES. There seem to be many people unwilling to make a pledge for the support of the Parish through these envelopes this year because of uncertain finances and the troubled business conditions. People are afraid to subscribe for fear they may not be able to keep their pledge. If you have such a feeling, will you not take a set of envelopes anyway, and use them as you are able? Put in each week what you can afford—what you have. Or use one envelope a month instead of one each week. This will mean systematic giving to the Church, and relieve you of any embarrassment in case you could not meet a pledge.

THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA will spend Sunday, February 8th, with us here at S. Clement's. He is preaching on Septuagesima Sunday at S. Mary's in New York. He will pontificate and preach at the Solemn Mass on Sexagesima, and it is hoped he will preach for us again in the evening at Solemn Vespers, when we will make the service a review of last year's Eucharistic Mission, and a time of reunion for those who made the Mission.

A SOLEMN REQUIEM (Month's Mind) will be sung on Thursday morning at eleven for Father Longridge, S.S.J.E., who died at Cowley on the 29th of December. Fr. Longridge was here with the Fathers from 1883 to 1892, and was a beloved figure in those famous days. Within the past two years Fr. Field and Fr. Convers, who were here at the same time, have died. There are not many people left who remember them. But we who have entered into their labours must not be unmindful of them before the Throne of God. The Mass on Thursday will be followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque.

THE CHURCH DOCTRINE LECTURES continue on Friday evenings. The subject this week will carry the Life of our Lord from the Resurrection to the Ascension, in preparation for the next Lecture on The Catholic Church.

THE RECTOR will be absent from the Parish over the next week-end, preaching at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, where Fr. Mabry is beginning his Rectorship. He will remain over in New York for the Solemn Mass for the Religious Orders at S. Mary's Church, on the Feast of the Purification.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3RD, is S. Blasius' Day. In anticipation of this Feast, throats will be blessed after the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning. Opportunity will be given after all the Masses and Offices on the Feast Day. There is a very good little tract in the Tract Case on this Saint and the ancient custom of blessing throats on this day.

THE OFFERINGS FOR MISSIONS are used by the Church for the maintenance of the missionary work already established and in progress. It is necessary from time to time, as the work grows, and new fields develop, to establish new mission stations, build new churches, and set up new schools. The ordinary missionary gifts are not sufficient for this advance work, so The General Convention asks the Parishes to give generously for this "Advance" once in three years. The Offering for "The Advance Work Program" will be taken in our Parishes on Quinquagesima Sunday, February 15th. Special Envelopes for this offering will be found in the Tract Cases in the Church Porch. All offerings intended for this purpose must be placed in the special envelopes.

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the repose of the souls of Ontamenia Kline Ruark and Julia Watts Hall Brock.

Parish Notes

THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA will spend next Sunday with us, and Pontificate and Preach at Solemn Mass and at Solemn Vespers. It will be a great joy to have him revisit the Parish, and a hearty welcome will await him. We hope the evening service will be a review of last year's Eucharistic Mission, and that his Lordship's visit may be an occasion of rededication on the part of all those who followed the Mission in Septuagesima-tide, 1930. Today is the first anniversary of the opening of the Mission.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY meets on Wednesday of this week at three. All women of the Church are members of the Auxiliary, and all women who are members of the Congregation will be welcome at the Parish Meetings on the First Wednesdays. The speaker this week will be the Reverend Claude L. Pickens of Hankok, China. The Auxiliary will make their Corporate Communion on Friday of this week. Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30.

THE TOWN CRIERS, a dramatic club to which a number of our young people belong, will repeat one of their recent plays in the Parish Hall at S. Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets, on Monday evening, February 9th. There will be no sale of tickets, but a silver offering will be taken, to be divided between the Club and S. Elisabeth's. As the result of one of their recent performances, $50 was given to Dr. Fry for the Choir Outing Fund. The Town Criers solicit your patronage.

S. MARY'S GUILD was founded on the Feast of the Purification, 1881, making tomorrow its Jubilee. The Office will be sung in the Church tomorrow evening at eight, followed by the Candlemas Procession and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. There will be a birthday cake, ice cream and coffee in the Parish House afterwards, to which all the members of the congregation are most warmly invited. This is a great occasion, and we want all our friends to join with us in our Jubilee.

THE RECTOR is preaching this morning at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, where Fr. Mabry assumes the Rectorship today, and he will also preach this afternoon at S. Paul's Candlemas Procession.

FR. KELLOGG and Fr. Saunders are guests in the Parish over the week-end.

RED CROSS CONTRIBUTIONS towards the great nation-wide drive now being made for the relief both of the unemployed and the drought sufferers in the West, may be given through the Parish. Such offerings, marked "Red Cross Drive," may be placed in the collection plates, and will be forwarded promptly by the Accounting Warden. Two weeks from today will be the time for special missionary offerings for the Advance Program of the Church. There will be special envelopes for this offering in the Tract Cases in the Church Porch.

THROATS WILL BE BLESSED after the Solemn Mass this morning, and also after all the Masses and Offices on Tuesday, the Feast of S. Blase. There is an interesting little tract in the Tract Case telling all about S. Blase and the ancient custom of blessing throats on his Feast day.

A VERY GENEROUS ANONYMOUS gift to Missions, made directly through the Church House, put us more than five hundred dollars "over the top" in our missionary gifts for 1930. We are most grateful for this gift, and glad to have exceeded what the Diocese expected from us, for it has been very difficult to meet the quota this past year. The Bishop has been able to meet all the Diocesan pledges, and he is very grateful to all who have helped him to do it.

Parish Notes

THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA'S visit is a great joy and happiness. Today is the first anniversary of the closing of The Eucharistic Mission which he gave for us. This evening he will preach to us about the Eucharist, and we will sing the Mission Hymn. He will want to speak to you all after Mass and Vespers. He and Mrs. Smith are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff.

THE REVEREND GILBERT SHAW, of England, who has been holding a conference at the College of Preachers in Washington on the conducting of Retreats and Quiet Days, will be in Philadelphia, addressing several groups, during this week, and will be a guest in the Rectory.

THE ANNUAL MISSIONARY MEETING of The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held tomorrow evening, February 9th, in S. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets. The Right Reverend Frank W. Creighton, Missionary Bishop of Mexico, and Secretary of the Department of Domestic Missions, will make the address.

ENVELOPES FOR OFFERINGS FOR THE ADVANCE PROGRAM of the Church's Missionary endeavor will be found in the Tract Cases. This offering is to be received in all of our Churches next Sunday. The Church must go forward with her work. Just now we are barely taking care of the existing work. Please help as you are able. There will be no personal solicitations.

THE MONTHLY EVENING MISSIONARY MEETING will be held February 16th in the Parish House at 8.15. We hope to have Mrs. W. H. Standring, from The Church Training School for Bible Women in Soochow, China, for the speaker of the evening. Where are the men at these evening meetings?

THE ANNUAL QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be given the first Saturday in Lent, February 21st, beginning with Vespers at 5 and closing with Compline at 9. The three addresses will be given by the Rev'd Dr. Leicester C. Lewis of the Episcopal Academy.

Mission Hymn

Low at Thy pierced Feet,
Saviour of all,
Helpless and sorrowful,
Prostrate I fall.
O cast me not away,
Forgive my sin this day,
Forgive my sin,
All, all my sin.

Sinful my life has been,
Unclean, unclean,
All my iniquity
Thine eye hath seen;
Cleanse Thou my soul today,
Wash all my sins away,
In Thine own Blood,
Thy precious Blood.

By all Thy grief and pain,
Forgive me now;
Before Thy Cross in shame
Lowly I bow.
Lord, let that blood of Thine
Wash now this soul of mine:
Wash Thou my soul,
My guilty soul.

Thou didst for me endure
Dread Calvary,
Sin's punishment and shame,
All, all for me.
On Thee my guilt was laid,
By Thee my debt was paid,
To set me free,
And keep me free.

Lord, I accept Thee now,
Accept Thou me;
I have delayed too long,
And grieved Thee.
By all Thy love to me,
I give myself to Thee;
Make me Thine own,
All, all Thine own.

Parish Notes

OFFERINGS TODAY, in Special Envelopes, for the Church's Advance Missionary Program. There will be no personal solicitations.

TOMORROW EVENING, Mrs. Standring of Soochow, China, will speak in the Parish House at 8.15, followed by a social hour and refreshments.

ASH WEDNESDAY Masses and other Services have been arranged with the hope that many people may spend the day in Church, keeping a Day of Quiet and Recollection. Necessary food may be had in the Tea Room at Crozier Hall in Cherry Street, opposite the Church.

THE MEN'S QUIET EVENING, in preparation for Lent, will be held Saturday evening of this week. If you wish to attend, speak to one of the Priests. The conductor will be the Rev'd Dr. Leicester C. Lewis.

BISHOP GARLAND comes to us Friday evening at eight for Confirmation. It is hoped that a large congregation will welcome the Bishop of the Diocese and pray for God's blessing on the large class to be Confirmed.

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the repose of the soul of Mary Alice Carlisle.

Parish Notes

NEW VESTMENTS. Two sets of new violet vestments have just been given to us. One for Low Mass of a light violet colour, with orphreys of gold and violet brocatelle. The other set is for the Solemn Mass, and is made of violet velvet, a deep rich shade, which lights up well, and shows the penitential colour. This set is made with the Folded Chasubles instead of the Dalmatic and Tunicle. This custom was observed at S. Clement's until very recently, when a violet set was made with Dalmatic and Tunicle. The Folded Chasubles are very ancient, perhaps more so than the Dalmatic and Tunicle. They are worn only in Advent and Lent, and on a few Vigils, when the strict penitential order is observed. We are very grateful for these additions to our Sacristy.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS are now due. Notices have been sent by the Secretary in New Haven to all the 1930 subscribers. Mrs. Pendleton is the Parish Secretary, and will be very glad to receive your dues and forward them to Fr. Kennedy. We are very anxious for new members. Every member of S. Clement's Church should be a member of the Catholic Congress. The annual membership fee is $1.

AN INCREASING NUMBER OF COMMUNICANTS are receiving the Blessed Sacrament directly on the tongue, rather than in the hands. A few simple directions are here given for their guidance. Hold your head straight up; keep your eyes closed; your mouth well open, and your tongue out, resting on the under lip. Then with great reverence receive the Sacred Host. In going to the Altar-rails, and returning to your place, keep your hands joined, your eyes cast down, and your thoughts on Jesus Christ.

SERMON SUBJECTS (The Rector) for Lent are as follows: SUNDAY MORNINGS:—1. I believe in the Holy Ghost. 2. I believe in the Holy Catholic Church. 3. I believe in the Communion of Saints. 4. I believe in the Forgiveness of Sins. 5. I believe in the Life Everlasting. TUESDAY AFTERNOONS:—The Mass Propers for the Following Sunday. FRIDAY EVENINGS:—The Sacraments.

LENTEN TRACTS, in a wide variety and assortment, may be found in the Tract Cases. The prices are marked on the outside of the pocket in which the Tracts are placed. "The Witness," at five cents the copy, will be found in the shelves below the Tracts. All need to be better informed about the Faith of the Church and the Work of the Church.

PREPARATIONS are already under way for the Annual Quiet Day for Women on Mid-Lent Sunday. The Day begins with Mass and Holy Communion at 8, and closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4. The Addresses, given this year by the Rector, will be at 10, 2 and 3.30. Cards will be sent to all the names on our lists, but the Quiet Day is open to any who care to come, and notify the Sister at 110 North Woodstock Street.

AT THE MONTHLY EVENING MISSIONARY MEETING last Monday, Fr. Deaver spoke about the new mission for coloured people in North Philadelphia, instead of Mrs. Standring of Soochow, China, who was unavoidably detained. The offering for Missions amounted to $13.60.

BISHOP GARLAND, our Diocesan, visited the Parish last Friday evening, and gave the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of twenty-five. Please pray for the newly Confirmed, and for their First Communion on Mid-Lent Sunday.

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Berceuse.....Albeniz-Lanquetuit
 PROCESSIONAL Improvised
 HYMN—"Once More the Solemn Season Calls".....No. 84
 INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.
Psalm—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
 KYRIE—(In E flat).....S. Tudor Strang
 (Collect, Epistle and Gospel on page 125 in the Prayer Book)
 GRADUAL—He shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.
 TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noise-some pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Parish Notes

S. MARY'S GUILD MEETS ON THE FIRST MONDAY in every month. It is a devotional Guild for women, who keep a very simple rule of life. All women and young girls in the Congregation are eligible for membership. If you are interested, speak to one of the Sisters.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet on Wednesday afternoon at three. The speaker this month will be the Rev'd Albert W. Eastburn of S. Barnabas' Church in Kensington, who will tell about the Church's work among the unemployed in that section of our city.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES for 1931 are being given on the Wednesday afternoons of Lent in Holy Trinity Church. They are being given by the Dean of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge. The subject is, "Men of Conviction." March 4th, Hildebrand. March 11th, S. Francis of Assisi. March 18th, S. Ignatius Loyola. March 25th, Pius IX. These lectures are open to the general public.

THE REV'D BERNARD IDDINGS BELL, D.D., Warden of S. Stephen's College, is the Preacher Thursday evening at eight in the Church of S. Luke and the Epiphany.

AN OLD S. CLEMENT'S YEAR BOOK for 1884 has just fallen into our hands. It is full of interesting information. For the year ending Easter, 1883, there were 8,013 Communion in the Church. For the year ending Easter, 1884, there were 9,792 Communion. During the year 1930 there were 12,016 Communion.

THE LENTEN RULE

THE Lenten Rule should be made before Lent. It should not be simply a list of things to be given up. It should consist chiefly of things to be done. We should give up certain practices in order that we may pray more, read more, give more, serve God and our fellows better. Our Rule should contain resolutions covering at least these four points: reading, prayer, silence, abstinence.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

THE purpose of fasting is well set forth in the Collect, in which we pray for grace to "use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness, to thy honour and glory." It is by fasting that we learn self-control, and unless we fast we cannot keep Lent properly.

To fast is to abstain from food, and such abstinence in some form or other is possible for every one of us. The work that most people have to do at the present day makes it quite impossible for them to fast every day in Lent until evening, or even to take one meal a day, as the early Christians did. It must be remembered that this is still the strict rule of the Church, except for such as are dispensed. People have to work harder than in olden days, and in general they eat much less, although more frequently. The Church in her Prayer Book tells us to fast, but she does not lay down any definite rules as to the precise form the fast should take, and is content to leave the details to the conscience of each individual, subject to the general Church law, and to the customary dispensations given by Diocesan Bishops. The following suggestions may help you in making your rule: (a) Abstain from eating meat on Wednesdays and Fridays. (b) Abstain from luxuries. (c) Eat less than at ordinary times.—Cowley Messenger.

BISHOP GARLAND

We were all deeply shocked and grieved to hear of the sudden death of our Diocesan last Sunday morning. His critical condition was not known outside of the Episcopal household. His death removes a great leader from the Diocese and the National Church, and a Friend such as we are scarcely like to meet again.

I did not vote for Bishop Garland when he was so overwhelmingly chosen to be Diocesan, but I rejoiced greatly in his election. I felt it my duty to support the Catholic candidate. The Bishop was a man of conviction, and he respected convictions in others; he might not agree with them, but he respected them: that was why he was so very fair and just in all his dealings, and why it was so easy for his Clergy to go to him with their problems.

Bishop Garland felt his responsibility as Bishop of all the people in the Diocese, all schools of thought and Churchmanship. He, seemed to go out of his way at times to be gracious to the Catholics, although he was not one of us. He lunched in the Rectory in January with the members of the Catholic Club; we always felt at home with him. As one saw more of the Bishop and felt the naturalness and simplicity of his spiritual life, respect and admiration grew into love. We have indeed lost a dear friend.

It is characteristic of our age, and especially of Philadelphia, to belittle her leaders. In ten years, every one will look back upon Bishop Garland as one of the really great Bishops of the Church.

May he rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon him.
F. J.

Parish Notes

THE DEMAND FOR CAST-OFF CLOTHING is as great as ever, and we will be most grateful for such garments. They may be left either in the Parish House or at the Rectory. Many of them we give out ourselves to deserving members of the Parish. The rest are sent to the City Mission.

OFFERINGS OF MONEY for the relief of the poor and unemployed may be made to the city agencies through the Parish, or may be given to the Clergy for the many demands that are made upon them. The annual offering for the Poor Fund takes care of the regular Parish cases that come up for attention throughout the year, but it is not adequate for this present critical situation.

THE ANNUAL QUIET DAY FOR WOMEN is being given today. The addresses in S. John's Chapel are at 10, 2 and 3.30. The Day closes with Benediction at 4. Breakfast at 25c. and Dinner at 75c. will be served in the Parish House. Any women of the congregation will be welcome at any or all of the Day's exercises.

AT THE MEETING OF THE VESTRY this past week, the Church Architect and the Building Committee were authorized to proceed with placing the order for the new Stations of the Cross. They are to be designed and carved in stone by Bruno Louis Zimm of Woodstock, New York, a pupil of the famous St. Gaudens. Small scale plaster casts of two of the Stations will be placed on exhibition in the Corridor very soon. Each Station will cost $500. Those who are expecting to give Stations are asked to communicate with the Rector at once, so that the Subjects may be assigned according to the wishes of the donors.

THE RECTOR will be the noon-day preacher in S. Paul's Chapel of Trinity Church in New York City every day next week. He will be absent from his Confession on Friday afternoon of next week.

THE TWENTY-SIX persons recently Confirmed in S. Clement's by the Bishop of the Diocese are making their First Communion today.

A DINNER FOR CATHOLIC LAYMEN is being planned for Wednesday evening, April 8th, at Kugler's Restaurant on S. 15th Street. Men who are members of the Catholic Congress are urged to attend. The cost of the dinner will be $1.50. The object of the meeting is to form some permanent organization among the laymen for the advancement of the Catholic Cause in our Church.

THE MONTHLY EVENING MISSIONARY MEETING will be omitted this month, but there will be two meetings after Easter.

THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK, March 26th, is the date for the annual Quiet Day for the members of S. Mary's Guild and other women of the congregation. The Conductor will be the Rev'd Alfred M. Smith. If you wish to attend, please notify the Sister-in-charge, or give your name to one of the Priests.

NEXT THURSDAY, the 19th, is the Feast of S. Joseph. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11. In the evening at 8, Fr. Fleming, Vicar of the Chapel of the Intercession in New York, is preaching at the Church of S. Luke and the Epiphany.

DR. ROLAND HOLROYD is acting as Sub-Deacon at the Solemn Masses. He has been licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese.

OF YOUR CHARITY, pray for the repose of the soul of Elizabeth Schriever Clark.

Parish Notes

FR. SMITH will conduct the Annual Quiet Day for the members of S. Mary's Guild and their friends on Thursday. The Day begins with the Mass at 9.30, and closes with Vespers at 6. Dinner and Supper will be served in the Parish House for those who notify Sr. Katharine, S.H.N., in advance. The Addresses will be given in the Chapel at 10, 2 and 4.

THE WOMAN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING is now due and may be sent to Miss Hoffman at 2118 Delancey Street. This year's offering closes the triennial gift which will be presented at the General Convention meeting this year in Denver.

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED to the Kalendar for next Sunday. Owing to the length of the Palm Sunday Liturgy, the Blessing of the Palms and the Procession will begin at 10.30. This will bring the beginning of the Mass at about 11.30. The Mass at 9.15 will be a Low Mass without Hymns. It is urged that those who come on Palm Sunday, intending to remain through the entire Ceremonies and the Mass, will fill the front pews in the Church, and leave the rear seats for those who must go before the Liturgy is completed.

WEDNESDAY is the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11. Friday is the Feast of her Seven Sorrows; they are, The Prophecy of Simeon; The Flight into Egypt; Losing the Holy Child at Jerusalem; Meeting Jesus on the Way to Calvary; Standing at the Foot of the Cross; The Removal of the Body of Jesus from the Cross; The Burial of Jesus.

OFFERINGS FOR FLOWERS AND LIGHTS at the Altar of Repose on Maundy Thursday may be sent or handed to the Rector at any time.

THE RECTOR is preaching each noon-day this week in S. Paul's Chapel, New York City. Fr. Hutchinson was the preacher there last week.

DURING PASSION-TIDE THE CRUCIFIXES AND THE STATUES IN THE CHURCH are veiled. All through the year these symbols are before our eyes. Now Holy Church directs their partial removal from our outward sight, that we may meditate upon the solemn lessons that they portray. "It is like a lesson book which is open before one, until the lesson. The time has come to know the lesson without the lesson book. The mind is strengthened by having to rely on itself."

THE TUESDAY AFTERNOON DEVOTIONAL HOURS were concluded for this Lent with the address last Tuesday.

NEW BENEDICTION ORNAMENTS. When it is impossible to place the Monstrance on the Altar Tabernacle during the Rite of Benediction, it is placed on a stand raised up above the table of the Altar. Such a stand, called a Tabor, after the mountain on which our Blessed Lord was Transfigured, of very handsome design, together with two ornamental lights to match it, have been given to the Parish by Miss Williams of The Belgravia.

MANY OF THE CHOIR BOYS are collecting foreign postage stamps. If you have any such stamps that you do not want, will you please give them to the Rector for attendance and behaviour awards in the Choir.

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Introduction to "The Passion".....Joseph Haydn
PROCESSIONAL Improvised

HYMN—"When I survey the Wondrous Cross".....No. 108

INTROIT—Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people; deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for Thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong Salvation.

Psalm. O send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling. Give sentence.....

KYRIE—Missa de Sancto Albano.....Healey Willan
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 132 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—Deliver me, O God, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: Thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

TRACT—Many a time have they fought against me: from my youth up. May Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the ploughers plowed upon my back. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

HYMN

Peace, Peace,

Jesus is here.

Peace, Peace,

Angels are near—

Soft, Soft,

Whisper your need.

Soft, Soft,

The Father will heed.

Rest, Rest,

Infinite Love,

Rest, Rest,

We are not left alone,

Given the Holy Food,

Now on His gentle Breast

Here at His Altar Throne

Now as upon the Rood

Weary ones find their rest,

Heaven and Earth are one,

Pleadeth the Precious Blood

Truest and tenderest,

Jesus is here.

Whisper your need.

Infinite Love.

COMMUNIO—This is My Body, which is given for you; this Cup is the New Testament in My Blood, saith the Lord: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succor afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.
My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 134, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipped. And why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

SERMON*THE RECTOR*

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Parish Notes

IT WILL BE A GREAT HELP, both in comfort and reverence, if the regular members of the Parish and Congregation will occupy the front seats in the Church today, and throughout the exercises of Holy Week. And especially on Good Friday will this leave the rear of the Church free for those who must leave before the Service is finished.

OFFERINGS OF MONEY for the Altar of Repose should be handed to the Rector today. Offerings of flowers for the Altar on Thursday should be sent to the Church Wednesday afternoon. The Altar of Repose, as last year, will be in S. John's Chapel.

SMALL BOOKLETS, with the Psalms and Lessons of Tenebrae, will be found in the Tract Case. They may be borrowed for the Service, but if they are to be taken away, 25 cents should be left in the Tract Case Money Box.

SMALL PAINTED WOODEN STATUES of S. Clement will be found in the Cope Room, also a few Calendars with photographs of the Church. The little statues are $1.00 apiece, and the calendars are 50 cents. The proceeds are part of our Missionary Offering.

THE EASTER LETTERS are in the mail, and should be delivered tomorrow. If you do not receive one, will you please tell the Rector, so that your name and address may be corrected on the Parish Files. It is hoped that every one has been reached. The Easter Offering, as usual, is for Parish Expenses.

KEEP THE HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE before you. Tell your friends of our Services. Bring them with you. Endeavour to keep a real Holy Week. Do not neglect your Confession. And you will have a Blessed Easter.

The Rector's Easter Letter

MY DEAR PEOPLE:—

I am writing this letter in the midst of Passion Week. It will be in your hands early in Holy Week. So we are looking toward Easter from a long perspective, but from the proper perspective, through the Cross. There must be Good Friday before there can be Easter. There must be sorrow and penance for sin for each of us before there can be newness of life in the joy and peace of the Resurrection.

The schedule for Holy Week is already in your hands. The Church has designed her Liturgy to help you see the seriousness of your sins, the fulness of God's forgiveness, and the freeness of everlasting life. Try to follow the Liturgy during Holy Week. It is the best possible preparation for Easter.

Our services are just the same as they have been in recent years, and the hours are the same as well. The Church calls every one to Confession at Easter. That is your chiefest thought now. Examine yourselves carefully before the Cross. You cannot look in the Face of the Crucified and not know your sins. Nor will you be able to look in the Face of the Risen Lord with your sins unconfessed. Your penitence now will be the measure of your Easter peace. I am sure you all will be most faithful in keeping this precept of the Church.

We have had a good Lent in the Parish. The daily Communion have been many, and a greater number than usual have assisted daily at Mass. We have all felt a sense of deep and serious devotion running through the whole season. Easter and Easter-tide will show us to how great extent this is true. Lenten planting and cultivating will bear fruit and flower at Easter. Do not neglect these last few days. They are the telling ones. And you will find these last few hours with the Crucified the most profitable and blessed of all the Holy Season.

We shall be expressing our Easter exultation in Gounod's Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The familiar Easter Hymns will be used in the Solemn Procession. All of you who make your Communion early here or elsewhere will want to make this great corporate act of thanksgiving to your Risen Lord. Your Communion is, of course, your great spiritual experience, where you will know your Lord in the breaking of Bread, and receive His Easter, Peace be unto you; but the Solemn Mass is where you will make your great offering of thanksgiving for this Paschal assurance that "as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

May God give you grace so to follow this Holy Season with reverence and true devotion, that you may be fully prepared to receive His Easter Peace, and use it to the deepening of your spiritual character, and the extending of His honour and glory.

Affectionately your Friend and Pastor,

Franklin Joiner

INTROIT—I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia; thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia; thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm—O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising. Glory be.....

KYRIE—(Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus) Charles Francois Gounod
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 163, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will be joyful and glad in it. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia, Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

SEQUENCE—Christians, to the Paschal Victim

Offer your thankful praises.

A Lamb the sheep redeemeth:

Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?

"The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection:

Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

CREDO—(Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus) Charles Francois Gounod

SERMONTHE RECTOR

OFFERTORY—The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

HYMN—"O sons and daughters, let us sing".....Hymn No. 130

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI

Parish Notes

DURING LENT there were 171 Masses said at our Altars, and 1840 Communion made. On Easter Day, there were 350 Communion. The Collection on Easter Day amounted to about $1500, which was almost $200 more than last year.

ON EASTER MONDAY, Messrs. Ritter and Clay, and Dr. Lukens were re-elected members of the Vestry, and Mr. Theodore M. Casey was elected in place of his brother, whose business takes him away from Philadelphia and prevents his attendance at the meetings of the Vestry. At the Easter meeting of the Vestry, the former committees were re-elected for the ensuing year, and the Rector invited Mr. Woodruff to continue as his Warden, which he was pleased to accept.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GUILD OF SOULS will be held in S. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, Monday, April 27th. There will be a solemn Mass of Requiem at 11, followed by a Sermon by The Rev'd Gregory Mabry, Rector of S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn. Luncheon will be served, and the business meeting will be held early in the afternoon.

THE PASCHAL CANDLE was painted again this year by Miss Janette Newman. We are most grateful for her beautiful work.

THE WOMAN'S UNITED THANK-OFFERING is still open for further offerings. They may be sent to Miss Hoffman at 2118 Delancey Street, or placed on the collection plates if plainly marked. This is the last offering for the Triennial Offering which will be presented at the General Convention in Denver next September.

THE LAYMAN'S UNION for the Maintenance and Defense of Catholic Principles was organized on Wednesday evening at a dinner for laymen held at Kugler's Restaurant. All men who are members of The Catholic Congress are eligible for membership. It is planned to have several meetings during the year for instruction and devotion, as well as for sociability. The English Church Union, a similar organization in England, has done great work for the Catholic Cause, and it is hoped that this movement just begun here in America will stimulate interest amongst our men, and rouse them to a more enthusiastic co-operation in the spread of the Catholic Faith in the Episcopal Church. There are no dues, beyond the annual membership fee in the Catholic Congress. The next Catholic Congress will be held here in Philadelphia.

DURING EASTER-TIDE, instead of the Angelus, the Regina Coeli is said:

O Queen of Heaven, rejoice, Alleluia,
For He Whom thou wast meet to bear, Alleluia,
Is arisen, as He said, Alleluia,
Pray thou unto God for us, Alleluia.

V. Rejoice, and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia.

R. For the Lord hath arisen indeed, Alleluia.

Prayer: O God, Who by the Resurrection of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, hast vouchsafed to give gladness unto the world; grant, we beseech Thee: that we being holpen by the prayers of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, may attain unto the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANGLO-CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS, with the American Liturgy, have just arrived from England, and may be had in the Cope Room before or after any of the Services. They are $1 apiece.

EIGHT OF THE FOURTEEN STATIONS of the Cross have been subscribed for by members of the Congregation. They will cost $500 apiece. If any others are thinking about them, will they please speak to the Rector at once.

Parish Notes

NASHOTAH HOUSE ALUMNI, living in the East, had their annual meeting last Tuesday, at the Hotel Astor in New York City. The Rector and Fr. Edwards were present at the conference.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29th. On this date there will be a Regional Conference of the Catholic Congress Movement in S. Mary's Church, Burlington, New Jersey. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, a luncheon, an afternoon session, supper, and a service in the evening. There will be sermons both morning and evening, and interesting speeches in the afternoon. It is very easy to reach Burlington by automobile, by train, and by motor bus. It is hoped that a great many from S. Clement's will avail themselves of this opportunity, and add their support to the cause by spending this day in Burlington. As soon as the complete program is received, it will be posted on the bulletin board in the Church porch.

EASTER SHOULD FIND US risen from sin as Christ rose from the dead, to die no more. The example of our Saviour's resurrection is the model of our perseverance in grace; our faith in His resurrection is the solid foundation of our perseverance; the glory of the resurrection is one of the most touching motives for our perseverance; the sacrament of His resurrection is the seal of our perseverance. "Christ being raised from the dead," says S. Paul, "dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him.....So likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord." Why is the resurrection of Christ the only one chosen by God for our model? Why not the raising of Lazarus? Because the latter was only for a time; Lazarus was to die again. If we are not firmly determined to avoid sin, our resurrection may be like that of Lazarus; it is certainly not like that of Christ.—Selected.

DO NOT FORGET Monday the 27th is the date for the Annual Mass of Requiem for the Departed Members of the Guild of All Souls. It will be sung at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street at 11.15. Fr. Mabry will be the preacher. The annual business meeting will follow the luncheon. Every one will be welcome to assist at the Mass, and Members are urged to remain for the luncheon and the afternoon meeting.

FAILURES in this life are not necessarily failures as God sees them. Our Lord was a failure in the eyes of the world. He was born poor, lived poor, died poor. He never achieved success. That is how the world looks at it. Why should we see failure in what may be in God's eyes the greatest success? The judgment of the world is not everything. Indeed, it is nothing. We who know that this life is a mere period of probation should not be disturbed. There is One in heaven who judges more surely and Whose judgment is abiding. It is for Him we should think, and it is for Him our work should be done, and not for the world's fleeting praise.—Selected.

THE LECTURES ON CHURCH DOCTRINE have been resumed Friday evenings in S. John's Chapel. They are followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The period of the Great Forty Days, between the Resurrection and the Ascension, was used by our Risen Lord in instructing His Apostles "in the things pertaining to the Kingdom." Let us learn of Him in this Easter-tide.

AS THE STORM only ruffles the waves of the sea, but is not able to disturb the water of the ocean's depth, so exterior trials cannot move the ineffable serenity and peace of the saints whose spirit remains unshaken in the center of the heart of God.—Selected.

WATCH THE TRACT CASES for new tracts. Watch the prices marked plainly on each Tract. And watch yourself that you do not fail to leave the money for the tracts you take.

Parish Notes

THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS. The Annual Requiem for the Departed Members of the Guild will be sung at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street at eleven o'clock on Monday. The sermon will be preached by The Rev'd Gregory Mabry of S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn. Luncheon will be served, and the annual meeting of the Guild will follow in the afternoon.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept on Friday evening of this week at eight o'clock. This is an hour of prayer and meditation, spent before our Lord's Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. "Can ye not watch with Me one hour?" our Lord says to each one of you, as well as to His sleeping disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane. What is your answer?

A REGIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS will be held in Burlington, New Jersey, on Wednesday of this week. There will be a High Mass at 11, when Fr. Niblo will be the preacher. After the luncheon, there will be a number of addresses. These speakers will include Fr. Vernon, Fr. Musser, Fr. Arnold, and Mr. Chauncey Brewster Tinker of Yale. Fr. Joiner will be the preacher at Solemn Vespers in the evening at 7.45. It is hoped that many will attend from S. Clement's. Buses leave the Plaza on the south side of City Hall every fifteen minutes, and on the same schedule leaving Burlington. The fare is fifty cents each way.

NEXT SUNDAY is THE FEAST OF THE FINDING OF THE HOLY CROSS, as well as the Fourth Sunday after Easter. The early Masses at 7, 8 and 9.15 will be of the Sunday. The Solemn Mass at 11 will be of the Feast, and the Rector will preach about the Cross in Modern Life.

THERE HAS BEEN A STEADY DEMAND for the Anglo-Catholic Prayer Books. Only seven are left out of four dozen recently received from England. Orders have come through the mail from people who have seen them advertised in this little leaflet. Another order has been placed, and we hope to have enough to supply all who want them. Please speak to Fr. Bulkeley at once if you want any copies reserved.

ANGLO-CATHOLIC LAYMEN, members of the newly-formed "Laymen's Union," will make a Corporate Communion at the seven o'clock Mass on Corpus Christi Day, June 4th, in S. Clement's. A light breakfast will be served immediately after in the Parish House.

THE FAITH FOR CHILDREN, a small volume of instructions on the Apostles' Creed, are now available at fifty cents each. They have been in the Tract Case at different times in the small separate pamphlets. A new Series of Tracts on The Precepts of the Church will arrive shortly from England.

FR. ANDREW assumes his new duties on the Staff at The Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, next Sunday. We will follow him in his new work with our interest and our prayers.

HER MISSION TO THE WORLD is the real reason for the existence of the Church. Beautiful Church buildings and well-appointed parish houses have their place and make an effective contribution, but the Church exists to obey the command of her Lord, to preach the Gospel to every creature. The Church was divided into Dioceses and Parishes to enable her the better to carry on her world-wide mission.—Bishop Ingley. What is your part? During the first three months of this year, S. Clement's gave about $1,000 to Missions!

Parish Notes

TOMORROW EVENING AT EIGHT, S. Mary's Guild will have their May meeting. Vespers of Our Lady will be sung, and the Rector will make the address. There will be a social hour after the service in the Parish House. This is a devotional Guild for women. Visitors are always welcome at the Monthly Devotions on the First Monday.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet on Wednesday afternoon at three, in the Parish House. All women of the Congregation are urged to attend these monthly missionary meetings. The speaker this month will be Miss Eveline Diggs of Sagada in the Philippine Islands. The members of the Auxiliary will make their Communions on Friday of this week, when the Missionary Work of the Church will be especially remembered at the Mass.

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE meets this week in Holy Trinity Church. The Convention opens on Tuesday morning with Mass at 9.30. The Bishop's address opens the afternoon session at about two. The galleries are open to lay visitors and guests. The Parish Deputies are Mr. Woodruff, Mr. Ritter and Mr. Sellers, with Mr. Tyson as an Alternate. The Convention continues in session through Wednesday.

THE REGIONAL CONFERENCE AT BURLINGTON this past week was a most inspiring occasion. At least five hundred people were in attendance. S. Clement's was very well represented. Eleven more such Day Conferences are in the course of planning. They reach groups who are unable to attend the Congresses. The object is to strengthen the work locally. They are arranged under the direction of the Catholic Congress Committee. The papers were stimulating. The whole atmosphere was enthusiastic. The social opportunities were most delightful. We all felt the better for what we were able to give, and for all that we received. The Congress Movement is one in which S. Clement's people should be most enthusiastically active. It is sorely in need of financial help. Can you not give, just a little, to this most worthy cause?

TODAY IS THE FEAST of the Invention of the Holy Cross. When, in 326, S. Helena, the mother of Constantine the Great, went to Jerusalem to seek for the site of our Lord's Crucifixion, she had the great mound—erected by Hadrian to obliterate the spot—removed, and deep down in a pit under the ledge of rock of Calvary found the life-giving wood of the Cross. The word "Invention" has given the faithless food for scoffing; it is the Latin word for "Discovery." The Feast is the Patronal Festival of the Order of the Holy Cross, and we are happy to give them our Intentions today. There is another Feast of the Cross, The Exaltation, which the Church keeps on September 14th, commemorating S. Helena's setting up of the Cross which she had found for veneration in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in 335. There is something symbolic in the titles of these two Feasts; all Christians must first of all find the Cross of their Redeemer, and then they must exalt It in their hearts and lives.

WHEN JESUS CAME TO BIRMINGHAM

When Jesus came to Golgotha they hanged Him to a Tree;
They drove great nails through hands and feet, and made a Calvary.
They crowned Him with a crown of thorns, red were His wounds and deep,
For these were crude and cruel days and human life was cheap.

When Jesus came to Birmingham they simply passed Him by;
They did not hurt a hair of Him; they only let Him die.

For men had grown more tender; they did not give Him pain;
They only just passed down the street and left Him in the rain.

And still He cried, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do;"
And still it rained the wintry rain and drenched Him through and through.
The crowd went home and left Him, with not a soul to see;
And Jesus crouched against the wall and wept for Calvary.

THE WOMEN OF S. CLEMENT'S PARISH gave $222.82 to the United Thank Offering. This will be presented at the meeting of The General Convention in Denver in September. The Women of the Church make this offering every three years at the meetings of the Convention, and collect it annually in the parishes.

THERE WILL BE AN ADDRESS and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the Eve of the Ascension, Wednesday, at 8. The Priests will be in the Church for Confessions at 7.15 P. M.

THURSDAY is the Feast of our Lord's Ascension. It is one of the Church's great Feasts. It is hoped that all who possibly can will come to their Communion. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11.

THE FIRST NOVENA IN THE CHURCH was made by the Apostles, as they waited for nine days in the upper room in Jerusalem after the Ascension for the Coming of the Holy Spirit. The Catholic Church, following the example of the Apostles, keeps a similar Novena each year, in preparation for the Feast of Pentecost. To keep the Novena properly you should come to Mass every day, and receive Holy Communion daily, if possible. Pray every day for the Church, for the Diocese, for the Parish, and for yourself. Use the Collects for Whitsunday and XIX Trinity. Say the Veni Creator night and morning. On Pentecost make your Communion for the renewing and the revivifying of the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit in your soul.

THE VESTRY meets for its last meeting before autumn on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

S. CLEMENT'S MAGAZINE FOR MAY, 1920. A copy of this number is very much wanted by the Rector to complete a file of the Magazines which is about to be bound for preservation. This is the only copy missing from January, 1918, when the new size was adopted, to December, 1929, when it was discontinued.

A SMALL SECTION OF THE CHURCH GARDEN has been planted with shrubs and evergreens, showing how the whole bed along the south side of the Church should be planted. It will cost about $200 to plant the whole side. Who will give it?

NEXT SUNDAY, in the Octave of the Ascension, the choir will sing Gounod's Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. On Whitsunday, they will sing Mozart's "Seventh" Mass. On Trinity Sunday, they will sing Dabovitch's arrangement of The Serbian Liturgy, which we will be very glad to hear after a lapse of some years. The following Sunday, June 7th, in the Octave of Corpus Christi, the choir will be assisted by The Men's Choir, and will sing Gounod's Second Messe des Orphéonistes (For Men's Voices). There will be a procession before the Solemn Mass on Pentecost and Trinity Sunday.

FATHER UNDERHILL expects to leave sometime this week for Rutherfordton, North Carolina, where he will spend the summer.

FATHER SAUNDERS, from The Somerset Hills School, and Fr. Crittenton, Rector of Christ Church, Canon City, Colorado, are guests in the Rectory over the week-end.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN in the Diocese, who are members of the Catholic Congress, are making a corporate Communion in S. Clement's Church, at the 7 o'clock Mass on Corpus Christi Day, June 4th. There will be a breakfast in the Parish House afterwards. It is hoped that S. Clement's laymen will turn out well, first, of course, for the spiritual gifts in the Holy Communion, and secondly, to welcome our guests, of whom there promises to be a goodly number.

Parish Notes

A NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST is being observed in this parish during the days between the Ascension and Pentecost. The First Novena was kept by our Lady and the Apostles as they waited in the Upper Room in Jerusalem for the coming of the Comforter. Please, at least, say the Veni Creator, Pater Noster and Ave Maria with this intention every day. If possible, come to Mass and receive Holy Communion every day. Next Sunday is Pentecost, when all the faithful, properly prepared, should receive Holy Communion.

THE ASCENSION DAY COLLECTION has been for many years devoted to "The Summer Outing Fund." Through an inadvertence this announcement was not made in the LEAFLET last Sunday. Offering for this purpose, if plainly marked, may be put on the collection plate at any time. The collection next Sunday is for Summer Expenses in the Parish. We depend very heavily on the offerings outside the duplex envelopes to carry us along. This extra offering drops off considerably in the summer, and the Whitsunday collection helps us through the lean months.

THE SUMMER OUTING FUND will be merged very largely in the Poor Fund this year. We will not be able to give very many outings. It will be very hard to provide the bare necessities for our needy people, the number of whom is increasing each week. We are trying very hard to provide for all the members of S. Clement's ourselves, and this is a great help to the city committees, for it relieves them of just as many cases as we are able to take in hand. Do not forget the Parish Poor.

WE ARE VERY GRATEFUL to a generous member of the Parish, who has had the garden most beautifully planted. Never has the garden looked so beautiful. A gardener has been engaged to look after it regularly, so we hope to preserve what has been so thoroughly begun. This planting is not only a great asset to the general appearance of the Church and its surroundings, but it brings great joy and pleasure to many people in the neighborhood, who love to walk through it, and to the children who peer through the fence, and enjoy its green and freshness.

THERE WILL BE A PROCESSION before the Solemn Mass next Sunday and the Sunday following. The music of the Mass next Sunday will be Mozart's so-called "Seventh," and the following Sunday we will sing Dabovitch's adaptation of The Serbian Liturgy.

THE DAILY MASSES during the balance of the month will be at the Lady Altar in the Church, both because of the Octaves of the Great Feasts, and as a mark of special honour to our Lady, whom we have in special commemoration during this month of May.

FATHER UNDERHILL'S departure for the South has been postponed for a few weeks, owing to the illness of Mrs. Hincks, the late Fr. Roche's sister, with whom he is planning to stay, as in past years.

FATHER BULKELEY is attending the Commencement at Nashotah House during this week.

OF YOUR CHARITY, please pray for the repose of the soul of Brinton Wetherill, son of the late Francis Dring and Caroline Jacobs Wetherill.

THE SUMMER EMBER DAYS occur this week, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. They are days of abstinence, that is, no meat should be eaten on Wednesday and Saturday as well as on Friday. They are days of prayer and intercession for the Sacred Ministry of the Church, especially those who are preparing for Holy Orders, and who are looking forward to Ordination at this season. The Diocesan Ordinations will be held on the Monday following Trinity Sunday. You are urged to assist at Mass on these days, and if possible, to receive Holy Communion, with special intention for those to be ordained at this time.

REMINDERS OF TO-DAY'S FEAST were mailed to all the members of the Parish and Congregation, as far as we have the mailing list. Any members of the Congregation who would like to be on the Parish mailing list should hand their names and addresses to one of the Priests. Included with the notices were small envelopes for what we hope will be a large offering, for the Summer Expenses in the Parish. We are largely dependent on the free-will offerings of our people, and these naturally fall off considerably in the summer when the congregations are smaller, owing to so many people being out of the city for the week-ends and for their more prolonged holidays. The Parish pledges, through the Duplex Envelopes, are well paid up, and for this we are most grateful. Your generous support is urged for this special offering to-day.

FATHER KELLOGG has been keeping the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood during the past week. His address is: Trinity Rectory, Bristol, Rhode Island. We have had a visit this week from Father Caine, who is slowly recuperating from a serious attack of pneumonia. He is still on the Staff of the Church of the Advent in Boston.

FATHER KNOWLES invites the members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament especially, and all the members of S. Clement's, to a special Corpus Christi service on the evening of the Feast Day, June 4th, at 8 o'clock, to be followed by a garden party. The Rector will be glad to send acceptances to Fr. Knowles for all those who wish to attend; will they please speak to the Rector, if they expect to go to S. Alban's, Olney, for this occasion?

FATHER BERT expects to arrive about the 15th of June, and will be in residence in the Rectory, and in charge of the Parish, until the 23rd of September. His many friends will be glad to welcome him to S. Clement's for another summer.

A NUMBER OF INTERESTING TRACTS about the Holy Ghost, the Church, and the Sacramental Life, will be found in the Tract Cases. Many Christian people are woefully ignorant of the Personality of the Holy Ghost, and of His work in the Church. You will always find something useful and helpful in the Tract Cases; the contents are changed every week.

THE MEN OF THE PARISH are reminded of the Corporate Communion at seven o'clock on the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 4th. This Communion is especially for the recently organized Catholic Club of laymen who are members of the Catholic Congress. Breakfast will be served for the men in the Parish House immediately after the Mass.

A GREAT MANY PEOPLE kept the Novena to the Holy Ghost by daily assisance at Mass and frequent Communion. The number of people increases each year who so prepare themselves for the Feast of Pentecost.

NEW MEMBERS are wanted for The Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, for The Guild of All Souls, and for The Catholic Congress.

TODAY CLOSES THE WINTER SCHEDULE for the Sunday Masses and Offices. Beginning with next Sunday, the 9.15 will be a Low Mass with Holy Communion. After next Sunday, the 11 o'clock Mass will be a "Missa Cantata" with incense, and the Sermon will follow the Mass. Vespers will be said at 6. There will be a brief address, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8. This schedule will continue until the first Sunday in October.

THE CHOIR WILL BE AUGMENTED at the Solemn Mass next Sunday, by the Men's Choir of the Diocese, of which Dr. Fry is the director. They will sing Gounod's Second Mass of the Orpheonistes.

THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of Corpus Christi. There will be an Address by the Rector, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8 on the evening before. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. On the following evening the Holy Hour will be kept from 8 to 9, and after this the annual meeting of S. Saviour's Ward of The Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be held in the Choir Room.

THERE WILL BE A FESTIVAL SERVICE on the Feast of Corpus Christi, in honour of the Most Blessed Sacrament, at S. Alban's Church, Olney, at 8 P. M. There will be a Procession, and Benediction. Later there will be a garden party, to which members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament are invited. S. Alban's Church, 2nd and Tabor Road, Olney, is reached in 45 minutes from 9th and Chestnut Streets by Trolley Route 47; or by the Subway to Olney Avenue and then Route 75 to Tabor Road.

FR. BULKELEY received the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity at the Nashotah House Commencement last week. The subject of his thesis was "The Assumption of Our Lady."

A NEW SUPPLY OF ANGLO-CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS, American Edition, have just arrived from England. They are $1 each.

THE ANNUAL DUES for The Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament should be paid to Mr. Alger L. Ward, 818 N. Ormund Avenue, Upper Darby, Penna.

TODAY IS THE THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY of the Rector's Ordination, and tomorrow is the Anniversary of his First Mass.

THE PARISH LEAFLET next Sunday will have the announcements for the week-day Masses and Offices during the Summer, as well as the summer plans for the Priests' holidays.

THERE WAS A CIRCUS PARTY yesterday afternoon for the boys of the choir, together with the men of the Choir and their families. It was a very gay party, and every one had a wonderful time.

THE OFFERING last Sunday amounted to about $750.

CONTRIBUTIONS for both The Summer Outing Fund for the Poor of the Parish, and The Choir Camp Fund are now in order. "The Town Criers" gave $50 to the latter fund, the proceeds of one of their entertainments during the winter.

FATHER SMITH kept the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood last Monday. There was a surprise party given in his honour at S. Elisabeth's Church. We congratulate him and assure him of our best wishes.

Parish Notes

THE RECTOR will leave for his holiday soon after the 15th of June, and will return to the Parish about the 25th of September. Fr. Bulkeley leaves late in June for his holiday, and Fr. Edwards will go for his when Fr. Bulkeley returns. The Staff will be in residence again for the last Sunday in September. The Rector will go to Hot Springs in Virginia for the balance of June, and to his parents in New Jersey for a part of July. The plans for the balance of his holiday are still unmade.

FR. BERT will arrive about the 15th, and will be in charge of the Parish until September 23rd, when he returns to resume his duties at Nashotah House.

DO NOT FORGET your subscriptions to The Summer Outing Fund for the poor and needy of the Parish; and for THE CHOIR CAMP FUND. The Choir boys are sent away to camp for a couple of weeks each summer, as guests of the Parish. They do such splendid work, and help us all so much with our worship, that every one should want to show some bit of appreciation.

THE THREE LOW MASSES each day will continue throughout June. The summer arrangement of Daily Masses will begin with the first of July. Mass daily at 7 and 9.30; and on Tuesdays and Fridays, an additional Mass at 8. There will be a High Mass on the Feast of the Assumption of the B. V. M., Saturday, August 15th. After next week the Confessional Hour on Saturday morning will be omitted.

THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT will hold their annual service and meeting at S. Alban's Church, Olney, on Thursday, June 11th. There will be a Solemn Pontifical Mass at 11, with Procession of the Blessed Sacrament, and a Sermon by Bishop Weller, the Superior. All members of the C. B. S. are urged to attend, and are invited to a luncheon immediately after the Mass. The business meeting will follow in the afternoon.

THE EDITOR of this Leaflet wishes you all a very happy and recreative summer.

Parish Notes

THE RECTOR returned from his holiday on the 25th of September. During July he was in charge of the Cathedral in Portland, Maine, and later sailed for England, spending about four weeks in and about London. Fr. Edwards had his holiday in Canada, and Fr. Bulkeley in Florida. Fr. Underhill expects to return to the Rectory from North Carolina some day this week. Fr. Bert returned to his duties at Nashotah House on the 23rd. We are grateful for another summer of his efficient work in the Parish.

THE WINTER SCHEDULE of Masses, Offices and Guild Services begins with the first Sunday in October. S. Mary's Guild has its first meeting tomorrow evening. The Woman's Auxiliary opens for the winter on Wednesday. The Mothers' Meeting had their first meeting last Thursday. Please keep the Kalendar before you.

AN APPEAL must be made in this first issue of the BULLETIN for both the Rector's Discretionary Fund and the Poor Fund. These two funds are for the same purpose, the former being administered by the Rector and the latter by the Sisters. There have been heavy demands all summer, and we are anticipating even heavier ones during the autumn. The prospects for the winter look very serious. We would be very grateful for regular contributions to these funds where they can be given without subtracting from other regular gifts to the Church. We are striving very hard to take care of our own people during these difficult times.

THE MOTHERS of two Acolytes have died within the past week. Lylette Neff Longacre, mother of Robert Neff Longacre, and Hilda Kahn, mother of A. Edmund Kahn. They both received the Last Sacraments of the Church. They are commended to your prayers. Since the last issue of the BULLETIN, Rose Dede Smart has died, and was buried in New Hampshire. For many years she has been a most faithful member of the Parish, taking care of the flowers on the Altars and the Shrines with the greatest devotion. Please remember her in your prayers.

NEWSPAPER REPORTS about the General Convention now meeting in Denver are very confusing and unreliable. Newspapers want what they call "a story," so the most is made of all controversial subjects and it is hard to know what the decisions of the Convention have been. We shall have to wait for the Church papers, and in the meantime continue our prayers for the guidance of the Holy Spirit to this great Council of the Church.

OUR PARISH is represented at the Convention in Denver in Miss Elizabeth Jaundon Lea, who is the Chairman of the National Association of Altar Guilds. This is a new department in the work of the National Church, and a very hopeful sign it is of the interest in things of the Altar and the ceremonies of the Mass.

WE ARE STILL IN NEED of cast-off clothing, especially things for men and boys. These articles may be left in the Parish House at any time, or at the Sisters' House on Woodstock Street, or at the Rectory.

Parish Notes

THE FR. RECTOR has been absent from the Parish for a few days this past week attending the Preachers' College in Washington. The leader of the Conference was Bishop Furse, the Bishop of S. Albans, who came to this country from England to preach the sermon at the opening of the General Convention. The subject of the Conference in Washington was "Conducting Retreats and Quiet Days."

FR. UNDERHILL has returned from the South and will be in his Confessional in the Church every Saturday afternoon and evening during the winter.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA meets at the Church of the Advocate on Tuesday of this week. The Convocation is organized to relieve the Diocesan Convention of much detail work, especially in regard to the Missionary work of the Diocese. The Woman's Aid works with the Convocation and meets with it four times a year.

THE ANGELUS (so-called from its first Latin word) is recited by Catholics morning, noon and evening, as a Memorial of the Incarnation. The Church bells rings to remind us to perform this duty; it is extraordinary how it is possible to be in Catholic houses when the Angelus rings and no notice whatever is taken of it. It should, of course, be natural and customary among Catholics for conversation to cease so that the Angelus may be said. It can, of course, in these circumstances, be said in any position. But when possible it should be said (a) kneeling, on weekdays outside Eastertide; (b) standing, on Sundays throughout the year, and on weekdays from Easter to Trinity. "In the evening, and morning, and at noon-day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall hear my voice." The evening Angelus dates from the fourteenth century, and the noon one from the sixteenth.

THE FIRST VESTRY MEETING of the winter will be held at the Clergy House on Tuesday afternoon at half-past four o'clock.

MANY NEW TRACTS are to be found in the Tract Cases every Sunday. A large supply of new material has been received from England. There are devotional tracts as well as instructive ones. They are well worth examining and better worth buying. Passing them on to your friends is good missionary work for the Catholic Cause.

ROLAND HOLROYD, Ph.D., Senior Professor of Biology at LaSalle University, is acting as Sub-Deacon at the Solemn Mass on Sunday. Mr. David Swenson, one of the Acolytes, is looking after the choir boys on rehearsal days. We are most grateful for their help.

JANUARY THIRD is the date for the annual visitation of the Bishop of the Diocese for the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation. Any persons desiring this Sacrament should speak to the Priests or the Sisters at once, so that arrangements may be made for their instruction.

Parish Notes

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30TH, will be kept as a Day of Intercession in the Parish. There will be continuous prayers before the Blessed Sacrament, beginning with the last Mass in the morning and closing with Benediction in the evening. There will be a day of this kind once each month during the winter. The next one will be the Friday before S. Clement's Day, and the December Day of Intercession will come on the Friday before Christmas. A chart on which those able and willing to give a half hour or more of prayer can put their names will be posted in the Church Porch on Sunday, October 25th. The subject of the October intercessions will be: Our Country; the Present Industrial Crisis; and the Missionary Work of the Church.

THE FR. RECTOR has been in Cleveland, Ohio, this past week, preaching at the Catholic Regional Conference in Trinity Cathedral Church. The Catholic Congress has plans for some dozen or more of these regional conferences, that will be held all over the country during this autumn. Please give the work of the Catholic Congress a place in your prayers.

HAVE YOU an Anglo-Catholic Prayer Book? They are published with a special American Edition, following the Mass from the Prayer Book. Bound in blue cloth they cost $1. In leather they are $3.50. If you have one yourself, would you not like to give one for a Christmas present? They may be had from the Clergy.

TOMORROW EVENING, The Church Club of Philadelphia will hold a "Symposium" on the General Convention, in the Church House, at eight o'clock. Short addresses will be made by the Bishop and by our clerical and lay deputies who were there. An opportunity will be afforded to ask questions, so that every one can be fully informed as to what was done at Denver. You are all invited to attend and to bring with you any one who is interested.

HOW TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION. Genuflect as you leave your seat. Go to the Altar with your hands crossed over your breast, and the palms flat on the breast, and remain in that position at the Altar. Kneel at the rail quite still and upright all the time. When receiving Holy Communion keep your head well up. When receiving the Host, place the tongue on the lower lip, far enough out, and with the mouth open, so that the Host need not touch the lips, but can be placed straight on to the tongue. If the Host is received into the hands, the right hand should be crossed over the left, palms perfectly flat, and the hands raised about even with the breast. If it is necessary to touch the Chalice, in no circumstances grip it tightly, but put your fingers quite lightly to the base (not the cup) of it, and keep the head well back. It is generally not necessary to touch the Chalice at all. Do not prostrate or genuflect after receiving Holy Communion—our Blessed Lord is within you: remain quite upright. Genuflect on your return to your seat.

A CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, the entire proceeds to go to the Missionary Quota of the Parish, will be held in the Parish House, for one day only, Wednesday, December 9th. If you have anything suitable for this sale, you may leave your packages at the Rectory.

THE PREACHER at the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning will be the Reverend C. Rankin Barnes, the new Chairman of the Social Service Department of the National Council in New York City.

FATHER HUNTINGTON, Father Founder of the Order of the Holy Cross, has been a guest in the Rectory during the past week.

Parish Notes

THERE IS A SHORT ADDRESS, with a few prayers, and followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, in S. John's Chapel every Friday evening at 8. On the first Friday of the month the Holy Hour is kept. There are a few, but only a few, vacant chairs left in the Chapel Friday evenings. We would like very much to have them all occupied. You will be much the better spiritually for this weekly hour of devotion in the Sacramental Presence. Our Lord longs for faithful souls to watch with Him.

MRS. E. R. DELONGY, who is carrying on the missionary work of the Church in Mena, Arkansas, where her late husband was the Priest-in-charge, is asking our Woman's Auxiliary to help her again with her Christmas Bazaar. For several years articles for this sale have been sent from S. Clement's. It is hoped that Mrs. DeLongy's old friends will not disappoint her this year, and that there may be some new friends to help her in her heroic work.

ALL SOULS' DAY. Monday, November 2nd, is set apart by the Church for the Commemoration of the Holy Souls. At each of the Masses that day the names of the Faithful will be read, and the Holy Sacrifice will be offered with special intention for the repose of their souls. It is an ancient, laudable and pious custom to add to our prayers the giving of alms, and envelopes will be found in the Tract Cases in the Church Porch in which the list of your departed may be placed, together with such offering as you are able to make. Please see that your list of names has been handed in not later than the Solemn Mass next Sunday. The departed members of the Parish are on the permanent lists.

NEXT FRIDAY will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament in S. John's Chapel. A chart for the names of those willing to take definite periods of time for prayer is posted on the bulletin board.

THE MASS for All Saints' Day will be Moir in D. The hymns are 428, 623, 618 and 437.

THE PREACHER THIS MORNING is the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, the new Executive Secretary of the Department of Social Service under the National Council. For many years he was the Rector of S. James' Church in Southern Pasadena, California. We give him a hearty welcome to S. Clement's.

YOU ARE ASKED TO REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS, especially on Wednesday of this week, The Anglican and Eastern Church Association. The Feast of SS. Simon and Jude this year is their sixty-seventh anniversary. Now that prospects of inter-communion are so near, we should have the matter more in our prayers than ever before. The Festival Service will be in the Greek Cathedral in London.

THE ANNUAL DIOCESAN INSTITUTE for the Priests of the Diocese will be held Thursday and Friday of this week at the Church Farm School. It will be followed on Saturday and Sunday by a similar conference for laymen. The Bishop of Honolulu, Bishop Littell, will be the chief speaker.

NEXT SATURDAY evening there will be a Quiet Evening for Men at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, to be conducted by Fr. Palmer, SSJE. It is hoped that some men from S. Clement's will join in these exercises. Invitations have been sent to all men who are members of the Catholic Laymen's Union. Others who signify their intention to be present to Fr. Conkling will be welcome.

OF YOUR CHARITY, please pray for the repose of the soul of Agnes Mary Keenan.

Parish Notes

TOMORROW IS ALL SOULS' DAY. "As no human being—except those who are numbered with the Saints—can be accounted free from defilement when the soul passes from the body, and as nothing defiled can enter heaven, there is mercifully, an intermediate state, which we call purgatory, in which those who die in venial sin may be purged and purified, awaiting the final consummation of bliss. For their souls, our prayers and the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar, are offered and the prayers of the Saints in heaven invoked, that they may attain peace and rest in the perpetual light of God's countenance. Of your charity pray for the souls in Purgatory." There will be low Masses of Requiem tomorrow at 7, 8 and 9.30. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque.

ON ARMISTICE DAY, November 11th, there will be a Regional Conference of the Catholic Congress in Grace Church, Newark. The Solemn Mass will be at 11.15, and can be reached in plenty of time by taking the ten o'clock New York train from Broad Street Station. There will be an afternoon session at 2.30, and Solemn Vespers in the evening at 8. Luncheon and Supper will be provided. If any members of S. Clement's hope to attend, will they please speak to the Fr. Rector, that he may notify the committee how many to expect from this Parish. As soon as the final program arrives it will be posted on the bulletin board.

S. MARY'S GUILD, which meets on the first Monday evening in each month, is a devotional guild for women of the Parish who are living the full Sacramental Life. The Rule is a simple one, but of infinite merit, especially when lived in union with so large a group. No one need be invited to join S. Mary's Guild—it is open to all women of the Parish. The Office of our Lady is sung in S. John's Chapel, there is a short address by the Fr. Rector, and a social hour in the Parish House afterwards. There are now about eighty women who are keeping the Rule. The Guild was founded by the Cowley Fathers in 1881.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY meets in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon of this week at three o'clock. And the Holy Hour will be kept on Friday evening, before the Blessed Sacrament, from 8 to 9. The Hour closes with Benediction.

OUR APPORTIONMENT FOR MISSIONS, which is based on the amount of money we spend to run the Parish, amounts to about $7,800 a year. We have never been able to give this sum to missions in twelve months. As a rule, we pledge ourselves to try to give $5,000, and we have been able several times to reach this amount. This is our pledge this year, and up to the present we have given just half that sum. If any of our friends would like to help the Missionary Work of the Church, and at the same time assist us with our Quota, we would be very grateful. Cheques marked for "Missions" may be placed in the collection plates at any Service.

THE PRIESTS' CATHOLIC CLUB will meet this week at the Church of S. James the Less. Dr. McClenthen, of Baltimore, will be the speaker, and his subject will be "The General Convention of 1931." The Laymen's Catholic Club is making plans for a Smoker in our Parish House on Monday evening, November 30th. Men, please save this evening.

ALL SAINTS. "In this festival the Church honours all the Saints in glory; praises God for the graces of His elect; endeavours to emulate their virtues; invokes their prayers for the Church on earth and in purgatory, and tries to repair the neglect of the faithful to honour God in His Saints on their particular festivals. Nothing can better assist our holy aspirations than the study of the lives of Gods' Saints when on earth, or better enable us to take courage, when we see how—as human—they fell—even as S. Peter the prince of the Apostles—but rose again in greater strength, and in death attained the blessed state. Praise God in His Saints." Do you know Fr. Hughson's book, "The Athletes of God"? There is a short story about a Saint for every day in the year. "A Saint a day keeps the devil away."

Parish Notes

A REGIONAL CONFERENCE of The Catholic Congress will be held in Grace Church, Newark, on Wednesday of this week, Armistice Day. There will be a High Mass at 11.15, addresses in the afternoon, and Solemn Vespers in the evening. The program is posted on the bulletin board in the Church Porch. The New York train leaving Broad Street Station at nine stops at Newark, and allows plenty of time to reach Grace Church for the Mass. If those planning to attend will notify the Fr. Rector, he will be glad to make the necessary reservations for them in Newark.

RED CROSS subscriptions are being received today. Mrs. Mowry will be in the Cope Room both before and after the Mass and Vespers today to receive the annual subscriptions of $1.00 each. New members are very much needed, and those able to give $5.00 are urged to do so.

THE MUSIC OF THE MASS next Sunday will be Tours in C. The hymns will be 232, 178, 436 and 288.

PHILADELPHIA is having two Preaching Missions this month, given by members of the Society of S. John the Evangelist. One is now going on at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, where Fr. Palmer, S.S.J.E., is the Missioner, and the other begins on Thursday at the Church of S. James the Less, with Fr. Hoffman, S.S.J.E., as the Missioner. Please remember these holy works in your prayers.

FOUR VERY HANDSOME CUSHIONS, of hand-made needle-point work, have recently been given for the Lady Chapel and are now in place. They are of Lady blue, with a border of lilies, and our Lady's monogram in the center of each one. A blue velvet rug has been placed on the Altar steps. These additional gifts, for which we are most grateful, greatly enhance the loveliness of this already beautiful Chapel.

DECEMBER NINTH is the day set for the Christmas Bazaar for Missions. Much money was made last year from the sale of "White Elephants." If you have anything that you do not want that is saleable, please send it to the Rectory, marked for the Bazaar.

THE ALTAR GUILD is organized to do silk embroidery, such as Stoles, Burses and Chalice Veils, and will be glad to give estimates on such work. If you know any one seeking such work, please ask them to call the President of the Altar Guild at PENnypacker 5750.

PLANS FOR THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL are about completed. First Vespers will be sung in the Church Sunday evening, November 22nd. Fr. Fenn, the new Rector of the Church of S. Michael and All Angels in Baltimore, will be the preacher. At the Solemn Mass on the Feast Day the preacher will be Fr. Williams, SSJE., Rector of the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City. The annual procession of Guilds will come on the Sunday evening in the Octave, Advent Sunday, when Fr. Mabry, Rector of S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, will preach the sermon. The Parish Tea and Reception will be held Tuesday evening, November 24th. Please save these dates, and make the Festivities of S. Clement's-tide known to your friends.

Parish Notes

THE NOVENA PRAYERS for the Parish, which always precede the Patronal Festival, began yesterday and continue through next Sunday. The intentions are listed in the Festival Program which has been mailed to all the members of the congregation, and will be remembered at all the Masses during these nine days of preparatory prayer.

NEXT FRIDAY will be kept as a Day of Intercession before our Lord's Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. The Intention will be for the Parish, the deepening of our spiritual life, and for God's blessing on the Patronal Festival. The chart is posted on the bulletin board in the Church porch at the Apple Tree Street entrance, and all those willing to give a half-hour in prayer in S. John's Chapel on Friday are asked to sign the initials of their name opposite the time chosen. The next Day of Intercession will be in preparation for the Feast of Christmas, and will be kept on Friday, December 18th.

AT THE OCTOBER MEETING OF THE VESTRY, Mr. William Weaver Lukens offered his resignation. Mr. Lukens was fourth longest in point of service on the present Vestry, and at one time served as Accounting Warden. At the November meeting his resignation was accepted with regret, and a minute was spread on the records expressing the appreciation both of the Rector and Vestry, as well as of the congregation, for his many years of faithful service.

THE PICTURE OF THE CHURCH TOWER, which forms the cover of the Patronal Festival program this year, has been reprinted on postcards, which have been placed in the Tract Cases.

THE MUSIC OF THE MASS for next Sunday will be "The Missa de Sancto Albano" by Healey Willan, the Organist of the Church of S. Mary Magdalene in Toronto. The Hymns will be 179, 318, 252, and 235.

THE REVEREND ALEXANDER MACCOMB LUKENS, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver Lukens, was ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Faber of Montana, on All Saints' Day, in S. Paul's Church, Virginia City, Montana. Fr. Lukens was brought up in this Parish, and it is a great gratification to us, and a matter of thanksgiving to Almighty God, that S. Clement's has given another of her sons to the Priesthood. We assure Fr. Lukens of our prayers, and congratulate him and his family.

A DEVOTIONAL DAY for the women of the Diocese will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton in S. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets, on Tuesday, November 17th, beginning with the Mass and Meditation at 10.30, and closing with a Meditation at 3 in the afternoon.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING marks the opening of the Patronal Festival. Solemn Vespers will be sung in the Church at 8, and the Sermon will be preached by the new Rector of the Church of S. Michael and All Angels in Baltimore, the Reverend Dr. Donn Frank Fenn. Please make the Festival known to your friends, and bring some of them with you.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 14TH, will be the Fiftieth Anniversary of Fr. Underhill's ordination to the Priesthood. We shall commemorate this great event on the day before, Mid-Advent Sunday, December 13th. The Solemn Mass will be sung in the presence of the Bishop of New Jersey, the Right Reverend Paul Matthews, D.D., and the Bishop will preach the sermon. Fr. Underhill was ordained by the former Bishop of New Jersey, and is still canonically attached to that Diocese.

A CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held in the Parish House on December 9th, opening at 3 in the afternoon, and continuing through the evening. Supper will be served from 6 to 8. The entire proceeds will be given to the Parish's Quota for Missions.

Parish Notes

YOUR CAREFUL ATTENTION is called to the program for the Patronal Festival and its Octave on the last page of the LEAFLET this morning.

THE COLLECTIONS DURING THE FESTIVAL are for the current expenses of maintaining the Parish. There is a mistaken idea abroad that S. Clement's is a wealthy Church. We have some endowment, it is true, but this must be amply supplemented by the free-will offerings of our friends and our Communicants. The Church must "carry on," especially at this time, so do please be as liberal as possible.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY there will be a Solemn Mass at 11, and the collections will be given to The Episcopal Hospital. These offerings are credited to the Parish's Missionary Quota. There will be the usual Low Masses for Communion at 7, 8 and 9.30.

THE PARISH TEA on Tuesday evening, in the Parish House, gives an opportunity for the Clergy to meet all the members of the Congregation and their friends, and it also affords an occasion for the members of the Congregation to meet each other. There will be some music and some simple refreshments, and it is hoped that all the friends of S. Clement's will come.

FR. BERT, who has been in charge of the Parish for the past two summers during the Fr. Rector's holiday, is very dangerously ill. He was stricken suddenly a few days ago, and an emergency operation was performed. When the last word was received he was resting comfortably, but he is very much in need of our prayers.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, the entire proceeds of which will be given to Missions, will be held in the Parish House, Wednesday, December 9th, after three o'clock in the afternoon. Supper will be served from 6 to 8.

IT IS IMPORTANT to inform the Priests or the Sisters when you change your address. More than a dozen notices of the Festival have been returned to the Rectory because of wrong addresses. These addresses were correct at Easter. If anyone has failed to receive a notice, it must be for this reason.

Parish Notes

TO-MORROW BRINGS THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL to an end for 1931. It has been a very happy and profitable Feast. The Church has been well filled for all the Masses as well as for First Vespers last Sunday evening. We have had two most excellent sermons, and we are sure of another this evening. The Offering fell far below other years, but we hope it may be made up before the end of the year. The Parish Tea was a happy and enjoyable affair. To-morrow evening's meeting for the Catholic Laymen of the city should make a fitting close to our great Feast.

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS to-morrow at 11, being the Feast of S. Andrew, and the Octave Day of S. Clement. A Triduum for Missions begins tomorrow and ends on the Feast of S. Francis Xavier. The prayer is printed in the folder for the Patronal Festival. If you are not able to come to Mass every day, do say the prayer at home, and unite yourselves with the Offering of the Holy Sacrifice here. "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

SEVERAL RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES, led by the Cowley Fathers, are keeping a Novena for the Religious Life, beginning to-day, and concluding on the Eve of the Conception of the B. V. M. We shall be remembering it at Mass every day, and the prayers will form the basis of the Intercessions at the Holy Hour on Friday.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, and will make their Communion at the Masses on the following Friday. On the First Friday the Masses will be Votive of the Sacred Heart.

THE CATHOLIC CLUB meets on Tuesday of this week at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, and the paper will be read by Fr. Huntingdon, Father Founder of the Order of the Holy Cross.

DURING THE FEAST we have had congratulatory messages from Fr. Kellogg and from Fr. Ewing. Fr. Bert, who has just had to undergo a very serious operation, is resting comfortably, but is not as yet out of danger. Please keep him in your prayers.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR is scheduled for next week, December 9th. It will open in the afternoon at three. Supper will be served from six to eight. There will be a wide assortment of things suitable for Christmas presents, Christmas Cards, hand-made rag rugs, and some tame "white elephants." Please come. The entire proceeds will be devoted to the Parish's Missionary Quota.

TWO WEEKS FROM TO-DAY we shall be commemorating Fr. Underhill's Golden Jubilee. He was ordained to the Priesthood by the late Bishop of New Jersey, December 14th, 1881. On Mid-Advent Sunday the Solemn Mass will be sung in the presence of the Bishop of New Jersey, the Rt. Rev. Paul Matthews, D.D., who will also preach the sermon. After the Solemn Mass, Fr. Underhill will give his blessing to all who kneel at the Communion Rail.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE comes to us the first Sunday evening in January for his annual visitation, and to administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation. Several people are now being prepared for this Sacrament. If there are others thinking about it, will they please speak to one of the Priests at once, so that arrangements can be made at once for their necessary instruction.

A VERY HANDSOME RED HUMERAL VEIL has been given to the Parish by members of the Altar Guild. It was used for the first time on S. Clement's Day. We very much need a green one. It would cost about $25. Will some one give it?

Parish Notes

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. A Sale of article useful for Christmas presents will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday of this week, opening at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be a wide variety of Christmas cards reasonably priced. Supper will be served from 6 to 8, at a charge of 50 cents, ice cream and cake will be extra. There has been very little expense connected with the Bazaar, and the entire proceeds will be given to the Parish Quota for Missions. Please come and buy as many of your Christmas presents as you are able to find here.

THE TOWN CRIERS, a dramatic association to which some of our young people belong, is giving an entertainment in S. Elizabeth's Parish Hall on Thursday evening at 8. The proceeds will be devoted to Christmas Charities.

THERE WILL BE A QUIET DAY, conducted by The Rev. Fr. Spence Burton, Superior of The Society of S. John the Evangelist, at the Mission House of The Sisters of S. Margaret, 1831 Pine Street, on Thursday, December 10th. The Devotions begin with Mass at 8, and end with the Meditation at 4.30. Any women wishing to share in this Quiet Day will be welcomed if they notify the Sister-in-Charge of their intention to be present.

FR. UNDERHILL'S GOLDEN JUBILEE. Monday, December 14th, will be Fr. Underhill's fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood. He was Ordained to the Priesthood in The Church of The Holy Cross, North Plainfield, New Jersey, by the late Bishop John Scarborough. Fr. Underhill is still canonically attached to the Diocese of New Jersey. We shall be commemorating this great event next Sunday at the Solemn Mass, which will be sung in the Presence of the Bishop of New Jersey, The Right Reverend Paul Matthews, D.D., who will also preach the sermon. At the close of the Mass, Fr. Underhill will remain in the Choir, and give his blessing to those who kneel at the Altar Steps.

A SERIES OF LECTURES ON THE FAITH will be given in S. Clement's Church on the four Monday night in January. They are being given under the auspices of the Laymen's Catholic Club, which was formed last winter. The subject of the course will be "The Four Notes of the Church." Bishop Ivins of Milwaukee will open the series with "The Church is One", followed by Bishop Campbell Gray of Northern Indiana on the 11th, "The Church is Holy". Bishop Booth of Vermont will lecture on the 18th, "The Church is Catholic", and the Bishop of Algoma will close the series on January 25th, "The Church is Apostolic". Tickets are being issued at a subscription price of $1, which will admit two persons to each of the four lectures. Each lecture will be preceded by an Organ Recital, given by various prominent organists in the city. Please make this event known to all of your friends, and induce them to buy tickets. We all realize how much instruction on the Catholic Faith is needed, and how very little time the weekly Sermon affords for giving it. Here is an opportunity that so many have asked for—do use it!

THE MUSIC OF THE MASS next Sunday will be Sebastian Dabovich's adaptation of the Serbian Liturgy.

THE APPEAL FOR THE CHRISTMAS CHARITIES in the Parish is now being made. There will be need to provide more Christmas dinners than usual this year. The only Christmas cheer that comes into many homes at this season is what we are able to provide in food and toys. Offerings may be placed on the collection plate, if plainly marked, or handed to the Priests or Sisters. The money usually spent for greens in the Church will be devoted to the poor this year.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. Wednesday, the day for the bazaar, was the worst day in the weather line that we have had this winter. Consequently very few people were able to come out, either for the Christmas Sale or for the Supper. It is difficult to set another time to show the things that are left, but some of the good ladies will be in the South Room of the Parish House after the Solemn Mass this morning and will be glad to show and sell the articles that remain. There is a splendid assortment of Christmas Cards, reasonably priced, and many other attractive things.

FATHER UNDERHILL'S ANNIVERSARY. To-morrow is the 50th anniversary of Fr. Underhill's Ordination to the Priesthood. We are commemorating his Golden Jubilee at the Solemn Mass this morning. He was ordained by the former Bishop of New Jersey, and is canonically connected with that Diocese. We welcome the present Bishop of New Jersey, the Rt. Rev. Paul Matthews, D.D., who comes to-day to honour Fr. Underhill and S. Clement's by his presence, and to preach the sermon on this auspicious occasion. The Mass this morning is our act of thanksgiving to God for His great blessings to Fr. Underhill, and is at the same time our expression of love and devotion for His good Priest.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept as a day of intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, with a special intention for the keeping of a Holy Christmas-tide in the Parish and throughout the world. A chart is posted in the Church porch on the Apple Tree Street side where those willing to give a half-hour or more in prayer before the Sacrament may sign their initials against the time selected. Intercession leaflets and schemes of prayer will be found in the Chapel on Friday. The day will close with Benediction at 8 in the evening.

THE GREAT O's. This is the popular title for the ancient Vesper Antiphons used before and after the Magnificat in Advent, beginning with the 17th of December. They are indicated on the Kalendar in the English Book of Common Prayer. They are used every Advent here in S. Clement's. On the 17th, O Sapientia; the 18th, O Adonai; the 19th, O Radix Jesse; the 20th, O Clavis David; the 21st, O Oriens; the 22nd, O Rex Gentium; the 23rd, O Emmanuel.

PLANS are under way for the Christmas Baskets with dinners for many of our needy people. Further contributions for this work will be gladly received by the Sister-in-Charge. There is always a Christmas party for the children and for the adults, with a tree and presents. The Sisters have this in charge also. Anyone interested in this phase of our work will be welcomed by the Sisters, and any offerings for these charities will be very acceptable.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1932 are now being prepared, and will be ready for distribution after next Sunday. It will be a great saving of time and labour if subscribers will please take their envelopes which will be arranged alphabetically on a table in the Cope Room. Those remaining after the last Sunday in the year will be sent out by mail.

TICKETS for the Series of Lectures to be given in S. Clement's Church on the four Monday nights in January are now ready for distribution. Each ticket will admit two persons, and the subscription for the series is $1. These tickets may be had from any of the Priests, or will be mailed to those who direct their applications to the Rectory.

Parish Notes

FOUR EPISCOPAL LECTURES. On the Monday evenings in January there will be a series of lectures on "The Four Notes of the Church," to be given by four of our Bishops. Each lecture will be preceded by an organ recital. The subscription for the series is $1, and each subscription will admit two persons. This is a great event in the life of the Catholic Movement in Philadelphia. The Bishop of the Diocese has expressed his interest and his intention to be present. We want all eager Church people here, and especially those who are eager to know more about the Church to which they belong. Tickets may be had from any of the Priests, or they will be mailed if inquiries are addressed to the Rectory.

THE PROCEEDS OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR fell far below our aim, but the weather was so bad it was quite impossible for many people to come. Any postponed event loses its zest, so no attempt was made to continue on another day. The sum realized was $250, and this sum has been given to the Missionary cause of the Church.

CONFESSIONS will be heard on both Wednesday and Thursday in preparation for the Christmas Feast. The Father Rector will be in the Church Wednesday morning from 10 to 11, and in the afternoon from 3 to 5. Fr. Edwards and Fr. Bulkeley will be in the Church Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon. Fr. Underhill will be in the Church Thursday afternoon, and all the Priests will be in their Confessionals on Thursday evening.

CAROLS will be sung in the Church Christmas Eve at nine o'clock, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Procession to the Creche, for its blessing, and further Carol singing. This is one of our most beautiful and impressive extra-liturgical services. The full choir will be present.

CHRISTMAS DAY. There will be an extra Low Mass at 6. The Solemn Mass will be at 11 as usual, and the Father Rector will preach. In the evening, at 8, there will be the usual service of Benediction, preceded by Carols and a short Christmas Meditation.

NEXT SUNDAY we shall be repeating the Gounod Mass that was sung on S. Clement's Day, and there will be a Procession of Christmas Carols about the Church before the Solemn Mass. There will be no Procession in the evening.

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS on the Feast of S. Stephen on Saturday, and also on the Feast of the Holy Innocents, on the following Monday.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTIES will be held next week. The Children's Party on Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5, and the party for S. Mary's Guild and the members of the Mothers' Meeting on Wednesday evening from 8 to 10.

FATHER UNDERHILL is very grateful to his many friends for their tributes of love and affection on his Golden Jubilee. It was a great day for the dear Father, and for the Parish that loves him so dearly. The Bishop of New Jersey was most gracious in coming to us for the Jubilee, and his many friends rejoiced to see him at S. Clement's. Father Underhill finds it impossible to write notes to thank personally every one who remembered him, and so takes this opportunity to thank them for their good wishes and their prayers.

THE OFFERING ON CHRISTMAS DAY is for general Parish expenses. The offering on Sunday, January 10th, in the Octave of the Epiphany, is for the Poor Fund.

The Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Solemn Mass at 11

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—"Es ist ein' Ros entsprungen"..Johannes Brahms
PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"O Come, All Ye Faithful"..Hymn No. 59
INTROIT—Unto us a Child is born; unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his Name shall be called, Angel of mighty Counsel.
Psalm. O sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things. Glory be..... Unto us.....

KYRIE—(In G).....Rev. William H. A. Hall
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 96 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God; O be joyful in God, all ye lands. The Lord hath declared his salvation: in the sight of the heathen hath he openly showed his righteousness.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia, Alleluia. A hallowed day hath dawned upon the earth; come, ye nations, and worship the Lord: for on this day, a great light hath descended upon the earth. Alleluia.

SEQUENCE HYMN—"Angels We Have Heard on High"

Angels we have heard on high,	Come to Bethlehem, come and see
Sweetly singing o'er the plains,	Him whose birth the Angels sing;
And the mountains in reply	Come, adore on bended knee
Echo back their joyous strains:	The Infant Christ, the new-born
Gloria in excelsis Deo!	Gloria in excelsis Deo! [King:

Shepherds, why this jubilee?	See, within a manger laid,
Why your joyous strains prolong?	Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth!
Say, what may the tidings be	Mary, Joseph, lend your aid,
Which inspire your heav'nly song:	With us sing our Saviour's birth:
Gloria in excelsis Deo!	Gloria in excelsis Deo!

CREDO—(Mass in E).....Horatio W. Parker

SERMON... .. THE FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine; thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is: righteousness and equity are the habitation of thy seat.

The Feast of S. Stephen, Proto-Martyr

Solemn Mass at 11

HYMN—"Hark, the Herald Angels Sing".....Hymn No. 60
INTROIT—Princes moreover did sit, and did witness falsely against me, and the ungodly pressed sore upon me: O Lord my God, stand up to help me; for thy servant is occupied continually in thy commandments.
Psalm. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be..... Princes moreover.....

KYRIE.....Missa de Angelis
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 99 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—Princes also did sit and speak against me: wicked men have persecuted me. Help me, O Lord my God: save me for thy mercies' sake.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia, Alleluia. I see the heavens opened: and Jesus standing on the right hand of God. Alleluia.

Hymn No. 65
CREDO.....Missa de Angelis

OFFERTORY—The Apostles chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost: whom the Jews stoned, calling upon God, and saying; Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

CAROL—"GOOD KING WENCESLAS"

Good King Wenceslas look'd out	"Bring me flesh, and bring me wine;
On the Feast of Stephen,	Bring me pine-logs hither;
When the snow lay round about,	Thou and I will see him dine,
Deep and crisp and even:	When we bear them thither."
Brightly shone the moon that night,	Page and monarch forth they went,
Though the frost was cruel,	Forth they went together;
When a poor man came in sight,	Through the rude wind's wild lament,
Gath'ring winter fuel.	And the bitter weather.

"Hither, page, and stand by me;	"Sire, the night is darker now,
If thou know'st it, telling,	And the wind blows stronger;
Yonder peasant, who is he?	Fails my heart, I know not how,
Where and what his dwelling?"	I can go no longer."
"Sire, he lives a good league hence	"Mark my footsteps, my good page,
Underneath the mountain,	Tread thou in them boldly;
Right against the forest fence	Thou shalt find the winter's rage
By Saint Agnes' fountain."	Freeze thy blood less coldly."

In his master's steps he trod,
Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
Which the saint had printed.
Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor,
Shall yourselves find blessing.

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI.....Missa de Angelis

COMMUNIO—Lo, I see the heavens opened, and Jesus standing on the right hand of the power of God: O Lord Jesus, receive my spirit, and lay not this sin to their charge, for they know not what they do.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS.....Missa de Angelis
HYMN—"O Little Town of Bethlehem".....Hymn No. 642

Parish Notes

THE STATISTICS FOR 1931 have been completed. During the past year there were 1,257 Masses celebrated at our Altars. 12,061 Communion were made in S. Clement's Church. The Blessed Sacrament was carried to 255 people, ill in their homes. To the best of our knowledge, no other Parish in America can equal this record.

THE BISHOP COADJUTOR OF MILWAUKEE will open the series of Episcopal Lectures in S. Clement's Church to-morrow evening at 8.15 o'clock. Mr. West, the Organist of S. Luke's Church, Germantown, will give an Organ Recital before the Lecture, beginning at 7.45 o'clock. Lectures will be given on the following Monday evenings in January by distinguished Bishops of the Church. The subscription price to the series is $1. Each subscription admits two. Tickets may be had from the Priests, or will be mailed in response to request sent to the Rectory. The Bishop of the Diocese will be present and open each Lecture.

THE OFFERING NEXT SUNDAY is the annual collection for the Poor of the Parish. There are many and insistent calls for help, and we are trying very hard to take care of our own people. Whatever you give here is given in its entirety to people that we know. Every case is investigated. Will you not please give generously next Sunday, so that we may continue the relief work that we have been able to do thus far. The City organizations for relief of the poor commend us for taking such good care of our own people.

S. MARY'S GUILD will not meet to-morrow evening because of the Lecture that is being given in the Church. The next Guild meeting will be on the eve of the Purification, when we shall have the annual Candlemas Procession in the Church. This is a devotional Guild for women, and those interested are always welcome as guests at the meetings.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Women's Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday afternoon at 3. The Masses on the following Friday will be offered for the Auxiliary and the Missionary Work of the Church, and it is hoped the members of the Auxiliary will try to hear Mass that day, and if possible, receive Holy Communion for this intention. Praying for Missions is a great work for the cause that all can do.

THE CATHOLIC CLUB meets at S. Clement's on Tuesday. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, followed by a meditation by Bishop Ivins, who is staying over at the Rectory for this purpose. The Bishop of the Diocese will be the guest of honour at the luncheon, and will address the meeting afterwards.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES FOR 1932 are now ready. Many subscribers have already taken their envelopes from the Cope Room, and some others have been mailed. This is one of the very best methods of subscribing to the support of the Parish and Missionary work of the Church. If you are not already a user of the envelopes, will you not become one? Even if you are not able to pledge a definite amount for each week, use the envelopes and give what you can. They were paid up most splendidly in 1931, and the subscribers are to be commended for their regular and prompt payments. While the Accounting Warden's books are being closed without a deficit for 1931, we are not affluent. We are careful. But we still need the generous support of every member of the Parish.

WE CONGRATULATE MR. WOODRUFF, the Fr. Rector's Warden, on his appointment to the new Mayor's Cabinet, in the Department of Public Welfare. The newspapers all speak highly of Mr. Woodruff, of his ability and his experience, and have stressed the fact that he is a good Churchman. Mr. Woodruff has long been a member of S. Clement's, and is the senior member of the Vestry.

A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR, full of spiritual progress, is the Editor's wish for every reader of this Leaflet.

Parish Notes

SIX HUNDRED people were present here last Monday evening for the first of the Four Episcopal Lectures being given under the auspices of the Laymen's Catholic Club. The general subject of the course is "The Four Notes of the Church." Bishop Ivins, Coadjutor of Milwaukee, opened the course with "The Church is One," and Mr. West, organist of S. Luke's Church, Germantown, gave a most beautiful recital before the lecture.

THE SECOND LECTURE in the Series will be given here tomorrow evening. Bishop Gray of Northern Indiana is detained because of serious illness in his family, but his place is being taken by the Rt. Rev'd Harwood Sturtevant, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac. His subject is "The Church is Holy," and the organ recital, beginning at 7.45, will be given by Mr. Hawke, the organist of S. Mark's Church.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY send a box of clothing to some missionary every winter. This year the box has been sent to the Rev. Charles E. Dukes and his family, at S. Mary's Church, Augusta, Georgia. The Missionary writes a letter of thanks to our Parish, and expresses his great appreciation for all the useful and attractive things that our Auxiliary sent.

IN A RECENT PUBLICATION put out by The National Council of the Church, and distributed in the Church porch, was an item about a former member of our Choir and congregation—The Venerable William Watson. He has served in Mexico since 1907 (except 1914 to 1921, when he was in Cuba). He has become an authority on Spanish and Latin American folk-song and hymnology, and has compiled a Spanish Hymnal to be published shortly, commended by many authorities. It is with a great deal of thankfulness to Almighty God that we hear of the splendid work being done by the members of our Parish who have gone out into the Mission field. Do remember Archdeacon Watson in your prayers.

SEVEN YOUNG MEN and boys, and three young women, were presented to the Bishop of the Diocese for Confirmation last Sunday evening. The Bishop preached a most able sermon on the Incarnation and our Lord's eagerness to "fulfill all righteousness." He returned on Monday evening to open the series of the Lectures in the Church.

BISHOP WEBB of Milwaukee, who was also present at the Lecture Monday evening, and Bishop Ivins, his Coadjutor, were guests of the Priests' Catholic Club which met at S. Clement's on Tuesday. After the High Mass, luncheon was served in the Parish House.

THE ORGAN RECITAL to be given tomorrow evening by Mr. H. William Hawke, the organist of S. Mark's Church, will include the following numbers: Psalm XIX, Marcello; Larghetto in F, Handel; Three Chorale Preludes by Bach—1, Jesus, My Safety; 2, Our Father Who art in Heaven; 3, From Heaven above to Earth I come; Priere, Jongen; Sur un theme Breton, Ropartz; Epithalame, Vierge.

THE OFFERING at the High Mass this morning is for the Parish Poor Fund. "He that giveth unto the poor, lendeth unto the Lord." There are many demands, and we do want to help our own people.

FATHER GAVITT is our guest in the Rectory. We are very happy to welcome him back to the Parish for this visit.

Parish Notes

THE EDITOR was a bit too sanguine in announcing a few weeks ago that the books of the Accounting Warden would be closed without a deficit for 1931. When the time finally came for closing the accounts there was a deficit of $460, and this amount was borrowed to balance the account. While this is not a serious deficit in this day, when every one is experiencing a similar situation, yet it gives us pause, and every effort will be made to watch expenses more closely.

BISHOP BOOTH OF VERMONT is the third lecturer in the course that is being given here Monday evenings, and his subject will be the third Note of the Church, "The Church is Catholic." The attendance at these lectures is most gratifying, and it is hoped that many more will come in for the final ones. There is no admission charge to the Church. Every one is welcome, whether they have a subscription ticket or not.

THE BISHOP OF ALGOMA will spend his third Septuagesima Sunday with us next week. It is just two years since he gave his memorable Eucharistic Mission in our Parish. He will preach at the Solemn Mass in the morning, and the music of the Mass will be Dabovitch's adaptation of the Serbian Liturgy. In the evening there will be a special service for the Acolytes and young men of the Parish.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be absent from the Parish from Monday until Saturday of this week. Fr. Underhill will be in the Church for Confessions Friday afternoon from 3 to 5. The Fr. Rector will keep his hours as usual on Saturday.

DUDLEY T. CORNING, ESQ'RE, was elected a member of the Vestry at the meeting on Tuesday afternoon, to fill the place vacated by W. W. Lukens, Esq're, who recently resigned. Mr. Corning has long been a faithful and devoted member of the Parish, and it is a great pleasure to the Fr. Rector and his many friends in the Congregation to welcome him to this honour. Mr. Corning is Chief of the Department of Highways, and has his office in the City Hall.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE is kept throughout the Catholic world, beginning with the Feast of S. Peter's Chair at Rome on the 18th of January, and closing on the Feast of S. Paul on the 25th. Each year an increasing number keep this Octave by assisting at Mass every day and receiving Holy Communion. Every one who has this great cause at heart should be saying a prayer for Unity every day. "The Prayer for the Unity of God's People" on page 37 in the Prayer Book, and the first Collect on page 49, are suggested for use during the Octave.

DR. FRY will give the Organ Recital before Bishop Booth's lecture tomorrow evening. His program will include:

Prelude and Fugue in E minor.....Johann Sebastian Bach
The Walk to Jerusalem.....Johann Sebastian Bach-Griswold
Trois Versets sur l'Hymne Ave Maris Stella.....Joseph Bonnet

Parish Notes

IT IS A GREAT JOY to have the Lord Bishop of Algoma with us again. This is the third time he has honoured us with his presence in the pre-Lenten season. He will preach for us this morning. Next Sunday he is preaching at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn; and on the following Sunday at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, New York City.

There will be a special service for the Acolytes and young men of the Parish this evening. A supper will be prepared for them in the Parish House before the service.

THE FINAL LECTURE in the Series of Four Episcopal Lectures on "The Four Notes of the Church" will be given tomorrow evening in this church. The subject of the lecture is "The Church is Apostolic," and the lecturer is the Lord Bishop of Algoma. At 7.45, Mr. Ernest White, the organist of S. James's Church, will play a series of numbers on the Organ. The program of his recital will be found at the bottom of the page.

THE MONTHLY DAY OF INTERCESSION before the Blessed Sacrament will be kept on Friday of this week. A chart with the hours between ten in the morning and eight in the evening marked on it will be found in the Church Porch at the Apple Tree Street entrance. Those able to give a half-hour or more for prayer and intercession are asked to sign their initials against the time chosen. The day will close with a Meditation and Benediction in the evening. The "intention" of the day's prayers is—a good Lent in the Parish.

TWO NEW HUMERAL VEILS have been added to our Vestment Chest during the past few weeks. A green veil to match the darker of the two green sets, made of velvet and lined with a rose colour to match the vestment orphreys, and a violet veil to match the dalmatic and tunic set which is worn in this pre-Lenten season. We are very grateful to the anonymous donors.

ASH WEDNESDAY falls on the 10th of February this year. The following Saturday evening, Dr. Frank Gavin, of the General Theological Seminary, will give the meditations at the Annual Quiet Evening for the men and boys of the Parish. An invitation will be given to The Laymen's Catholic Club to join us in this devotional exercise.

ON WEDNESDAY OF THE PAST WEEK Miss Barbara Booth, a member of S. Clement's, was received and clothed as a Novice in the Community of the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor, at the Mother House in Orange Grove, Maryland. Next Wednesday, another member of the Parish, Miss Ethel Haskins, will be Solemnly Professed in the Community, after having completed her Novitiate. Her name in Religion will be Sister Ethelwyn. Please keep these young women in your prayers.

TUESDAY IS THE NINTH ANNIVERSARY of Father Quin's death. Anniversary Requiems will be said at 8 and 9.30 that morning.

THE PROGRAM of Mr. White's Organ Recital tomorrow evening is as follows:

Kyrie Eleison	Karg-Elert
"The Day So Full of Joy"	Bach
"Blessed Be Thou, Jesus Christ"	Bach
"Now Is Our Salvation Come"	Bach
"Christians, Rejoice"	Bach

Parish Notes

THE FOUR EPISCOPAL LECTURES were most heartily received, and the congregations on the four Monday evenings of this month were most gratifying. The Committee has received many letters of appreciation, and already plans are in mind for another series next January. The lectures will be printed in forthcoming copies of The American Church Monthly, and if there is sufficient demand, they may be published as separate pamphlets by the Congress Committee.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1932 for The Catholic Congress are now due, and may be paid to the Parish Treasurer, Mrs. Pendleton. It is hoped that as many as are able will increase their subscriptions. Those who now give $1 to increase to $5. Those who now give $5 to $10. And we hope all of the present members will renew for the coming year. The One Hundredth Anniversary of the Oxford Movement will be celebrated next year throughout the Anglican Communion. There will be a great Congress in London in the early summer, and one in this country in the early autumn. Funds are needed for advertisement and for the frequent bulletins, as well as for the general expenses of the organization. The Committee looks to such strongholds of the Faith as S. Clement's to be generous supporters of its work.

ARCHDEACON BASKERVILLE, who is in the charge of the Church's work amongst the coloured people in South Carolina, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday. The Archdeacon's work is familiar to us, and we are always glad to welcome him to S. Clement's. All of the women of the Church are members of the Auxiliary, and they would receive a warm welcome at its monthly meetings.

THE CANDLEMAS PROCESSION will follow Vespers on Sunday evening. It seems best to have this procession on the Sunday evening nearest the Feast of the Purification. Ideally the blessing of the candles and the procession would take place before the chief Mass on Tuesday, but this seems impracticable. Solemn Vespers of our Lady will be sung Sunday evening, and the processional hymns will be, "Shall we not love thee, Mother dear," and "Ye who own the Faith of Jesus."

A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN, beginning on a Saturday afternoon at 5 and closing at 9, similar to the Quiet Evening we have for Men, has been suggested for a Lenten devotion. Will those interested please speak to the Father Rector, and if the response warrants it, such an evening will be arranged.

CHRISTIANS, somehow, easily forget the Incarnation, which is the beginning and foundation of our redemption. The glory of our race is that God became Man. That this miracle of Divine condescension may be ever remembered is the reason why the Angelus is rung at our churches and religious houses three times a day, and a certain prayer said: at seven o'clock in the morning, at noon, and again at six in the evening. Learn to say the Angelus (printed below) and add it to your devotions; it is a very simple prayer, and may be said when at home, at work, or at any other occupation.

V. The Angel of the Lord announced unto Mary:
R. And she conceived by the Holy Ghost. Hail, Mary.
V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:
R. Be it unto me according to thy word. Hail, Mary.
V. The Word was made Flesh:
R. And dwelt among us. Hail, Mary.

Let us pray:

We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts: that, as we have known the Incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an Angel, so by his Cross and Passion we may be brought unto the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Notes

MISSIONARY GIFTS FOR 1931. The Diocesan Treasurer keeps his books open until the middle of January, so as to allow all remittances that may be delayed to be included in the report for 1931. The final figures to cover the giving of S. Clement's to Missions for the past year are now in hand. Our Quota, based on our Parish Expenses, is $7,800. We told the Diocese that we "expected" to give $5,000. Towards this "expectation" we gave, through the duplex envelopes and special gifts, $4,972.64, and in answer to the Bishop's appeal for the deficit, $131, making a total of $5,103.64, which was somewhat over our "expectation." In addition to this, there were additional gifts that did not apply against the "Quota." In response to the Bishop's New Year's appeal, we gave $150.00, and for other special objects during the year we gave $170.00. For the Church's advance program we gave $1,126.51. So S. Clement's total missionary giving for the year, as recorded in the accounts of the Diocesan Treasurer, shows a grand total of $6,350.15. This is a perfectly splendid showing, and the Father Rector is more than proud of what S. Clement's has been able to do. He congratulates you all, and thanks all who have had a part in this fine offering to our Lord for the extension of the Kingdom.

TUESDAY IS SHROVE TUESDAY. Confessions will be heard by the Fr. Rector from 10 to 12 in the morning. From 3 to 5 in the afternoon by the Fr. Rector and Fr. Underhill. All the Priests will be in their Confessionals in the evening from 7 to 9.

ASH WEDNESDAY. Low Mass at 6, 7, 8 and 9.30. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, and Solemn Vespers, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8. The Father Rector will preach at 11 and 8. Ashes will be imposed before and after every Service.

THE ANNUAL QUIET EVENING FOR MEN will be given next Saturday evening. It will open with Vespers at 5, and will close with Compline at 9. The Meditations will be given by the Rev'd Dr. Frank Gavin of The General Theological Seminary. Cards have been sent to our men, and to some Parishes outside, but any who have not had notices will be welcomed; if they notify one of the Priests in advance, supper will be prepared for them.

A SIMILAR QUIET EVENING for Women and Girls will be given the following Saturday evening, following the same schedule. The meditations will be given by the Fr. Rector. Please give your name, in writing, to one of the Priests or to one of the Sisters, if you wish to attend, so that supper may be provided. This Quiet Evening is in addition to the regular Mid-Lent Retreat for Women.

SCHEDULES OF LENTEN SERVICES in S. Clement's will be found in the Church Porch. Please give copies to any of your friends who may be interested.

ON TUESDAYS IN LENT the Father Rector will give a meditation after the 9.30 Mass. For several years such a meditation has been given at four on Tuesday afternoons. It is hoped this morning hour will suit the convenience of a greater number of people. The Litany will be said before the Meditation, and the Penitential Office will follow.

Parish Notes

WE HAVE ALL BEEN SADDENED by the death of our Sister Margaret of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity in the Mission House on Woodstock Street last Tuesday afternoon. She had been ill for several weeks, but she seemed to be gaining in health and strength, but a second heart attack seized her about noon on the day she died. Sister Faith took the body on to the Convent in Fond du Lac the next day, and the Burial Mass and Interment took place there. A Requiem Mass was said here in the Mission House Chapel on the day of burial. There will be a Requiem Mass in the Church for Sister Margaret next Saturday morning at 9.30. Sister Margaret never took an active part in the Parish House life, so a great many people never knew her. But she did a very great work in instructing women and girls in the Mission House. Every one who came in contact with her was devoted to her. Scores of people in the parish have been prepared for Confirmation and for their Confessions by Sister Margaret. She had a most charming and winsome personality—dainty and quaint, she seemed to belong to another age. She was a rare soul; a real saint; and a beautiful religious.

THE QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will begin with Vespers at five o'clock on Saturday. The Father Rector will give the Meditations, which will be based on our Lord's parable of the Ten Virgins.

FOLDERS, giving a list of the Masses and Services during Lent in S. Clement's, will be found in the Church porch. Either give these, or send them to any of your friends who might be interested.

A WORD TO PENITENTS. Those who come to make their Confessions in the Church should be very careful to await their rightful turn before going into the Confessional. When the Penitent is ready to enter the Confessional, he should take a seat in one of the pews directly in front of the Confessional that he is going to use. If preparation is made in the Lady Chapel, he should come to the back of the Church when ready to receive the Sacrament. There is a great deal of confusion arising from people watching from the front of the Church for an opportunity to enter the Confessional, and too many people come in later and go into the Confessionals before those who have been waiting some time. Christians ought to be courteous. Certainly Penitents must be so.

HEROES OF THE CATHOLIC REVIVAL is the subject of a series of eight tracts recently published in England and to be found in the Tract Cases in the Church Porch. Each is the story of the life and work of a Priest who was an outstanding figure in the Anglo-Catholic Movement. They are familiar names to many of us, but few really know the stories of their lives. The eight Precept Tracts will make profitable Lenten Reading. The contents of the Tract Cases are changed every week; they will furnish you with Spiritual Reading for this holy season.

THERE IS STILL A DEMAND for clothes for both men and women, and for children. If you have anything that you can no longer use, please send it to the Parish House. There are many demands here, and we can always place these things with deserving people.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"Litany of Penitence".....No. 466

INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.

Psalm. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Glory be..... He shall call upon me.....

KYRIE*Johann Sebastian Bach*
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 125 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong-hold: my God, in Him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Parish Notes

THERE WILL BE A CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR ALL THE MEN of the Diocese in Holy Trinity Church to-morrow morning, on the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington. This will be followed by a Breakfast at the Penn Athletic Club, which will cost one dollar a plate. The Bishop of the Diocese will speak at the breakfast, and so will the Rev. Jesse Holmes.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE CHURCH will preach this afternoon at four o'clock at Christ Church, at a special service in commemoration of George Washington. The Presiding Bishop will preach at Christ Church at noon to-morrow in connection with the same celebration.

THE CORPORATE COMMUNION at Holy Trinity will be at eight o'clock to-morrow morning. It is hoped that S. Clement's will be well represented. If you are not able to attend the breakfast, do not let this deter you from assisting at the Mass.

THE FATHER RECTOR is giving a Lenten Meditation for the meeting of the New York Catholic Club at Holy Rood Church, Tuesday morning. The meditation here, after the last Mass, will be given by Fr. Edwards.

FLOWERS FOR THE ALTARS AND SHRINES, or offerings of money with which to buy them, would be very gratefully received. Flowers can be given as votive offerings in memory of the Faithful Departed or for an anniversary, or in thanksgiving for a blessing received. Twenty-five dollars will keep flowers on the Altar of the Blessed Sacrament and at one of our Lady's Shrines for a month.

THE MEN OF THE PARISH, who are members of the Catholic Laymen's Club, are asked to reserve the Tuesday evening after Easter for a Smoker at S. Luke's, Germantown, when it is hoped to have the Lord Bishop of Algoma for the speaker of the evening.

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS? The Catholic Congress Movement in this country is making a drive for new members this year. Certainly every member of S. Clement's Church should be a hearty supporter of the Congress Movement. Next year, the 100th anniversary of the beginning of the Oxford Movement will be celebrated both in England and this country with big congresses. Catholic literature is being put out in tract form and distributed. Local Conferences are being held all over the country. We must share with others what we so richly enjoy. Memberships are one dollar a year. In return you receive the Congress Bulletin regularly. Speak to one of the Priests if you are not already a member.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS is made in the Church every Friday evening. It is preceded by a sermon on the Holy Gospel for the following Sunday, and followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Making the Stations of the Cross is a most appropriate and pious devotion for Lent. It helps us to understand what our Lord meant us to realize when He said, "This have I done for thee!" It arrests us with His further question, "What hast thou done for Me?"

THE ANNUAL ALL DAY RETREAT FOR WOMEN will be held as usual on Mid-Lent Sunday. The Father Rector will give the Meditations at the usual hours, the subjects being drawn from the 3rd and 4th verses of the 22nd Chapter of the Revelation of S. John. "His servants shall serve Him..... And they shall see His Face..... And they shall reign for ever and ever." If you intend to be present for breakfast or dinner or both, it will be necessary to notify the Sister Katharine, S. H. N., at 110 North Woodstock Street.

Parish Notes

TWO GENEROUS PERSONS have responded with cheques for flowers, so the two months of March and April are provided for. We are grateful for this response, and hope others will follow with provision for the following months.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON of this week is the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. The speaker will be The Venerable Wellington K. Boyle, an Ojibway Indian, and Archdeacon of the Indian work in the Diocese of Duluth. Every woman of the congregation, ipso facto, is a member of this Missionary Society. There is an interesting speaker for the monthly meetings, which are held in the Parish House on the first Wednesday of the month, at three o'clock in the afternoon. If you do not have much money to give to Missions, can you not give an hour once a month to support this organization with your presence and your prayers? Strangers will be welcomed, and made to feel no longer strange.

NEXT SUNDAY is the day for the Annual Quiet Day for Women. This day has long been so observed in the Parish. Those wishing reservations for either breakfast or dinner or both should communicate with Sister Katharine at SPR-2044. The Day begins with Mass and Holy Communion at 8. The Meditations, based on Rev. xxii: 3 and 4, will be given by the Father Rector. The Day closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4.

ON FRIDAY EVENINGS IN LENT, after the Father Rector's Sermon, the devotion of the Way of the Cross is recited in the Church. The Stations of the Cross are the pictorial representations of the principal incidents in the Passion of our Lord, placed along the walls of the Church. The framed pictures hanging on the walls in S. Clement's have been here since the days of the Cowley Fathers. Bruno Zimm, the famous sculptor, is preparing designs now in his studio at Woodstock, New York, for a very handsome set to be carved in pink sand-stone and set in the walls of the Church. They are usually fourteen in number, beginning with our Lord's condemnation to death, they end with His burial in the garden tomb of Joseph of Arimathea. "Making the Stations" consists in saying some prayers before each picture and making a brief meditation on the incident represented. When the devotion is said publicly in the Church, the great medieval hymn, Stabat Mater, is sung while passing from station to station. The service closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

AS READING MATERIAL is no longer provided for the Quiet Days, plenty of tracts suitable for devotional reading will be placed in the tract cases. These are for sale, and the prices are marked plainly. The tract cases have a new supply of tracts every week, and you will always find something there that will both interest you and instruct you. After you buy them, and digest them, pass them on to others.

AN EXPERIMENTATION with a new lighting system for the Church is now in process. The present system is very expensive in the use of power, the lights are badly placed, and they are very hard to renew. Some trial lanterns have been hung in the Church. They are just sample lanterns, and we are trying to get a better lighting with fewer lamps, and with less consumption of power. As soon as they are adjusted, and tried at a service, we will be very glad for opinions and suggestions.

S. MARY'S GUILD meets on the first Monday evening of each month. This is a devotional guild for women, with a very simple, but useful and effective rule of life. The Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary is sung by the Guild members at their monthly meeting, there is an address by the Fr. Rector, and this is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Then the members adjourn to the Parish House, where there is social hour and some simple refreshments. The meetings in S. John's Chapel are open to any who may care to attend them.

THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK, which is March 17th this year, is the day for the annual quiet day for the members of S. Mary's Guild and their friends. Fr. Smith will conduct a "School of Prayer" this year, and the day will be open to all who may care to share it. If you wish luncheon, please notify the Sister Katharine, S.H.N., and a place will be prepared for you. The day will open with the Mass at 9.30. The Addresses will be at 10, 12 and 2.30. The day closes with the 3rd meditation.

THE WORD "MASS" FROM THE LATIN MISSA, originally meant a dismissal, and was first applied in the Early Church to that part of the Communion Office to which the candidates for Baptism were admissible. This was called the MISSA CATECHUMENORUM, meaning thereby the service at the end of which the catechumens were sent away. The latter part of the service was called the MISSA FIDELIUM, because the faithful did not go away until it was ended, and a little later the word was used to denote any kind of service. In the first reformed Prayer Book of Edward VI (1549) the title is thus given: "The Supper of the Lord and the Holy Communion, commonly called the Mass," but the word disappeared in subsequent revision, though the service remained the same. Its use by the people never wholly disappeared, probably until the eighteenth century, when religion in England was at a low ebb. The convenience of having one short word to express what otherwise requires the use of a long and cumbersome phrase is evident. Moreover, the act of celebrating the Eucharist is precisely the same, whether performed by a Priest of the Eastern, the Roman, or the Anglican Communion, and so indicates the essential identity of the act in every part of the Church.—"AVE"

A DAILY MASS is a small enough ceremony in a corner, in a little chapel, with perhaps but a few worshippers; but the smallness is only in its outward features. The act has widest range; it reaches out arms of power over the whole world; it extends its influence to the abode of the departed; it penetrates up to the Throne of God. It is the widest, richest act, the act in which the greatest generosity can be spent of which man is capable.—Bishop Gore.

IN A RETREAT, one of the most valuable things is silence. We gather together to be quiet before God. There should be no talking except about things that are quite necessary. During meals a book or some article is read aloud. If this silence seems strange, no one need be afraid of it. All will get to like it. It will give God a chance to speak to us, and in the quietness we can speak to God. "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." "Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God." So we may learn in Retreat what prayer really means.—"AVE."

THE FATHER RECTOR is very grateful to his many friends in the Parish and in the congregation who have written him letters and sent him cards and other messages on the occasion of his father's sudden death. The thoughts of one's friends and the assurance of their prayers are a great comfort at all times, but especially so at such a time as this, when they are so generously expressed.

OF YOUR CHARITY PLEASE PRAY for the Repose of the souls of Frank Sellers Joiner and Caroline Rogers Buehler.

Parish Notes

ON THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK, S. Patrick's Day, Father Smith, Vicar of S. Elisabeth's Church, will conduct a School of Prayer in S. John's Chapel. There will be three addresses on the subject of Prayer, one at 10, another at 12, and the last at 2.30, with some demonstrations of prayer between the addresses. The Rule of Silence will be kept after the Mass at 9.30, and the School will close with the last address. A simple collation will be served in the Parish House at 1. It will help very much in the arrangements if those wishing refreshments would notify one of the Sisters in advance. No formal notices have been sent out.

THE WEEK OF MARCH 14TH TO 19TH is Philadelphia's Fifth Educational Week for the Blind. The Headquarters for the Week will be in Gimbel Brothers' Store. There will be an exhibition in the Auditorium, where a variety of entertainment by the Blind will be given every day. Monday is "Episcopal" Day. Luncheon and Afternoon Tea will be served daily. The Woman's Aid of the several Convocations in the Diocese are trying to promote interest amongst our Church people.

THE FATHER RECTOR has assumed the responsibility for FIFTEEN DOLLARS a week to provide treatment for one of our faithful Acolytes at the Chestnut Hill Hospital for Consumptives. The case is in an incipient state, the young man's recovery is assured. The Father Rector appeals for help in this responsibility. If ten people would contribute the cost of one week apiece, he would be very grateful. It is hoped that within ten weeks a vacancy may occur at Mount Alto, and the case will be transferred there when there is a place for it.

NEXT SUNDAY IS PALM SUNDAY. The Solemn Blessing of the Palms and the Palm Procession will begin at 10.30. The Solemn Mass will begin at about 11.30. The services during Holy Week will be as in the past, and will be announced in detail next Sunday.

OUR CHOIR is singing a very elaborate program of music this afternoon at S. Thomas's Coloured Church, 12th Street below Walnut, and the Father Rector is preaching at 4.15 P. M.

OUR ABILITY TO MAINTAIN the Parish Budget for 1932 will depend very largely on the amount of the Easter Collection. The Parish Endowment is about the same sum as last year. If the Easter collection is about the usual amount, it will not be necessary to make any cut in the Parish. We are running on a very low budget as it is, and any further cut in it would seriously handicap the work. Please make what sacrifice you can to keep the Parish going. It is the only haven for many souls, and we must do our part to keep it functioning in every department. Plan now for a generous Easter Offering.

THE ANNUAL COLLECTION for The Woman's United Thank Offering is now being made. The Parish Treasurer is Miss Hoffman of 2118 DeLancey Place. This annual offering made by the women of the Church is presented every three years at The General Convention, and is used in advance work on the Missionary Program of the Church. No appeal is ever made on this page that is not both a worthy one and an urgent one. Announcements will be found on the Bulletin Boards in the Church Porches this morning.

OF YOUR CHARITY please pray for the repose of the soul of the Reverend Edward Marshall Frank of the City Mission Staff. Fr. Frank was a very frequent visitor at S. Clement's, coming in almost every Sunday during the Solemn Mass, after he had finished Mass in his regular Mission. We shall miss his genial sympathy and friendship. May he rest in peace.

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Introduction to "The Passion"....Joseph Haydn

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"Litany of the Passion".....No. 467

INTROIT—Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

Psalm. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

KYRIE—Adapted from The Serbian Liturgy.....Sebastian Dabovitch

GRADUALE—Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

TRACT—Many a time have they fought against me: from my youth up. May Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers ploughed upon my back. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

According to the Missal

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succor afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE—(In E Flat).....Johann Sebastian Bach

(Collect, Epistle and Passion, page 134, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipt. And why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—(Mass in C).....Myles B. Foster

SERMONTHE FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness:

I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Parish Notes

IT WILL BE A GREAT HELP, both in comfort and reverence, if the regular members of the Parish and Congregation will occupy the front pews in the Church today, and throughout Holy Week. Especially during the Preaching of the Passion on Good Friday will this leave the rear of the Church free for those who must leave before the Service is finished.

OFFERINGS OF MONEY FOR THE ALTAR OF REPOSE should be handed to the Father Rector. Offerings of flowers for the Altar of Repose on Thursday should be sent to the Parish House Wednesday afternoon. The Altar of Repose, as usual, will be in S. John's Chapel.

SMALL BOOKLETS, with the Psalms and Lessons of Tenebrae, are to be found in the Tract Case. They may be borrowed for the Service, but if they are to be taken away, 25 cents should be left in the Tract Case Money Box. There is also a wide assortment of new Tracts about the Ceremonials of Holy Week, and also helpful devotional manuals in the Cases.

ANGLO-CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS, containing all the extra-liturgical services of the Church, are to be found in the Cope Room. They make very charming Easter presents. There are also some small wooden figures of S. Clement. The Prayer Books are $1 apiece, and the statues are 50 cents.

THE EASTER LETTERS are in the mail, and should be delivered tomorrow or Tuesday. If you do not receive one, please tell the Father Rector, so that your address may be added or corrected on the Parish Files. It is hoped that everyone has been reached. The Easter Offering, as usual, is for Parish Expenses. Your most generous co-operation is urged.

KEEP THE HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE before you. Tell your friends of our services. Bring them with you. Endeavour to keep a real Holy Week. Do not neglect your Confession. And you will have a Blessed Easter.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR AND THE ASSISTANT PRIESTS wish every member of the Parish and Congregation all the joys and blessings of the happy Easter Feast; we have had a very wonderful Lent together, and we pray that the lessons we have learned may deepen our spiritual lives during the Great Forty Days.

THE FOLLOWING PERSONS have responded to the appeal for the sick acolyte: Mrs. Andrews, Miss Connelly, Mrs. Thomas Holroyd, Miss Hopkins, Mrs. Joline, Miss McManemy, Miss Neilson, Mrs. Rex, Miss Unitt and Miss Williams, Dr. Fritz, J. A. Fritz, J. M. Hancock, Dr. Roland Holroyd, Howard Sharp, H. M. Morris and Clinton Rogers Woodruff. The young man is in the Sanitarium at Chestnut Hill, and is progressing very rapidly towards a complete recovery. The Father Rector is most grateful for this prompt and generous response.

EACH YEAR, ON EASTER MONDAY, four vestrymen are elected to serve for a period of three years. The following are nominated for re-election tomorrow:—Messrs. Theo. G. Homan, Harry G. Tyson, Herbert M. Morris, and Dudley T. Corning. The Easter Meeting of the Vestry will be held in the Rectory Tuesday afternoon.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept on Friday evening at eight o'clock. It is an ancient and laudable custom to spend an hour, on the first Friday of the month, in worship and meditation before our Lord's Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. In fact, the First Friday is constantly growing as a day of special devotion to the Mass and Holy Communion as well. It is hoped that more of our own people will set apart this day for Holy Communion, perhaps for some very special intention, or for God's very special blessing on our Parish. Can we not have more of the faithful out for a Holy Half-Hour in the morning as well as for the Holy Hour in the evening?

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF, Director of the Department of Public Welfare, has asked the Editor to say that he is not unmindful of the requests that have been made to him for assistance. He is meeting as many of them as he possibly can, but he has no positions available at this time, in fact he has been engaged ever since his appointment in reducing his staff to bring it within the Councilmanic appropriation. Our people may depend upon his doing everything he can for them, but he cannot "make bricks without straw" nor can he make appointments without wages.

OWING TO AN UNEXPECTED ENGAGEMENT, demanding his presence in Canada on Tuesday morning, the Lord Bishop of Algoma will have to return to his See City this afternoon. It has been a joy to have him again in the Parish, and we are most grateful for his help in the Confessional on Saturday.

THE FATHER RECTOR made his debut on the Radio Wednesday afternoon. He spoke over WCAU on "Why we ought to keep Good Friday."

THE ALTAR OF REPOSE, in S. John's Chapel, was particularly beautiful this year. The flowers were all white ones, but in a wide variety of kinds, and with the florists' background of ferns and palms and laurel, it has never looked more lovely, nor been more admired.

THE FLOWERS ON THE HIGH ALTAR today are a memorial, given by Miss Ellen Lathrop Hopkins, for the members of her family who were prominently identified with S. Clement's in the "days of the Fathers."

Parish Notes

EASTER WAS A GLORIOUS FEAST in the Parish. As usual, there were the largest number of Communicants in the year, about 340. The offering was also up to its usual mark, which is a matter for great gratification in this year of depression. In 1929, the offering was $1,397.10; in 1930, $1,372.04; in 1931, $1,435.18; and this year it was $1,421.72.

AT THE ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN on Easter Monday, Messrs. Corning, Homan, Morris and Tyson were unanimously returned for the ensuing three years. The Easter meeting of the Vestry was held in the Rectory on Easter Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ritter was re-elected Accounting Warden, and the Father Rector re-appointed Mr. Woodruff as Rector's Warden. Mr. Clay was re-elected Secretary. The following Committees were elected: Finance, Messrs. Clay, Homan and Morris. Property, Messrs. Mayer, Corning and Sellers. Insurance, Messrs. Homan, Morris and Ritter. The Father Rector appointed Messrs. Ritter, Tyson and Woodruff as members of the Music Committee. A Minute was adopted at this meeting on the death of Mr. Bayard, who was the Vestryman oldest in point of service, and copies are to be sent to his sisters and his daughters.

A CARD PARTY will be held in the Parish House on Tuesday evening at 8. The single admissions will be 50 cents. All kinds of Card Games will be played, and there will be a great variety of prizes. Tables may be reserved in advance through Miss Decker. Tickets are on sale this morning in the Cope Room. Ice Cream and Cake will be for sale. The entire proceeds will be given for the Parish's Missionary Quota.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet on Monday evening at 8 in S. John's Chapel, and after the Office, they will have their Easter Party in the Parish House.

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF THE ANNUNCIATION, transferred from March 25th. In addition to the usual Low Masses, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11.

SAMUEL McKEAN BAYARD, for twenty-eight years a member of the Vestry, and for many of those years Accounting Warden of the Parish, died in Baltimore on the Wednesday in Holy Week. Mr. Bayard had been in failing health for the past few years, yet his death came very unexpectedly. The body was brought to the Crypt Chapel on Good Friday, and rested there until the Mass in the Church on Monday. There was a Solemn Requiem, with the Father Rector as Celebrant, Fr. Edwards was Deacon, and Fr. Bulkeley was Sub-Deacon. The Rev. Edmund Wood, of Clark's Mills, New York, read the Burial Office before the Mass, and assisted at the interment in Trinity Church-yard, Oxford. Of your Charity, please pray for the repose of his soul.

THE PASCHAL CANDLE has been very beautifully painted this year by Miss Janette Newman. We are very grateful to her for her lovely and generous work.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY meets on Wednesday afternoon of this week at 3. All the women of the Congregation are invited to attend. There are no appeals for money made at these meetings. A Corporate Communion of the Auxiliary is made at the early Masses on the following Friday, and the Intention at these Masses is for the Missionary Work of the Church.

THE BISHOP WHITE PARISH LIBRARY ASSOCIATION gives grants of Theological Books to Priests and Missionaries throughout the Church. Such books are very expensive, and it is often difficult for our Priests to carry on their studies, without some help from the outside. This Association provides such help, and does a most excellent work. There is a good annual income for the Association, but they need additional funds every year, and these come through voluntary subscriptions made through Parish Secretaries. Some few people give $5, but the majority give either $1 or $2 annually. The Association prefers having many small subscriptions, with personal interest and prayers behind them, than just a few large sums given by a few people. The Parish Secretary is Miss Rae Williams of "The Belgravia."

THE FEMALE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PRAYER BOOK SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA is a society similar to the above, except that it gives only Prayer Books and Hymnals, to needy parishes and mission stations. Their work is a great help to the Missionary Bishops, who often find it difficult to supply their stations with these manuals of devotion and worship. Here too small annual subscriptions augment the income of the Society, and S. Clement's has always been conspicuous in this help. The President of the society is a member of the Parish. Miss Sellers, of 2118 Delancey Place, is the Parish Secretary. If you wish to subscribe to either or both of these societies, you may send your offerings to the respective secretaries, or you may hand them to the Father Rector.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House, under the auspices of some of our young people, on Wednesday evening at 8. The entire proceeds will be given to the Parish Quota for Missions. There will be some prizes, and refreshments, at an additional charge, during the evening. Tickets for single admissions are 50 cents. Tables may be reserved for $2.

NEXT TUESDAY The Catholic Congress Committee will hold a Conference at Grace Church, White Plains, N. Y. White Plains is but fifty minutes by train from the Grand Central Station in New York. The two English Priests who have come to this country under the auspices of The Oxford Centenary Celebration will be amongst the speakers. It is hoped that S. Clement's may be represented at this Conference.

WORK IS PROGRESSING very rapidly on the Stations of the Cross for the Church. The sculptor, Mr. Bruno Zimm, of Woodstock, New York, visited the Parish this past week, with the full completed designs. They are strikingly beautiful, very new in arrangement, yet full of devotion, and loyal to the best traditions of Catholic art. When fully completed and placed, they will not only greatly enhance the beauty of S. Clement's, but will be a real contribution to ecclesiastical art in this country. A few of the Stations have not as yet been designated as Memorials. If you have such a Memorial in mind, please speak to the Father Rector at once.

THE CONTRACT FOR THE NEW LANTERNS in the Church has been let, and they should be in place by the autumn. They will greatly improve the lighting in the Church, and at the same time greatly reduce the cost of electricity consumed. The Church is now lighted from the ceiling with 4200 watts. The new lanterns will do the same work, and much better, with 1200 watts. They are being paid for with current income from the Yarnall Maintenance and Improvement Fund.

ORGAN RECITAL in the Church, Tuesday evening, April 19th, at 8.30, to be played by Mlle. Renee Nizan, a brilliant young organist, and pupil of Louis Vierne, organist of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, France. This Recital is open to the public and no tickets of admission will be required.

Parish Notes

THERE WILL BE AN ORGAN RECITAL in the Church Tuesday evening of this week at half-past eight o'clock. It will be played by Mlle. Renee Nizan, a pupil of Louis Vierne, organist of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. The program will be found posted on the bulletin boards. No cards of admission are required, and there will be no offering. Please tell your friends of this evening of exceptional music.

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY for an evening of music to be given in the Parish House early in May under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, and the proceeds to be given to their work for Missions. The program will include two pianos, two harps, tenor and contralto soloists. The tickets will be one dollar. Further details will be given later.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 9TH, is another evening that every one must keep free. There will be a great mass meeting in S. Clement's for Anglo-Catholics in Philadelphia, at which Fr. Rosenthal, Vicar of S. Agatha's Church in Birmingham, and Fr. Russell, Organizing Secretary of the Centenary Celebration of the Oxford Movement in London, will be the speakers. Fr. Rosenthal will be preaching at the Solemn Mass in S. Clement's on Sunday, May the 8th, in the Octave of the Ascension. These two men are outstanding Priests and Preachers in England, and should command your most earnest attention.

ANGLO-CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS and S. Swithin's Prayer Books are now for sale in the Cope Room before and after all services. These are very helpful books of devotion to use at Mass, and include directions for many of the extra-liturgical offices, as well as definitions of many Catholic terms. Every member of the congregation should have one or the other of these books.

WITH THE REDUCTION of Funds in the hands of the Charity Organizations in the City, we are having a great many calls for help from our own people who, up to this time, have been helped by the Lloyd Committee. We do not want to fail them, so beg you to remember the Parish Poor Fund, and enable us to meet the cases that we know to be truly in need, and worthy of our assistance.

THE CARD PARTY ON WEDNESDAY EVENING was a great success. About seventy-five people spent the evening in the Parish House playing cards and visiting with each other. One of the classes from the Mothers' Meeting served the refreshments. Next winter, if all goes well, we shall try to have similar parties more frequently.

THE FIERY CROSS, the monthly magazine of the Anglo-Catholic Congress in England, has a very interesting article in the April number about the moving of S. Clement's Church, with a picture of the Church, and a brief account of our life and work. It was quite a surprise to open up this number of the magazine, and have a picture of S. Clement's standing out on the first page. Fr. Rosenthal is the editor of the magazine, and so we shall be glad to have him see the Church that was moved, and about which he has written so interestingly.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING First Vespers of S. Mark will be sung, the following day being the festival of the Evangelist. The following Sunday will be the Feast of SS. Philip and James, Apostles.

Parish Notes

THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday of this week in the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City. It is the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Guild in this country, so the annual meeting this year will be the Jubilee. The Superior General of the Guild in this country, the Father Rector of S. Clement's, will preach at the Solemn Mass at 11. After the luncheon, there will be a short business meeting, followed by an informal address by Fr. Rosenthal of S. Agatha's in Birmingham. All members of the Guild and their friends are invited. Luncheon will be provided for all who notify the Secretary in advance of their intention to be present. If you are expecting to be present, and tell one of the Priests today, a general notice will be sent to the Secretary tomorrow, telling him how many to expect from S. Clement's.

A FINE ORGAN RECITAL was played in the Church on Tuesday evening of the past week by Mlle. Renee Nizan of Paris. Mlle. Nizan, who is a pupil of Louis Vierne, noted composer and organist of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, played very brilliantly, and with excellent taste in registration, all serving to emphasize the exceedingly fine quality of the instrument which she was playing. A large number attended the recital which was given under the auspices of The Pennsylvania Chapter of The American Guild of Organists, The American Organ Players' Club, and The Camden Chapter of The National Association of Organists.

MONDAY EVENING, May 2nd, there will be a great mass meeting in the Church of the Holy Trinity, on the eve of the Annual Diocesan Convention, when the Bishop will make his annual address to the Diocese, and the Rev. Dr. Percy Silver of New York City will make a Missionary appeal. Before the service the Bishop is entertaining the Priests of the Diocese and all the lay delegates to the Convention at dinner in the Penn Athletic Club.

S. MARY'S GUILD, in view of the above special service, will have their May meeting on Wednesday evening, May 4th, the eve of the Ascension. Cards telling of the change in date are being sent to all the members. Any members of the Congregation are welcome at the Guild Office of S. Mary and the Address, followed by Benediction, in S. John's Chapel at eight o'clock.

CATHOLIC CONFERENCES are being held all through the East during these two months of April and May. On May 12th, there will be such a Conference at Long Branch, New Jersey, beginning with a High Mass at 11. The two English Priests will be present and preach. On May 19th, the Thursday of the next week, there will be a similar conference at Utica, New York. Monday evening, May 9th, the two English Priests, Fr. Rosenthal and Fr. Russell, will speak here at St. Clement's, in a general mass meeting for all Anglo-Catholics in the city.

FATHER KLEIN, S.S.J.E., who is conducting a Mission this week at The Eastern Penitentiary, is also giving a series of Mission Instructions in the evenings at S. Elisabeth's Church, 16th and Mifflin Streets. The Priests at S. Elisabeth's extend a cordial invitation to the members of our Congregation to join with them in these evenings of prayer and instruction. The services will begin at 8.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME begins today, and continues to the last Sunday in September.

THERE IS A DEVOTIONAL SERVICE in the Chapel every Friday evening, lasting for about one hour. A few hymns, some intercessions and prayers, a brief address and instruction, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. About eighty people come regularly. Others would find it equally helpful. Acquire the habit.

1. Sun. SS. PHILIP and JAMES, APP. Low Mass of the Feast at 7 and 8. High Mass, with Hymns, and Holy Communion at 9.15. Children's Catechism, and the Sister's Bible Class for Women, at 10. Solemn Mass and Sermon (The Fr. Rector) at 11. Solemn Vespers and Sermon (Fr. Bulkeley) at 8.

NEXT SUNDAY is one of the great days we have been looking forward to for a long time, for we are to have the pleasure and the honour of Fr. Rosenthal's presence over the Feast. Fr. Rosenthal is the foremost Anglo-Catholic preacher in England to-day, and is the author of many books. He is in this country in the interests of the Centenary of the Oxford Movement which is to be celebrated in London and Oxford during the summer of 1933. Fr. Rosenthal's sermon here next Sunday morning is his only preaching engagement in the city. In the evening he is preaching at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, and while there will be Solemn Vespers as usual here, you are urged to go to S. Luke's and hear Fr. Rosenthal again.

FATHER ROSENTHAL will be joined here on Monday, May 9th, by Fr. Russell, Organizing Secretary of the Centenary Celebration, who is also preaching through the East on the same mission. There will be a great Mass Meeting for Anglo-Catholics and all who are interested in the Oxford Movement here in S. Clement's, Monday evening, May 9th, at 8.15. Fr. Hughson, O.H.C., who is to speak the following day at the Catholic Club will be here, too. Both Fr. Rosenthal and Fr. Russell will speak on Monday evening, the 9th of May, and after their addresses, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given from the High Altar. Please make these two occasions known to your friends. S. Clement's must be packed to the doors on these two occasions.

VOLKMANN'S MASS IN D MAJOR is the Music for the Mass next Sunday. The Choir will be augmented by the Men's Choir, which sang so beautifully for us last Spring.

TWO MORE CATHOLIC CONFERENCES ARE ANNOUNCED. There will be a Regional Conference of the Catholic Congress at Long Branch, Thursday, May 12th. There will be a similar Conference at Utica, New York, on the following Thursday, the 19th. These Conferences are being arranged at this time so as to allow the English Priests to come in contact with as many Catholics as possible. Long Branch is easy of access from Philadelphia. Why not combine a pleasant day at the sea with the spiritual uplift of the Conference. The programs are posted on the bulletin boards in the Church Porch.

THIS IS THE WEEK for the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Convention. As usual it is meeting in Holy Trinity Church. A new feature is the opening meeting on Monday evening, when the Bishop of the Diocese will make his annual address, and Dr. Percy Silver of New York City will make a Missionary address. It is hoped that all the business of the Convention can then be transacted in one day.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet this month on the eve of the Ascension, Wednesday evening, instead of Monday. This change in evening is arranged so that the Priests can be present at the opening of the Diocesan Convention, and attend the dinner the Bishop is giving to the Delegates. Notices of the change in date for the Guild have been sent to all members. All members of the congregation are welcome at these Guild services, men as well as women. The service is described under the Kalendar and Notices Column.

THIS IS ALSO THE WEEK for the monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, and for the keeping of the Holy Hour in S. John's Chapel on the first Friday. The First Friday in the month is becoming more and more a day devoted to the Mass and Holy Communion on the part of Catholics, and it would be a great joy and blessing were it so used by many more at S. Clement's.

FATHER UNDERHILL is leaving some day this week for his annual visit in the South. He will be in Rutherfordton, North Carolina, until September. His address there is "S. Luke's House."

TUESDAY EVENING AT 8.30, there will be a very delightful program of music in the Parish House. Wilbur Evans, Baritone, and Ruth Weir Miller, Soprano, will sing. Dorothy Johnstone Baseler will play the Harp, and in one number be accompanied by Mrs. Sumner H. Cross of our own Parish. Miss Rae Williams of S. Clement's and a friend, Mrs. Charles Wentz of Merion, will play at two Pianos. The program will close with a duet by Miss Miller and Mr. Evans. The tickets are $1. The entire proceeds will be given to Missions through the Woman's Auxiliary of our Parish. This is an evening of very superior music, and it is hoped that a goodly audience will greet these artists, who are so generously giving us their services.

THE MASS MEETING last Monday evening far exceeded our wild-expectations. The Church was packed, and many people standing across the rear of the Church. Fr. Rosenthal was magnificent. The singing made the walls of the Church rock. Fr. Russell was most winsome in his appeal for us all to "close things up" next summer and come to England for the Oxford Movement Centenary. And then at the end, our Lord's blessing in Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, crowned an evening that none of us shall want to forget for many a day.

THE ENGLISH CONGRESS wants all of us to be members. It costs but 50 cents. If you have not already enrolled, 112 did last Monday, please do so on the enclosed slip, and hand it, with your offering, to one of the Priests. A badge will be sent to you promptly, and other literature will follow from England in due course. Above all they want our prayers. During the next year, the Masses on the first Sunday in each month will be offered for God's blessing on the Centenary Congress to be held in England next summer.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL REGIONAL CONFERENCE was held on Thursday in Long Branch. A number of "Clementines" were present. These Conferences are most interesting and instructive, and they do much to promote fellowship amongst Catholics. Attendance at these meetings is a most excellent habit to cultivate. There is another one next Thursday at Utica, New York. The Father Rector is repeating the address he made at Long Branch at the Conference in Utica, on "The Catholic and the Sacraments."

THE BARREL in the Church Porch has had to be emptied every day this week, and on Monday it was emptied twice! We are most grateful to the many folks who are helping us with this work. I am sure Elijah's promise to the widow of Zarephath will be fulfilled in our endeavour: "The barrel of meal shall not fail.....until the Lord sends plenty upon the earth."

IN SENDING OUT THE OFFERING ENVELOPES in the Pentecost letters this week, in several cases where the letters were addressed to more than one member of a family, through an oversight but one offering envelope was enclosed. These envelopes are simply a matter of convenience, and do not in any way designate the collection. The entire offering today, both in envelopes, and in loose cash outside of envelopes, will go to the same object—the summer expenses in the Parish.

SISTER KATHARINE, who has been in charge of the work of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, ever since they came to do Mission work in the Parish nine years ago, is retiring from the work this summer, and will not be returning to us after her holiday. When the Reverend Mother of the Community was here for her annual visitation in the winter, it was arranged that Sister Katharine and Sister Margaret should retire from the Mission work this summer. Sister Margaret's sudden death in February has not changed this plan. It is hard to think of the work here without Sister Katharine. We are glad she is to have the well-earned rest that is her due after such long and faithful service. We shall always follow her with our affectionate interest and our prayers.

Parish Notes

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will hold its ninth diocesan meeting on Thursday evening of this week at the Churchwoman's Club, 134 South 22nd Street. Supper will be served for 35 cents, and at seven, Fr. Niblo will give an address on "Altar Guilds and Missions." Members are urged to attend and bring their friends.

THURSDAY IS THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI. At the seven o'clock Mass, the men of The Catholic Laymen's League will make their Corporate Communion, and a simple breakfast will be served for them in the Parish House immediately after the Mass. We hope very much that this will become an annual event.

CORPUS CHRISTI evening at 8, S. Alban's Church, Olney, will be having their usual Festival in honour of the Most Holy Sacrament. Solemn Vespers will be sung, there will be a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament, and Benediction will be given. The Fr. Rector of S. Clement's is preaching the sermon. There will be refreshments in the Church garden immediately after the service.

ONE HESITATES TO MAKE ANY FURTHER APPEALS, yet there are the regular offerings in the Parish each year for outings for the poor, and for the choir boys' Camp Fund. Each of these will have to be curtailed. Only those people who are in real need of a change will be sent away for a holiday. And the choir boys' stay in camp will depend on the amount of money that is given for the purpose. It has been suggested that the choir give a Recital in the Church some Sunday afternoon, and an offering for the Choir Camp be taken at that time. It may be possible to arrange this.

AFTER BENEDICTION on Friday evening, the annual meeting of S. Saviour's Ward of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be held in the Parish House. The dues for the ensuing year are now in order, and should be sent to Mr. Ward, the Secretary, or if properly marked, may be placed on the collection plates, and they will be forwarded to him.

THE OFFERING AT THE MASS MEETING at which Fr. Rosenthal and Fr. Russell spoke, amounted to $241.08. This has been given, as Fr. Russell asked, to defray the expenses of Viscount Montmorres' preaching tour in the West Indies in the interests of the Oxford Centenary.

FATHER BERT is expected about the first of June for three months. The Father Rector will be in the Parish for a part of June, and will preach at the High Mass every Sunday in June. During July and August, he will be in charge of S. Anne's summer chapel at Point-au-Pic, Murray Bay, Canada. Fr. Edwards and Fr. Bulkeley will be away for the last two weeks in June, and one of them for July and the other for August. There will be a slight change in the week-day Masses from former years. There will be two Masses every day in the week. Daily at 7. Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9.30. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 8. The Masses on Sunday will be at the regular hours, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given Friday and Sunday evenings at 8.

TODAY is the Father Rector's fourteenth anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood. He will be saying his anniversary Mass at seven tomorrow morning.

THE CONCERT on last Tuesday evening was a most beautiful one, and we are most grateful to the artists who gave their services and talents so generously. Their numbers were most enthusiastically received, and the sale of the tickets has added a goodly sum to our Missionary Funds in the treasury of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Parish Notes

FRIDAY EVENING, at 8.30, the Choir will give a Recital of Sacred Music. Dr. Fry will give several Organ numbers, and these will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. A Silver Offering will be taken for the Choir Summer Camp Fund. Please make this occasion known to your friends. Many people know of the excellent work that our Choir is doing, but have no opportunity to hear them since they do not like to leave their own Parishes on Sunday.

THE SUMMER CALENDARS, giving a list of the Masses and hours for Confession during the summer, are enclosed in the leaflets today. This is the last number of the Leaflet until the first Sunday in October. Please keep the Calendar before you for reference during the summer. Neither the hard times nor the hot weather must be allowed to make any "depression in Religion" at S. Clement's!

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT will be held in Grace Church, Newark, on Thursday, June 2nd. There will be a Pontifical High Mass at 11, and Bishop Weller, Superior of the C. B. S., will preach. Luncheon and the business meeting will follow. The nine o'clock New York train will bring you to Newark in plenty of time for the Mass, and the half-past four train returning will have you at home by six in the evening.

THE CHOIR BOYS AND MEN were treated to a party at the Circus yesterday afternoon by a kind and generous friend in the Parish. They had a very wonderful time, and are most appreciative of this annual "treat."

S. Elisabeth's Church

With the full approval and blessing of the Bishop of the Diocese, and at the urgent request of Fr. Smith and Fr. Roseboro, Fr. Joiner has been invited to become "titular" Rector of S. Elisabeth's Church. This does not mean that he will take any active part in the work there, since Fr. Smith will continue as Vicar, and Fr. Roseboro as Priest-in-Charge. But it does mean that the Catholic Life and Work that has always been the glory of this great Parish will be safeguarded and guaranteed for the future. It does not mean that the Father Rector is assuming any financial responsibility either for himself or for S. Clement's, but it does mean that he will act as Chairman of a Committee that will try to raise throughout the Diocese, and from friends outside the Diocese, the funds necessary to finance it.

It is hoped that a group may be formed to be known as "The Friends of S. Elisabeth's Church," who will agree to give either $50 or $100 a year, until the Parish is able to assume its entire support.

Many of you know the outstanding piece of work that Fr. Smith and Fr. Roseboro, together with Fr. Della Chioppa, are doing there. Anglo-Catholics could not stand aside and let this work be closed down, or the character of its work jeopardized by being returned to the status of a Diocesan Mission. The whole work and its budget has been reorganized, and the running expenses cut to the barest minimum. A little story of the work there is being written, and copies will be in hand shortly for any who may wish to have them.

Please give this Venture for God and His Church a very prominent place in your prayers, and do not forget it when you come to Mass and to your Communion.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR returned from his holiday early in September. He had been in charge for the summer of S. Anne's Chapel at Pointe au Pic in the Province of Quebec, Canada. Father Edwards spent his holiday along the Atlantic Coast. Father Bulkeley resigned from the Staff after his return from Central America, and is hoping to return there as a Missionary Priest. Father Bert returned to Nashotah House after being in charge here for the summer. Father Gavitt, who is without a permanent cure at the present, is filling in on the Staff until Father Bulkeley's successor can be appointed.

SISTER MARY KATHLEEN of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity has succeeded Sister Katharine as the Sister in Charge of the Mission House and the work in the Parish. She will be assisted by Sister Helen and Sister Marie. We give a very hearty welcome to Sister Mary Kathleen, who spent a winter with us a few years ago. She has many friends in the Parish, and we look forward to a very happy winter's work under her direction.

THE SCHEDULE will remain practically the same as in recent years. The Masses on Sundays and week-days will be as usual. The Sisters' Bible Class will be omitted on Sunday mornings, and plans are under way to resume this on a week-day evening at the Sisters' Mission House. Plans for two new Guilds, one for young girls and the other for young women, will be announced in a later bulletin.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE is beginning today. Mrs. Mowry will be found in the Cope Room before and after High Mass and Vespers today, and every Sunday until the drive closes. It is hoped that every one with a spare dollar will become a member. The recent hurricane disaster in the Virgin Islands makes a fresh demand on this splendid organization. While the Red Cross is eager for your membership, they are also eager for your interest and your prayers.

THERE IS A CONSTANT DEMAND for old clothes and old shoes. No matter how old they may be, we can have them mended and repaired, and some one will be very grateful for them. The Barrel stands at the Apple Tree entrance of the Church, waiting for your contributions. Groceries, canned goods, fresh vegetables from your gardens, anything can be left there, and your gifts will be carefully distributed. The Father Rector will be grateful for gifts of money for some of the needy cases that come under his care.

MISS ARNOLD has resigned as head of the Altar Guild. The Altar Guild in S. Clement's has had charge for many years of the arrangement of the flowers on the Altars and at the Shrines. Miss Arnold has done most faithful and painstaking work for many years, and we release her from this work with the greatest regret, and with expressions of the highest appreciation for all she has done in the past. She is being succeeded in this post by Miss Connelly, who has been associated with this work for a long time. If any members of the Parish would like to arrange for memorials of flowers, they should communicate with Miss Connelly. $25 will furnish the Altar of the Blessed Sacrament and the Shrine of our Lady with flowers for a month. $10 will furnish a memorial for a Sunday.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY meets this week on Wednesday. Every Baptized woman in the congregation is a member of the Auxiliary. There is a Missionary speaker at most of the meetings. There are no appeals for money. We want more interest in this important side of the Church's work. S. MARY'S GUILD has its first meeting of the season tomorrow night at 8. This is a devotional Guild for women. There is a monthly meeting, with an address, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and with refreshments and a social hour in the Parish Hall. If you would like to know more about S. Mary's Guild, please speak to one of the Priests or to the Sisters.

Parish Notes

THE NAME OF THE MOTHERS' MEETING has been changed to S. Clement's Guild. It will continue to meet on Thursday evenings, and Father Edwards will continue as the Chaplain. The Chapel service at 9 is the real reason for the Guild. At 8 o'clock each week there will be some form of entertainment, some music, a reading, or some brief talk on an interesting subject, and this will be followed by a social period and refreshments. New members will be welcomed, and visitors are always free to come to the Chapel services.

THE TWO NEW GUILDS FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN are now ready for their meetings. The one will be for girls from about 12 to 18. They will be known as "The Children of Mary." They will meet Thursday evenings, and once a month will attend the Chapel service with S. Clement's Guild. The other group will be for young women from 18 to about 25. They will meet Friday evenings, and will always attend Benediction which closes the regular Friday evening service in the Chapel. Once a month they will be present at the entire service. The name of this group will be "S. Katharine's Guild." If any one is interested in either of these groups, Sister Marie will be glad to talk to them.

A BIBLE CLASS FOR WOMEN will meet at the Sisters' Mission House on Woodstock Street on alternate Tuesday evenings during the winter. The first meeting will be held next Tuesday evening. Sister Mary Kathleen will give a course of instructions on "The Women of the Bible." The class will begin at 7.30, and be finished before 9. While this class is open to any women of the congregation, we would prefer to have only such women join who are reasonably sure of attending the full course during the winter.

SEWING. Miss Anne Dickson of the Church House advises us that the Woman's Auxiliary has sewing to be given out to unemployed women, if they come to her any Thursday morning after 10. The materials are given by Mrs. George Woodward, Diocesan President, and the money for wages is given by various members of the Auxiliary. The finished articles are to be given to various Diocesan Institutions. Those wishing to do such work must have a letter from the Father Rector or from the Sister-in-Charge, before they apply to Miss Dickson.

QUOTATION. Standing before the grave of the "Unknown Soldier," former President Coolidge said: "We do not need more national development, we need more spiritual development. We do not need more intellectual power, we need more spiritual power. We do not need more knowledge, we need more character. We do not need more government, we need more culture. We do not need more law, we need more religion."

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the Parish are in need of employment. Some good laundresses, cleaners and seamstresses can be recommended. Plain sewing, as well as fine sewing and smocking, can be done. Please apply to the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, SPRuce 2044.

THERE WILL BE A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN, Saturday, November the 6th, beginning at 5 o'clock. The Conductor will be The Reverend Dom Anselm Hughes, of the Order of S. Benedict, of Nashdom Abbey in England. Dom Anselm Hughes will preach at the Solemn Mass the following morning. He is in this country in the interests of the "Plainsong and Mediaeval Music Society," of which he is the Honorary Secretary. He is giving several lectures in the City on the subject of music, but his only preaching engagements are at S. Clement's.

THE CHOIR BOYS, having been detained from the Choir because of the infantile paralysis epidemic, are returning this morning. They will not sing at Vespers this winter, but the full service will be solemnly sung in the evening by the men alone. The sermon will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Parish Notes

NO POSTAL CARDS will be sent out for the Quiet Evening to be conducted by the Dom Anselm Hughes, O. S. B., of Nashdom Abbey, on Saturday, November 5th. Those who wish a place at supper will please notify either the Priests or the Sisters, so that a proper reservation may be made. There will be three meditations, and the exercises will begin at five and close about nine.

SCRAP BOOKS, containing clippings and pictures and pamphlets relating to the history of the Parish, are being arranged and put in order by Fr. Gavitt. We feel there must be a great deal of such material in the possession of some of the members of the Congregation. These books will be preserved in the archives of the Parish, and we would like to have them as complete as possible. Will you all please look through your papers, and let us have anything you may have? If we already have copies of what you bring, we shall be glad to return what we do not need. A history of the Parish is being prepared to appear in several future numbers of "The American Church Monthly."

THE DATE ON THE CORNER-STONE OF THE CHURCH IS 1857. That will make the Patronal Festival of this year the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Parish, and the program of the celebration will be in keeping with such an event. A Committee of the Vestry has been appointed to assist in the preparations. S. Cecilia's Mass will be sung on the Feast Day, and Dr. McClenthen will be the preacher. The Superior of the Cowley Fathers in this country will preach on the Sunday in the Octave. There may be a Parish dinner!

DECEMBER 8TH has been set as the day for the Christmas Bazaar and Supper. It is not too early to be working for it. Mrs. Mowry has consented to act as the Chairman, and Mrs. Fritz is superintending a chicken and waffle supper, which will be the feature of the occasion. Saleable articles for a Christmas Bazaar will be very gladly received by the Chairman. The names of the ladies serving on the Committees will be announced later.

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY for the Catholic Laymen's League and their winter program. Several smokers and two quiet evenings are being considered, and notices will soon be in the mails for the first meeting. All men who are members of the Catholic Congress are members of the League. Catholics in the city look for a hearty co-operation in all these movements from our Parish. This is a real opportunity for our men to help.

THE BARREL, which we are promised "will not fail until the Lord send plenty on the earth," stands at the Apple Tree Street entrance of the Church to receive your gifts for the poor and needy of our congregation and our city. A few cans of vegetables or fruit, some tea and sugar, cast-off and worn clothing, can very easily be left here, and given to deserving people. We are having many calls from our own faithful people, and we must care for them.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY to be getting in your names for remembrance at the Masses on All Souls Day. The Departed members of the Parish are remembered from a permanent list at the Solemn Mass. Please specify at which of the Masses you wish your names read off and the remembrance made. There are papers and envelopes in the Tract cases for your convenience. The offerings go to the Guild of All Souls, of which the Father Rector is the Superior General in this country.

Parish Notes

THE FIRST REGIONAL CONFERENCE of The Catholic Congress for the autumn will be held on Thursday of this week, October 27th, at Bordentown, New Jersey. Dr. Chalmers of Baltimore will preach at the High Mass in Christ Church at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon, Fr. Jones, Chaplain to the Sisters of S. Margaret in Utica will speak, and also Fr. Hamlin of the Church of the Advent, Boston, and Bishop Jenkins of Nevada. Going by way of Trenton, you can take the 9 A. M. train, reaching Bordentown at 10.42. If you wish your luncheon at the Conference, please speak to the Father Rector.

THE REVEREND ALBAN WINTER of the Community of the Resurrection in Mirfield, England, will preach here at the Solemn Mass, Sunday, November 13th. Father Winter is a member of the Community's Mission to South Africa. We had a very charming visit some years ago from Fr. Osmund Victor, C.R., the South Africa Provincial Superior. We are highly honoured in having two such eminent and distinguished visitors from the Church of England as Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B. and Fr. Winter, C.R.

NEXT SUNDAY is the Feast of Christ the King. At the early Masses the propers for the XXIII Sunday after Trinity will be used, but at the Solemn Mass, we shall be keeping the Feast, as we have done in recent years. Friday of this week is the Feast of SS. Simon and Jude, Apostles. There was a time when many of the faithful came to Mass and Holy Communion on these "Prayer Book" days. It is a laudable custom, and we are sorry to see a falling off in this direction.

MORNING PRAYER is now said in S. John's Chapel at 9 o'clock every day, followed by the Litany on Wednesdays and Fridays. Evening Prayer is said in the same Chapel every day at 6. Are there not a few more people who could add these Offices to their daily rule? At least when you are coming to the last Mass in the morning, can you not come a bit earlier and assist at the Office? You will find it a most excellent preparation for Mass.

ON THE EVE OF ALL SAINTS, Monday, October 31st, there will be an address by the Father Rector, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, in preparation for the Feast. On the evening of the Feast Day, Tuesday, November 1st, Vespers of the Dead will be said in the Chapel, followed by an address on the Faithful Departed. This too will be followed by Benediction. You should prepare carefully for these two days. As usual there will be a Solemn Mass on All Saints' and All Souls' Days.

ANGLO CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS (American Editions) may be had from the Priests or from Mrs. Pendleton for $1 apiece. Every Catholic should have a copy of this most excellent manual of prayer and instruction.

FATHER BULKELEY will be leaving sometime next week for his new work in the Bahama Islands, in the Diocese of Nassau. His many friends here will wish him every blessing in his new field, and will follow him with their prayers.

DO NOT FORGET THE QUIET EVENING for Women, Saturday, November 5th, beginning at 5 o'clock. Be sure to tell your friends about it, and if you want your supper here, do not fail to tell the Sister-in-Charge.

QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH,
BEGINNING AT 5 P. M.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER NEXT SUNDAY MORNING will be the Rev. Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B. of Nashdom Abbey in England. He is the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer of the Plainsong and Mediaeval Music Society, and is in this country to give a series of lectures on Music. Two of these will be given in S. Mark's Parish Hall, 1625 Locust Street, on the evenings of November 2nd and 3rd, at 8.30 o'clock.

THE QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will open at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. If you wish your supper, please notify the Sister-in-Charge at SPR-2044. The three addresses will be given by Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B.

THERE WILL BE SOLEMN MASS at 11 on both All Saints' Day, and the day following, The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. The Solemn Requiem on Wednesday will be followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque.

FIRST VESPERS OF ALL SAINTS will be said in the Chapel tomorrow evening at 6. There will be an address, followed by Benediction at 8. Tuesday evening, Vespers of the Dead will be said at 8, followed by an address and Benediction.

THE COLLECTION on All Saints' Day is for the work of the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor at S. Anna's Home on Race Street. On All Souls' Day, the collection is the Parish's annual offering to the Guild of All Souls.

THE FIRST FRIDAY falls in this week. There will be the usual Day of Intercession from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening. In the evening the Holy Hour will be kept, and the day will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please set aside First Fridays as days to be devoted to our Blessed Lord Present in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

THE RIGHT REVEREND THOMAS JENKINS, Missionary Bishop of Nevada, will be the speaker at the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon. The Bishop pontificated at the Catholic Regional Conference in Bordentown this past week. It is hoped an enthusiastic audience will greet the Bishop on Wednesday.

ALL SAINTS' DAY is the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity. The Sisters will all renew their vows at this time, and your prayers are asked for God's continued blessing on their Community life and work.

RED CROSS subscriptions are still being received, and the Parish representative hopes for many more subscribers. Last year we had 98. So far this year we have but 59.

CHRISTMAS CARDS have made their appearance, and the Sisters of the Holy Nativity have a wide selection of imported cards for sale at the Mission House. They will be glad to show them to you at any time.

THE FATHER RECTOR thanks his many friends for remembering him on his birthday, and especially those who contributed to the Purse that was given to him.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet as usual on the first Monday in the month, November 7th. No cards will be sent out to the members. It is hoped this notice will be sufficient.

THE REVEREND FRANK HENRY ANDREW, who helped as Choir Pastor during his term at the Philadelphia Divinity School, and who said his first Mass here less than eighteen months ago, died in Boston last week, after a long illness. He was quite unwell during his course here in Philadelphia, and never seemed to regain his strength. Please remember him in your prayers. May he rest in peace.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER THIS MORNING is the Rev. Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B., of Nashdom Abbey, Burnham, Bucks. He is the Hon. Secretary of the Plainsong and Mediæval Music Society, and is in this country giving a series of lectures on Music. He gave two lectures this past week in S. Mark's Parish House, and conducted a Quiet Evening for about seventy-five of our women last evening.

APPEALS FOR MONEY—In these times of stress one hesitates to make any appeal for money, unless the need is an extraordinary one. The members of the Parish know the special objects for which money is needed at this season of the year. We shall depend on those who are able to give, to give to these funds this winter without being asked personally to do so. Such funds as the Poor Fund, the Rector's Discretionary Fund, the Flower Fund, the Missionary Box for the Women's Auxiliary, are all functioning as far their assets will allow them to function. Remember these needs, and help us as and when you can.

CONFIRMATION—The Bishop of the Diocese will be visiting us early in the new year for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Children are already under instruction for this Sacrament. If any members of the Congregation are considering Confirmation, we would be glad to know about it. The instruction, which is given by the Sisters and the Priests, does not obligate any one going on if they decide not to be confirmed at this time. Our desire is to help you in every way we can.

TICKETS ARE OUT for the Chicken and Waffle Supper to be given in connection with the Christmas Bazaar in the Parish House, Thursday, December 8th. The supper will be fifty cents, and ice cream and cake will be served with the supper or any time during the evening for fifteen cents extra. The entire proceeds of the Bazaar and Supper will go to the Missionary Quota of the Parish.

THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL this year commemorates the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Parish. Fr. Hutchinson is coming to preach at the Procession of Guilds on the Sunday evening in the Octave. That same Sunday, the Bishop of the Diocese will have the eight o'clock Mass, and give Holy Communion. It is hoped that this Mass may be a Corporate Communion of Thanksgiving on the part of the whole Parish. Other interesting events will be announced in the Festival Leaflet, which will be out in a short time.

FATHER WINTER, of the Community of the Resurrection, will preach for us next Sunday morning and evening. He is a member of the South African House of the Community, and has given his life to the Missionary work of the Church. He will preach a missionary sermon in the morning. Not about South Africa, but about the Catholic and Missions. Every one should be here. He will also preach at Vespers in the evening.

S. MARY'S DEVOTIONAL GUILD meets tomorrow evening. The Fr. Rector will make the address. This is followed by a social hour in the Parish House. Since this Guild meets regularly on the first Monday evening of each month, we are trying the experiment of not sending out notices. In the course of the year, this expense of postage amounts to a goodly sum. It is hoped the members will mark the first Mondays in their calendars, and remember them as Guild days.

MEN—Please save Monday evening, November 14th, for the Catholic Laymen's Smoker at S. Elisabeth's Parish House. Fr. McCune, of S. Ignatius' Church in New York, will be the speaker of the evening. All the men of the congregation are welcome.

Parish Notes

THIS IS OUR BANNER WEEK with the Patronal Festival opening on Tuesday evening, and the commemoration of our Seventy-fifth Anniversary. Notices have been sent out to all the members of the congregation. If any one has not received a copy, it is because we do not have the correct address. The Fr. Rector will be glad to know the name and correct address of any one who has not received a copy of these notices. Additional copies will be found in the racks at the bottom of the bulletin boards, and you are urged to take these and mail them to your friends.

S. CLEMENT'S is one of the few parishes in this country that keeps its Patronal Festival in the "grand manner." This year we are calling back those who have been associated with us in the past to preach for us at the great services and to be with us for the Parish Reception.

TWENTY-NINE MEN OF THE CONGREGATION were present at the Catholic Laymen's Union Smoker at S. Elisabeth's Parish House last Monday. It was a splendid meeting, and all of our men were deeply stirred. The next event will be a Quiet Evening at S. Alban's, Olney, to be conducted by Fr. Joseph, O.S.B., Saturday, December 10th. Men, please save this evening. Cards will be sent later, reminding you, and asking for your acceptance.

WE EXTEND OUR SYMPATHY to the members of the congregation of the Church of S. John Chrysostom, in the death of their Rector, and to the members of Fr. Pierce's family. Fr. Edwards and Fr. Gavitt were Deacon and Sub-Deacon at the Burial Requiem on Wednesday, and the Bishop of the Diocese preached the Sermon.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock. The collection at this Mass is the annual offering to the Episcopal Hospital.

YOUR MOST GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS are asked during the Patronal Festival. The subscriptions through the Duplex Envelopes, and the loose offerings, have kept up remarkably well. As the parish books now stand, there is a deficit of about $800.00 in the expense account. We hope to clear this off in the S. Clement's Day offering.

IT IS NATURAL that we should be feeling the hard times in our resources as a parish, but these hard times give us an opportunity as individuals to feel some sacrifice in giving. Too often our gifts have been from our plenty, and devoid of sacrifice.

NO AMOUNT OF MONEY can measure our thankfulness to God for His many blessings to us through the long past, but the depth of our self-sacrifice can, in a very real sense, measure it. We all do want at this Festival to show how grateful we are for the blessings and privileges of the Catholic Faith, and for the great witness of our Parish throughout the history of the Oxford Movement in this country.

WE ALL REJOICE in the election of The Rev. Frederick S. Fleming, Vicar of the Chapel of the Intercession, to the Rectorship of Trinity Church in New York City. Fr. Fleming has visited us frequently, and preached for us, so we are glad to have a friend in this important post, as well as one who is so outstanding a Catholic.

SEQUENCE HYMN—A Carol for St. Clement's Day
It was about November tide An anchor round his neck they tied,
A long, long time ago, And cast him in the sea;
When good St. Clement testified And bravely as he lived he died,
The faith that now we know, And gallantly went free,
Right boldly then he said his say He rests a many miles away,
Before a furious King; Yet here his name we sing,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day As all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.
Work in the mines they gave him then, Our fathers kept it long ago,
To try the brave old saint; And their request we make,
And there two thousand Christian men Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
With thirst were like to faint. For sweet St. Clement's sake;
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay And make his feast as glad and gay
He made the waters spring; As if it came in spring,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day When all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.
CREDO—Messe Solennelle (S. Cecilia).....Charles Francois Gounod
SERMON.....THE REV'D WILLIAM ADAMS McCLENTHEN, D.D.
Rector of Mount Calvary Church, Baltimore.
Assistant Priest at S. Clement's, 1901 to 1905.
OFFERTORY—My truth also and My mercy shall be with him: and in My Name shall his horn be exalted.
HYMN—“Blessed City, Heavenly Salem”.....No. 396
SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI—
Messe Solennelle (S. Cecilia)....Charles Francois Gounod
COMMUNIO—Blessed is that servant whom his Lord, when He cometh, shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that He shall make him ruler over all His goods.
GLORIA IN EXCELSIS—Messe Solennelle (S. Cecilia)
Charles Francois Gounod
RECESSIONAL—“March of the Priests”..Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy

THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL is in full swing today. We are highly honoured by the presence and help of so many distinguished friends. We are very grateful for their good wishes and the encouraging messages they bring. We realize more deeply the heavy responsibility that is ours in being blessed with such a witness to the Catholic Faith. Our pride in what has been done must not blind us to what there is yet to do. If we are faithful to our high calling we shall not be deprived in the future of the blessing of God that has been so abundantly given in the past.

THE PARISH TEA. Will all the members of the congregation please take this as a personal invitation to be present at the Anniversary Reception and Tea tomorrow evening? Many former members of the Congregation are expected, together with the Bishop, and some of the Priests who have been attached here in former times. There will be some speeches, and refreshments.

THE COLLECTION on S. Clement's Day amounted to $1000.

THERE WILL BE a Solemn Mass on S. Andrew's Day at 11. The annual Triduum for Missions begins on Wednesday. There will be a card party in the Parish House in the evening.

PLASTER CASTS of the Stations of the Cross that are soon to be placed in the Church will be on exhibition at the Tea tomorrow evening.

THE ALTAR GUILD of the Diocese will hold its Tenth Diocesan Meeting at the Churchwoman's Club, 134 South 22nd Street, Wednesday of this week. There will be an exhibition of Vestments and Altar Linens from 5 to 7.45 P. M. Supper will be served for 30 cents at 6 P. M. The Bishop will make an address in S. James's Church in the evening. Every one is invited to attend.

FATHER DALE, S.S.J.E., is conducting a Quiet Day for the Associates and Friends of S. Margaret's Community at the Mission House, 1831 Pine Street, on Wednesday, December 7th. Those wishing to attend will please notify the Sister-in-Charge.

S. JAMES'S CHURCH announces a series of four Organ Recitals by Ernest White on Monday evenings in Advent at 8.30 P. M. Works of Bach, Caesar Franck and examples of both early and contemporary English and French composers will be presented.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held in the Parish House Thursday, December 8th. The Bazaar will open at three in the afternoon. In the evening, at 6.30, a chicken and waffle supper will be served for 50 cents a plate. Ice cream and cake may be had for 15 cents extra. There will be all sorts of useful and fancy things for sale. Please come and bring your friends. Entire proceeds for Missions.

IN THE LAST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS there have been 1960 Baptisms in S. Clement's Church, 658 Confirmations, and a quarter of a million Communion made at our Altars.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept as the regular monthly Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament. Your prayers are asked especially for the Missionary Work of the Church.

THE ANNUAL NOVENA for the Religious Life begins on Tuesday of this week, the Vigil of S. Andrew's Day, and concludes on the seventh of December, the Vigil of the Conception of the B. V. M. This Novena is being kept throughout the Anglican Communion.

PROCESSIONAL (Dr. Fry).....Improvised
HYMN—Carol for S. Clement's Day

It was about November tide A long, long time ago, When good St. Clement testified The faith that now we know. Right boldly then he said his say Before a furious King; And therefore on St. Clement's Day We go a-Clementing.	An anchor round his neck they tied, And cast him in the sea; And bravely as he lived he died, And gallantly went free. He rests a many miles away, Yet here his name we sing, As all upon St. Clement's Day We go a-Clementing.
Work in the mines they gave him then, To try the brave old saint; And there two thousand Christian men With thirst were like to faint. He prayed a prayer, and out of clay He made the waters spring; And therefore on St. Clement's Day We go a-Clementing.	Our fathers kept it long ago, And their request we make, Good Christians, one small mite bestow, For sweet St. Clement's sake; And make his feast as glad and gay As if it came in spring, When all upon St. Clement's Day We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER NEXT SUNDAY MORNING will be the Rev. Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B. of Nashdom Abbey in England. He is the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer of the Plainsong and Mediaeval Music Society, and is in this country to give a series of lectures on Music. Two of these will be given in S. Mark's Parish Hall, 1625 Locust Street, on the evenings of November 2nd and 3rd, at 8.30 o'clock.

THE QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will open at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. If you wish your supper, please notify the Sister-in-Charge at SPR-2044. The three addresses will be given by Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B.

THERE WILL BE SOLEMN MASS at 11 on both All Saints' Day, and the day following, The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. The Solemn Requiem on Wednesday will be followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque.

FIRST VESPERS OF ALL SAINTS will be said in the Chapel tomorrow evening at 6. There will be an address, followed by Benediction at 8. Tuesday evening, Vespers of the Dead will be said at 8, followed by an address and Benediction.

THE COLLECTION on All Saints' Day is for the work of the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor at S. Anna's Home on Race Street. On All Souls' Day, the collection is the Parish's annual offering to the Guild of All Souls.

THE FIRST FRIDAY falls in this week. There will be the usual Day of Intercession from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening. In the evening the Holy Hour will be kept, and the day will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please set aside First Fridays as days to be devoted to our Blessed Lord Present in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

THE RIGHT REVEREND THOMAS JENKINS, Missionary Bishop of Nevada, will be the speaker at the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon. The Bishop pontificated at the Catholic Regional Conference in Bordentown this past week. It is hoped an enthusiastic audience will greet the Bishop on Wednesday.

ALL SAINTS' DAY is the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity. The Sisters will all renew their vows at this time, and your prayers are asked for God's continued blessing on their Community life and work.

RED CROSS subscriptions are still being received, and the Parish representative hopes for many more subscribers. Last year we had 98. So far this year we have but 59.

CHRISTMAS CARDS have made their appearance, and the Sisters of the Holy Nativity have a wide selection of imported cards for sale at the Mission House. They will be glad to show them to you at any time.

THE FATHER RECTOR thanks his many friends for remembering him on his birthday, and especially those who contributed to the Purse that was given to him.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet as usual on the first Monday in the month, November 7th. No cards will be sent out to the members. It is hoped this notice will be sufficient.

THE REVEREND FRANK HENRY ANDREW, who helped as Choir Pastor during his term at the Philadelphia Divinity School, and who said his first Mass here less than eighteen months ago, died in Boston last week, after a long illness. He was quite unwell during his course here in Philadelphia, and never seemed to regain his strength. Please remember him in your prayers. May he rest in peace.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER THIS MORNING is the Rev. Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B., of Nashdom Abbey, Burnham, Bucks. He is the Hon. Secretary of the Plainsong and Mediæval Music Society, and is in this country giving a series of lectures on Music. He gave two lectures this past week in S. Mark's Parish House, and conducted a Quiet Evening for about seventy-five of our women last evening.

APPEALS FOR MONEY—In these times of stress one hesitates to make any appeal for money, unless the need is an extraordinary one. The members of the Parish know the special objects for which money is needed at this season of the year. We shall depend on those who are able to give, to give to these funds this winter without being asked personally to do so. Such funds as the Poor Fund, the Rector's Discretionary Fund, the Flower Fund, the Missionary Box for the Women's Auxiliary, are all functioning as far their assets will allow them to function. Remember these needs, and help us as and when you can.

CONFIRMATION—The Bishop of the Diocese will be visiting us early in the new year for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Children are already under instruction for this Sacrament. If any members of the Congregation are considering Confirmation, we would be glad to know about it. The instruction, which is given by the Sisters and the Priests, does not obligate any one going on if they decide not to be confirmed at this time. Our desire is to help you in every way we can.

TICKETS ARE OUT for the Chicken and Waffle Supper to be given in connection with the Christmas Bazaar in the Parish House, Thursday, December 8th. The supper will be fifty cents, and ice cream and cake will be served with the supper or any time during the evening for fifteen cents extra. The entire proceeds of the Bazaar and Supper will go to the Missionary Quota of the Parish.

THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL this year commemorates the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Parish. Fr. Hutchinson is coming to preach at the Procession of Guilds on the Sunday evening in the Octave. That same Sunday, the Bishop of the Diocese will have the eight o'clock Mass, and give Holy Communion. It is hoped that this Mass may be a Corporate Communion of Thanksgiving on the part of the whole Parish. Other interesting events will be announced in the Festival Leaflet, which will be out in a short time.

FATHER WINTER, of the Community of the Resurrection, will preach for us next Sunday morning and evening. He is a member of the South African House of the Community, and has given his life to the Missionary work of the Church. He will preach a missionary sermon in the morning. Not about South Africa, but about the Catholic and Missions. Every one should be here. He will also preach at Vespers in the evening.

S. MARY'S DEVOTIONAL GUILD meets tomorrow evening. The Fr. Rector will make the address. This is followed by a social hour in the Parish House. Since this Guild meets regularly on the first Monday evening of each month, we are trying the experiment of not sending out notices. In the course of the year, this expense of postage amounts to a goodly sum. It is hoped the members will mark the first Mondays in their calendars, and remember them as Guild days.

MEN—Please save Monday evening, November 14th, for the Catholic Laymen's Smoker at S. Elisabeth's Parish House. Fr. McCune, of S. Ignatius' Church in New York, will be the speaker of the evening. All the men of the congregation are welcome.

Parish Notes

THE PREACHER TO-DAY at the Solemn Mass and at Vespers is the Reverend Alban Winter, of the Community of the Resurrection in Mirfield, England. We have had Fr. Frederick King, Fr. Seyzinger and Fr. Victor of this Community as our guests in recent years, and we are happy to welcome Fr. Winter and add him to our list of friends in England. Fr. Winter is a member of the Community's Mission in South Africa, and this work will be the subject of his sermon this morning.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK is the 28th Anniversary of the death of Fr. Moffett. He was Rector of S. Clement's from March, 1895, until the time of his death.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will begin their programme of winter activities with a Smoker to-morrow evening in the Parish House of S. Elisabeth's Church. Fr. McCune, of S. Ignatius's Church in New York, will be the speaker of the evening. Every man who is a member of the Catholic Congress is a member of the Laymen's Union. The Smoker tomorrow evening is open to any man who is zealous for the Catholic Faith, and wants to add his support to its propagation.

S. CLEMENT'S GUILD will have a Rummage Sale in the Parish House Thursday evening of this week. If any members of the congregation have articles that are suitable for such a sale, the Sisters will be very glad to have them. Purchasers at the Sale are not limited to members of the congregation. Outsiders will be welcomed. The sale is restricted to useful articles.

THIS AFTERNOON at half-past three o'clock a Service will be held in Christ Church, Second Street above Market, to commemorate the completion by Dr. Louis C. Washburn of twenty-five years' service as Rector of the Parish. You are cordially invited to be present. We congratulate Dr. Washburn, and his congregation, on the completion of so long and successful a service together, and hope it may continue as happily and successfully for many years to come.

PROGRAMMES FOR THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL will be placed in the mails to-morrow. You will find a very full schedule for the 75th Anniversary of the Parish. Remember the importance of your Communion, properly prepared for. Remember the desirability of promoting good fellowship and friendliness amongst the members of the congregation. And strive to express your thankfulness in a generous offering, which shall be a measure of your self-denial, and not a mere giving of dollars and cents.

CONTRIBUTIONS for the Prayer Book Society may be handed to Miss Sellers, or mailed to her at 2118 DeLancey Street. Miss Williams of The Barclay is the collector for the Bishop White Parish Library Society.

THERE WILL BE A "DEPRESSION" CARD PARTY in the Parish Hall, Wednesday evening, November 30th. There will be no prizes for high scores, but there will be a door prize for a lady and one for a gentleman. The admission will be 25 cents, and coffee and cake will be served for 10 cents extra. No tickets will be sold in advance. Remember the date, and come! If this kind of a party proves successful, we can have one every few weeks.

THE NOVENA in Preparation for the Patronal Festival begins to-morrow. It will be the intention of all the Masses, and the proper prayers will be said after Vespers each evening.

Parish Notes

THIS IS OUR BANNER WEEK with the Patronal Festival opening on Tuesday evening, and the commemoration of our Seventy-fifth Anniversary. Notices have been sent out to all the members of the congregation. If any one has not received a copy, it is because we do not have the correct address. The Fr. Rector will be glad to know the name and correct address of any one who has not received a copy of these notices. Additional copies will be found in the racks at the bottom of the bulletin boards, and you are urged to take these and mail them to your friends.

S. CLEMENT'S is one of the few parishes in this country that keeps its Patronal Festival in the "grand manner." This year we are calling back those who have been associated with us in the past to preach for us at the great services and to be with us for the Parish Reception.

TWENTY-NINE MEN OF THE CONGREGATION were present at the Catholic Laymen's Union Smoker at S. Elisabeth's Parish House last Monday. It was a splendid meeting, and all of our men were deeply stirred. The next event will be a Quiet Evening at S. Alban's, Olney, to be conducted by Fr. Joseph, O.S.B., Saturday, December 10th. Men, please save this evening. Cards will be sent later, reminding you, and asking for your acceptance.

WE EXTEND OUR SYMPATHY to the members of the congregation of the Church of S. John Chrysostom, in the death of their Rector, and to the members of Fr. Pierce's family. Fr. Edwards and Fr. Gavitt were Deacon and Sub-Deacon at the Burial Requiem on Wednesday, and the Bishop of the Diocese preached the Sermon.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock. The collection at this Mass is the annual offering to the Episcopal Hospital.

YOUR MOST GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS are asked during the Patronal Festival. The subscriptions through the Duplex Envelopes, and the loose offerings, have kept up remarkably well. As the parish books now stand, there is a deficit of about $800.00 in the expense account. We hope to clear this off in the S. Clement's Day offering.

IT IS NATURAL that we should be feeling the hard times in our resources as a parish, but these hard times give us an opportunity as individuals to feel some sacrifice in giving. Too often our gifts have been from our plenty, and devoid of sacrifice.

NO AMOUNT OF MONEY can measure our thankfulness to God for His many blessings to us through the long past, but the depth of our self-sacrifice can, in a very real sense, measure it. We all do want at this Festival to show how grateful we are for the blessings and privileges of the Catholic Faith, and for the great witness of our Parish throughout the history of the Oxford Movement in this country.

WE ALL REJOICE in the election of The Rev. Frederick S. Fleming, Vicar of the Chapel of the Intercession, to the Rectorship of Trinity Church in New York City. Fr. Fleming has visited us frequently, and preached for us, so we are glad to have a friend in this important post, as well as one who is so outstanding a Catholic.

THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL is in full swing today. We are highly honoured by the presence and help of so many distinguished friends. We are very grateful for their good wishes and the encouraging messages they bring. We realize more deeply the heavy responsibility that is ours in being blessed with such a witness to the Catholic Faith. Our pride in what has been done must not blind us to what there is yet to do. If we are faithful to our high calling we shall not be deprived in the future of the blessing of God that has been so abundantly given in the past.

THE PARISH TEA. Will all the members of the congregation please take this as a personal invitation to be present at the Anniversary Reception and Tea tomorrow evening? Many former members of the Congregation are expected, together with the Bishop, and some of the Priests who have been attached here in former times. There will be some speeches, and refreshments.

THE COLLECTION on S. Clement's Day amounted to $1000.

THERE WILL BE a Solemn Mass on S. Andrew's Day at 11. The annual Triduum for Missions begins on Wednesday. There will be a card party in the Parish House in the evening.

PLASTER CASTS of the Stations of the Cross that are soon to be placed in the Church will be on exhibition at the Tea tomorrow evening.

THE ALTAR GUILD of the Diocese will hold its Tenth Diocesan Meeting at the Churchwoman's Club, 134 South 22nd Street, Wednesday of this week. There will be an exhibition of Vestments and Altar Linens from 5 to 7.45 P. M. Supper will be served for 30 cents at 6 P. M. The Bishop will make an address in S. James's Church in the evening. Every one is invited to attend.

FATHER DALE, S.S.J.E., is conducting a Quiet Day for the Associates and Friends of S. Margaret's Community at the Mission House, 1831 Pine Street, on Wednesday, December 7th. Those wishing to attend will please notify the Sister-in-Charge.

S. JAMES'S CHURCH announces a series of four Organ Recitals by Ernest White on Monday evenings in Advent at 8.30 P. M. Works of Bach, Caesar Franck and examples of both early and contemporary English and French composers will be presented.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held in the Parish House Thursday, December 8th. The Bazaar will open at three in the afternoon. In the evening, at 6.30, a chicken and waffle supper will be served for 50 cents a plate. Ice cream and cake may be had for 15 cents extra. There will be all sorts of useful and fancy things for sale. Please come and bring your friends. Entire proceeds for Missions.

IN THE LAST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS there have been 1960 Baptisms in S. Clement's Church, 658 Confirmations, and a quarter of a million Communion made at our Altars.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept as the regular monthly Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament. Your prayers are asked especially for the Missionary Work of the Church.

THE ANNUAL NOVENA for the Religious Life begins on Tuesday of this week, the Vigil of S. Andrew's Day, and concludes on the seventh of December, the Vigil of the Conception of the B. V. M. This Novena is being kept throughout the Anglican Communion.

PROCESSIONAL (Dr. Fry).....Improvised
HYMN—Carol for S. Clement's Day
It was about November tide An anchor round his neck they tied,
A long, long time ago, And cast him in the sea;
When good St. Clement testified And bravely as he lived he died,
The faith that now we know. And gallantly went free.
Right boldly then he said his say He rests a many miles away,
Before a furious King; Yet here his name we sing,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day As all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.
Work in the mines they gave him then, Our fathers kept it long ago,
To try the brave old saint; And their request we make,
And there two thousand Christian men Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
With thirst were like to faint. For sweet St. Clement's sake;
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay And make his feast as glad and gay
He made the waters spring; As if it came in spring,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day When all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR has recovered from the sudden attack of pain which removed him from the patronal festival and carried him off to the hospital. He responded promptly to the medical treatment and has returned to the Rectory and hopes to be at all of his accustomed duties in a few days. He is most grateful to his many friends for their expressions of sympathy and inquiries as to his welfare and to the members of the staff and congregation who carried through the balance of the patronal festival so beautifully.

THE CONGREGATIONS at all the Masses last Sunday were most gratifying. The Bishop celebrated at eight o'clock and a large number received Holy Communion at his hands. Father Burton and Father Hutchinson were the Sunday preachers, and people were standing in the church for the evening Procession of Guilds.

GREAT CROWDS attended the parish tea and reception Monday evening. The Rector's Warden, Mr. Woodruff, presided. The Bishop spoke about the Catholic Movement and the parish's interesting history. Father Hutchinson delighted the party with his reminiscences. Plaster models of the new stations were on exhibition and much admired. Six of them have been definitely promised as memorials. Their cost is $500 apiece. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. A very happy spirit prevailed and many old acquaintances were renewed and new ones were made.

THE BARREL still stands at the Apple Tree Street entrance of the church to receive your offerings for the poor and needy. All sorts of canned goods and regular grocery commodities are much wanted and your liberal help with this phase of our work is most earnestly solicited.

OLD CLOTHES are wanted by the Sisters to distribute amongst the needy in the parish. Ordinarily our appeal is for men's clothes. This time it is for women's dresses. Do not save anything now that you can possibly spare.

Parish Notes

THE EMBER DAYS are the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of the four Ember Seasons. These are all days of fasting. The Ember Weeks begin with the First Sunday in Lent, Pentecost, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, and the Feast of S. Lucy. Ordinations to the Sacred Ministry are usually held on the Sundays following these weeks. By putting them in her Kalendar, the Church reminds the faithful that they are bound, by prayer and fasting, to remember before the Altar those about to receive the grace of Holy Orders, as well as those already functioning in these Holy offices.

APPEALS have been sent out through the mails for offerings for the Christmas Charities. This appeal covers the numerous Christmas dinner baskets supplied to members of the congregation, the presents and the tree for the children, and the refreshments for the adult Christmas Party. The party for the children, on the Saturday after Christmas, will be given by Miss Williams, who is furnishing an entertainer and supplying the refreshments. Many people who have helped us with this work in other years are looking to us for help this year. Every penny that is given is used for deserving cases. If the offering that you give must needs be a small one, do not hesitate to give it. We want the small gifts from many people, so that you all may have a share in this important and loving bit of work.

THE SPECIAL ANTIPHONS used before and after the Magnificat on the days immediately preceding Christmas are called "The Great O's," because each one begins with O. They are noted in the Prayer Book of the Church of England. They begin on December 16th and conclude on the Eve of Christmas.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR was a grand success. The rooms in the Parish House were most attractively decorated, and there was a wonderful assortment of beautiful things for sale. Many people were busy about the place for several days getting everything in readiness. Mrs. Mowry was chairman of the Bazaar, and was assisted by a score or more of most efficient helpers. Mrs. Fritz was in charge of the chicken and waffle supper, which was most delicious, and efficiently served by a group of attractive waitresses. The rooms were teeming with people, and a very brisk business was in process all through the evening. The amount of money cleared will be announced in next week's bulletin. The entire proceeds are to go to the Parish's Quota for Missions.

A COURSE OF LECTURES will be given in S. Clement's Church on the five Monday evenings in January on "The Five Lesser Sacraments of the Church." They will be given by five Doctors of Philosophy, so we shall be calling them "Philosophical Lectures." There will be tickets of admission for the course, but there will be no charge for them. Instead, a silver collection will be taken at each lecture, for the purpose of defraying the expenses. Be sure to reserve these Monday evenings. Be sure to tell your friends about them. The lectures will be later published in The American Church Monthly. Each lecture will be preceded by a half hour's Organ Recital in the Church.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1933 will be ready next Sunday, and will be found in the Cope Room, arranged alphabetically on the tables. Whoever is in charge of the table will be able to supply newcomers with sets for the next year. In these uncertain days people will not be asked to make definite pledges, but if they will use this form of regular contribution, making such offerings as they are able, and making them regularly, the Father Rector and Vestry will be most grateful. The envelopes have kept up in splendid fashion this past year, and we are most thankful to the many faithful and generous supporters of our parish life and work.

A PIANO is very much needed for the Parish House. The one on the second floor has been repaired, but one is wanted for the third floor, where the girls' Guilds are meeting. There are two old pianos in the Hall, but they are quite beyond repair.

THE PROCEEDS FROM THE BAZAAR have now passed the four hundred dollar mark. About 280 people were served at the chicken and waffle supper. Some few things have been sold since the Bazaar. By another week we should know the exact figure. It was a most enjoyable affair, and the financial return is most gratifying.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1933 are in the Cope Room, and may be had before and after all of the services today. They are arranged on the table in alphabetical order. Mr. Cole will be in charge, and will be glad to give new sets to any who want them. We can hardly expect people to make definite pledges in these uncertain days, but we would like every one to use the envelope system. In this way you are laying aside an offering each week, and giving your weekly tithe to the Lord. Put your offering in your envelope each week, whether you get to S. Clement's or not, and then when you do come, you will have all your envelopes ready and filled. We depend for a large part of our income on these weekly offerings. We appreciate the splendid way in which they have been paid up this past year. We know you will not fail to do the same in 1933.

HOURS FOR CONFESSIONS before Christmas are as follows: Thursday evening from 7.30 to 8 (Fr. Edwards). Friday, the Father Rector will be in the Church in the morning from 10 to 11, and in the afternoon from 3 to 5. In the evening, Fr. Edwards will be in S. John's Chapel from 7.15 to 8. On Saturday morning, the Father Rector will be in the Church from 10 to 12; in the afternoon, Father Edwards and Father Underhill will be in their Confessionals from 3 to 5; and in the evening, all the Priests will be available for Confessions.

CARDS announcing the Christmas services and through the Octave, with the Christmas Offering envelopes, are now in the mails. The Father Rector is sending to each member of the Parish, together with his best wishes for a blessed Christmas, a S. Clement's Kalendar for 1933.

AN EXHIBITION OF ECCLESIASTICAL ART has been assembled by some local artists in The Philadelphia Art Alliance, 251 South 18th Street. After a private viewing tomorrow evening, it will open to the public, and from the descriptive circulars, it should be well worth seeing.

THE MEDITATION next Friday evening will deal particularly with our preparation for our Christmas Communions. In the bustle of our material preparations for Christmas, we must not forget nor neglect our preparations to receive in Holy Communion HIM Who gives the whole point and meaning to the Feast. Perhaps the inability of many people to indulge themselves in material things this year may turn them to the Feast's true purpose, and to our Blessed Lord. If this were so, we might then thank our dear Lord for these "hard times."

OLD CLOTHES are constantly in demand, and we are not able to supply the many people who are appealing to us from time to time. If you have anything that is wearable, and that you are not using, do please send it to the Sisters; or leave it in the Barrel in the Church Porch. There is plenty of "work" for "unemployed" clothes and shoes.

THE FATHER RECTOR wants to thank all those who have responded so generously to his appeal for the Christmas Charities. More than two hundred dollars has been subscribed, and this will take care of all the cases we feel bound to help, and a few more besides. Your offerings will make many homes happy, and bring the only cheer that many needy souls will have on our Lord's Birthday.

Mass Propers for Monday (S. Stephen, M.)

INTROIT—Princes moreover did sit, and did witness falsely against me, and the ungodly pressed sore upon me: O Lord my God, stand up to help me; for thy servant is occupied continually in thy commandments.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be..... Princes moreover.....

GRADUALE—Princes also did sit and speak against me: wicked men have persecuted me. Help me, O Lord my God: save me for thy mercies' sake.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. I see the heavens opened: and Jesus standing on the right hand of God. Alleluia.

OFFERTORY—The Apostles chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost: whom the Jews stoned, calling upon God, and saying: Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

COMMUNIO—Lo, I see the heavens opened, and Jesus standing on the right hand of the power of God: O Lord Jesus, receive my spirit, and lay not this sin to their charge for they know not what they do.

Tuesday (S. John, Ap. and Evang.)

INTROIT—In the midst of the congregation he opened his mouth; and the Lord filled him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding: in a robe of glory he arrayed him.

Ps. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most Highest. Glory be..... In the midst.....

GRADUAL—Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him; He shall not die. But, If I will that he tarry till I come: follow thou me.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. This is the disciple which testifieth of these things: and we know that his testimony is true, Alleluia.

OFFERTORY—The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus.

COMMUNIO—Then went abroad this saying among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come.

Wednesday (Holy Innocents)

INTROIT—Out of the mouth of very babes, O God, and of sucklings, hast thou perfected praise: because of thine adversaries.

Ps. O Lord, our Governour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world. Glory be..... Out of the mouth.....

GRADUALE—Our soul is escaped even as a bird: out of the snare of the fowler. The snare is broken, and we are delivered: our help standeth in the Name of the Lord, who hath made heaven and earth.

TRACT—The blood of thy saints have they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem: and there was no man to bury them. Avenge, O Lord, the blood of thy saints: that is shed upon the earth.

OFFERTORY—Our soul is escaped, even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

COMMUNIO—In Rama a voice was heard, lamentation and great mourning: Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

Parish Notes

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL. The Editor extends this old time greeting with no apology whatever. Certainly the happiness of a Catholic Christian is not in the things he possesses. His happiness is in his Church and in his God. If he is right with God, and faithful in his use of the Sacraments, he is bound to be happy. It is to be hoped that this depression will bring men everywhere to realize this. The world will never again be right until men generally return to God, and give Him His rightful place in their hearts and lives.

THE FIRST OF THE DOCTRINAL LECTURES will be given in the Church tomorrow evening by The Rev. Frank Gavin, Ph.D., of The General Theological Seminary in New York. The general subject for the Course is "The Five Lesser Sacraments." The subject tomorrow evening is "Confirmation," and Dr. Gavin will preface his lecture with a brief sketch of the Sacramental Principle. Mr. Ernest White, Organist at S. James's Church, will play a recital before the Lecture, beginning at 7.45. While cards of admission have been issued as a means of advertisement, they will not be required for entrance into the Church. Please make these Lectures known to your friends.

S. MARY'S GUILD will omit their regular monthly meeting tomorrow evening, and will attend the Lecture in the Church.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Following an address by Mr. Paul Rusch, a Professor of S. Paul's University in Tokio, there will be the annual election of officers. Every woman of the Church is a member of the Auxiliary. These monthly meetings are very interesting. It is a good way to arouse your interest in Missions. It is a good way to meet other women of the congregation. You will be given a hearty welcome.

A RECITAL OF CHRISTMAS MUSIC will be given in the Church on Thursday evening, January 12th, at 8.30, by the Choral Club of the Musical Art Society of Camden. The program will include Choral and Organ numbers and there will be an address by The Rev. Herbert Boyce Satcher, S.T.B., on "Christmas Music, Old and New." The Recital will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, sung by the men of S. Clement's Choir. No cards of admission will be required.

THE CATHOLIC CLUB is meeting at S. Clement's on Tuesday of this week. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, followed by Benediction, and Fr. Gavin will give the Meditation. The Bishop of the Diocese will be our guest at luncheon.

FRIDAY is the Feast of the Epiphany. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11. Since it is the first Friday in the month, the Holy Hour will be kept in the evening from 8 to 9, closing with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE EPIPHANY CAROLS will be sung in Procession before the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning.

THE PROCEEDS OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR have reached $450. This sum has been added to the Parish's contribution to Missions through the Diocesan Quota.

Parish Notes

FATHER GAVIN opened the Series of Doctrinal Lectures last Monday evening, and in spite of the day being a holiday, there was a splendid congregation to hear his magnificent paper on "The Sacramental Principle and Confirmation."

THESE DOCTRINAL LECTURES, which we hope to make an annual occurrence on the Monday evenings in January, will continue throughout the month. Each lecture is preceded by an Organ Recital. The Recitalist tomorrow evening is Mr. H. W. Hawke, Organist at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street.

THE LECTURE TOMORROW EVENING will be the second in the course on "The Five Lesser Sacraments;" the subject is "The Sacrament of Penance," and the lecturer is Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, the eminent psychiatrist, physician, author and Priest. No tickets of admission are required.

ON THURSDAY EVENING at 8.30 The Choral Club of The Musical Art Society of Camden will give a Recital of Christmas Music in the Church, under the direction of Dr. Henry S. Fry, their Conductor. A very fascinating programme of Organ Music and Christmas Carols has been arranged, and The Rev. Herbert Boyce Satcher, S.T.B., Vicar of S. Aidan's Chapel, Cheltenham, will make an address on "Christmas Music, Old and New." Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given at the close of the musical numbers. No tickets are required for this Recital.

WE WELCOME THE REV. JOHN S. LETHERMAN to the Staff of our parish today. Fr. Letherman has been Assistant Priest to the Rector of S. Timothy's Church in Roxborough for the past two years. He will be Chaplain of S. Clement's Guild, and will sing the High Mass on Sundays. Fr. Edwards is taking over the children's work, and will be the preacher Sunday evenings at Vespers. Fr. Gavitt has moved to S. Elisabeth's to help Father Roseboro for the present.

THE PROPERs FOR THE MASSES throughout Epiphany-tide will be found in Tract form in the Cases in the Church Porch. The new issue of the Diocesan News is also to be found there. The Fr. Rector pays $50 a year for these copies of the Diocesan paper, and the five cents charged for each one will reimburse him, if everyone pays. It is surprising how many Tracts are taken every Sunday and how little money is left in the Money Box. If you take a Tract without paying for it, the Fr. Rector has to pay, and his Discretionary Fund is very, very slim these days!

SOME OF THE REGULAR DUPLEX ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS have failed to take up their envelopes, which will be found, plainly marked, on the table in the Cope Room. New subscribers will find someone there to supply them with a set of envelopes for 1933.

VERY ATTRACTIVE PHOTOGRAPHS of the Church, both exterior and interior views, the several Altars, the Shrines, the Pulpit and the Font, are to be found in the Cope Room in charge of Mrs. Pendleton. They are very cheaply priced, and the small profit on their sale will be given to Missions.

THE COLLECTION TODAY IS FOR REGULAR PARISH EXPENSES. No collection will be taken for the Poor Fund at the present, but your generous contributions for our work among the poor are most earnestly solicited.

DOM ANSELM HUGHES, O.S.B., who preached for us on the Sunday in the Octave of All Saints, writing of the impressions of his recent American tour, says, in last week's Living Church: "I heard at S. Clement's, Philadelphia, the full High Mass performed in a way which we are able in some of our London churches to equal, but not, I think, to excel."

THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION will be given in S. Clement's Church Sunday evening, March 5th. This is the First Sunday in Lent. The Diocesan is sending the Bishop of Springfield to administer the Sacrament this year. Bishop White is one of our Missionary Bishops, and has many friends in S. Clement's parish.

THE SISTER'S BIBLE CLASS FOR WOMEN, which meets on alternate Tuesday evenings, will be meeting this week at the Sisters' House at 7.45. The subject is "The Women of the Bible," and all women of the congregation will be welcome.

DR. OLIVER'S LECTURE crowded the Church to capacity last Monday evening, and some people were standing across the back of the nave. The Lecture was a splendid one, practical and instructive, and we pray it may have been the means of converting many of his hearers to the use of this most necessary Sacrament.

THE SUBJECT OF THE LECTURE tomorrow evening is "The Sacrament of Holy Orders" and the lecturer is the Reverend Rector of S. Ignatius' Church in New York City, Dr. McCune. The Organ Recital before the Lecture will be played this time by our own Organist, Dr. Fry.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE, kept throughout the Catholic world each year, begins on Wednesday of this week, and closes on the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul. It will be the intention of the Masses during this period, and the faithful are urged to say daily the prayer for "The Church" and the one for "The Unity of God's People" on page 37 in the Prayer Book.

THE BARREL FOR THE POOR, in the Church Corridor, is yawning daily for gifts. When the barrel was first set out, we had from sixty to seventy-five articles a week in it. For the past few weeks we have had less than a dozen. It has been moved further into the corridor, so that we may be more certain to do the distributing of its contents ourselves.

AT A MEETING OF THE VESTRY this past week, Mr. Paul Augustus Casey was elected to its membership, in place of his brother who has resigned because of moving away from the city. We always rejoice when one of our former Servers at the Altar continues his active service for the parish in the Vestry.

THE LIVING CHURCH. Would any members of the congregation be interested in buying the Living Church each week? A very attractive offer has been made by the publishers whereby it may be placed on sale each week, but we do not wish to order any copies until we have some idea if there would be any demand for it, and if so, how great the demand might be. If you are interested, please speak to the Fr. Rector.

THE CHILDREN'S MASS at 9.15 on Sundays is becoming more and more "The People's Mass" with an increasing number of adults making their Communions at this time. Would those receiving regularly at this time, and any others, be interested in a simple breakfast in the Parish House Sunday mornings, served immediately after it? The meal would have to be simple, and cheap, but we shall be glad to make this a part of our programme if there is any desire for it.

THE LECTURE LAST MONDAY evening was given by Fr. McCune, Rector of S. Ignatius' Church in New York City. His subject was "The Sacrament of Holy Orders" and was most ably handled. There was a good congregation whose deep interest was evident in the rapt attention they gave the lecturer. The question of the Priesthood is a most pertinent one today, and we are very grateful to Fr. McCune for giving us such a splendid treatment of the subject.

TOMORROW EVENING another prominent New York Rector will be the lecturer. Fr. Williams, S.S.J.E., Rector of The Church of S. Mary the Virgin, will give the fourth lecture in our series on "The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony." Bishop Taitt will be present and open the lecture with prayer and give his blessing at the close. No tickets are required. Please tell your friends of these lectures and bring them with you.

MR. HARRY KERR, one of our own boys, and a former pupil of Dr. Fry's, will play the Organ Recital before the lecture, beginning at 7.45 tomorrow evening. Mr. Kerr is the organist at the Church of the Annunciation.

WE WERE ALL SHOCKED to hear on Monday of Bishop Webb's sudden death. He had been in ill health for a long time, but seemed to be much better this winter. He had spent Christmas and the Epiphany with his niece in Germantown. He had been a frequent visitor and preacher at S. Clement's. His last visit here was for the Ordination of Fr. Edwards to the Priesthood. The Requiem was sung in his Cathedral on Wednesday and the interment was at S. James the Less Churchyard here in Philadelphia. The Father Rector, Fr. Edwards and Fr. Letherman were at the Service here, and also Fr. Dale, S.S.J.E., who was staying at the Rectory, and came to represent the Society at the funeral. Bishop Webb was one of the giants of the Catholic Cause in our Church in this country, and was well known and greatly beloved in England. May he rest in peace!

A COMPLETE FILE OF S. CLEMENT'S MAGAZINE has just been bound and placed on the shelves in the Library of the Rectory. If any members of the parish have copies of "S. Clement's Pulpit Series," we would be very glad to have them, so as, if possible, to complete a set. These, too, should be bound and preserved with the Parish Records. We are trying now to accumulate another full set of the magazines to be bound for the "Yarnall Library of Theology."

THE SUNDAY COLLECTIONS in 1928 amounted to $13,120.71; in 1929 they were $13,124.71; in 1930, $11,935.23; in 1931, $11,640.71; and in 1932 they amounted to $11,849.06. There was a deficit in 1931 of $460, and in 1932 another of $440. The total of our Missionary offerings has not as yet been received from the Church House.

THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK will be the Tenth Anniversary of the death of Fr. Quin. The Fr. Rector will say a Mass of Requiem on the anniversary day at 9.30.

A SUFFICIENT NUMBER of subscribers to "The Living Church" have been secured to warrant our ordering 25 copies for each week. They will be put in the Tract Case at the Apple Tree Street entrance of the Church, and the subscribers are asked to put 10 cents in the money box for each copy taken. The first numbers should appear next week.

FATHER FLEMING is to be instituted as Rector of Trinity Church in New York City on the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul. We shall be remembering him at our Masses that day.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE is being kept in the Parish, and is the intention at all the Masses, and the special prayers are being said after Matins and Vespers every day. The Octave closes on Wednesday of this week.

Parish Notes

FR. WILLIAMS, S.S.J.E., Rector of The Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City, was the fourth lecturer in the series being given on the Monday evenings in January, and his subject was "Holy Matrimony." It was a most able presentation of this Sacrament, and the Church was well filled with an attentive congregation.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE was present at the lecture last Monday evening, opening the Service with prayer, and giving his blessing at its close.

A PHILADELPHIA RECTOR, Dr. Leicester C. Lewis, Ph.D., of S. Martin's Church, Chestnut Hill, will give the closing lecture in our Series tomorrow evening on "Holy Unction, and a Review of the Sacraments." It is hoped that a large congregation will greet Dr. Lewis, both to hear his treatment of "Unction" and his summary of this month's lectures.

THE ORGAN RECITAL will be given Monday evening at 7.45 by Donald Wilcox, Organist at S. Elisabeth's Church, and a student at The Curtis Institute of Music.

THE CANDLEMAS PROCESSION will be held on Wednesday evening at 8. The service will begin with the Blessing of the Candles and the Procession in Violet vestments. After the Procession, First Vespers of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be sung, with the full Choir, and closing with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. There will be no Sermon. S. Clement's Guild and S. Mary's Guild will meet at this Service on Wednesday evening, together with S. Katharine's Guild and The Children of Mary.

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS at 11 on Thursday, the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and no meeting of S. Clement's Guild that evening.

AT THE LAST MEETING OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY, Mrs. Edwin M. Luckenbach was elected President to succeed Mrs. Paul Franklin Mowry, who had held the office for several years and who wished to retire. Mrs. Fritz was made Vice-President, Miss Haffelfinger, Secretary, and Miss Connelly, Treasurer. The February meeting will be held on Wednesday of this week at 2 P. M. The hour of meeting has been moved ahead, as was unanimously approved at the last meeting.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK being the First Friday, the Holy Hour will be kept before the Blessed Sacrament from 8 to 9 in the evening. The "First Friday" has become a day of special devotion to the Mass and Holy Communion, and it is hoped that more members of the Parish will mark the first Friday of each month by some extra special act of devotion to our Lord and the Blessed Sacrament.

THREE PAMPHLETS IN "S. CLEMENT'S PULPIT SERIES" are needed to complete the Parish Files. They are: Number 12—"Once Married—Married till Death;" No. 13—"The Real Presence;" and No. 16—"The Church's Relation to Religion." All three were Sermons preached by Fr. Convers, S.S.J.E.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTIONS are now under way, in preparation for the visit of Bishop White of Springfield, Illinois, who comes to us the first Sunday evening in March. If you are thinking of being Confirmed, please speak to the Priests or the Sisters at once.

MEMBERSHIP DUES in The Catholic Congress are now payable for 1933. This year's membership includes membership in the Centenary Congress to be held in Philadelphia next October, so it is doubly important for all Philadelphia members to renew their subscriptions. It will be a great convenience to the Secretary if all dues are paid to Mrs. Pendleton, who will remit them to the New Haven office. This will be a saving to you, and help in the keeping of our records. The subscription is but $1. Are there not some new members to enroll?

Parish Notes

THE SERIES OF LECTURES on "The Five Lesser Sacraments" came to an end last Monday evening with Dr. Lewis's presentation of "Holy Unction" and his summary of the Sacramental Life. The high level of the preceding lectures was equalled by Dr. Lewis, if not exceeded, and his final words on the Sacramental Life gave all his hearers something to take away with them and to ponder. It has been a great privilege to have this series at S. Clement's, and they must have left a blessing here.

OUR MISSIONARY GIFTS, through the Diocesan Treasurer, and to apply on the Parish Quota, amounted to $4,018.70 for 1932. We had expected to give $5,000. In addition to this, $761.65 was given to other missionary objects, for which we received credit, but which could not be applied to the Quota. While this is a creditable showing, it is not by any means the limit of our capacity to give. These are hard times, and we are all living on less than we have for many years, yet, at the same time, we should be learning how to share our little with those who have less. Think how much poorer we should be without S. Clement's, and the Catholic Faith! Let us help the Church to carry her Sacraments into the remote corners of the earth until "the world is filled with the knowledge of God, as the waters cover the sea."

COPIES OF "THE LIVING CHURCH" will be found in the Tract Cases this morning. They are ten cents apiece. Please put your money in the Coin Boxes on the Cases. Copies of "The American Church Monthly" are distributed each month for twenty-five cents a copy. As the subscriptions for another year are about to be renewed, are there any new subscribers? The Series of Lectures on The Lesser Sacraments, given here last month, are to be published in early numbers.

BLESSED CANDLES should be in every Catholic household. They are to be lighted when the Blessed Sacrament is brought into the house, and are to be held by the dying, or by someone by the deathbed. They may be had for a small sum from the sexton.

THROATS will be blessed, under the patronage of S. Blasius, after the Solemn Mass this morning. S. Blasius was Bishop of Sebaste in Armenia. In early life he became a physician and applied himself diligently to the study of that profession which is capable in a good Christian of healing the wounds both of body and soul. On his way to martyrdom his prayers availed to save a boy who lay dying with a fish bone in his throat. There is a very good tract about S. Blasius in the Tract Case.

A POOR MAN approached the Father Rector recently and asked for help from his "Deficiency Fund." The Rector's Discretionary Fund has been called by some very strange names, but never has anyone called it by a more appropriate name than "Deficiency," for it is deficient most of the time.

A SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS, with Absolutions at the Catafalque, for William Walter Webb, Bishop and Doctor, will be offered at S. Clement's next Saturday morning at 11. It is hoped that the Bishop of the Diocese will be present. Bishop Ivins, who succeeded Bishop Webb as Bishop of Milwaukee, will preach the Sermon. Bishop Webb died January 15th.

THE BARREL in the Church Corridor yawns for gifts of groceries and old clothes for the poor and needy. "He that giveth to the poor, lendeth unto the Lord."

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have a social evening and smoker at S. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, on Monday evening, February 14th. Father Mabry, of S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, will be the speaker of the evening.

Parish Notes

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTIONS are now under way in preparation for the visit of the Bishop of Springfield on the First Sunday in Lent. Bishop White will be in Philadelphia in March to help the Diocesan with Confirmations. He has many friends at S. Clement's, and it will be a great pleasure to have him give the Sacrament of Confirmation to our class this year. There is still time to be prepared if you speak to either the Priests or the Sisters today.

THERE WILL BE A GREAT SERVICE for Acolytes in the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City tomorrow. The Bishop of Algoma will be the Celebrant at the Pontifical High Mass and the Bishop of Milwaukee will be the preacher. This service for Acolytes is an annual event at S. Mary's on Lincoln's Birthday.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have a Smoker tomorrow evening at S. Timothy's Parish House, 5720 Ridge Avenue, Roxborough. Fr. Mabry of S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, will be the speaker. The Church may be reached by the "R" Bus on Erie Avenue, connecting either from the Subway, Car 33 or 21.

THERE WILL BE a Stated Meeting of the Vestry on Tuesday afternoon of this week in the Rectory.

LAST THURSDAY was the first anniversary of the death of Sister Margaret. A requiem Mass was said that morning in the Crypt Chapel, and a number of the Associates of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity were present.

THIS IS THE TIME to prepare for Lent. Are you thinking about your Confession on Shrove Tuesday? Are you beginning to examine your conscience? Are you planning your Lenten Rule? If these things are done now, you will be ready to begin your Lent when Lent begins!

BISHOP IVINS, who Pontificated at the Solemn Requiem yesterday for Bishop Webb, and preached the sermon, was a guest in the Rectory over Friday night. Fr. Mabry will be spending tomorrow night with us.

"The Early Gloria"

The Gloria in Excelsis is said or sung after the Kyrie because this is its proper historical and liturgical position. The Liturgy of the Anglican Church is the only one where this great Hymn is not in its ancient place. If the Mass is regarded dramatically, the Gloria should come before the Canon, since the Angelic Hymn was sung over Bethlehem before the birth of our Lord.

All of the fine Continental Masses, and the ancient Plainsong Masses, are written for the Gloria to follow the Kyrie. When this is not done, it is comparable to playing the second movement of a great symphony after the fourth.

The early Gloria is compatible with the Prayer Book rubrics. The rubric does not require that the Gloria be said, not even on Christmas Day. A "proper Hymn" may be substituted at any time. The Communion is a "proper Hymn." It has always been understood that a Hymn might be inserted at any point in the Liturgy. The Benedictus and the Agnus Dei have been so introduced under this liberty. So on the same principle is the Gloria in Excelsis said or sung after the Kyrie. The Gloria was officially set at this point in the first Prayer Book of Edward VI.

In the Churches where the Gloria has been moved up to follow the Kyrie, it has been done with the idea of restoring the order of the Mass to its ancient liturgical form. When the Prayer Book rubrics are read as they are written, it is a change that the Prayer Book allows.

Parish Notes

A DAY OF RETREAT for Men will be held at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City on Wednesday of this week, Washington's Birthday. The Day begins with Mass at 9.30 and closes with the 3rd Meditation at 2. Luncheon will be served to those who notify the Priests of their intention to be present.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION had a very successful and delightful Smoker at S. Timothy's, Roxborough, last Monday evening. The next event for the Union is a Quiet Evening, the first Saturday in Lent, March 4th. It will be given at S. George's Church, West Philadelphia, beginning with Vespers at 5, and ending with Benediction at 9. The Conductor will be the Rev. Walter Kline, S.S.J.E. If you plan to attend this Quiet Evening, will you please speak to one of the Priests not later than next Sunday. There will be no Retreat for men at S. Clement's this Lent, in order that all of our men may join with the Union for this evening at S. George's.

THE FATHER RECTOR will conduct a Quiet Evening for Women and Girls, Saturday, March 4th, the first Saturday in Lent. It will begin with Vespers at 5, and close with Benediction at 9. If you wish supper, will you please give your name to the Sisters?

THE BOOKS OF THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN have been audited by the public accountants, and a summary of last year's financial statement is given below. If any one wishes to see the full report, the Fr. Rector will be glad to show it.

THE BISHOP OF ALGOMA is preaching an Eucharistic Mission at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, beginning today and running through next Sunday. There will be sermons every evening this week at 8, except Saturday. It will be practically the same Mission he gave here two years ago, but it will well stand hearing again, and it is hoped S. Clement's people will support it both by their attendance and their prayers.

THE FOLLOWING are some excellent books for present day reading:
"Every Man's Story of the Oxford Movement".....T. Dilworth-Harrison
"The Oxford Movement and After".....C. P. S. Clarke
"Short History of the Oxford Movement".....S. L. Ollard
"The Novel and the Oxford Movement" (An Essay)..Joseph Ellis Baker
"Studies in the Ministry of Our Lord".....H. F. B. Mackay
"Liturgy and Worship".....Edited by W. K. Lowther Clarke
"The Anglo-Catholic Revival".....W. J. Sparrow Simpson
"Charles Gore"Gordon Crosse
"Arthur C. A. Hall".....G. L. Richardson

These are all appropriate for Lenten study, and are written in a popular style. The Father Rector is trying to arrange a "Lending Library" for Lent. If any one can help him with gifts of suitable books, he will be most grateful.

Parish Notes

THIS WEEK MARKS the beginning of Lent. Cards will be found in the Tract Cases giving the Lenten Schedule. There are no "extra" services. A very complete schedule of Masses and opportunities for prayer and devotion is maintained throughout the year. It is best to get in the way of using what is here, so the gains made in Lent can be carried on after Lent for the rest of the year.

THE DAILY MASS, or Mass very frequently during the week, should be the objective of every member of the Parish. More frequent reception of Holy Communion should be undertaken by the majority of Catholics. The Friday evening service, consisting of Stations of the Cross and Benediction, should come next in your Lenten Rule. Sunday evening Vespers and Benediction might be another item that could be added profitably to the rule of many Clementines.

SOLEMN VESPERS is sung every Sunday evening. The Choir consists of the men only, and the Psalms and hymns are sung to very good plainsong. There is a short anthem after the Sermon, and this is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Sunday begins at S. Clement's with Mass and the Blessed Sacrament, and closes with the Blessed Sacrament in Benediction. It is a matter of great regret that so many people are missing the opportunity for advance in spiritual things that is offered them every Sunday evening at S. Clement's.

RETURN POST CARDS have been sent to the men of the Parish, telling them of the Quiet Evening on Saturday of this week for the Members of the Catholic Laymen's Union at S. George's Church in West Philadelphia. The Evening will open with Vespers at 5, and the three addresses will be given by the Rev. Fr. Klein, S.S.J.E. There will be no Retreat for Men here this Lent, so it is expected that our men will attend this Quiet Evening at S. George's.

THE FATHER RECTOR will give the Meditations at a Quiet Evening for Women here at S. Clement's on the same evening that the men will be having their Quiet Evening at S. George's. While announcements have been sent out, this does not limit the invitation to those who receive cards. Any woman will be warmly welcomed. If you want a place reserved for you at supper (50c.), please notify one of the Sisters at SPR. 2044. The Evening will open with Vespers at 5, and close with Benediction at 9.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING the Bishop of Springfield (Illinois) will visit us and administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. The full choir will be present and sing Solemn Vespers. Bishop White will preach the Sermon. Bishop White has many friends in S. Clement's Parish, and we hope they will come out next Sunday evening to meet him, and to pray for those who are to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at his hands.

A FINE ASSORTMENT OF NEW TRACTS have just arrived from England, and are making their first appearance in the Tract Cases today. They will be changed frequently during Lent. Many of them have to do with the Oxford Centenary being kept this year. Use them to study the history of the Movement, and to deepen your grasp on the things the Movement stands for; and then pass them on to your friends. The Movement, one hundred years ago, was given a great impetus through Tracts. Tracts have not exhausted their usefulness nor their persuasiveness. We need only to be more energetic in their distribution.

Parish Notes

THE MASS which we are singing this morning was written by Dom Anselm Hughes of the Order of S. Benedict, who visited us in November and preached at High Mass. This is the first time the Mass has been sung here, and I am sure it will have an added attraction for us because of our acquaintance with the composer.

SIXTEEN TRACTS, each giving the life of a different one of "The Heroes of The Catholic Revival," will be found in the Tract Case at the Cherry Street end of the Church porch. The full set may be had for 75c. They are most interesting, and give a very comprehensive history of the Oxford Movement.

BISHOP WHITE, of Springfield, Illinois, comes to us this evening for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Bishop White is a successor in this Diocese of the late Bishop Osborne, who was one of the Cowley Fathers, and in his early days, a frequent visitor and preacher at S. Clement's. The collection at Vespers this evening will be for our own Diocesan's "Bishop's Purse."

FASTING does not mean going entirely without food and drink. The Church asks this strict fast only before Holy Communion, from the previous midnight. The fasting which she enjoins on week-days of Lent is not of this kind. It is sometimes called the ecclesiastical, as distinguished from the natural or strict fast. It consists in limiting the quantity of food taken during the day. A working rule towards this end is not to eat between meals, not to have meat more than once a day, and not to have more than one full meal each day. This means, in addition to dinner, only a light breakfast and lunch.

ABSTINENCE in the Church Calendar means, as always, going without meat. In Lent the Church asks this on Wednesdays as well as on Fridays, and on the Ember Saturdays. All week-days of Lent are days of fasting, but not all are days of abstinence.

THE DAYS OF INTERCESSION before the Blessed Sacrament bring out so many people to say their prayers, and prove such a source of inspiration and blessing to those who share in them, that they will be continued on every Friday in Lent up to Holy Week, instead of on the first Friday only, as announced in the Lenten folder.

ON ALL DAYS IN LENT, on which a Double or Semi-Double Feast falls, the first Mass of the day will be of the Feast, with Commemoration and Last Gospel of the Greater Feria. The other two Masses will be of the "Day in Lent." Simple Feasts will be commemorated only. On the first free day in each week, the Mass at 9.30 will be a Requiem Mass. Names to be remembered at the Requiem Masses may always be handed to one of the Priests, or left at the Rectory the day before.

NEXT THURSDAY EVENING, The Rev. Robert S. Chalmers, D.D., Rector of Grace and S. Peter's Church in Baltimore, will be the preacher at the regular Lenten Course at The Church of S. Luke and the Epiphany. Dr. Steele arranges each year that one outstanding Anglo-Catholic should be among the preachers in this series. Dr. Chalmers is a frequent speaker at Catholic Congresses and Conferences, and it is hoped that S. Clement's congregation may avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this most able preacher.

HYMN—"Once More the Solemn Season Calls".....No. 84

INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.

Psalm. Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Glory be..... He shall call.....

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 125 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High; shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty: I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold; my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter; and from the noisome pestilence: He shall defend thee under his wings; and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler; thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee: For he shall give his Angels charge over thee; to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands; that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone: Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my Name: He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Parish Notes

THE FRIDAYS IN LENT are being kept as Days of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament. These are days when all Christians should be praying, and praying hard. A great many are taking advantage of the opportunity offered in these Days of Intercession in S. John's Chapel. Books for meditation and manuals of prayer are provided for those who need them.

THE FATHER RECTOR is preaching at Grace Church, Alexandria, Virginia, on Wednesday evening of this week.

THE ANNUAL MID-LENT RETREAT for Women comes this year on Sunday, March 26th, two weeks from today. The meditations will be given by The Rev. Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, at 10, 2 and 3.15, and the day will close with Benediction at 4. Breakfast will be served after the 8 o'clock Mass and dinner at 1 P. M. If you wish a place reserved for these meals, please notify the Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N.

THE YARNALL LIBRARY OF THEOLOGY OF S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH is a very rare and valuable collection of books in the Philadelphia Divinity School Library. It was founded and is maintained through the generous benefaction of the late Ellis Horner Yarnall, in connection with his many other benefactions to S. Clement's Church. For the past year, the Rev. Dr. Joseph Cullen Ayre has been preparing a catalog of the Library and it is hoped to have it published sometime during this year, not only to show the extent and scope of the Library, but also as a sort of contribution to the celebration of the Oxford Centenary, since the Library abounds in the books and writings of the Tractarians. The Library is open every day and the books are accessible to all who may care to see them. Since they are largely reference books, they may not be taken from the Library.

A LIFE of the late Bishop Webb is being prepared by one of his close friends, the Rev. Robert Vinter, Rector of Christ Church, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

THE SERIES OF TRACTS, "Heroes of the Catholic Revival," did not prove to be very popular. This week the Tract Case at the Cherry Street end of the Church Porch is filled with another series, "Lives of the Saints." They include S. Aidan, S. Alban, S. Augustine of Canterbury, S. Cuthbert, S. Hilda, S. Hugh of Avalon, S. Thomas of Canterbury, S. Wilfrid of York, S. Catharine of Sienna, S. Dominic, S. Francis of Assisi, S. Teresa, S. Augustine of Hippo, S. Margaret of Scotland, S. Chad and S. Anselm. At the Apple Tree Street entrance of the Church you will find the full series of "Eucharistic Tracts" in the Case.

HAVE YOU PAID your membership in the Catholic Congress for 1933. The amount, $1, may be handed to Mrs. Pendleton, or sent direct to Fr. Kennedy in New Haven. The next issue of the Congress Bulletin will be out by Mid-Lent Sunday.

Parish Notes

MID-LENT SUNDAY is the regular time for the Annual Quiet Day for Women. The Meditations will be given next Sunday at 10, 2 and 3.15 by the Rev. Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, Priest, Psychiatrist, Physician and Author. The Day begins with the Mass at 8 and closes with Benediction at 4. Dr. Oliver will also preach at the Solemn Mass. If any women of the congregation, or their friends, wish places reserved for them at breakfast and dinner, will they please notify the Sister-in-Charge, at SPRuce 2044.

ON MONDAY EVENING, Dr. Oliver will give a lecture at The Barclay for the benefit of the Relief Funds at S. Elisabeth's Church. His subject will be, "A Psychiatrist Looks at Crime and Punishment." Tickets may be had at the Church House for $1 apiece.

NEXT SATURDAY is the great Feast of the Incarnation, the anniversary of the day when Gabriel brought the tidings to Blessed Mary, and she conceived by the Holy Ghost. The Christian Dispensation began at this moment. The prominence which the Church gives to this day witnesses to the importance she places on the fact of the Virgin Birth of the Incarnate Son of God. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock.

ON S. BENEDICT'S DAY each year, the offerings in the Alms Box on the Chapel door are sent to the Benedictines at Nashdom Abbey in England. Since the last Feast Day we have made the acquaintance of Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B., so our gift this year will show not only a continuance of our interest in this Benedictine foundation, but will be as well an evidence of our appreciation of his visit.

LOCAL COMMITTEES are beginning to work out the details and the plans for the great Catholic Congress to be held in Philadelphia in October, in honour of the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Oxford Movement. The new Bulletins of the Catholic Congress will be ready for distribution this week, and there will be extra copies for free distribution in the Church Porch. This will be a great occasion for Catholic Churchmen, and you should be making yourselves thoroughly acquainted with its purpose and its programme, so as to interest your friends, and to help make new friends for the Cause. While it is a Movement that has permeated the whole Church, and even touched many people outside, yet we must not forget that the Anglo-Catholics are the direct successors and heirs of the Tractarian Movement and the Tractarians, and this is definitely an Anglo-Catholic Congress. Many new Tracts about the Centennial are appearing from week to week in the Tract Cases.

A VERY ATTRACTIVE HOME for unemployed men between twenty and thirty years of age has been opened in our neighborhood. It is very much in need of bedding, towels, old clothing and shoes. Many of these young men are college men who have been stranded away from home, and others have been students in local art and professional schools. It is an unobtrusive work, under private subscription, and deserves our help and our prayers.

ANNUAL RETREAT FOR WOMEN NEXT SUNDAY
CONDUCTED BY THE REV. DR. JOHN RATHBONE OLIVER

Parish Notes

NEXT SATURDAY EVENING there will be a short Retreat for men at S. Luke's Church, Germantown. It will begin at 5 in the afternoon, and close at 9. Fr. Tiedeman, O.H.C., will be the Conductor. If any men of our congregation wish to attend this Quiet Evening, will they please notify the Fr. Rector so that he can tell Fr. Conkling how many to expect from S. Clement's.

THE SISTERS have a good selection of Cards and Booklets at the Mission House on Woodstock Street. There are Cards suitable for Easter, Birthdays, and Sympathy, as well as devotional and Eucharistic Cards. They are glad to show them at any time.

ONE WEEK FROM TOMORROW evening there will be the regular monthly meeting of S. Mary's Guild. This is a devotional Guild for Women, meeting on the first Monday of each month. There is an address after the Office is sung, and Benediction is given. A short social time follows in the Parish House. Any women of the congregation who might be interested in the Rule should speak to one of the Sisters.

ON THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK, April 6th, there will be a brief Quiet Day for the members of S. Mary's Guild and their friends. The Fr. Rector will give the Meditations at 10, 12 and 2. A slight collation will be served in the Parish House at 1. No notices or invitations are being sent out.

TOMORROW EVENING Dr. Oliver is giving a Lecture in the ballroom of The Barclay for the benefit of the Relief Fund at S. Elisabeth's Church. The subject of the Lecture will be: "A Psychiatrist Looks at Crime and Punishment." Tickets at $1 may be had at the Church House, or at The Barclay tomorrow evening.

MISS OLIVA DOXRUD, a member of this Parish, was clothed as a Novice at S. Mary's Convent, Peekskill, last Friday afternoon.

FATHER EDWARDS preached last Wednesday evening at Christ Church, Media. The Father Rector preaches next Sunday evening in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square.

THE MASS. "A Daily Eucharist is a small enough ceremony in a corner, in a little chapel, with perhaps but a few worshippers; but the smallness is only in its outward features. The act has widest range; it reaches out arms of power over the whole world; it extends its influence to the abode of the departed; it penetrates up to the Throne of God. It is the widest, richest act, the act in which the greatest generosity can be spent of which man is capable."—Bishop Gore.

EACH FRIDAY IN LENT is kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament in S. John's Chapel. A goodly number of people are in and out during the day, saying their prayers, and meditating in our Lord's Sacred Presence. Suggestions for prayer and meditation are provided in the way of books and pamphlets.

THE TRACT CASES are still showing a change of titles and colours from week to week, and the number of tracts that are taken still exceed the amount of money that is left behind. Nevertheless the Tracts are taken, and we hope they are read, and passed on. There is a fine selection in abeyance, for Passion and Holy Week.

A Letter from the Father Rector

MY DEAR PEOPLE:—

During 1931 and 1932 S. Clement's managed to weather the financial stress of the times with little difficulty, closing her accounts at the end of 1932 with a deficit for the two years of $900. This has been paid off, and we came to 1933 with a clean slate and no debts.

Our income is derived from several sources. From the Yarnall Endowment we receive a sum each year for the Choir and a like sum for property maintenance. Then there is the Parish Endowment Fund, which has been built up over a period of years from the many legacies we have received. There is a small income from the rental of a few pews and sittings in the Church. Finally, there are the Duplex Envelopes and the loose money in the Sunday collections. Even in prosperous times this total is not a formidable sum, and our budget in the best of days has been a very modest one.

With the beginning of 1933 there has been a big drop in our income and in our prospects for the current year. The Yarnall Fund is about $1,400 below normal in each of its accounts, so that we have $3,800 for the Choir instead of $5,200. The Parish Endowment has netted $6,200 for each of the past two years; this year we have but $4,720. Several members of the Congregation have been compelled because of reduced incomes to give up their pews and sittings. The pledges through the Duplex Envelopes are very much less than last year. And the loose offerings in January and February were $300 less than in the corresponding months of 1932. If you add up these differences you will have a sum beyond any possibility of our securing in new or additional pledges. There is but one thing for us to do, and that is to cut the budget.

The Finance Committee has had several meetings with me, and our main concern has been to make only such cuts as would not seriously affect the work of the Parish, and yet bring our expenditures within the estimated income. The budget was gone over item by item, and about $1,000 was deducted in small scattered sums, but yet there was need for considerable reduction. The only solution seemed to be in reducing all salaries and wages.

Starting with my own salary, the Curates, the Organist and Choir-master, every member of the Choir, and the Sextons have been reduced 10%. We would much prefer to accept these reductions without mentioning them, but that would not be fair to you. You must know the true state of affairs, and not be allowed to think, because of our silence, that the Parish is prosperous financially, when we are really very poor.

We are not complaining. Most every one has suffered some reduction in wage or income, and there is no reason why we should escape. Nor are we complaining about you, for we know you have given most generously when you had the money to give, and we believe you are doing your best now. To what extent we shall be able to carry on during the summer will depend very largely on the Easter and Whitsunday special collections.

The other Priests will be joining with me in shorter holidays this summer, and Fr. Bert will not be coming as in former years. We are trying hard to keep up the full schedule of Masses and devotional opportunities, and we do this with perfect confidence in your co-operation, and in your prayers.

God bless you. And may we all be strengthened for our tasks through Him Who, being rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we might be rich in Him.

Faithfully and affectionately,

Rector.

9. Sun. PALM SUNDAY. Low Mass and Holy Communion at 7, 8 and 9.15. Solemn Blessing of the Palms and Palm Procession at 10.30. Solemn Mass and Sermon (The Fr. Rector) at 11. Solemn Vespers, Sermon (Fr. Edwards) and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8.

IT WILL BE A GREAT HELP, both in comfort and reverence, if the regular members of the congregation will occupy the front pews in the church today and throughout Holy Week. On Good Friday, especially for the Preaching of the Passion, this will leave the rear of the church free for those who must leave before the service is finished.

FATHER EDWARDS is preaching the Passion this year at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Kensington. Fr. Hutchinson is coming down from Newport to preach the Three Hours at S. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets.

THE FATHER RECTOR broadcasted over the radio yesterday morning in the interests of Good Friday observance, and he will be "on the air" again on Tuesday at 12.55 P. M. over Station WLIT. He is preaching this evening at the Church of the Redemption, 56th and Market Streets.

THE MUSIC FOR THE SOLEMN MASS on Easter Day will be "Troisième Messe Solennelle" (De Paques), by Charles Francois Gounod. There will be the usual procession about the Church with Easter Carols before the Mass.

THERE WILL BE A SACRED CONCERT tomorrow evening, "Olivet to Calvary," in the Irvine Auditorium of the University of Pennsylvania, 34th and Spruce Streets, at 8.30. The Clergy have tickets which they will gladly give to those who ask for them. Ten cents will be collected upon the presentation of the ticket to defray expenses. There will be 300 voices in the Chorus, with Orchestra, Organ and Soloists.

A SIMPLE ARRANGEMENT of Flowers has been decided upon for the Altar of Repose on Maundy Thursday, so it is hoped that those who usually make offerings for this Altar will add them this year to the Easter Offering for the Parish.

SMALL BOOKLETS, with the Psalms and Lessons for Tenebrae, are to be found in the Tract Cases. They may be borrowed for the Services, but if they are to be taken away, 25 cents should be left in the Tract Case Money Box. The complete edition of the new American Tracts will be found in the two Cases today.

THE EASTER COLLECTION will be for Parish Expenses. What we are able to do this summer, and how much of the present schedule we can continue, will depend on the amount of this offering. Please be not only generous this year, but as self-sacrificing as possible. We do not want to let S. Clement's down when so many people are depending on us in these hard days.

THE EASTER LETTERS are in the mails and should be delivered tomorrow or Tuesday. For economy they have been mailed unsealed in 1½ cent envelopes. If you fail to receive one, copies will be found in the Racks in the Church Porch.

THE SECOND SUNDAY after Easter has been designated as the Diocesan Day for commemoration of the Oxford Leaders who started the Catholic Revival in the English Church. Father Hughson, O.H.C., will preach here that morning. On Thursday evening, April 25th, there will be a great service in honour of the Catholic Revival at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, when the Rev. Dr. Robert S. Chalmers of Baltimore will be the preacher.

DETAILED SCHEDULES of Holy Week Services and Hours for Confessions in this Church will be found in the Bulletin Board racks at the two entrances of the Church.

KEEP THE HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE before you. Tell your friends of our services. Bring your friends with you. Endeavor to keep a good Holy Week. Do not neglect your Confession. If you do these things, you will have a Blessed Easter.

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

According to the Missal

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succor afar from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

Psalm. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE—(In E Flat).....S. Tudor Strang
(Collect, Epistle and Passion, page 134, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipt. And why, I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorn. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—(Mass in C).....Myles B. Foster
SERMONTHE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

HYMN—"Lift High the Cross".....No. 745

Offer your thankful praises.

A Lamb the sheep redeemeth:

Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?

"The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection:

Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

Parish Notes

EASTER was a glorious feast in the Parish, just the sort of day the Queen of Feasts ought to be. As far as our records go, the number of Communion made at our Altars last Sunday exceeds by a considerable figure those made at S. Clement's on any single day in the history of the Parish. When the Communion to the sick are completed, it will round out 400 as the total number of those who have received their Paschal Sacrament from our hands.

THE COLLECTION last Sunday exceeded by about $300 the offering of the year before, and this too is most gratifying. It was reported at the Easter Vestry meeting that the collections for the first sixteen Sundays this year were but $200 less than for the corresponding sixteen Sundays of last year. We hope very much that the present budget can be maintained for the rest of the year.

AT THE EASTER VESTRY election, Mr. Woodruff, Mr. Mayer and Mr. Sellers were re-elected for a period of three years. There is still a vacancy in the Vestry, which probably will not be filled until the autumn. At the Easter meeting, the Father Rector re-appointed Mr. Woodruff as his Warden, Mr. Ritter was re-elected Accounting Warden, and Mr. Clay as Secretary. The other Committees were re-elected or re-appointed.

THURSDAY EVENING OF THIS WEEK, April 27th, the children of the Parish, under the direction of Sister Helen, S. H. N. will give an Easter pageant in the Parish House. The members of the Parish, and especially the families of the children, are most cordially invited to join with S. Clement's Guild in this evening. There will be light refreshments after the play. A silver offering will be received at the door.

MRS. ALEXANDER SHOLDER of this Parish was solemnly professed as Sister Frances Mabel in the Community of the Transfiguration at Glendale, Ohio, on Thursday in Easter Week.

THE FATHER RECTOR has declined an invitation from the English Catholic Congress Committee in London to be one of the Centenary preachers in July. He was invited to preach at S. Agatha's in Birmingham, where Fr. Rosenthal is the Vicar.

NEXT TUESDAY EVENING, April 25th, which is the birthday of John Keble, there will be a great Service at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, under the auspices of The Catholic Laymen's Union. Solemn Vespers will be sung and there will be a Procession. The preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Chalmers of Baltimore. This is not a service for men only, but everyone will be welcomed, and everyone is urged to go. It is hoped that S. Clement's will be well represented. S. Luke's Church is near the corner of Germantown Avenue and Coulter Street, and may be reached by trolley, Route 23, which connects conveniently with the Subway at Erie Avenue.

CONTRIBUTIONS to the United Thank Offering of the Women's Auxiliary are now being received by the Parish Treasurer, Miss Hoffman, of 2118 DeLancey Street. They may be sent to Miss Hoffman directly, or placed on the collection plate, if properly marked.

NEW MEMBERS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS are solicited. The annual membership is $1. This year's membership will admit you to all the features of the Catholic Congress to be held here in Philadelphia in October. Hand your dollar to one of the Priests and you will be enrolled at once.

NEXT SUNDAY is the day designated for the Diocesan commemoration of the Oxford Movement Centennial. Father Hughson, Superior of the Order of Holy Cross, will preach here at the Solemn Mass. Tracts concerning the Heroes of the Catholic Revival will be found in the Tract Cases.

29. Sat. S. PETER OF VERONA. Low Mass of the Feast at 7, 8 and 9.30. Confessions, 11.30 to 12 (The Fr. Rector); 3 to 5 (Fr. Letherman and Fr. Underhill); 7 to 9 (All the Priests).

30. Sun. II SUNDAY after EASTER. Low Mass and Holy Communion at 7 and 8. High Mass, with Hymns, and Holy Communion at 9.15. Children's Catechism at 10. Solemn Mass and Sermon (The Rev. Father Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross) at 11. Solemn Vespers, Sermon (The Rev. Fr. Edwards) and Benediction at 8.

TODAY is being kept throughout the Diocese in special commemoration of the great leaders of the Oxford Movement. This Diocesan celebration began with a great Vespers service last Tuesday evening at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, when the Bishop was present, and Dr. Chalmers, of Baltimore, was the preacher. It was very gratifying to see so many members of S. Clement's in the congregation.

IT IS A GREAT JOY to welcome Father Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, as our preacher this morning. The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, Executive Secretary of the Department of Christian Social Service in the National Council, is also a guest in the Parish today, and is saying the eight o'clock Parish Mass this morning.

THE OFFICIAL BADGES for The Catholic Congress have arrived, and may be had for 25 cents apiece from Mrs. Pendleton. They are silver and blue enamel, and come in pins, and also as buttons to fit in the lapel of a man's coat. Only members of the Congress are eligible to wear them.

S. MARY'S GUILD will not meet tomorrow evening. Owing to the opening of the Annual Convention of the Diocese, and the Bishop's dinner to the delegates, the Guild is postponed until next Monday, the 8th. This will be a "May Party" for the Guild, and it is hoped that all the members will make a special effort to attend. No individual notices are being sent out.

AT THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY meeting on Wednesday afternoon at two, the speaker will be the Rev. J. H. Hudson of S. Augustine's Mission. Fr. Hudson is doing a very conspicuous work among his own coloured race, and we should all be informed about the work our Diocese is doing for the negro in our midst.

S. CLEMENT'S GUILD has secured the services of the entertainment department of The Baldwin Dairies Company, and they will give a "Moving Picture" feature in the Parish House on Thursday evening at eight. This will be followed by refreshments served by The Dairy Company. The admission will be 25 cents, and the proceeds will be given to the Sisters for the Relief Work amongst the Poor.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the "First Friday" in the month. The Masses will be Votive of the Sacred Heart. The day will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, and a chart will be found in the Corridor for volunteer intercessors to sign their initials. In the evening the Holy Hour will be kept. The Fr. Rector would welcome intercessions for use at the Holy Hour, if they are handed or sent to him well in advance of the evening service. He hopes to make the Holy Hour regularly a time for such prayers and special intercessions.

WEDNESDAY of this week is the Patronal Festival of The Order of the Holy Cross, and Saturday is the Patronal Festival of The Society of S. John the Evangelist. Our special prayers will be offered for these Orders on their respective days.

THE ANNUAL DIOCESAN CONVENTION opens tomorrow evening in Holy Trinity Church. This evening service is open to all the congregations in the Diocese. The Bishop will read the annual report, and Bishop Manning, of New York, will also make an address. The Convention will meet for its official business on Tuesday.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of The Guild of All Souls will be at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn, Monday, May 8th. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11.30, and Fr. Hughson, O.H.C., will be the Preacher. The business meeting of the Guild will be held in the afternoon. Those wishing Luncheon should notify Fr. Mabry at 199 Carroll Street.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of The Guild of All Souls will be held tomorrow at S. Paul's Church, Brooklyn. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11.30, and Fr. McCune will preach the sermon. The Father Rector, Superior of the Guild in this country, will preside at the business meeting, following the lunch.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet tomorrow evening at 8. Since May is the month of Our Lady, there will be a special "May Party" in the Parish House after the Guild Office and Benediction in the Chapel. This Guild is open to all the women of the Congregation who are practising Catholics, and visitors are always welcome at the monthly meetings.

S. KATHARINE'S GUILD, for girls and young women, will be "At Home" next Friday evening, from 7 to 8, in their Guild Rooms on the top floor of the Parish House. They have been working on scrap books all winter, illustrating a course on "The Church" given by the Sister Marie, S.H.N. It is hoped that the parents of the girls especially will make a special effort to come on Friday evening, and encourage the members of S. Katharine's Guild by this interest in their work.

MR. JAMES MOORE HICKSON, who conducted a Healing Mission in S. Clement's Church during the last year of Fr. Hutchinson's rectorate, arrived in Philadelphia yesterday, and began a similar Mission at The Church of the Saviour, 38th and Chestnut Streets, in West Philadelphia. Admission to the Church at the morning Healing Services will be by Card only. Two kinds of Cards are issued, one to Patients, and one to Intercessors. The Father Rector has a quantity of each kind, and will be glad to give them to those who ask him. To be admitted to the Church, you must have one of these Cards, with your Rector's endorsement. The Mission will continue through Wednesday. The Service each morning is at 10.30.

THE CLERGY ARE SOMETIMES FAULTED for their supposed failure to visit people who are ill and confined to their homes temporarily. Such supposed failures are usually due to the failure in notifying the Priests of such illness, and asking for the Sacraments. When you want the Doctor, you send for him. So when you need the Priest, you should send for him. With a congregation so scattered as this one of S. Clement's, and distances so great, it is impossible for the Priests to know many of the people in their homes. But when a person is ill we do try very hard to give them our best attention, and where there has been serious and critical illness, you know how faithful in every attention we have tried to be. But when people are but slightly indisposed, we do not make an effort to call, unless we are especially asked to do so. If you want one of the Priests, or want the Blessed Sacrament brought to you in your home, it is your privilege to ask, and it is our pleasure to come. If you need us, do not hesitate to ask us, but our routine duties leave us very little time for the pleasure of leisurely parish calling. We are here to administer the Church's Sacraments, and we stand ready always to do it.

A COMBINED FESTIVAL in honour of the Blessed Sacrament will be held by the New York and the New Jersey Provinces of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, the New York Catholic Club, and The Catholic Congress, on Tuesday, May 30th (Memorial Day) at Christ Church, Elizabeth, N. J. There will be a Solemn High Mass at 11, with a sermon by Fr. Joseph, O.S.F., followed by a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction. There will be a Conference in the afternoon.

WHEN YOU ARE LOOKING over your summer wardrobe, do not forget how eager we are for cast off clothing, especially things for men and boys. We have had to furnish clothing for several recent burials; we are anxious to have nice things that are suitable for this use.

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS was cleared at the "Dairy Party" given by the members of S. Clement's Guild last Thursday evening. This money was given to the Father Rector for his discretionary use in relieving the poor and needy. The Guild will give a "Radio and Card Party" in the Parish House, Thursday evening, June 8th. There will be prizes and refreshments. Reserve this evening, and tell your friends about it.

A MEMBER OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY has offered more than a hundred very fine and unusual Iris roots to be sold for the benefit of the Missionary offerings of the Auxiliary. They will be sold at the rate of ten roots for a dollar. Please give your orders to either the Father Rector or Mrs. Luckenbach, President of the Auxiliary.

THERE WILL BE A FESTIVAL in honour of the Blessed Sacrament on Memorial Day in Christ Church, Elizabeth, New Jersey. Fr. Joseph, O.S.B., will preach at the Solemn Mass, and there will be a Eucharistic Conference in the afternoon. A poster, giving fuller details, will be found on the bulletin boards in the Church porch.

DR. JOHN RATHBONE OLIVER is giving some lectures on Monday mornings in the Church House to the members of the Clerical Brotherhood and to some guests invited by the Department of Social Service. During these visits to Philadelphia, he is a guest in the Rectory. The Right Reverend Robert E. Campbell, O.H.C., Bishop of Liberia, has also been a guest in the Rectory during the past week. The Bishop will be returning to Africa in June, by way of England and the Centenary Congress in London.

THE ANNUAL DUES for the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament are 50 cents and the Annual Dues for the Guild of All Souls are 75 cents. These sums are now due for the year 1933-34, and when properly marked with name and address, may be placed on the collection plates. The Annual Membership in the Catholic Congress is $1. The memberships this year will admit the holders to all the sessions of the Catholic Congress to be held in Philadelphia in October. All the members of the Vestry have joined the Congress, and we have the largest Parish membership in the country. But we want more members! If you do not belong, speak to one of the Priests, and they will "sign you up"! The Congress badges are 25 cents extra.

WITH THE REDUCED INCOME from our several Endowment Funds, we are very largely dependent on the free-will offerings of the Congregation that are received every Sunday morning at the High Mass. We appeal very especially to the friends who worship with us and who are not regular subscribers through the Duplex Envelope System to be as generous as possible in their offerings. If you are helped by our services, and believe in our work, please help us to maintain it. Too many people are looking to us for help and inspiration for us to allow any "depression in religion" to show itself at S. Clement's!

BETWEEN ASCENSION and Pentecost we shall be keeping as usual a Novena to the Holy Ghost. This year we shall join with the rest of the Churches in the Anglican Communion in offering our Novena for the Reunion of Christendom. The Catholic Congress Committee has arranged a special leaflet of intercession to use at this time, and they will be enclosed in the Parish Leaflets next Sunday. All who can possibly do so, should try to keep this Novena by daily attendance at Mass and frequent reception of Holy Communion.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR is now Doctor Joiner! At the Annual Commencement of Nashotah House on Thursday the degree of Doctor of Divinity, Honoris Causa, was conferred upon him. This year is the fifteenth anniversary of his graduation from Nashotah, of his ordination to the Priesthood, and of his coming to S. Clement's.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER is "commonly called Rogation Sunday," from the Latin word "rogare," to ask, because on this day the Holy Gospel contains the record of our Blessed Lord's promise that whatever His disciples asked of His Father in His Name should be given to them.

THE ROGATION DAYS are the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday before Ascension Day—Feria Secunda, et Tertia in Rogationibus, et Vigilia Ascensionis Domini. They were anciently called "Gang Days," because processions went out on those days, hymns and canticles and litanies being sung, and prayers offered at various halting-spots or stations for a blessing on the fields and the fruits of the earth. The Prayer Book has a proper Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the Rogation Days, on page 261, and calls them days of solemn supplication.

THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN MASS at eleven o'clock on Ascension Day. The Rev. Father Rector will be in the Church Wednesday morning at ten for Confessions, and also in the evening at 7.30. Holy Thursday is a day of solemn obligation, and all Catholics should assist at Mass on that day.

FROM THE ASCENSION of our Blessed Lord to the Day of Pentecost, the Apostles waited and prayed in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, and so kept the first Novena of the Catholic Church. These nine days are still observed throughout the Catholic world by special prayers and intercessions. This year we shall be joining with other Anglo-Catholics in keeping "Nine Days of Prayer for the Reunion of Christendom." The Masses throughout this Novena will be offered for the intentions listed on the first page of the folder enclosed in the Parish Leaflet today, and the special prayers that follow will be said after Matins each morning and before the 9.30 Mass.

THE WHITSUNDAY OFFERING this year will be given to Missions. This gift to Missions is being made by most of the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese. While many of the offerings will be given to make up a deficit in the expectations of the National Council, our offerings here at S. Clement's will be given to the general missionary work of the Church, and will count on our Parish Quota. The undesignated offerings on Pentecost will go as usual to the Parish. Special envelopes for the Missionary offering will be sent to the members of the Parish next week. It is hoped this may be a generous offering. While these are hard times for all of us, yet the missionary fields of the Church are in more serious need than we are, and it is our Christian duty, as well as our great privilege, to share what we have with those who have so much less.

A SMALL MOTOR is being installed in the Organ in S. John's Chapel. This is a much needed improvement, and the Chapel organists will rejoice at the news.—We are also in the process of securing a Concert Grand Piano for the Parish House. We have never had a worthy instrument for use at entertainments and concerts, so it will be a great addition to our work.—We are indebted to Miss Williams of "The Barclay" for many beautiful shrubs and bushes for the Apple Tree Street Garden. It has never looked more beautiful than it does just now.—The Paschal Candle, which has been so much admired, was painted by Miss Newman. We are very grateful for this annual offering of Miss Newman's artistry and devotion.—Do not forget the "Radio and Card Party" in the Parish House, Thursday evening, June 8th. Admission, 25 cents. There will be refreshments and prizes, too.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST is being continued in the Parish this week. This year it is being offered in union with Anglo-Catholics throughout the world for the Reunion of Christendom. The prayers are said after Matins and before the last Mass each day, and the Holy Sacrifice is being offered daily for this intention. Leaflets containing the intentions and the special prayers will be found in the Tract Cases.

THIS EVENING is the last Sunday evening for Solemn Vespers until the first Sunday in October. That does not mean that S. Clement's is to be closed Sunday nights! There will be a short address each Sunday night, with a few familiar hymns, and followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, at eight o'clock.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK being the First Friday in the Month, the Masses will be Votive of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It will be kept as a day of intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, ending with the Holy Hour and Benediction at eight in the evening. The Fr. Rector will be glad to use any special intercessions at the Holy Hour that are sent or handed to him in advance.

DO NOT FORGET the Radio and Card Party in the Parish House, Thursday evening, June 8th, at eight o'clock. There will be a wide variety of prizes, and refreshments will be served. Admission, twenty-five cents.

THOMAS WILLIAMS, the Sexton, has been keeping an anniversary this month. It is twenty-five years since he first came to S. Clement's. A number of his friends in the Parish presented him with a purse amounting to a bit over a hundred dollars, and he wants to thank his friends, through this page, for their kindness and generosity.

FATHER UNDERHILL will be leaving us for the summer on Thursday of this week. As usual, he is going to Rutherfordton, North Carolina, to stay with old friends until October.

LETTERS will be in the mail tomorrow, directed to the members and friends of the Congregation, and containing special envelopes for the Missionary offering on Whitsunday. The Parish Quota for Missions is $7,800. Less than a tenth of this sum has been given so far this year.

THERE WILL BE NO APPEAL for the Summer Outing Fund this year. So many people must be helped with the absolute necessities of life, that we are not undertaking any vacations for the children and mothers as in former years. Neither is any appeal being made for the Choir Outing Fund. We do appreciate the fine work that the Choir boys do, and we know the summer camp has been a great treat to them, but unless there is a "miracle" they will have a very short term at camp this year. If any one wishes to subscribe to this fund, Dr. Fry will be glad to have their offering, but no appeal is being made.

BEGINNING MONDAY, JUNE 12TH, the Summer Schedule of Daily Masses will go into effect. There will be a Mass at 7 every day. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday there will be a second Mass at 9.30. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday the second Mass will be at 8. The Sunday Masses are not changed in the summer, except that the 9.15 becomes a Low Mass, and the 11 o'clock Mass is High instead of Solemn.

THERE WILL BE A PRIEST in the Church for Confessions every Friday afternoon and evening, and every Saturday afternoon and evening, throughout the summer.

THE FATHER RECTOR will leave for the first part of his holiday on June 18th, returning July 10th. Fr. Letherman will leave July 9th and return August 7th. Fr. Edwards will leave August 6th and return September 4th. After Fr. Edwards returns, the Fr. Rector will leave for the balance of September.

Parish Notes

A RADIO AND CARD PARTY will be given in the Parish House Thursday evening of this week at eight o'clock. We have a great variety of prizes. Tickets are for sale at twenty-five cents apiece. Refreshments will be served for ten cents extra. Some of our young people are co-operating with the members of S. Clement's Guild in arranging for this party. The proceeds will be given to The Choir Summer Outing Fund.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS the Choir has given a recital of their Mass Music at the close of the Church year. They will give such a recital again this year on Friday evening, June 16th. The music that they sing is all taken from the Masses that they have sung during the year, and from the anthems they have used at Benediction. This evening of music is offered as an act of worship to our Lord, in the Octave of Corpus Christi, so it is fitting that the evening should close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The offering will be given to The Choir Summer Outing Fund.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE BARREL, for the benefit of the poor and needy in the parish, have fallen off in the past few weeks, while the demands for help are ever increasing. We like to help people with the things they actually need rather than with money, so packages of groceries are the most acceptable offerings that you can place in the Barrel. The Lord God promised the woman of Zarephath that "the barrel shall not fail until the Lord send plenty on the earth," and so this Barrel stands in the porch of the Church as a challenge to us all to help in fulfilling the promise that God has made to all His faithful poor.

THE CORNER-STONE of the Lady Chapel of our Cathedral will be laid this week, on Saturday afternoon, June 3rd, at three o'clock. The work on the Lady Chapel has reached such a point that a fair estimate of its completed beauty and size can be obtained. The site is on Ridge Avenue in Upper Roxborough, at about 8800 on the Ridge. Buses can be found at the Subway exit at Broad Street and Erie Avenue.

BEGINNING TOMORROW, and continuing until further notice, Vespers will be said "at the convenience of the Priests." This will be ordinarily at 6.45 instead of 6. Saturday evening the Office will be said in the Church at 8. The Fr. Rector feels it is very important to say the Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer publicly in the Church, but it is a very rare thing for any member of the congregation to be present. So it seems only fair that the hour of their recitation should suit the convenience of the Priests. Matins will be said as usual at 9, but the Priests will feel free to move the hour of Vespers any evening if it is more convenient for them to do so.

SOME MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION are still not members of the Catholic Congress. Some who joined the English Congress when Fr. Rosenthal and Fr. Russell were here, may think that they belong to the Catholic Congress in this country. They are separate and distinct organizations. Membership in the American Congress is $1, and will admit the members to all the special meetings of the Congress to be held in Philadelphia in October, as well as entitle them to all the literature published by the Congress in this country. If you do not belong, please join, and hand your name and your money to one of the Priests, who will see that you are enrolled at once.

MORE THAN TWENTY MEMBERS of the Congregation attended the Eucharistic Conference in Elizabeth on Memorial Day. There was a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament after the Solemn Mass, and in the afternoon there was a most interesting and inspiring meeting, when Dr. Lewis of Chestnut Hill spoke on "Sound Doctrine a Basis for Worship," and Mr. T. S. Eliot, special lecturer in English at Harvard, spoke on "The Influence of Dr. Pusey."

Sermon (The Rev. Father Edwards) and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Sisters' Mission House

During the past year, the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, have received 1,871 visitors at The Mission House, and they have made 772 calls in the Parish. They have given 184 private instructions, and 128 public instructions, and have presided over 207 Guild meetings. They have prepared 23 persons for their first Confessions, three for Baptism and 11 for Confirmation. Since the 1st of October, 67 guests have been entertained in the Mission House for over a night or longer. Sister Mary Kathleen, the Sister-in-Charge, is sailing for England and the Centenary Congress next week, with Sister Mary Virginia, who is in charge of the Sisters' work at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York.

Parish Notes

THREE YOUNG MEN OF THIS PARISH are being Ordained to the Diaconate today and tomorrow. Mr. Edward W. Hawkins is being Ordained this morning by Bishop Manning in the Cathedral of S. John the Divine in New York. Tomorrow morning, at the Church of the Redemption, 56th and Market Streets, at 10.30 o'clock, Bishop Taitt will ordain, among others, Mr. William E. Asburn and Mr. Gerald M. Gardner. It is a matter of great pride for us to be giving three of our former Acolytes to the Ministry, and it is hoped you will have them in your prayers and Mass intention.

THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of Corpus Christi. The members of The Catholic Laymen's Union will make their third annual Corporate Communion here at the seven o'clock Mass. A light breakfast will be served in the Parish House immediately after, to which all the members of the congregation are welcome. There will be the usual Low Masses at 8 and 9.30. The Solemn Mass at 11 will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THERE WILL BE THE USUAL Corpus Christi Festival at S. Alban's Church, Olney, Thursday evening at 8. There will be a Procession, and Dr. L. C. Lewis, Rector of the Church of S. Martin's-in-the-Fields, will be the preacher. There will be a lawn party after the service.

THE FATHER RECTOR expects to leave after the Solemn Mass next Sunday for a three weeks' holiday at the Hot Springs in Virginia.

THE SUMMER SCHEDULE of Daily Masses begins tomorrow. Be sure to keep the Summer Kalendar before you. Remember the Friday and Sunday evening services continue throughout the season. Devotions and Benediction on Fridays; Address and Benediction on Sundays; each evening at 8.

Choir Service Next Friday Evening

Instead of a Sermon next Friday evening, the full Choir will be present at Benediction, and will sing a few Mass and Vespers numbers. The collection will be given to The Choir Summer Outing Fund.

The Programme will be found on the last page of the Leaflet. The numbers which Dr. Fry has selected are based on types of music existing before the end of the XVIII century. The Organ numbers played as a Prelude are from the XVII century.

The Mass Propers, Introit, Graduale, Alleluia, Offertory and Communion, as well as the Psalm and Magnificat, are Plainsong settings. Plainsong, though existing for centuries, still survives as the song of the Church. Plainsong—unmeasured music—is analogous to prose; while measured music is analogous to poetry.

The settings of the Ordinary of the Mass are those of Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B., of Nashdom Abbey, in England. While the composer is a contemporary, his music is symbolic of a much earlier period, and is written in the Aeolian Mode. This feature justifies its inclusion, since it represents an earlier period.

Palestrina, the composer of the first of the two Kyries, is thought by many to represent the climax of polyphonic music of the earlier type, while Bach, the composer of the second, is probably the greatest polyphonic writer of all times. His compositions are not usually, however, of the modal character.

The Organ number played just before the Rite of Benediction is the composition of Samuel Scheidt, the finest German organist of his time. He was born in Halle, Saxony, in 1587.

The Ave Maria, by Arcadelt, is from the XVI century. Tantum Ergo is sung to the proper Sarum Melody.

The closing Organ number, while the composition of a contemporary, Joseph Bonnet, organist of S. Eustache in Paris, is based on the plainsong setting (Mode I) to a hymn of the IX century.

This Evening at 8

Sermon (The Rev. Father Edwards) and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Parish Notes

SUNDAY, JULY 9TH, will be kept throughout the Anglican Communion as the Day of Thanksgiving for the Centenary of the Oxford Movement, and all Anglo-Catholics are urged to make their Communions on this great day. The English Committee of the Catholic Congress has published a very beautiful commemorative Communion Card for this anniversary Sunday, and one of these cards will be given to everyone who receives Holy Communion in S. Clement's Church on Sunday, July 9th. The Father Rector will have returned from his holiday for this Sunday, and will preach at the High Mass. The great Congress in London begins on this Sunday, and continues throughout the week. We shall be remembering it at all of our Masses.

THE OFFERING ON WHITSUNDAY amounted to about $450. It was given to the Parish Missionary Quota.

POSTERS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS IN PHILADELPHIA are on display in all of our churches. Are you a member of the Congress? The annual membership is $1. Hand your subscription to one of the Priests.The Centenary Prayer Books have arrived from England. They are twenty-five cents apiece. We also have a new supply of Anglo-Catholic Prayer Books.The Tract Cases are filled with the latest publications of The Catholic Literature Association. Are you reading these Tracts, and handing them on to your friends?

THE SUMMER SCHEDULE OF MASSES is now in order. There is a Mass every Day at 7. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday there is a Mass at 9.30. On the other days of the week there is a second Mass at 8. On Sundays there is a Low Mass at 7, 8 and 9.15. The High Mass is at 11. On Sunday and Friday evenings at 8, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given. Are you using the many spiritual opportunities that S. Clement's sets before you?

THE SUNDAY COLLECTIONS for the first five months of this year are just $1000 less than for the corresponding period of last year. At this rate we shall be $2400 in arrears by the end of the year. We cannot afford to run into debt. We must pay as we go, and "cut our coat according to our cloth." The Finance Committee of the Vestry have had several conferences with the Father Rector, and further reductions in the budget will have to be made. There was a special meeting of the Vestry this past week, and the matter has been left to the Finance Committee to work out in consultation and agreement with the Father Rector.

IT HAS BEEN DECIDED to reduce the staff from three Priests to two, so Father Letherman will not be returning to us after his holiday, but the schedule will be carried on during the summer as announced in the Kalendar.

FURTHER ECONOMIES are under consideration, but nothing will be done to alter the public services of the church, nor to change the nature of our pastoral and missionary work. The Sisters' House will be maintained as usual.

MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION are urged to consider this financial situation in the parish, and to make it a matter of earnest prayer. See if you are giving all you can afford to the support of S. Clement's, and if not, increase your pledge. And begin now to save as you are able towards a special collection that will have to be taken in the autumn to cover the deficit that is bound to occur during the summer.

AN EFFORT WILL BE MADE in the fall to canvass the parish for subscribers and increased subscriptions through the duplex envelopes for 1934.

THIS IS THE LAST NUMBER of the Weekly Leaflet until October 1st.

MATINS DAILY AT 9.00. VESPERS DAILY AT 6.45.

WITH ONE PRIEST LESS on the Staff this winter, it is necessary to make some few changes in the Schedule of the Masses and other appointments. The Sunday Masses will remain as usual. Vespers and Benediction will be unchanged in the evening. The Fr. Rector will preach at the Solemn Mass and Fr. Edwards after Vespers.

THE DAILY MASSES are changed, beginning with tomorrow. There will be a Mass every day at 7. On Tuesdays and Thursdays there will be another Mass at 8. On Wednesdays and Fridays the second Mass will be at 9.30. On Mondays and Saturdays there will be but the one Mass. On the First Fridays and the Greater Holy Days there will be three Low Masses, and these will be noted in the monthly kalendar, which will be published in the Bulletin on the first Sunday in each month.

S. CLEMENT'S GUILD will be discontinued on Thursday evenings, and the members are urged to transfer their attendance to Benediction on Friday evenings. After the Friday evening service, coffee and cake will be served in the Parish House. This was one of the pleasant features of S. Clement's Guild, and it is hoped every one will remain after the Friday evening service for this Social Hour.

CONFESSIONS WILL BE HEARD in the Church Friday afternoons and evenings, and Saturday afternoons and evenings. The Saturday morning hour is discontinued. The Fr. Rector will be in the Church Friday afternoons. Fr. Edwards will be in the Church Friday evenings and Saturday afternoons. Fr. Underhill will be in the Church Saturday afternoons. All the Priests will be in their confessionals Saturday evenings. Other special hours before the Greater Feasts will be listed in the monthly kalendar. The Priests are always willing to make special appointments for Confessions when the regular hours are not convenient for Penitents.

S. MARY'S GUILD continues to meet on the First Monday of the month at 8 P. M. The Women's Auxiliary meets on the First Wednesday at 2. And the Holy Hour is kept on the First Friday from 8 to 9 in the evening.

MORNING PRAYER is said daily in the Church at 9. Evening Prayer is said at 6.45 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; on Friday evening at 7.15, and on Saturday at 8. The Litany is said before the 9.30 Mass on Wednesdays and Fridays.

PLANS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS are well under way, and it is expected that the members of S. Clement's will be setting apart the days this month from the 22nd to the 26th inclusive for this great event. If you are not already a Member, hand your $1 to one of the Priests and be enrolled.

TICKETS FOR THE CONGRESS DINNER, at $2 apiece, may be reserved through the Parish Priests. Tickets at 50c. apiece will be available for the gallery, where you can watch the diners and hear the speeches.

THE OPENING MASS will be at the Municipal Auditorium, Tuesday morning, October 24th, at 11.30. The Presiding Bishop of the Church will be the preacher. No tickets of admission are required. The Processions will start at 11. The other sessions of the Congress will be in the Ball Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, and no tickets will be needed to attend these meetings.

CONTRIBUTIONS ARE MOST URGENTLY NEEDED for the Parish Poor Fund; also cast-off clothing for both men and women, and especially groceries and staple articles of food. The Barrel still yawns in the Church Porch for these latter offerings. Your money offerings, marked "Poor Fund," may be placed in the Collection Plates.

WILL THOSE WHO HAVE spare bed-rooms to offer for the entertainment of a Priest during the Catholic Congress please speak to the Father Rector.

Parish Notes

HEADQUARTERS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS have been opened in the Cope Room of the Parish House, and the Philadelphia Secretary, Mr. Alexander C. Groome, will be found there every morning. He may be reached over the Rectory telephone.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have their first meeting of the winter tomorrow evening in S. Clement's Parish House, at 8.15. Father Sparks, Chairman of the Catholic Congress Committee, will be the speaker, and there will be some simple refreshments. Since we are the hosts Monday evening, it is hoped that S. Clement's men will turn out in good numbers to welcome their guests. No other notices of this meeting are being sent out.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING we are entertaining the Convocation of North Philadelphia. The business session will open in the Church at 5 P. M., and the Women's Aid will meet at the same hour in S. John's Chapel. Supper will be served at 50c. a person in the Parish House at 6.30. The Bishop will be present and speak in the early evening.

THE ANNUAL RED CROSS ENROLLMENT opens on Sunday, October 15th, and closes November 11th. Mrs. Mowry will be in the Cope Room on Sundays to receive your subscriptions for the new year. Please be prompt in enrolling.

WE HAVE GIVEN $1,834.10 for our Missionary Quota so far this year. The Women's Auxiliary is having a Card Party in the Parish House Wednesday evening, October 18th, in order to augment their missionary offerings for the year. Plans are under way for the Annual Christmas Bazaar, the proceeds of which also go to Missions. Do not forget the Missionary side of your duplex envelope when you prepare your Sunday offering. Do not hesitate to give because your offering must be small. Many small sums soon make a large one. We want every member of the Parish to have a share in S. Clement's Missionary Offering.

THE NOVENA OF PRAYER for the Catholic Congress begins on Saturday of this week. It will be the intention of all the Masses during this period. The subjects of the daily prayers are printed in the Congress Bulletins, which will be found for free distribution in the Church Porch.

RESERVATIONS for the Congress Dinner, Wednesday evening, October 25th, at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, should be made at once. Tickets are $2. If you wish to sit at the same table with friends, all the tickets had better be ordered at the same time. Tables for ten may be reserved.

FATHER UNDERHILL has returned from a summer spent in Rutherfordton, North Carolina, and will resume his Confessional hours in the Church this week.

ON THE DAY OF THE CONGRESS REQUIEM at S. Clement's, our Altar Guild will arrange an exhibition of all our Vestments in the Parish House. They may be seen both before and after the Solemn Mass.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS will be expected to register at the Bellevue--Stratford Hotel. In no other way can we tell how many members are present. This registration must include local members as well as those from out of town. Registration will begin on Saturday before the Congress, and many of the Exhibits will be open then, and will continue all day Sunday. The Young People's Meeting and Tea will be Sunday afternoon at the Bellevue, from four to six, when Fr. Crocker, the student pastor at Princeton, will make the address.

THE FATHER RECTOR begins his fourteenth year as Rector today, and his sixteenth as a member of the Staff.

PRELUDE—Adagio Matthew Camidge

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"Stars of the Morning".....No. 423

INTROIT—Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy Prophets be found faithful: regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel.

Psalm. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.

Glory be..... Give peace, O Lord.....

KYRIE Luigi Cherubini

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 214 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.

Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. The heathen shall fear thy Name, O
Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. Alleluia.

SEQUENCE HYMN—"Awake, My Soul".....No. 3

CREDO—(Mass in E flat)..... Gottfried H. Federlein

OFFERTORY—Moses consecrated an Altar unto the Lord, offering burnt offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace offerings: and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.

HYMN—"All Praise Be to God".....No. 753

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI—

(Mass in E flat)..... Gottfried H. Federlein

COMMUNIO—Bring offerings, and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Parish Notes

THE NOVENA for the Catholic Congress and especially for the Oxford Centennial Celebration in Philadelphia began yesterday. The prayers are the daily intentions at our Masses. Prayer Leaflets for the Novena are to be found in the Church Porch.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept in the Chapel as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, for God's blessing on the Congress, which opens in Philadelphia next Sunday. A schedule of hours against which intercessors are asked to put their initials will be found in the Corridor at the Apple Tree Street entrance to the Church. There will be continuous intercessions from ten in the morning until eight in the evening. This day of prayer will close with a meditation and Benediction. The Cycle of Prayer is a very important feature of the Congress programme, and we should be most intent on our prayers at the eve of the great Celebration that now lies before us.

WEDNESDAY evening, the Women's Auxiliary is giving a Card Party in the Parish House, and the tickets are 25 cents apiece. Ice cream and cake will be served, and home-made candy will be for sale. This is the first party of the season, and it is hoped we may begin with a good attendance.

IT HAS BEEN NECESSARY to re-arrange some of the Preachers for next Sunday, since there has been so great a demand from the Congress Churches in the city. Fr. Joseph, O.S.F., will preach here in the morning, and Bishop Ivins will be the evening preacher. It is expected that many of the young people will come here for Vespers and Benediction next Sunday evening, after their meeting and Tea at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in the afternoon.

EVERY MEMBER OF THE CONGRESS is expected to Register at the Hotel during Congress week. In no other way can the Committee know how many members of the Congress are attending the sessions of the Centenary. You can either register in person at the Hotel, after next Saturday noon, or you can register by mail, using the blank provided in the last issue of the Congress Bulletin.

CANON BELL, of Providence, formerly Warden of S. Stephen's College, and Father Kennedy, Secretary of the Catholic Congress, have been guests in the Rectory during the past week.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION Smoker was well attended last Monday evening. Fr. Sparks spoke about the Congress, and local laymen also addressed the members and secured many helpers for the extra work during Congress week. At the meeting of the Convocation of North Philadelphia at S. Clement's on Tuesday, 160 persons were entertained at supper in the Parish House. During the meeting, the Rev. Percy R. Stockman was elected Dean to succeed the Rev. Norman VanPelt Levis, who has resigned after a service of about twelve years.

TICKETS FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING at the Bellevue next Sunday afternoon at four may be had from either the Father Rector or Father Edwards. Fr. Crocker, the student pastor at Princeton, will be the speaker. There will be a social hour afterwards, with Tea and refreshments. There is no charge for the Tea, and there will be no collection at this meeting.

NO TICKETS are needed for the Congress Mass at the Convention Hall on Tuesday morning at 11.30. Holders of Congress Membership Cards will be admitted to reserved seats on the ground floor before 10.45, but after that hour the seats will be open for all. No cards are needed for the sessions at the Hotel.

THE CONGRESS EXHIBITS at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel will be opened next Saturday, and will be open all day Sunday.

PREPARE FOR THE CONGRESS by keeping the Novena, taking part in the Day of Intercession (Friday), and by assisting at Mass as frequently as you can.

Parish Notes

THE GREAT CONGRESS for which we have been waiting and praying is now upon us, and its sessions really begin today with the Special Preachers in all of our Congress Churches. We are happy to welcome Fr. Joseph, O.S.F., and Bishop Ivins as our guests today. The Rev. Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, Fr. Otis, S.S.J.E., and Brother Herbert, S.S.J.E., are guests in the Rectory for the duration of the Congress.

THIS AFTERNOON at four o'clock there is a special meeting in the Ball Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel for young people. Fr. Crocker, the student Chaplain at Princeton University, is to be the speaker. There will be a social hour and refreshments. While tickets have been issued, they will not be required for admission.

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT that every member of the Catholic Congress should Register at the Bellevue-Stratford, for in no other way can the Committee know how many are actually in attendance at the Sessions. And every one must realize that all the events of the Congress are meant for every one who belongs to the Congress and their friends. Teas and receptions are for all the members, not just for those from out of the city. It is important for Philadelphians to be present in large numbers at all of the events, so that they can welcome our visitors and extend to each other the hospitality that all Catholic Christians should give.

THE PARISH MASSES, at which Holy Communion will be given, will all be at the High Altar during the Congress, at the hours of 7, 8 and 9.30. The Blessed Sacrament will be reserved on the High Altar. Many Priests will be saying Mass every morning at the other Altars, but Holy Communion will not be given at these Masses, unless some special arrangement has been made with the Celebrant before the Mass.

BREAKFAST, of a very simple kind, will be served in the Parish House on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings after the first Mass, and until ten o'clock. There will be no charge for this accommodation, but a plate will be found by the door for your contributions towards the expense.

ON WEDNESDAY, from ten o'clock until two, there will be an exhibition of our Vestments, Laces, Linens, Plate and Jewels, in the Parish House. This exhibit is in charge of our Altar Guild, and will give you an opportunity to see all of the Parish's lovely and beautiful possessions. Members of the Guild will be in charge, and will be glad to describe the articles, and answer your questions. Please tell your friends of this exhibition.

ALL SOULS DAY is Thursday, November 2nd. It is not too early to be preparing your lists of the faithful departed for remembrance on that day. Please hand these names, as soon as possible, to the Priests, so that the memorial lists can be assembled in good time.

THE OFFERINGS on All Saints' Day are for the work of the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor at S. Anna's Home, and on All Souls' Day they are given to the Guild of All Souls. Each day will be preceded by its proper Office of Vespers.

DO NOT FORGET that the Congress this week is primarily an offering to God. It is not a parade or pageant for our own gratification. It is an offering of our thankfulness to Almighty God for the many blessings of the Catholic Revival. So Mass and Communion and Prayer must come first. Then our pleasures and our feasts and our happy meetings. But Catholics must keep first things first.

WE WELCOME, in the Name of the Lord, the Members of the Catholic Congress, first to Philadelphia, and then to the privileges of S. Clement's Church. We want every one to feel "at home" in the Church that is such a dear home to all of us. We bid you a hearty welcome!

Parish Notes

WE HAVE HAD A GREAT CONGRESS. We have had a great experience. The message of the Catholic Revival has reached beyond the Congress Churches and the Diocese to many outside, and while we are in the white-heat of our enthusiasm we must be praying for courage and strength to carry on the great things God has done for us. Without blushing we can say that, through God, we have achieved some measure of success. How are we going to use it? In the midst of our triumphs we have had new responsibilities laid upon us. In the Name of the Lord let us go forward in personal holiness, in corporate worship, in missionary endeavour.

TUESDAY EVENING at 8, there will be a brief address followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in S. John's Chapel, in preparation for the Feast of All Saints. The Father Rector will be in the Church for Confessions in the morning at 10 and Fr. Edwards in the evening at 7.30.

WEDNESDAY IS THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11. In the evening Vespers of the Dead will be said at 8 in the Chapel, followed by a meditation.

ON ALL SOULS DAY, in addition to the usual Low Masses, there will be a Solemn Mass of Requiem with Absolutions at the Catafalque at 11. Few names have been handed in thus far for commemoration on Thursday. Blanks will be found in the Tract cases and envelopes for your Offerings which will be given to the Guild of All Souls.

AT THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY on Wednesday afternoon at 2, the Venerable Archdeacon A. A. Hughes of Mount Alto, will be the speaker. He is Chaplain to the many patients in the Sanitariums in the Pennsylvania mountains and is supported by the several dioceses in the State. At this meeting of the Auxiliary there will be a discussion of plans for the Annual Christmas Bazaar for Missions to be held in the Parish House on December 7th.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE CHURCH who preached so magnificently at the Congress Eucharist on Tuesday is preaching this evening in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. He comes especially to talk about his impressions gathered during a recent missionary pilgrimage through the Orient, and to discuss various problems confronting the Church today. The Bishop of the Diocese extends a cordial invitation to all the Parishes to take part in this service.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the First Friday of the Month and there will be an extra Mass at 8. In the evening we shall be keeping the Holy Hour. How splendid it would be if this day, each month, could be kept by many in the Parish as a day of special devotion to our Lord in the Sacrament of His Love, and by receiving Holy Communion.

THE FATHER RECTOR is very grateful to his many friends for their good wishes on his recent birthday, and for the very substantial purse that was given to him. He takes this means of saying "thank you."

A CATALOGUE of the Yarnall Library of Theology of S. Clement's Church has just been published and it is a very handsome volume. Already a stream of letters is pouring in from many quarters expressing high praise for its compilation, and great surprise at its high quality and great comprehensiveness. There are still a few copies available for any who might be interested in it, and there are copies in the Rectory which any one may borrow.

THE COLDER WEATHER brings more requests from the poor and needy for food and clothes. If you have an offering to make for these deserving people, put it on the plate at Mass marked "Poor Fund." Other offerings, such as clothing and tinned food, may be put in the Barrel in the Church porch.

Parish Notes

ON ALL FERIA DAYS in November, Requiem Masses will be said. At each of these Masses we shall be remembering a few of the faithful departed whose names were given in for All Souls Day. Before the end of the month all of the All Souls Day lists will have been remembered the second time at our altars.

ON FRIDAY EVENING of this week, the Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church on behalf of the faithful departed, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. There will be no address.

FATHER McCLENTHEN is celebrating his twenty-fifth anniversary as Rector of Mount Calvary Church, Baltimore, today. The Father Rector has telegraphed our parish's congratulations. Dr. McClethen began his active Priesthood here at S. Clement's, serving under Fr. Moffett.

A VERY HANDSOME Humeral Veil, Burse and Stole, for use at Benediction, has just been completed by the Parish Altar Guild.

SEVERAL ENGLISH VISITORS at the Congress have complimented us on the beauty and dignity of our worship, and the reverence of our music and ceremonial. Especially did they admire the simplicity and classical severity of our Solemn Mass, and recognized its conformity with the latest liturgical reforms set up by Continental scholars.

THERE IS A SOCIAL HOUR in the Parish House, with simple refreshments, every Friday evening after Benediction.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY on Wednesday evening, November 15th, in the Parish House. Tickets are 25 cents apiece. Coffee and cake will be served for 10 cents extra. The proceeds will be given to Missions.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held on Wednesday, December 6th, in the Parish House. Mrs. Mowry is Chairman of the Committee. She will be glad to know of any volunteer helpers. Articles for any of the tables may be left at the Rectory. Instead of a supper, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake will be for sale during the evening, and an opportunity to play cards will be arranged for those who want to stay for the evening.

TODAY IS THE SUNDAY in the Octave of All Saints. In this festival the Church honours all the saints in glory; praises God for the graces of His elect; endeavors to emulate their virtues; invokes their prayers for the Church on earth and in purgatory; and tries to repair the neglect of the faithful to honour God in His saints on their particular festivals. Nothing can better assist our holy aspirations than the study of the lives of God's saints when on earth or better enable us to take courage, when we see how—as human—they fell—even as S. Peter the prince of the Apostles—but rose again in greater strength, and in death attained the blessed state. Praise God in all His saints.

THE SECOND DAY IN THE OCTAVE is given over to a Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, and is commonly called All Souls' Day. As no human being—except those who are numbered with the saints—can be accounted free from defilement when the soul passes from the body, and as nothing defiled can enter heaven, there is mercifully, an intermediate state, which we call purgatory, in which those who die in venial sin may be purged and purified, awaiting the final consummation of bliss. For their souls, our prayers and the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar, are offered and the prayers of the saints in heaven invoked, that they may attain peace and rest in the perpetual light of God's countenance. The observance of this day was originated by S. Odils, abbot of Cluny, in 998. Of your charity pray for the souls in purgatory.

Parish Notes

ON MONDAY AND WEDNESDAY of this week the Masses will be Requiems, when we shall be remembering the faithful departed whose names were read from the Altar at the eight o'clock Mass on All Souls' Day.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House on Wednesday evening of this week. Tickets are twenty-five cents each, and coffee and cake will be served during the evening for ten cents extra. There will be a prize for each table, and players may choose any card game they care to play. The proceeds will be added to the Parish Missionary offering. Please come and bring your friends.

ON FRIDAY we shall be keeping a day of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in anticipation of the Patronal Festival, which comes on the Thursday in the following week. Since Priests or Sisters are before the Altar all during the day, it is not necessary for intercessors to set a time for being present. It is hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity to spend a few minutes in our Lord's Sacramental Presence and to pray for His blessing on the Parish Festival.

THE NOVENA PRAYERS for God's blessing on the Parish in anticipation of the Patronal Festival will begin on Tuesday the 14th and close on November 22nd, the Feast of S. Cecelia. You are asked to say daily the Pater Noster, Ave Maria, Veni Creator Spiritus, and the Collect for the Church on page 37 in the Prayer Book.

SO GREAT WAS THE DISAPPOINTMENT over the announcement in last week's Parish Bulletin that there would be no Supper in connection with the Christmas Bazaar on December 6th, that the Committee have reconsidered the matter, and a supper, the nature of which will be given out later, will be held in the Parish House on the evening of the Bazaar. Please make a note of the date, and plan to have supper here that evening with your friends.

THE RED CROSS is making its last call for the year today. If you have not already subscribed for the ensuing year, you will find Mrs. Mowry in the Cope Room both before and after the Solemn Mass to receive your offering and give you your insignia.

HELP FOR THE POOR is most urgently needed. Old clothes, and especially things for men, are wanted. Groceries may be placed in the Barrel in the Corridor; we have a constant demand for them. The Sisters' Funds and the Father Rector's Discretionary Fund are in need of cash.

S. CLEMENT'S DAY COLLECTION will be for Parish Expenses as usual. We hope for a generous offering. You had better put something aside now towards it. Our Budget has been greatly reduced, and we are depending on this collection to bring us out even at the end of the year.

THE FATHER RECTOR'S MOTHER, who has been very seriously ill for the past two months, has recovered sufficiently to be moved to Philadelphia. She has taken an apartment at 2100 Walnut Street, and is in the care of a trained nurse. Both she and the Father Rector are very grateful for the prayers of S. Clement's congregation, and for the many expressions of sympathy and affection they have received.

TUESDAY IS THE FESTIVAL of the Bestowal of the American Episcopate. Dr. Samuel Seabury was consecrated in Aberdeen, Scotland, by the Non-juring Bishops on November 14th, 1784, and returned to Connecticut as the first bishop in the United States. The first Roman Catholic Bishop of Maryland was not consecrated until 1790.

Parish Notes

THE NOVENA PRAYERS for God's blessing on the Parish in anticipation of the Patronal Festival close on Wednesday the 22nd. You are asked to say daily the Pater Noster, Ave Maria, Veni Creator Spiritus, and the Collect for the Church on page 37 in the Prayer Book.

CONFESSIONS will be heard before the Feast on Wednesday at 10 in the morning and at 7.30 in the evening.

FIRST VESPERS OF THE FEAST will be sung by the full Choir Wednesday evening at 8, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Father Rector will preach.

ON S. CLEMENT'S DAY there will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30. At the Solemn Mass at 11, the "Missa Iste Confessor" of dePalestrina will be sung, and the Rev. Father Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will be the preacher.

ON THURSDAY EVENING, Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, Priest, will give a lecture on the subject, "Problems and Difficulties of Normal People," in the Ball Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, for the benefit of S. Anna's Home. Tickets are $1 apiece.

THE SISTERS have their usual fine collection of Christmas Cards at the Mission House on Woodstock Street. They are glad to show them at any time. You are advised to make your selections early.

ON THE FIRST SATURDAY in December there will be a Quiet Evening for Men, under the auspices of the Catholic Laymen's Union, at the Church of the Annunciation. Fr. Tiedeman, O.H.C., will be the conductor. It will begin at 5 and close at 9. If you wish to attend, will you please notify one of the Priests.

A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN will be given in S. John's Chapel, Saturday evening, December 9th, beginning with Vespers at 5, and closing at 9. The Father Rector will give the Meditations. If you wish to have a place reserved for you at supper, please notify the Sister-in-charge.

SEVENTY DOLLARS was the splendid sum realized by the Women's Auxiliary at their Card Party a few weeks ago. This money will apply on their Missionary pledges for next year.

MR. THERON CRANE CLEMENT was elected to the Vestry at a stated meeting on Tuesday last. Mr. Clement and his family have long been identified with the Parish, and after an absence of five years have returned to live in Philadelphia.

WE PUT A GREAT DEAL OF DEPENDENCE in the S. Clement's Day Collection to carry us through the balance of the year and to help us pay off the money we have to borrow during the lean months of the summer. It is hoped that all the members of the Congregation and our friends will give as generously as possible during the Festival.

MOZART'S SEVENTH MASS in B flat will be sung next Sunday morning, and the preacher will be the Rev. Alexander Macomb Lukens. There will be a procession before the Solemn Mass. In the evening at 8 there will be the Annual Procession of Parish Guilds and Sodalties.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held on Thursday, December 7th, from 3 to 11. There will be a chicken supper served from 6 to 8, and ice cream and cake will be served during the evening. Reserve this date, and arrange to have your supper here.

 and will sing praises unto thy Name. Alleluia.
 SEQUENCE HYMN—A Carol for S. Clement's Day

It was about November tide	An anchor round his neck they tied,
A long, long time ago,	And cast him in the sea;
When good St. Clement testified	And bravely as he lived he died,
The faith that now we know,	And gallantly went free,
Right boldly then he said his say	He rests a many miles away,
Before a furious King;	Yet here his name we sing,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day	As all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.	We go a-Clementing.
Work in the mines they gave him then,	Our fathers kept it long ago,
To try the brave old saint;	And their request we make,
And there two thousand Christian men	Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
With thirst were like to faint.	For sweet St. Clement's sake;
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay	And make his feast as glad and gay
He made the waters spring;	As if it came in spring,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day	When all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing.	We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY meets on Wednesday afternoon of this week at two o'clock. Sister Mary Kathleen will give an account of her experiences at the meeting of the Anglo-Catholic Congress in London this past summer. Every woman of the Church is a member of the Auxiliary, and the Congregation's interest in and zeal for Missions would be greatly stimulated if more came regularly to the monthly meeting. No money is solicited at any meeting, and the offering at the door is purely voluntary.

NEXT SATURDAY EVENING the Father Rector will give three meditations at an Advent Quiet Evening for Women. The first will follow Vespers at five o'clock, and the final one will end at nine. Supper will be served at half-past six for fifty cents. If you wish a place at the supper, please notify the Sister at SPR. 2044. Any women, whether members of our Congregation or not, will be welcome to come. All the spiritual opportunities at S. Clement's are open to any who wish to make use of them.

CARDS appealing for contributions to the Christmas Charities are now in the mail. Your early response is urged that we may be able to plan well in advance what we can do this year for the poor and needy in the Parish.

WE HAVE BEEN DEEPLY SADDENED by the death of Mr. Horace Wells Sellers, for many years a member of our Vestry, and the official architect of the Church. All of the beauty in S. Clement's is a monument to his art and to his devotion to the Catholic Faith. The Stations of the Cross, now in process of carving, and to be erected next summer, will be his final work, and a beautiful piece of work with which to close his earthly life, in the Church he loved so dearly. He received the last Sacraments on S. Clement's Day, after having, in the midst of his serious illness, directed that money should be sent to make the flowers for the Patronal Feast his thank-offering. May he rest in peace, and may light perpetual shine upon him.

S. MARY'S GUILD meets on Monday evening of this week. This is a devotional guild for women, with a very simple rule of prayer. The Office of Our Lady is recited at the monthly meetings, there is a brief address, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given. This is followed by a social hour in the Parish House.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of the Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Owing to the reduced Staff, we have to forego many of the Solemn Masses we have had in the past on the greater feasts. There will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, and the usual devotional service in the evening.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held on Thursday, opening at three o'clock in the afternoon. A Chicken Supper will be served for fifty cents from six to eight o'clock. Dessert will be fifteen cents extra. We have a wide variety of useful and fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents. There will be a Kitchen table, and also another with things especially for men. There will be candy and cake, and other home-made goodies. Especially is your attention called to some special plum puddings that are being made under the personal direction of the President of the Women's Auxiliary. These are reputed to be extraordinarily fine, and if one is wanted, it had better be reserved in advance.

THE PROCEEDS OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be given to the Missionary Quota of the Parish. The last Card Party made $31 for this fund.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BAZAAR is Mrs. Paul Franklin Mowry. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Haselton are in charge of the Supper. Tickets for the Supper may be secured in advance. The Dessert tickets will be sold at the door.

Parish Notes

THERE WILL BE A QUIET DAY for the Associates of the Sisters of S. Margaret and their friends, at the Mission House, 1831 Pine Street, on Tuesday of this week. Fr. Lander of Rosemont will give the meditations. If you wish to take part in this Quiet Day, please notify the Sister-in-charge by telephone.

THE ANCIENT ADVENT Antiphons, used before and after the Magnificat at Vespers, begin on Saturday of this week. The first one is indicated in the English Prayer Book. Since each one begins with O, they are often called the "The Great O's." They are listed in the Parish Calendar.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1934 are now in the course of preparation. We know this is a hard time for people to make pledges, nevertheless we would like every one to use this envelope system, and give each week as much as they are able. Lay the money aside each week in the envelope, and then when you come to church again, you can give it in the Collection. In this way you are making a regular weekly offering, putting it aside each week, and so contributing regularly and systematically to the expenses of your Parish, which must go on whether you are at Church or not. Small sums given regularly amount to more in the end than larger sums given just now and then. If you are not already a subscriber to our Envelope System, will you not become one for 1934? We need your help.

FOR THE PRESENT we shall continue to have the Daily Masses at the Lady Altar. The Church is warmer than S. John's Chapel, and the wooden floors under the pews in the Church are more comfortable for kneeling at this season than the cold tiles of the Chapel. Then, too, people coming into the building through the day always look in the Church for the Sacrament, and seem unable to find the Chapel. It seems better all around to keep the Masses in the Church during the winter. We shall continue the Friday evening devotions in S. John's Chapel, and the Daily Offices as well.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, December 27th, is the time for the Parish Christmas Party, and we hope this year it may be a Parish Party, and not in any sense a "Guild Party." Mr. Woodruff, Director of Public Welfare, has arranged a very delightful entertainment for us, drawn from the various public recreation centers in the city. There will be a Christmas play, costume and folk singing, and esthetic and tap dancing. There will be the Christmas Tree, and refreshments after the entertainment. The children, that is all under sixteen, will be having their own party on the following Saturday, so they will not be expected on Wednesday night; but a cordial invitation is now extended to the members and friends of the Congregation for December 27th, at 8 P. M.

SOME FEW ARTICLES are remaining from the Christmas Bazaar of Thursday last, and may be seen in the Parish House after the High Mass this morning. We shall have a full report of the Bazaar in the Leaflet for next Sunday.

THE FIRST TWO STATIONS OF THE CROSS, in the set now being carved by Mr. Bruno Zimm of Woodstock, New York, are completed, and we hope they may soon be set up in the Church for our inspection. It is expected that all of them will be finished in time to be put in place next summer, and dedicated in connection with the Patronal Festival next fall.

THERE IS A PERSISTENT demand for old clothes, especially for men. Are you sure you have nothing hanging in your closets at home that could not better be placed in the Barrel? No one should be hoarding anything that others may be needing in these days.

Parish Notes

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY of this week are the Advent Ember Days. The weeks beginning with the First Sunday in Lent, Pentecost, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and the Feast of S. Lucy, are set apart by the Church as Ember-weeks, and the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday following are kept as days of fasting and prayer. Ordinations are commonly held in the Church on the following Sundays. By publicly observing them, the Church intends to remind the faithful that they are bound to remember those about to receive the grace of ordination, and not to be unmindful of those who are already in Holy Orders.

THURSDAY of this week is the Feast of S. Thomas, Apostle and Martyr. There will be an additional Mass on this day at 9.30. A third Mass is provided on all the greater days in the Kalendar; but the slightly increased number of people who assist at Mass on these special days is very disappointing. Catholics should be first of all "Prayer Book Churchmen," and the Prayer Book provides for all the great days.

THE HOLY CROSS MAGAZINE has as its object the giving of spiritual instruction. It is the only religious paper in the Anglican Communion that is entirely devoted to the development of the spiritual life. It has no editorials, carries no news, and engages in no controversies. The subscription price is $2 a year. Might not several people band together for a subscription, and then share it each month? Single copies would have to be sold for 20c. If any members of the parish would prefer buying it each month, it can be arranged very easily.

A WARM COAT is very much needed for a little girl of six years, and another for one who is 13 years old. There is a great demand these cold days for sweaters for children of all ages, and also shoes. And several of our youngsters are quite destitute of warm underwear. Will you help us, please?

THE PROCEEDS OF THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR have reached $375. This is a most gratifying sum, and gives a great boost to our Missionary Offering for 1933. The Father Rector wants to thank most heartily all who helped to make it a success, and especially those who managed it and served on the special committees. Any further money that comes in will be given to the Women's Auxiliary, and will eventually find its way to Missionary objects.

THERE WILL BE A MID-NIGHT MASS this year on Christmas Eve. It will begin promptly at 12 o'clock. The Missa Marialis will be sung, together with a few Carols. Holy Communion will be given, and even with a great number of Communions, the Mass should not last much over an hour. It has been many years since there was a Mid-Night Mass on Christmas at S. Clement's. We are reviving it this year for two reasons. First, falling on Sunday night as it does, precludes much of the irreverence that so often pervades this Mass through people coming from parties and the theatre. And second, because there are but two Priests on the Staff, it is hoped that many of the Communions usually made at the early Masses on Christmas Day will be made at this mid-night hour, when both Priests can be present to assist in the giving of Holy Communion. Communicants at this Mass are expected to spend the evening reverently; the fast from mid-night is all that the Church requires.

FIRST VESPERS OF CHRISTMAS will be sung next Sunday evening at eight, followed by a Carol Procession, Benediction and Blessing of the Creche. After the service Priests will be in the Church until eleven o'clock to hear Confessions.

THE ANTIPHON TO THE MAGNIFICAT this evening is: O Adonai: O Lord and Ruler of the house of Israel, who appearedst unto Moses in a flame of fire in the bush, and gavest unto him the law in Sinai: Come and redeem us with a stretched-out arm.

SERMONTHE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

Note

TODAY IS THE VIGIL OF CHRISTMAS. Ordinarily when a Feast falls on Monday, the Vigil is kept on the preceding Saturday, but with Christmas another order prevails, and the Vigil is kept on the Sunday. At the early Masses today we shall be keeping the IIII Sunday in Advent and commemorating the Vigil, but at the Solemn Mass we shall keep the Vigil and Commemorate the Sunday. Hence Dalmatic and Tunicle are worn instead of the Folded Chasubles. Keeping the Vigil makes Sunday a more fitting and pertinent preparation for Christmas.

THE OFFERINGS throughout the Feast and its Octave will be for the Maintenance of the Parish.

Parish Notes

FIRST VESPERS OF CHRISTMAS will be sung this evening at 8 o'clock. A Carol Procession will follow the Sermon, and after Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, the Bambino will be carried to the Creche, and the usual Carols sung at the Manger. This is the usual Christmas Eve service added to Vespers and the Carol Procession.

CONFESSIONS will be heard after Vespers this evening, until 11 o'clock. The Priests will take their turns in the Confessionals. Fr. Underhill will be in his Confessional from 9.30 to 10. The Father Rector will be on duty from 10 to 10.30, and Fr. Edwards from 10.30 to 11. Penitents are asked to accommodate themselves to these hours as far as possible.

THE MID-NIGHT MASS will begin promptly at 12. The Missa Marialis will be the music of the Mass. Holy Communion will be given, and even with a great number of Communions, the Mass should not last much over an hour. Communicants will approach the Altar through the central Choir gates, and leave the Altar after Communion by way of the Organ vestibule or the Lady Chapel. While the Church requires Fasting from mid-night only, it is expected that those who receive Holy Communion at this Mass will spend the evening reverently, and in anticipation of the Holy Gift they are about to receive.

ON CHRISTMAS DAY there will be Low Masses for Communion at 7, 8 and 9.30. At the 8 o'clock Mass, Christmas Carols will be sung. At the Solemn Mass at 11, the music of the Mass will be Gounod's "Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus," and there will be a short sermon by the Father Rector.

ON TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, the Feasts of S. Stephen, S. John and the Holy Innocents, respectively, there will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30. On Friday there will be two Masses, at 7 and 9.30, and on Saturday, one Mass only, at 7.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR ADULTS will be held on Wednesday evening, the 27th, from 8 until 10 o'clock. All the adult members of the Congregation are most cordially invited to come. Through the kindness of Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff, we are to enjoy an entertainment given by various members of the Recreation Centers in the City. There will be a Christmas Play, and a variety of dances, costume songs, and musical numbers. After the entertainment there will be ice cream and cake for all. All members of the Church and Congregation under 16 years of age will be expected at the Saturday afternoon party.

THE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY will be held on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and is the generous gift of Miss Williams. There will be a professional entertainer to tell Christmas and other stories, and after the Christmas Tree is lighted and the presents are distributed, there will be ice cream and cake for all. As no one under 16 is expected on Wednesday evening, is it not fair to say that no one over 16 will be expected Saturday afternoon?

THE FATHER RECTOR will be absent from his Confessional next Friday afternoon.

NEXT FRIDAY EVENING the service will be in the Church. After Carol singing and some devotions at the Creche, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given, and a social hour will follow in the Parish House. These social times on Friday evening have been very delightful this winter, and we hope to see more people becoming "regular Friday-nighters."

NEXT SUNDAY, there will be a Solemn Procession before the Late Mass, and the music will be the de la Palestrina Mass that was sung on S. Clement's Day. In the evening there will be some extra Carols at Vespers, and Benediction will be given.

THE FATHER RECTOR, Fr. Edwards and Fr. Underhill wish you all a very blessed and happy Christmas Feast.

CAROL—"Venite Adoremus"Old English

The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright,
When Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
'Twas Mary, daughter pure of Holy Anne,
That brought into the world our God-made Man.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

She laid Him in a stall at Bethlehem,
The ass and ox shared the roof with them.
S. Joseph too was by to tend the Child,
To guard Him and protect His mother mild.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

The angels hovered 'round and sang this song,
Venite adoremus Dominum.
And thus that manger poor became a throne,
For He whom Mary bore was God the Soal.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

O come then let us join the heavenly host,
To praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Parish Notes

THERE WERE 351 Communion made at our Altars on Christmas Day. 225 of these were made at the Mid-night Mass, when there was a congregation of over 400. This is the largest Christmas Communion on our records, and there are but a very few Easters that exceed this number.

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF THE CIRCUMCISION and New Year's Day. There will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, and a High Mass followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 11.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON at 2, the Women's Auxiliary will have their first meeting in the New Year. All the women of the Congregation are most cordially invited to these monthly meetings in the Parish House.

NEXT SATURDAY is the Feast of the Epiphany. There will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, and at 11 there will be a High Mass followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. On the evening before (Friday) at 8, the Holy Hour will be kept in the Church.

S. MARY'S GUILD will have their January meeting Monday evening, the 8th.

IT IS VERY DELIGHTFUL to have the Rev. Edward W. Hawkins as one of the Sacred Ministers of the Mass this morning. He is a Master at the Cathedral Choir School in New York, and was formerly a member of the Parish and one of our Acolytes.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1934 will be found in the Cope Room today. It will help us greatly if you will call there for them, and thus save the Parish the postage and the mailing. Please use the envelopes, and put in each week whatever you are able to give. Give what you can, but give regularly.

- SEQUENCE HYMN—"Angels We Have Heard on High" Old French Melody
- | | |
|--|---|
| Angels we have heard on high,
Sweetly singing o'er the plains,
And the mountains in reply
Echo back their joyous strains.
Gloria in Excelsis Deo. | Come to Bethlehem, come and see,
Him whose birth the angels sing;
Come adore on bended knee,
The Infant Christ, the new-born King.
Gloria in Excelsis Deo. |
| Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
Say what may the tidings be,
Which inspire your heav'nly song
Gloria in Excelsis Deo. | See within a manger laid,
Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth!
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid,
With us sing our Saviour's birth.
Gloria in Excelsis Deo. |
- CREDO—"Missa de Angelis".....Plainchant
- SERMON.....THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

- RECESSIONAL (Dr. Fry)—"Hallelujah"....George Frederick Handel

Parish Notes

DURING 1933 there were 12,279 Communion made at our Altars. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered 1110 times. The Blessed Sacrament was carried from the Tabernacle to 144 sick persons.

THE SISTERS received $245.00 in answer to their appeal for the Christmas Charities. Twenty-five Christmas dinners were provided for worthy families in the Parish, and 43 boxes of fruit and other dainties were sent to the sick and the shut-ins. The balance left in this offering has been added to the Poor Fund.

TOMORROW EVENING S. Mary's Guild will have their Christmas Party. The Office will not be sung, but instead there will be a Christmas Pageant, given by the children of the Catechism, under the direction of Sister Helen. After the play, some Carols will be sung and refreshments will be served. S. Mary's Guild extends a cordial invitation to the members of the Congregation to join them tomorrow evening for the Pageant and their party.

THE FOREIGN COMMITTEE of the Women's Auxiliary in the Diocese will give a party next Wednesday afternoon at the Church Women's Club at S. James's Church. Fr. Simmonds of Liberia, who has been working for some years with the Holy Cross Mission and under Bishop Campbell, will speak about the Church's work in the Hinterland, and show some very interesting moving pictures. A silver collection will be taken for the pledges of the Foreign Committee.

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, January 17th, at 8.15, The Musical Art Society of Camden will give their annual Choral and Organ Recital of Christmas Music here at S. Clement's. The Organists assisting will include Henry C. Banks, Mus. Bac., Dr. Rollo F. Maitland and Raymond B. Heston. Dr. Fry is the Conductor. The Rite of Benediction will be given at the close of the Recital, and will be sung by The Men's Choir of Philadelphia assisted by the men of S. Clement's Choir. The Father Rector will give a short address on "The Meaning of Christmas," and a Silver Offering will be taken.

THERE WILL BE A DAILY MASS at seven this week, with an additional Mass at eight on Tuesday and Thursday, and on Wednesday and Friday the second Mass will be at 9.30. Fr. Smith will be taking the Mass at 9.30 on Wednesdays. We are very happy to have him again at our Altar.

AT THE MEETING OF THE PARISH BRANCH of the Women's Auxiliary last Wednesday, Mrs. Luckenbach was elected President, Mrs. Fritz Vice-President, Miss Ball Secretary and Miss Connelly Treasurer. Miss Ball succeeds Miss Haffelfinger, who has gone to California for an indefinite visit. The other Officers were re-elected.

THERE IS A DEVOTIONAL SERVICE in S. John's Chapel every Friday evening. It consists of a few prayers, a simple instruction, some familiar hymns, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. After this we adjourn to the Parish house for a social chat and some coffee and cake. It makes a very profitable and pleasant evening. Will you not join us next Friday?

WE ARE VERY GRATEFUL for the response to the appeals for children's clothes and coats. There is also a great demand for clothes for men, and especially for shoes. These articles may either be sent to the Sisters or placed in the Barrel in the Church Corridor.

DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1934 will be found in the Cope Room. If you are not a regular subscriber to the Maintenance of S. Clement's, we shall be glad to provide you with a set of envelopes for your systematic contributions.

Parish Notes

AT A MEETING OF THE VESTRY last Tuesday, the Accounting Warden reported that we had closed the year with a Deficit of $800. A slight reduction was suggested for the budget of 1934. Endowment Funds are very uncertain these days, so we learn more and more to get along on the free will offerings of the congregation. Our members and friends are urged to use the Duplex Envelopes for their systematic contributions.

THE HOURS FOR MASS are as usual this week. There is the Daily Mass at 7, and a second Mass on Tuesday and Thursday at 8. The second Mass on Wednesday and Friday is at 9.30. The Masses on Tuesday will be Requiems. Names for remembrance at these Masses may be handed to the Priests.

THE ANNUAL OCTAVE for the Reunion of Christendom, which is kept throughout the Catholic world, begins on Thursday, the Feast of S. Peter's Chair at Rome, and concludes on the following Thursday, The Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul. This Octave was first kept by Anglicans, and later was taken up officially by the Roman Catholics, so during these eight days both Anglicans and Romans are praying for Church Unity. Such prayers cannot be without power before the Throne of God. Please say the prayer for "The Church" and the one for "The Unity of God's People" on page 37 in the Prayer Book, every day, and try to assist at Mass as often as possible during this season of prayer.

ON FRIDAY EVENING The Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church with the Intention of the Church Unity Octave, and will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

TOMORROW EVENING we shall be having the first of our series of "Four Episcopal Lectures" under the general title of "First Things First." The first two lectures will be given by Bishop Booth of Vermont, and the other two by the Bishop of Algoma. While tickets have been issued, they are really not necessary for admission, but serve rather as a means of advertisement. The Priests will be glad to give you as many as you may need for yourself and your friends. Dr. Fry will give the Organ Recital tomorrow evening, beginning at 7.45.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 17th, has been set aside for The Musical Art Society of Camden and their Annual Recital of Organ and Choral music. Mr. Banks, Dr. Maitland and Mr. Heston will assist Dr. Fry at the Organ. The Father Rector will give a short talk on "The Meaning of Christmas," a silver offering will be taken for the Society, and at the close of the service, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE will visit S. Clement's Church Sunday evening, March 4th, for the Sacrament of Confirmation. If any who worship with us have not as yet received this Sacrament, the Priests or the Sisters will be very glad to arrange for their preparation, so that they may be presented to the Bishop on the Third Sunday in Lent.

LETTERS from the Lord Bishop of Algoma, the Lord Bishop of British Honduras, Dr. Rosenthal of Birmingham, and Fr. Seyzinger, C.R., contain special messages of blessing for their friends at S. Clement's in the New Year.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS DUES for 1934 are now payable. Many people joined late in 1933, but their dues were for the current year, and gave them the special privileges in connection with the Centenary Congress in Philadelphia. The work of the Congress is carried on by these annual subscriptions, and it is hoped that every one who is now a member of the Congress will re-subscribe for 1934. Each member receives the quarterly Bulletin and all other Congress information. It will greatly help the Congress Records and the Parish files if the subscriptions are not sent to New Haven, but handed either to the Priests or to Mrs. Pendleton, who is the Congress Secretary in S. Clement's.

Parish Notes

THE BISHOP OF VERMONT will give the Second Lecture in the series sponsored by The Laymen's Union for the Maintenance and Defense of Catholic Principles tomorrow evening. His subject will be: "The Atonement." A large congregation was present last Monday for the opening lecture, and it is hoped that this good attendance will continue throughout the course.

MR. HENRY ENDERS KERR, one of our own boys, and Organist at the Church of the Annunciation, will play the Organ Recital tomorrow evening before the Lecture. The Recital begins at 7.45, and the Lecture at 8.15.

THE MASS SCHEDULE for the week is as usual. Mass Daily at 7. There is a second Mass on Tuesday and Thursday at 8. The second Mass on Wednesday and Friday is at 9.30. Thursday being the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul, there will be a third Mass that day at 9.30.

THE MASSES ON TUESDAY are the weekly Requiems, which come on the first unhindered day in the week. Names of the Departed for remembrance at these Masses may be handed to the Priests.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE, which we are keeping, and which is giving the intentions to the daily Masses, concludes on Thursday.

THERE WILL BE AN ADDRESS followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on Friday evening, in the Church, at 8 o'clock. This Friday evening devotional service continues throughout the year. At its conclusion we move upstairs in the Parish House for a social hour and some refreshments.

NEXT SUNDAY IS SEPTUAGESIMA, and the beginning of the Pre-Lenten Period. Ash Wednesday comes on February 14th, and Easter on April 1st.

AN ILLUMINATED COPY of the following resolution signed by the Father Rector, the Wardens, and the Secretary of the Vestry, has been presented to the family of the late Horace Wells Sellers:

"At a special meeting of the Vestry of S. Clement's Church, Philadelphia, held December 20th, 1933, the following memorial minute was adopted: The Vestry of S. Clement's Church desires to place on record its deep and sincere appreciation of the long-continued and faithful service to the parish of our fellow-vestryman, Horace Wells Sellers. As architect of the Clergy House, the Parish House, the Moffett Memorial Altar, the Lady Chapel, and the restoration of the Nave, as well as innumerable details, he made a contribution of untold value to this historic parish. Faithful in big and little things, he was conscientious in the discharge of all his duties to which he gave unremitting devotion. We will miss his cordial co-operation in parish affairs, his artistic taste, his genial presence, and his devotion to and expression of all that was best in the Catholic Faith. We also desire to place on record our appreciation of his services as a Trustee of the Yarnall Library Fund."

THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF THREE Articles on "The Early Days at S. Clement's, Philadelphia," written by the Father Rector, will appear in the February issue of The American Church Monthly. Some extra copies have been ordered and may be had for 25c. apiece. They will be available the first Sunday in February.

FR. HAMLIN'S stirring speech at the Catholic Congress has been published in pamphlet form and is to be found in the Tract Case. It forms the first of a new series being published "to arouse the Church to the need of a sound Catholic Sociology for the solution of the problems of the day."

Parish Notes

THE BISHOP OF ALGOMA will give the first of his two lectures in our annual series tomorrow evening at 8.15. His subject will be "The Eucharist," especially as it embodies the extension of the Incarnation and the Atonement, the two subjects so ably handled by Bishop Booth of Vermont.

THE ORGAN RECITAL, to precede tomorrow evening's Lecture, will be played by Mr. Donald Wilcox, the organist and choir director at S. Elisabeth's Church. The Recital begins at 7.45.

WHILE IN PHILADELPHIA, the Bishop of Algoma and Mrs. Rocksbrough Smith are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Rogers Woodruff.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK IS CANDLEMAS. There will be an additional Low Mass at 8, and a High Mass at 11. In the evening at 8, we shall be having the Candlemas Procession, preceded by the Blessing of the Candles, and followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Guild of S. Mary will attend this service, since the following Monday, their regular night of meeting, is pre-empted by the Bishop of Algoma's last Lecture.

SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of S. Blase. On this day throats are blessed. This blessing will follow the Mass at 7, and may be received at any time during the day when the Priests are available. Opportunity for this Blessing will be offered after the Sermon at the end of the High Mass next Sunday.

ON THE OTHER DAYS during the week, the Masses will be at the regular hours. One Mass only, at 7, on Monday and Saturday. On Tuesday and Thursday at 7 and 8. On Wednesday at 7 and 9.30. On Friday at 7, 8 and 9.30.

THE HOLY HOUR will be postponed until the second Friday evening, the 9th. Intercessions and special prayers for this hour may be handed to the Priests.

SO RICH IS THE BIBLE in literary treasure that any attempt to list the best stories in it leads to great differences of opinion. This list of twenty was made by James S. Stevens for his critical volume, The English Bible. (1) Joseph, Genesis 37-48; (2) Balaam and Balak, Numbers 22-24; (3) The Capture of Jericho, Joshua 6; (4) The Wars of Gideon, Judges 6-8; (5) Jephthah's Daughter, Judges 11; (6) Samson, Judges 14-16; (7) Ruth; (8) David and Goliath, I Samuel 17; (9) David and Jonathan, I Samuel 18-20; (10) Elijah and the Prophets of Baal, I Kings 18; (11) Naboth's Vineyard; I Kings 21; (12) The Ascension of Elijah, II Kings 2; (13) Esther; (14) The Three Hebrew Children, Daniel 3; (15) Daniel in the Lion's Den, Daniel 6; (16) Jonah; (17) The Good Samaritan, S. Luke 10: 25-37; (18) The Prodigal Son, S. Luke 15: 11-32; (19) The Lame Man of Bethesda, S. John 5: 1-9; (20) The Shipwreck of S. Paul, Acts 27. (From The Golden Book.)

ARCHDEACON BASKERVILLE, of the Diocese of South Carolina, will be the speaker at the February meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, Wednesday afternoon, February 7th, at 2 o'clock. He is one of the outstanding coloured missionaries to the coloured people in the South, and he has many friends in the parish.

IT WAS INCORRECTLY STATED in a recent number of The Parish Leaflet that Miss Esther Ball had been elected Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary. Miss Haffelfinger was re-elected Secretary, and Miss Ball continues to act "pro tem."

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Adagio.....Matthew Camidge

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"O Saviour, Precious Saviour".....No. 307

INTROIT—The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Psalm. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour.

Glory be to the Father..... The sorrows of death.....

KYRIE.....Johann Sebastian Bach

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 118 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble; and they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for-ever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

TRACT—Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?

For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

Parish Notes

THE BISHOP OF ALGOMA will conclude our annual series of Doctrinal Lectures tomorrow evening at 8.15. His subject will be "Ceremonial." This is a subject of immense interest and curiosity to non-Catholics. We are asked a great many more questions about Ceremonial than we are asked about Doctrine. Try to bring your friends tomorrow evening.

THE ORGAN RECITAL, preceding the Lecture tomorrow evening, will be played by A. J. Ruppel, the organist at S. Mary's Church, Wayne.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON at 2, is the regular time for the monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary. The speaker this month will be Archdeacon Baskerville, who is doing so conspicuous a work amongst the coloured people in the South. All the women of the congregation are urged to attend these monthly missionary meetings, and it is promised that no money is to be solicited.

DR. JOHN RATHBONE OLIVER, the noted psychiatrist, author, physician and priest, will give a lecture in the Parish House, Wednesday evening at 8.15, on the subject, "Spiritual Needs in the World of Today." Tickets are 50 cents apiece, and the proceeds will be given to the Sisters of the Holy Nativity for their Rest House at Bay Shore, Long Island.

FRIDAY EVENING, we shall be keeping the Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament. This is postponed from last Friday, since we were then keeping the Candlemas ceremonies. Intercessions to be used at this time may be handed to the Father Rector.

A QUIET EVENING FOR MEN is to be conducted at Calvary Church, 41st and Brown Streets, in West Philadelphia, next Saturday evening, beginning at 5 and ending at 9. It is being given for the Catholic Laymen's Union, and is open for all the men of the Church. Fr. Hoffman, S.S.J.E., will be the conductor.

THE MASSES THIS WEEK are as usual. Mass daily at 7. On Tuesday and Thursday there is a second Mass at 8. On Wednesday and Friday the second Mass is at 9.30. Matins is said daily at 9. Vespers is said at 6.45 from Monday to Thursday; on Fridays at 7.15, and Saturday evenings at 8.

S. KATHARINE'S GUILD in the Parish is made up of our younger girls; they meet Friday evenings for supper in the Parish House; their work is under the direction of Sister Marie. They are planning to sew during Lent, and are anxious for donations of materials or money for Layettes. There is a great demand for infants' clothing, and it is expected that the members of the congregation will encourage the girls in their good work.

AN OVERCOAT is wanted for a tall man, and we also need very badly a pair of stout shoes for a man, size 8.

ON LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY, one week from tomorrow, there will be a festival Mass for Acolytes at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City. The Bishop of Algoma is to be the Celebrant, and Fr. Buck of Washington is the preacher.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS MEMBERSHIP dues for 1934 may be handed to the Priests. These annual dues make up the working funds for the Congress Committee, and provide for the publication of the quarterly paper and the expenses of the various regional conferences. The prompt payment of your dues will enable the Committee to make their plans now for the current year. After so fine a Congress as we had here in Philadelphia, it is most important to follow it up with many local meetings. Please help along with this excellent work.

THE RECTOR'S DISCRETIONARY FUND, used exclusively for the relief of the poor, is exhausted, but the calls for help are more insistent than ever. Will you please help him?

Other Receipts	1,513.50	Sisters	1,980.00
		Coal	704.17
Total	$17,810.78	Light	592.49
		Other Expenses	5,377.57
Deficit	702.06
Total	$18,512.84	Total	$18,512.84

The deficit of $702.06 is covered by a loan from the bank.

ON SHROVE TUESDAY the Father Rector will be in the church for Confessions in the morning from 11 to 12, and in the evening from 7 to 9. Father Edwards and Father Underhill will be in the church in the afternoon from 3 to 5, and again in the evening from 7 to 9.

ON ASH WEDNESDAY there will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30. As usual, there will be a High Mass at 11 with a Sermon by the Father Rector. In the evening Solemn Vespers will be sung at 8, Father Edwards will preach, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given.

ASHES WILL BE IMPOSED before and after all of the services on Ash Wednesday.

DURING LENT there will be an additional Mass on Monday and Saturday. That will make the daily Mass schedule as follows: Low Mass every day at 7; on Monday, Wednesday and Friday there will be a second Mass at 9.30; on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, the second Mass will be at 8.

INSTEAD OF VESPERS on Sunday evenings in Lent, we shall be singing Compline. It gives us an entirely new service for the evening, with different Psalms, and another Canticle, the Nunc Dimittis. The congregation is urged to follow the Choir in the responses, all of which are familiar ones. Benediction will follow the Sermon at the close of Compline.

NEXT SATURDAY EVENING the Father Rector will conduct a Quiet Evening for Women in S. John's Chapel. The Exercises will begin with Vespers at 5, and close with the last Meditation at about 9. Supper will be served in the Parish House at 6.30. If you wish a place reserved for the supper, please tell one of the Sisters at SPRUCE 2044. A charge of fifty cents is made for the supper. The first Meditation will follow Vespers; the second will be at 7.30 and the last one will begin at 8.30.

MANY LETTERS and expressions of appreciation for the Course of Lectures completed last Monday have been received in the Rectory. It is a great joy to arrange for Lecturers and Special Preachers from time to time, and to welcome the Priests and members of other parishes here at S. Clement's. More and more people are regarding S. Clement's as a sort of Anglo-Catholic Cathedral, and more and more our Quiet Evenings and Days of Retreat and other special services are being used by Catholics throughout the Diocese as well as by the members of our own Parish.

A GOOD ASSORTMENT of Lenten Tracts will be found in the Tract Cases this morning.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH MONTHLY for February continues the first of the Father Rector's three articles on "The Early History of S. Clement's." It is hoped that these articles will be published as a small book or pamphlet. Copies of the Monthly may be had from Mrs. Pendleton.

GRADUALE—He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High; shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty: I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold; my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter; and from the noisome pestilence: He shall defend thee under his wings; and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler; thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee: For he shall give his Angels charge over thee; to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands; that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone: Thou shall go upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my Name: He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Parish Notes

THE MASSES THIS WEEK will follow the new schedule for Lent. There is a Mass every day at 7. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday there is a second Mass at 9.30. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday the second Mass is at 8. Saturday, being the Feast of the Apostle Matthias, will have three Masses, 7, 8 and 9.30. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are the Lenten Ember Days.

FRIDAY of this week will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, in S. John's Chapel, from 10 o'clock until 6. Being an Ember Day, your prayers are asked especially for the Sacred Ministry of the Church, and the Church's Missionary endeavours.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY are having their Annual Missionary Day in Holy Trinity Church on the Wednesday of this week. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton is preaching the Annual Sermon at the Mass at 10.15, and the Father Rector of S. Clement's is conducting the Noon-Day Intercessions at 12.15. Missionaries will speak at the afternoon session. All of the women of the congregation are urged to attend this Missionary Day.

THE FATHER RECTOR is preaching at S. Mark's Church, Frankford, on Wednesday evening.

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED to the Thursday evening preaching services, under the auspices of the Diocesan Commission on Evangelism, to be held this Lent in Holy Trinity Church instead of the Church of S. Luke and the Epiphany. The List of Preachers will be found posted on the Bulletin Board.

COMPLINE, instead of Vespers, will be sung Sunday evenings during Lent. It will be followed by the Sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Sunday evening service in the City Churches is becoming a great problem. One does not want to resort to "novelties" simply to attract a congregation, but perhaps "something different" may make an appeal.

DURING LENT we add no extra services to our regular schedule, with the hope that the members of the congregation, who wish to do something extra in Lent, will come to some of the services that we have throughout the year. Would it not be a helpful thing to make the Sunday Evening Service a part of your Lenten Rule?

THE GREAT CRUCIFIX, that hung for many years in the Corridor, and was polychromed by the Chapman Studios for use at the Catholic Congress Mass in Convention Hall last October, has been placed in its standard at the head of the North aisle in the Church, as a reminder during Lent of our Blessed Lord's Passion, and also as a new center for your prayers and devotions during this Holy Season. Just as we set up the Creche for the Season of Christmas and the Epiphany, so it seems fitting to have the Crucifix before us in Lent. A Prayer to be said before a Crucifix will be found on the prie dieu, as well as a list of the sick in the Parish, and the Faithful Departed whose anniversaries occur during the week, for both of which your prayers are invited.

NOW IS THE TIME to begin to lay aside money for your Easter Offering. There are no special collections in the Parish until Easter. This offering is one on which we depend very largely to determine the extent of our work for the balance of the year. If you begin to think about it now, we shall have a much better offering for God than if you wait until Holy Saturday to think about what you will give your Lord and your Church on Easter Day.

A SMALL LENDING LIBRARY of religious and devotional books will be ready for use Friday evening. The books will be in the South Room of the Parish House on the second floor. Dr. Jeanette Tomkins will be in charge. Members of the Congregation may have free use of the books upon the payment of an initial fee of fifty cents. The Library will be open before the Services on Friday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening.

Parish Notes

THE MASSES THIS WEEK follow the regular schedule. Low Mass each day at 7. There is a second Mass on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9.30. On the other days the second Mass is at 8. Friday is the First Friday, and the Masses will be Votive of the Sacred Heart.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING the Bishop of the Diocese visits us and will give the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation. It is expected that a large congregation will welcome the Bishop to S. Clement's, and greet those to be confirmed at this time.

TWO WEEKS FROM TODAY is Mid-Lent Sunday, and the occasion for the Annual Quiet Day for Women. The Day will begin, as usual, with the 8 o'clock Mass, and close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4. The Father Rector will give the Addresses at 10, 2 and 3.15. Breakfast and Dinner will be served for those who notify the Sister in advance. While cards have been sent through the mail to those on our regular mailing list, any one is welcome to attend.

THE FATHER RECTOR is preaching at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Kensington on Wednesday evening.

THE CATHOLIC CLUB meets on Tuesday of this week at S. Martin's Church in Chestnut Hill.

THE LIBRARY is open today in the South Room on the second floor in the Parish House. Dr. Jeanette Tomkins is in charge. Any one may borrow one book at a time after the initial payment of 50 cents. The Books will be available Friday evenings, and Sunday mornings and evenings, both before and after the Services. Gifts of suitable books will be welcomed.

120 OF THE 230 MEMBERS of The Catholic Congress in S. Clement's Parish have paid their dues for 1934. The Congress is much in need of funds, and depends very heavily on the annual dues of Members. It is hoped that every one will continue with the 1934 contribution of $1.

FATHER LETHERMAN has returned to Philadelphia and is taking temporary duty at S. Luke's Church in Germantown.

HYMN—"Lo! Now Is Our Accepted Day".....No. 88

INTROIT—Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy,
O Lord, and thy loving kindness towards us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us,
O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Psalm. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded.

Glory be to the Father..... Call to remembrance.....

KYRIE*Luigi Cherubini*

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 127 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles, O Lord.

Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

TRACT—O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious; and his mercy endureth for ever: Who can express the noble acts of the Lord, or shew forth all his praise; blessed are they that always keep judgment, and do righteousness.

Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto the people: O visit me with thy salvation.

Annual Visit of the Bishop of the Diocese at 8 P. M.

Parish Notes

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE, Bishop Taitt, comes to us this evening for his annual visit, and to administer the Sacrament of Holy Confirmation. The Bishop's visit should be the occasion of festivity, especially when the Bishop is one who is so sympathetic to our life and work. The Father Rector urges the members of the Congregation to return this evening to welcome the Bishop to the Parish, to welcome into the Parish life those being presented to the Bishop for Confirmation, and in the Service to renew their own Confirmation vows. The offering will be the Parish's contribution to the Bishop's purse.

THE MASSES this week follow the regular Lenten schedule. Mass daily at 7. The second Mass on Monday, Wednesday and Friday is at 9.30. The second Mass on the other days is at 8. The second Mass on Monday is one of Requiem, offered especially for the former members of our Congregation whose anniversaries occur during the week. On four of the days a "Double Feast" falls, so the first Mass of the day will be of the Feast, and the second of the Lenten Feria. The weekly Requiem falls on the first day of the week unhindered by any Feast, and this week that day is Monday.

HOW SWEET IT IS when our day is ended to find the body tired, the head heavy and jaded with work done for our Blessed Lord. The day has been a long one, bringing to us more than its share of disagreeable duties and unpleasant tasks; unexpected troubles have met us.....but through it all we have unflinchingly plodded on, doing the Master's work for love of Him.—Quoted.

S. MARY'S GUILD WILL MEET tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, after a lapse of two months. The January meeting was a Christmas party with the children's pantomime, and the February meeting was combined with the Candlemas Procession. The Office of Our Lady will be sung tomorrow evening, the Father Rector, who is Chaplain of the Guild, will make a brief address, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given. After the Service there will be a social hour in the Parish Hall.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON is the regular day for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, and 2 o'clock is the hour. Miss Mogridge, of the City Mission, will speak on the work of the Church Mission of Help, and Mrs. James Lockwood will tell of the personal side of the House of Rest for the Aged, located in Germantown. The women of the Congregation are cordially invited to identify themselves with the Auxiliary and to share in the Church's Missionary Endeavour.

TOMORROW MARKS THE BEGINNING of Philadelphia's Seventh Educational Week for the Blind, and tomorrow, Monday, is the special day assigned to the members of the Episcopal Church. There is an exhibition of the work done by the Blind in Gimbel Brothers Store Auditorium, on the fifth floor of the Chestnut Street side, where luncheon and tea are served each day. The Committee is anxious to have 1000 there for lunch tomorrow. Will you not be one?

I SHOULD EXAMINE all my actions, taking Jesus as my Model and example. What a vast difference between my prayer and His; between my use of time, my way of speaking, walking, dealing with others, etc., and that of my Lord! If I could only keep Him before my eyes always, my life would be far different from what it has been.—Quoted.

NEXT SUNDAY is the Middle of Lent, and the Annual Quiet Day for Women in the Parish. The Day opens with the Mass at 8, and closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4. The Addresses, to be given by the Father Rector, will be at 10, 2 and 3.15. If you wish to have breakfast and dinner in the Parish Hall, it will be necessary to notify the Sister, at SPR. 2044, in advance.

THE FATHER RECTOR is preaching at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont on Wednesday evening.

Parish Notes

THE MASSES DURING THE WEEK will follow the usual schedule. The Requiem Mass for the departed members of our Parish whose anniversaries occur at this time will be on Tuesday at 8.

THE VESTRY will meet at the Clergy House on Tuesday afternoon at 4.30.

FATHER EDWARDS is preaching at Christ Church, Media, on Wednesday evening. The Father Rector has no preaching engagements this week.

TEN ADULTS and one Choir Boy were presented to the Bishop for the Sacrament of Confirmation last Sunday evening.

THE FEMALE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PRAYER BOOK SOCIETY will commemorate its one hundredth anniversary tomorrow, with a Service at 10.30 in the morning led by the Bishop of the Diocese. At the meeting of the Society immediately after, the Rev. James Alan Montgomery, D.D., grandson of the first President of the Society, will give a short address. All friends of the Society and its subscribers are invited to be present.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY, at the Mission House on Woodstock Street, carry a good assortment of cards for all occasions. They have cards suitable for birthdays, consolations, and anniversaries. Just now they are showing a number of beautiful cards for Easter. The proceeds from these sales are given to the general funds of the Community.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP has sent this notice to all of the Bishops of the Church. "It has been suggested that the Call initiating the Church-Wide Endeavour and the courses of study and of devotion which in response have been undertaken by many dioceses should be brought to an act of corporate worship at a special celebration of the Holy Communion. I have thought that the Bishops might like to act upon the suggestion by naming to their Clergy the same Sunday for this Service. The morning of Passion Sunday, the 18th of March, would seem to be a fitting time to bring together our people for the rededication of their lives to God's purpose and for a united approach to the contemplation of our Lord's passion and resurrection."

BISHOP TAITT has acted on the Presiding Bishop's suggestion, and has designated next Sunday as a time for the "rededication of our lives to God's purpose, and receiving Holy Communion with this intention."

IT IS HOPED that we may be able to give either a Card Party or an Entertainment of some kind in each of the months of April, May and June, for the benefit of our Missionary Quota. The Father Rector will welcome suggestions, as well as volunteers for a Committee of arrangements.

THE WOMEN OF THE PARISH are keeping their annual day of Retreat today. The Addresses are at 10, 2 and 3.15. The Day closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4.

IN THE CROSS is safety from enemies, in the cross is that peace which the world cannot give, in the cross is courage, in the cross is joy, in the cross is the sum of all virtues, in the cross is the perfection of holiness. There is no salvation for the soul, no hope of eternal life in anything else. The cross is the beginning and the end; and all who live worthily must find the cross and die with Christ; there is no other way to life and to real inward peace but the way of the cross.—Quoted from Imitatio Christi by Thomas a Kempis.

ARE YOU LAYING ASIDE some money each week toward your Easter Offering? Lenten self-denial should include some saving of money. The money thus saved should be given to the Church. Give some to your Parish, but do not forget the crying needs of the Church in Mission Fields.

Parish Notes

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF S. JOSEPH, the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and foster-father of our Blessed Lord. Both Masses will be of the Feast. Tuesday and Thursday are Lenten Ferias. Wednesday is the Feast of S. Benedict, Abbot. Your offerings are asked on this Feast for the English Benedictines at Nashdom Abbey. Dom Anselm Hughes is a member of this Community. Friday is the Feast of the Compassion of the Blessed Virgin Mary, sometimes called the Feast of the Seven Sorrows. Saturday is the Feast of S. Gabriel, the Archangel. His day immediately precedes the Annunciation. The Feast of the Annunciation this year is transferred to the Monday after Low Sunday.

THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK is the usual time for another Day of Retreat, meant originally for the members of S. Mary's Guild and those who were not able to attend the Mid-Lent Sunday Retreat. It is now open to any women of the Parish or their friends. The Day begins with the Mass at 9.30 in S. John's Chapel, and closes with the last address at 2. If you wish a place at dinner, please notify the Sister in advance. The Father Rector will give the addresses at 10, 11.30 and 2.

NEXT SUNDAY IS PALM SUNDAY. The Solemn Blessing of the Palms and the Palm procession will begin at 10.30, and the Solemn Mass will follow at about 11.30.

FATHER EDWARDS will be "on the air" tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, over the Station W-F-I, speaking in the interests of Good Friday observance.

THE FATHER RECTOR is preaching at The Chapel of the Transfiguration, 7th and Bigler Streets, on Wednesday evening, and at the Church of the Redemption, 58th and Market Streets, next Sunday evening.

A PLAN WAS APPROVED by the Vestry at their last meeting for the extending of the wainscoting, now begun by the Lady Chapel, along the north and south walls of the Church. This will be done in an imitation stone, and the wooden paneling beneath will be painted to match it in colour. This work will be done to make a proper background and setting for the new Stations of the Cross which will be completed in time to be put in place during the summer. Four of these Stations have been definitely taken as memorials. Are there others? Their cost is $500 each. There will be a plate on which the memorials will be inscribed. The cost of this improvement is being taken care of by funds from the Yarnall Endowment, which are not available for ordinary parish expenses.

YOUR ATTENTION is called to a very helpful pamphlet appearing in the Tract Case today. It is called "The Clock of the Sacred Passion," and records the events of the 24 hours preceding our Lord's death on the Cross, according to each hour, with a short meditation on each event. It will be a most valuable aid to your Passion-tide devotions.

THE CHURCH, in one of her strange paradoxes, bids us veil the Crosses in our Churches at the very season in which she calls us to meditate more especially upon the Crucifix. The unusualness of the veiling attracts our attention at once, and as our eyes are drawn to the Cross, Holy Church bids us see the Crucified through the eyes of faith. The Crosses are unveiled just before the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified on Good Friday.

AT MASS

Father, see Thy children bending at Thy throne,
Pleading here the Passion of Thine only Son,
Pleading here before Thee all His dying love,
As He pleads it ever in the courts above.

Not for our wants only we this Offering plead,
But for all Thy children who Thy mercy need:
Bless Thy faithful people, win Thy wandering sheep,
Keep the souls departed who in Jesus sleep. —English Hymnal

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

According to the Missal

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succour far from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

Psalm. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE Luigi Cherubini

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipped. And why, I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health; and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorn. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—(Mass in C) George C. Martin
SERMON THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

HYMN—"Onward, Christian Soldiers" No. 391

Parish Notes

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY there will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30. The Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8.

TENEBRAE will be sung in the Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 8. As one of the ancient offices of the Church, it is of such exceeding beauty it deserves to be more generally known and used. It is the Night Office (Matins and Lauds) for Wednesday and the two following nights in Holy Week. The name Tenebrae is derived from the ceremonial accompaniment of extinguishing the lights one by one until the Church is in complete "darkness."

TENEBRAE has been called one of the greatest achievements of liturgical art. Its use forms a wonderfully impressive and devotional service. In it, by means of a continuous service of well chosen antiphons, psalms and portions of Holy Scripture and other sacred writings, the whole of the Passion of our Lord is presented, as it were, in a word drama. The opening antiphon gives the key-note, and thus psalm follows psalm, each with its special antiphon, interspersed with appropriate lessons, versicles and responses. The gradual putting out of the candles signifies the extinction of human hopes. The sorrow accelerates as the gloom deepens, and the Church enters a little further into the meaning of the Passion of our Lord.

ON WEDNESDAY night the passages in Tenebrae deal with the Agony and the Betrayal; on Maundy Thursday night they are connected with the Crucifixion; on Friday night they represent the Burial. These three portions of the Office have been compiled with marvellous insight; a thorough study of them will reveal their full beauty and significance.—Quoted from "Ave."

ON MAUNDY THURSDAY the Solemn Mass will be sung at 7, when all the faithful are urged to receive Holy Communion. Following the Mass there will be the Procession to the Altar of Repose in S. John's Chapel, where the Watch will be kept until the Mass of the pre-Sanctified on Good Friday.

THE MASS OF THE PRE-SANCTIFIED on Good Friday will be at 10 o'clock, instead of 7 as in the past few years. It is hard to determine the most convenient hour for the greater number on these special days.

THE FATHER RECTOR expects to preach the Passion on Good Friday, from 12 to 3. At 10 o'clock on Maundy Thursday morning he is speaking over Station WFI in the interests of Good Friday observance.

CONFESSION HOURS IN HOLY WEEK. The Father Rector will be in the Church for Confessions Wednesday afternoon, Thursday morning and afternoon, Friday evening, and Saturday morning and evening. Father Edwards and Fr. Underhill will be in the Church Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Friday morning and afternoon, and Saturday afternoon and evening. It is hoped that regular penitents will come as early in the week as possible, so that the Priests may have more time later in the week to minister to those who come less frequently to the Sacrament of Penance.

STRICT ORDER should be observed by those waiting to make their Confessions. "First come, first served," should be the motto, except that priests, religious, doctors and nurses should be allowed to come first at any time on account of their work.

FLOWERS, or money with which to buy them, will be welcomed for the Altar of Repose on Thursday. They should be sent to the Church as early as possible on Wednesday afternoon.

THE EASTER LETTERS are in the mail. If you do not receive one, please speak to the Father Rector, so that he may correct the mailing list.

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 163, Prayer Book)

GRADUALE—This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will be joyful and glad in it. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious:
and his mercy endureth for ever.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia, Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

SEQUENCE—Christians, to the Paschal Victim.....Plainchant
Offer your thankful praises.
A Lamb the sheep redeemeth:
Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?
"The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection:
Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,
Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."
Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR, Father Edwards and Father Underhill wish all the members of the Parish and the Congregation a very happy and blessed Easter.

THERE WILL BE TWO MASSES every day this week. The daily Mass at 7. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday, the second Mass will be at 9.30. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday the second Mass will be at 8.

S. MARY'S GUILD, a devotional guild for women, will meet tomorrow evening. The Office of Our Lady is sung, there is a short address by the Father Rector who is Chaplain of the Guild, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given. After the service in S. John's Chapel, there is a social hour and refreshments in the Parish House.

THE HOLY HOUR, which was omitted during Lent, will be resumed on Friday evening. This devotional hour before the Blessed Sacrament is usually kept on the first Friday evening in each month.

FOUR VESTRYMEN are elected each year on Easter Monday to serve for three years. Those up for election tomorrow are Messrs.
Sheldon Potter Ritter, Edward Biddle Clay, Paul Augustus Casey and
Dr. Francis D. W. Lukens.

THE EASTER MEETING OF THE VESTRY will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4.30, at the Clergy House.

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH is supported by its Endowment, Rents from Pews, Duplex Envelope pledges, and the Free Will offerings of those who worship with us. Income from Endowments is greatly depleted, and fewer people are renting pews and sittings. The duplex envelope pledges have kept up very well. We solicit the generous contributions of our many friends, who visit us from time to time, but are not regular contributors. We really need your help.

Parish Notes

THE EASTER OFFERING amounted to $1,641. 320 Communion services were made at our Altars on Easter Day. The attendance at the Solemn Mass last Sunday was 524.

AT THE ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN on Easter Monday, Mr. Sheldon Potter Ritter, Mr. Edward Biddle Clay, Mr. Paul Augustus Casey and Dr. Francis Dring Wetherill Lukens were unanimously elected to serve for the ensuing three years.

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE VESTRY on Easter Tuesday, Mr. Clay was elected Secretary for the new year, and Mr. Ritter was elected Accounting Warden. The Father Rector appointed Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff to be Rector's Warden. The following committees were elected:

Finance:—Messrs. Clay, Morris and Homan.

Property:—Messrs. Mayer, Corning and Tyson.

Insurance:—Messrs. Homan, Ritter and Morris.

The Father Rector appointed Messrs. Woodruff, Ritter and Tyson as members of the Music Committee. Messrs. Woodruff, Morris and Dr. Lukens were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention, with Mr. Tyson as the Alternate.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will hold a "Smoker" tomorrow evening in the Parish House of the Church of S. James the Less, 33rd and Clearfield Streets. The Bishop of the Diocese will be the guest speaker. All the men of the Parish and Congregation who are interested in promoting the Catholic Religion are urged to attend. It is a good thing for the men from our several Catholic Parishes to meet in this social fashion, and at the same time to hear some address that will fire them with greater endeavour for our Lord and His Church.

THE WOMEN'S UNITED THANK OFFERING for 1934 is now being collected by the Parish Treasurer, Miss Grace L. Hoffman, of 2118 DeLancey Place. This is the last collection before the Triennial presentation at the General Convention, which meets this autumn in Atlantic City. The week of April 14th to 21st has been set apart as the time for intensive work and prayer for this part of the women's missionary work. Offerings for this purpose, marked "U. T. O.," may be placed on the collection plates, and will be forwarded to Miss Hoffman.

THE DIOCESAN PRESENTATION SERVICE for this Thank Offering will be held in S. Clement's Church, Thursday, May 3rd. The Bishop of the Diocese will be the Celebrant, and The Rev. Dr. Frederick S. Fleming, Rector of Trinity Church, New York City, will be the preacher.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House, Wednesday evening, April 18th. Tickets are now on sale for fifty cents apiece. There will be a number of interesting prizes, and refreshments will be served. Will not members of the Parish reserve tables, and bring friends from outside the Parish to this party?

IT IS NOT TOO LATE to pay your membership dues in the Catholic Congress for the year 1934. The advance work of the committee depends on the number of subscribers, as this is the only income the Congress has. Subscribers receive the Congress Bulletin each quarter.

"THE EARLY DAYS AT S. CLEMENT'S," an article written by the Father Rector, and appearing in the last three issues of The American Church Monthly, is being slightly revised and corrected in several points, and will be published in a small pamphlet. It does not profess to be a "history" of the Parish; it is just a "story." Perhaps some day a real history of the Parish will be written.

Parish Notes

THE CHURCH CONGRESS is holding its annual meeting in Philadelphia this week. It will open in the Ball Room of the Bellevue-Stratford on Tuesday evening. Wednesday morning there will be a great service in S. James's Church. Thursday evening the Congress Dinner will be served in the Hotel. On the other days there will be both afternoon and evening sessions in the Bellevue. A program of the subjects and speakers will be found posted on the Bulletin Board. The Father Rector commends the Congress and its Program to the members of the Congregation, and hopes they will remember it in their prayers.

A TABLE FOR MEMBERS OF S. CLEMENT'S can easily be arranged for the Congress dinner on Thursday evening. If any one would like to join such a group, will they please speak to the Father Rector or to Father Edwards? The dinner tickets are $2 apiece.

THE LENTEN OFFERING Presentation Service for the Sunday Schools of the Convocations of North and South Philadelphia will be held this afternoon at half-past three o'clock at Old Christ Church, 3rd and Market Streets.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Tickets, including refreshments, are on sale at 50 cents apiece. There will be a prize for each table. The proceeds will be applied on the Parish Missionary Offering. It is suggested that members of the Congregation take tables, and fill them with their friends from without the Parish. Mrs. L. Alvin Thomas is Chairman of the Committee.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS will be held at S. Clement's, Monday, April 23rd. There will be a Solemn Mass of Requiem at 11.15, when Fr. McCune, Rector of S. Ignatius' Church in New York City will be the preacher. After the Mass, a buffet luncheon will be served in the Parish House. If you expect to stay for the lunch, the Father Rector would like to have you notify him in advance. In the afternoon there will be a very brief business session, after which two very interesting addresses will be made. The first on "Death" by the Rev. Dr. Leicester C. Lewis, and the second on "The Faithful Departed" by the Rev. Dr. Frank L. Vernon of S. Mark's. At the close of the afternoon session, tea will be served. Please make this day and its many opportunities known to your friends. Neither the meetings nor the luncheon are restricted to members of the Guild.

THIS IS UNITED THANK OFFERING WEEK. This offering is collected by the Woman's Auxiliary every year from the women in the Church, and is presented at the General Convention of the Church, which meets every three years. This money is used for the Missionary work of the Church, and is a thank offering on the part of the givers. All of the money placed in the Box at the door by the South aisle during the coming week will be given to this worthy object. Miss Grace L. Hoffman is Parish Treasurer, and she will be glad to supply you with a blue box in which to make your collection during the year.

THE SOLEMNITY OF S. JOSEPH falls on Wednesday of this week. The Feast is kept with an Octave. Since S. Joseph's day occurs in March, its observance is always overshadowed by Lent. So this Feast of the Solemnity is kept for the sake of those Churches that are dedicated to S. Joseph, so that they can keep a really festive Feast. S. Joseph is patron of the Universal Church, and is much the same model for men and boys that the Blessed Virgin Mary is for girls and women.

PLEASE REMEMBER in your prayers our three young Deacons who are looking forward to Ordination to the Priesthood in the near future. They are the Rev. Edward Wallace Hawkins, the Rev. William E. Ashburn and the Rev. Gerald MacCracken Gardner.

Parish Notes

THE JUNIOR WOMAN'S AUXILIARY of the Diocese has arranged to present a play in the Parish House of the Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga Streets, Thursday evening, April 26th, the proceeds of which will go to help in the work of the Unemployment Relief Committee. This play, "The House of a Thousand Thrills," is being given throughout the Diocese for this worthy cause. Tickets are 50 cents, and may be had at the door.

TOMORROW the Annual Meeting of the Guild of All Souls will be held here at S. Clement's. There will be a Solemn Requiem at 11.15, when Fr. McCune will be the preacher. A buffet luncheon will be served in the Parish House. At two o'clock there will be a "Conference," when Dr. Lewis of Chestnut Hill and Dr. Vernon of S. Mark's will read papers. Tea will be served at the close of the afternoon session. Every one is welcome, whether or not they are members of the Guild of All Souls.

DURING EASTER-TIDE, instead of the Angelus, the Regina Coeli is said, and the bell is rung first with four strokes, and then nine. The poetical antiphon is said during the four strokes, the versicle and response with the prayer during the final strokes of the bell.

"Hail to thee, O Queen of Heaven, alleluia,

He whom thou wast meet to bear, alleluia,

Is arisen, as he said, alleluia,

Pray thou unto God for us, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord is risen indeed, alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the resurrection of thy Son, Jesus Christ, from the dead; grant that we being holpen by the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary his Mother, may be brought to the joys of everlasting life; Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. A-men.

THE PRIESTS' CATHOLIC CLUB meets on Tuesday of this week, with the Mass and Luncheon at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be in New York City all day Wednesday attending an executive meeting of the Catholic Congress Committee.

IT HAS BEEN POINTED OUT that the grains of incense forming the cross in the Paschal Candle should face the Altar. While we have not been able to prove this authority, it seems so reasonable that the candle has been reversed. We are indebted to Mrs. Beaver and Miss Newman for its beautiful painting this year.

THE PARISH LIBRARY, in charge of Dr. Jeanette Tomkins, is still functioning in the South Room of the Parish House, before and after all services.

WE ARE ALWAYS IN NEED of your cast-off clothing. If you are discarding some of your winter things now, we shall be glad to have them and keep them until next winter. If you have summer things to give away, send them to us now, that we may have them ready for distribution when the warmer weather comes.

A LETTER FROM FATHER GAVITT tells of a very profitable Lent and happy Easter at Grace Church, Albany, where Father Wagen-seller is associated with him in the work. Grace Church is the only definitely Catholic work in the city of Albany, and these former Priests of ours are deserving of our prayers.

THE MASS AND THE MASSES is the title of the fifth in the series of "New Tracts for New Times" which the Living Church Press is publishing. It is making its first appearance in the Tract Case this morning.

THE ENTERTAINMENT announced for Monday, April 30th, has been postponed.

Parish Notes

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE meets this week. The opening service is at eight o'clock tomorrow evening, when the Bishop makes his address in Holy Trinity Church. The Convention Mass will be in S. James's Church, Tuesday morning at 9.30, commemorating the 125th anniversary of this parish. The meetings of Convention will be as usual in Holy Trinity Church.

THE ENTERTAINMENT announced in the April Kalendar for tomorrow evening has been postponed.

THE MONTH OF MAY is not only the Month of Mary, but it is a month of Festivals. There are but four days that are Ferias.

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED to the fact that on Prayer Book Feast Days there is always an extra Mass. These Prayer Book Days are all among the chief festivals of the Church, and should be much better observed than they are now.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON is the regular time for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. The hour of meeting is 2. The speaker this month will be Mrs. Genung, President of the Coloured Committee at the Church House. Every woman of the Church and Congregation is urged to attend the meetings of the Auxiliary.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY UNITED THANK OFFERING. The Annual Presentation Service for the United Thank Offering will be held in S. Clement's Church, Thursday morning of this week at 10.30. This is a Diocesan Service and not a Parish one. The Church, for the time being, will be the Bishop's Church, and he is officiating at the Mass. The preacher will be the Rev. Frederick S. Fleming, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church in New York City. While Holy Communion will be given at this Service, the Father Rector hopes no member of S. Clement's Church will receive the Sacrament without fasting.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the First Friday, and the monthly day of special devotion to the Mass and Holy Communion. This day is generally observed throughout the whole Catholic Church. The Mass will be a Votive of the Sacred Heart. In the evening the Holy Hour will be kept in the Church. Every one should strive to give some part of this day to prayer and worship in our Lord's Sacramental Presence. This can best be done in Mass and Holy Communion. If this is impossible, try to make the Holy Hour a definite part of your devotional life.

THE SATURDAY MASS this week is a Requiem, and the last one until Memorial Day.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet next Monday evening, May 7th. This is a devotional guild for women, with a monthly meeting, followed by a social time in the Parish House. No one needs to be "invited to join;" it is open to all who may be interested. The Guild services are open to all who may care to come.

THE CHILDREN OF THE CATECHISM will give their annual Easter Tableaux in the Parish House, Wednesday evening, May 9th, the Eve of the Ascension. The Priests will be in the Church before for Confessions, and after the Tableaux Benediction will be given in the Chapel. There will be an offering for Missions.

A BABY WAS DESERTED and left in the Confessional in S. John's Chapel late last Wednesday afternoon. Its cries were heard by Dr. Fry, who discovered the child, and notified the Department of Public Welfare. Mr. Woodruff, the Director of the Department, came immediately, notified the Police, and took the child to the Shelter on Vine Street. The baby was a girl, about six months old, healthy and well dressed. There is not as yet any clue to its identity.

Parish Notes

TODAY IS ROGATION SUNDAY, and the next three days following are the Rogation Days. These days are set apart by the Church as a season of prayer and intercession for the crops of the field and the husbandmen. It seems fitting to include all workers and laborers in our Rogation prayers, and especially at this time to pray for our Country and the many problems that confront it and the whole world. There is no better place to pray than at Mass, and no better way to pray than to receive Holy Communion.

THURSDAY IS THE FEAST of the Ascension of our Blessed Lord. It is a day of Solemn Obligation, and all the faithful should be present at Mass. In addition to the three Low Masses, there will be a High Mass at 11 o'clock, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

WEDNESDAY EVENING the children of the Catechism, under the direction of Sister Helen, will give a series of Easter-tide Tableaux. The Priests will be in the Church at half-past seven for Confessions, and after the Easter Tableaux, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given in S. John's Chapel.

THERE WILL BE A FESTIVAL SERVICE at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, on Ascension Day night at 8. This service is under the auspices of the Catholic Laymen's Union. There will be a procession of Acolytes from our several city parishes. Fr. Williams, S.S.J.E., Rector of the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City, will be the preacher. It is hoped that S. Clement's will be well represented at this service.

THE ANNUAL NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST begins on Friday of this week, the day after Ascension Day, and closes on the Vigil of Pentecost. The nine days between the Ascension of our Lord and the coming of the Holy Ghost were spent by the Apostles and the Disciples in prayerful waiting in Jerusalem. So following their example, we spend these nine days in prayer, praying especially for the Reunion of Christendom, and the triumph of the Catholic Faith in the hearts of all men. Leaflets containing suitable prayers will be found in the Church Porch at the Apple Tree Street entrance.

A REGULAR STATED MEETING of the Convocation of North Philadelphia will be held in the Church of the Incarnation, Broad and Jefferson Streets, on Tuesday, May 8th, at 5 P. M. S. Clement's Vestry meets that same afternoon in the Rectory.

ACCORDING TO THE PRESENT PLAN, the Officers and Cadets of the Valley Forge Military Academy will attend the Solemn Mass in a body on Trinity Sunday. The Colours will be massed before the Altar at the Introit, and Taps will be sounded at the end of Mass. According to Military usage, there will be a fanfare of trumpets at the Sanctus and Elevations. The Cadets come at this time in anticipation of Memorial Day, feeling that the faithful departed of our Army and Navy must not be forgotten before God.

TODAY, according to the date of the month, is the Feast of S. John before the Latin Gate, and is the Patronal Festival of the Society of S. John the Evangelist. For that reason we are having them in special remembrance at the Mass this morning, and your prayers are urged for God's blessing on their life and work.

S. ANNA'S HOME will observe "open house" tomorrow afternoon after three o'clock. The Associates will receive the callers, and will be glad to show them through the Home and introduce them to the Sisters and the guests. It will also be observed as "Donation Day," and those who call, and those who do not, are asked to either bring or send something for use in the Home. Tinned goods for the pantry shelf, or household linen for the linen closet, will be especially welcome. S. Anna's Home has a very intimate association with S. Clement's Church, and this invitation is given most cordially to the members of our congregation. This work is a free-will offering on the part of the All Saints Sisters, and it is commended to your generous support.

THE CARD PARTY, called "A Fifty Fifty Party," under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, will be given in the Parish House next Tuesday evening, from 8 until 10 o'clock. The tickets are 25 cents apiece. Home-made cakes and candy will be for sale, spring flowers, and other "surprises." Refreshments will be served. The proceeds will be used for missionary objects through the Auxiliary.

THE NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST, for the Reunion of Christendom, began last Friday and ends on Saturday of this week. Leaflets with the proper prayers will be found in the Tract Cases, and the Novena forms the intention of all our Masses this week. The special prayers will be said Friday evening before Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

NEXT SUNDAY IS THE FEAST OF PENTECOST. There will be a Procession, and the music of the Solemn Mass will be Dabovitch's setting of the Serbian Liturgy.

THE OFFERING ON PENTECOST is our annual collection for the Missionary Work of the Church. Letters and special envelopes for your offering are being mailed tomorrow. The needs of the Church for her Missionary Work are very great; please be as generous as you can. This offering will apply on our Parish Missionary Quota. If you have a favorite missionary field you may designate your offering for that particular work.

MR. SHELDON POTTER RITTER resigned as Accounting Warden at the meeting of the Vestry last Tuesday. Mr. Ritter's eyes have been giving him serious trouble, and he feels he can no longer subject them to the strain of keeping another set of books outside of his business office. Mr. Ritter has held this office since Easter of 1922. His resignation will not take effect until the end of the year. Mr. Ritter has given most careful and painstaking effort to his work as Treasurer, and the Vestry are most grateful for his years of faithful service.

COMMENCEMENT AT NASHOTAH HOUSE will be held this week, on Wednesday and Thursday. It is sixteen years since the Father Rector graduated, and five years since Fr. Edwards graduated from the House. Fr. Joiner is now completing his fourteenth year as Rector of S. Clement's and his sixteenth in the Parish.

FATHER BERT is coming the first of June to spend the summer at S. Clement's.

THE HONOUR OF MARY has always been defended in theory by Anglican Divines. The tradition that devotion is due to her has always been preserved within the Church of England. Indeed, there is no Catholic doctrine or practice for which defense may not be found in the writings of English Churchmen since the Reformation, even in the dark centuries of the Church's debasement. The tradition was there, but in practice it was strangely inoperative even among those who received it, and who seemed to shrink from the logical consequences of the teaching which they inherited. The renewal of the spiritual life which followed upon the Oxford Movement did not seem to find place for devotion to our Lady. Yet there were not lacking writers who urged it. Dr. Pusey, in his preface to Fr. Surin's "The Foundations of the Spiritual Life," published nearly a hundred years ago, wrote of the Rosary: "It is painful to think how much superstitious contempt of simple devotion, of the worship of child-like souls, is virtually involved in the censures of it. The daily continual memorial of our Lord, in His life and death for us, is lost to our very habits, and replaced by nothing."

Parish Notes

THE OFFERING TODAY is our Annual Collection for Missions. The Church's need is very great and we must do our part in helping to carry the Church and her Sacraments unto the uttermost parts of the earth. Our Missionary Quota is about $7,800. We usually give a little more than half this sum. It is hoped we may do better this year. The small gifts from every one are what we want. If your gift must be small, do not hesitate to give it. If you do your best, God will bless you in your offering.

THURSDAY EVENING at 8 o'clock, Mr. Thomas Stewart will show some Moving Pictures of his recent travels in Europe. These are very excellent pictures, and have an added charm because they were taken privately for Mr. Stewart's own amusement, and were not taken for public showing. It is very good of him to come to us. There will be a short musical programme before, and some simple refreshments after. A silver offering will be taken for Missions.

FRIDAY EVENING, after Benediction, S. Katharine's Guild will be "at home," showing an exhibit of their winter's work, and entertaining in the gymnasium with some refreshments. It is hoped that all of their friends will accept their invitation for Friday evening.

THE CADETS from Valley Forge Military Academy will attend the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning, occupying all the pews in the middle aisle. The music of the Mass will be Mozart's Seventh in B flat.

"THE EARLY DAYS AT S. CLEMENT'S," a short story of the beginnings of the Parish, which was published early in the year in three issues of the American Church Monthly, has now been published in pamphlet form. Copies are now on sale and may be had for 25 cents each. Cloth bound copies may be had for $1. They will be found, together with the current Church papers, in the Cope Room before and after the Solemn Mass. The Cope Room may be entered from the vestibule at the Apple Tree Street entrance to the Church.

A FEW COPIES OF S. CLEMENT'S KALENDAR for 1934 are also available at ten cents apiece.

THE SUMMER EMBER DAYS occur on the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week. They are days of Fasting and Abstinence. Your prayers are asked at this time for the Rev. William E. Ashburne, the Rev. Gerald M. Gardner and the Rev. Edward W. Hawkins, to be ordained to the Priesthood within a few weeks. These young Deacons are all members of our Parish, and we feel very proud of three members of our Parish receiving Holy Orders at the same time. We have two others in the Seminary, who will graduate next year, and several more in the course of preparation.

LAST WEDNESDAY, Miss Barbara Booth, a former member of our Parish, was solemnly professed as Sister Barbara of All Saints, in the Community of the All Saints Sisters of the Poor, at the Mother House in Orange Grove, Maryland. The Sister's cousin, the Bishop of Vermont, received her Profession.

THE AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS will give a Recital in S. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets, Wednesday evening, May 23rd, at 8.15. A Chorus of 100 men (The Yunker Maennerchor) will sing. No cards are required.

THE HANDSOME NEW ORIENTAL RUG on the steps to the High Altar has just been purchased by a small legacy left by the late Mrs. Borden. She specified that the bequest be invested in something that would be used "near the Altar." Two smaller rugs, one to be used under the Priests' Sedelia and the other under the Servers' bench, would be a great addition to the beauty of the Sanctuary.

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS A MONTH, for at least a year, is very much needed by the Father Rector for a very respectable and deserving family. Perhaps several people would make up this sum. The Father Rector will be glad to tell any one the details of the case.

Parish Notes

WE WELCOME the Officers and Cadets of The Valley Forge Military Academy at the Solemn Mass this morning. The Superintendent of the Academy, Col. Milton G. Baker, is an old friend of S. Clement's Parish.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK is Memorial Day. The Masses here will be Requiems, offered especially for all Soldiers, Sailors and Aviators who have fallen in the wars of our country.

THERE WILL BE a Solemn Mass, Procession of the Host, and Conference under the auspices of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, at S. Peter's Church, Freehold, New Jersey, on Decoration Day. The Solemn Mass will be at 11.30 o'clock. Freehold is about 65 miles by motor from Philadelphia, or may be reached by train. By using the special seashore rates for the holiday, the return trip can be made by train for about $1.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI occurs on Thursday of this week, May 31st. At the 7 o'clock Mass the members of the Laymen's Catholic Union will make their annual corporate Communion. Breakfast will be served in the Parish House immediately after the Mass.

THE SOLEMN MASS on Corpus Christi, Thursday of this week, will be at 11 o'clock, and will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THURSDAY EVENING there will be the annual Corpus Christi Festival Service, with Procession, at S. Alban's Church, Olney. After the service there will be a garden party on the Church lawn. Fr. Knowles has sent a special invitation to the members of S. Clement's for this festival and party.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the First Friday in June. The Holy Hour will be kept in the evening at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by Benediction.

VESPERS THIS EVENING will be the last Sunday evening service in S. Clement's until the first Sunday in October. During the summer the Church will be closed after the High Mass, and not re-opened until the first Mass on Monday morning. The Friday evening Service and Social Hour will continue through the summer.

THE MISSIONARY OFFERING last Sunday amounted to $788. This was most gratifying, and makes a splendid contribution towards our Quota.

NEXT SUNDAY is the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi. The Music of the Mass will be Gounod's Mass of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

THE SUMMER KALENDAR and full schedule of the Masses and other services for the summer will be published next week. Friday and Saturday of this week are both days within the Octave of Corpus Christi. There will be two Masses on Friday, one at 7 and the other at 9.30; there will be but one Mass on Saturday and that at the usual hour of 7.

FRIDAY EVENING, June 9th, the Choir will give a Recital of Sacred Music in the Church, assisted by Dr. Fry at the Organ. The offering at this recital will be for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp. Please make this evening of music known to all of your music-loving friends.

SOME OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE have prepared a play under the direction of Mrs. L. Alvin Thomas, and they are planning to present it in the Parish House some evening in June.

YOUR PRAYERS are asked for Sister Katharine of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity, for so many years in charge of the Mission work here, who is seriously ill at the Sisters' House in Bay Shore, Long Island.

Solemn Votive Mass of the Blessed Sacrament

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Adagio.....Matthew Camidge

PROCESSIONAL—"Cortege des Cardinaux".....Isaac Barton

INTROIT—He fed them also with the finest wheat flour, alleluia: and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm. Sing we merrily unto God our helper: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father..... He fed them also.....

KYRIE—"Messe du Sacre Coeur de Jesus".....Charles Francois Gounod

GRADUALE—The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood dwelleth in me, and I in him.

SEQUENCE—"Lauda Sion Salvatorem".....Traditional Plainchant

CREDO—"Messe du Sacre Coeur de Jesus"....Charles Francois Gounod

SERMON.....THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—The priests of the Lord do offer the offerings of the Lord, made by fire and the bread of their God: therefore they shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the Name of their God, alleluia.

HYMN—"Alleluia, Sing to Jesus".....No. 316

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI—

"Messe du Sacre Coeur de Jesus".....Charles Francois Gounod

COMMUNIO—As often as ye do eat of this Bread, and drink this Cup: ye do show the Lord's death till he come.

Wherefore, whosoever shall eat of this Bread, and drink of this Cup of the Lord unworthily: shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluia.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS—"Missa de Angelis"....Traditional Plainchant

RECESSIONAL—"Triumphal March".....M. Costa

The Choir's Annual Recital of Sacred Music will be given Friday, June 15th, at 8.15 P. M.

Parish Notes

TODAY'S SOLEMN MASS is the last until the first Sunday in October. There will be a High Mass at 11 o'clock on Sundays during the summer, followed by a Sermon, and three Low Masses, at 7, 8 and 9.15. The evening service will be omitted.

THE DAILY MASSES will continue with the regular schedule during June, and the same schedule will be resumed for September. During July and August the second Mass on Tuesday will be omitted. There are a few special days on which there will be extra Masses, and these are carefully noted on the Summer Kalendar. Matins and Vespers will be said each day, but at the convenience of the Priests.

FRIDAY EVENING, June 15th (instead of the 8th as mentioned last week), the Choir will give a Recital of Sacred Music, assisted by Dr. Fry at the Organ. This recital will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Collection will be for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp Fund. Dr. Fry will be happy to have contributions from members of the congregation for this Outing Fund.

TUESDAY EVENING, June 19th, some of the young people, under the direction of Mrs. L. Alvin Thomas, are giving a play in the Parish House. There are no tickets, but a silver offering will be received for the Missionary Funds of the Women's Auxiliary, and given to the deficit in the Foreign Committee of the Diocese. This offering will count on our Parish Quota.

FRIDAY, JULY 27TH, has been assigned to us as a Station Day for the Catholic Congress Cycle of Prayer. There will be continuous Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament from the last Mass in the morning until before the evening devotional service. A reminder of the day will be posted on the Bulletin Board.

THE ANNUAL GARDEN PARTY of the Women's Aid of the Convocation of North Philadelphia, will be held at "Wyck," the Colonial Home of the Haines family in Germantown. It is the 150th anniversary of the Diocese this year, so the Garden Party is a Colonial Party. Supper will be served on the lawn. Go and help a worthy cause and visit with your friends.

THE WEEK DAY MASSES and the Friday evening Devotional Service will be moved to S. John's Chapel tomorrow for the balance of the summer. The Chapel is much cooler than the Church and is more comfortable for the smaller congregations.

IN JULY we shall begin the work in the Church preparatory to the setting of the New Stations of the Cross. It is hoped that they will be dedicated in connection with the Patronal Festival celebration in November. These Stations are being given as memorials. They cost $500 each. There are a few of them that are as yet undesignated.

FATHER BERT has arrived to be resident in the Parish until September. He will be Priest-in-Charge during July and August. Father Underhill leaves on Monday to spend the summer in Rutherfordton, North Carolina, where he has been going for a number of years.

THE FATHER RECTOR will spend his holiday with his mother, who has taken a house in Bryn Mawr for the summer. He will be back and forth to the Parish, taking a share in the Masses, and ready to see any one who really needs him. After today he will not be preaching again until September, and he will not be in the Confessional, except by appointment, during July and August.

THIS IS THE LAST ISSUE of the Leaflet until October. The Editor wishes you all a happy and recreative summer. Do not forget you are a Catholic all the year through. And a Catholic is expected by the Church to be at Mass every Sunday, both summer and winter! Vale!

Parish Notes

AFTER AN ABSENCE of several months The Parish Bulletin makes its appearance to usher in another winter's work.

FATHER HORSFIELD is now in residence in the Rectory and is acting as Deacon of the Mass this morning. The Celebrant is the Rev. Carroll M. Bates, who has been on the Staff of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION will open its fifty-first triennial sessions in Atlantic City on Wednesday of this week. S. Clement's Choir will sing at the opening service Wednesday morning. A special train will leave Broad Street Station at 8.30 that morning, and returning from Atlantic City at 9.40 in the evening. The return fare is $1.25. The Bishop of the Diocese is eager that 20,000 attend the opening service from Philadelphia. Mr. Morris and Mrs. Mowry will give you any further information you may need.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is our Station Day in the Catholic Congress Cycle of Prayer. We shall keep the day also for God's blessing on the General Convention. As usual, it will be a day of continuous intercession before the Blessed Sacrament. A Chart is posted on the Bulletin Board in the Apple Tree Street entrance, and those who are able to give a half hour in prayer are asked to sign their initials against the time chosen. There will be public devotions at noon, and the day will close with further devotions and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 8.

THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN reports that for the first eight months of this year the cash offerings have amounted to $2,829.53, and the Duplex Envelopes have yielded $3,909.83, making a total of $6,739.36. In 1933 for the same period the cash offerings were $3,531.59, and the envelopes amounted to $3,377.75, or a total of $6,909.34. The offerings at this point are $170 less than last year.

APPEALS FOR THE EVERYMAN OFFERING, to help with the Church's Missionary deficit, were sent to 77 men of the Congregation. Returns have been received from 20. That seems to be a very low percentage. If you have forgotten to attend to your offering, there is still time to get it in. Extra envelopes will be found at the Bulletin Board.

NEW TRACT CASES, with sound cash boxes, have been installed in the Corridor at the Apple Tree Street end of the Church Porch. They are filled with very interesting and illuminating tracts. The newest English publications are always here. The new American series is very fine, dealing with present day social needs, and the new numbers appear in the Tract Case as they are published every month. The October number of The Diocesan News is an unusually excellent number and is filled with timely information about the General Convention.

SUNDAY EVENING VESPERS and Benediction will be resumed at eight this evening, preceded by Dr. Fry's Organ Recital. The Office will be sung to the traditional Plainchant, but the Hymns will be sung to their familiar tunes. Father Horsfield will preach Sunday evenings during October.

CONFESSION HOURS. The Father Rector will be in the Church for Confessions Friday afternoons from 3 to 5, and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9. Father Horsfield will be in the Church for Confessions Friday evenings from 7.30 to 8, Saturday afternoons from 3 to 5, and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9. The Priests are always glad to make special appointments for Penitents, when the regular hours are inconvenient.

FATHER EDWARDS is now in residence at S. George's Rectory, 6101 Cedar Avenue. His telephone is SHERwood 0186. He takes this means of thanking his many friends for their gifts on his leaving S. Clement's, and for their good wishes for his new work.

THE OPENING SERVICE OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION on Wednesday was a magnificent sight, a most devotional act of worship, and an occasion never to be forgotten. Fully forty thousand people were present in the great auditorium, and perhaps two thousand in the processions. A wonderful Altar and proper Baldichino, far more pretentious than that at the Catholic Congress in the Municipal Auditorium here last year, had been erected. The Choirs were massed behind the Altar, and the Sanctuary Choir that entered with the procession, was seated on either side. It was as worthy an act of worship as could possibly be offered through the medium of Morning Prayer. We must pray very earnestly that the next Convention may be opened with the Mass.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP preached a most eloquent and timely sermon. This has appeared in the newspapers, and will be reprinted separately. It bears close study and prayerful consideration. Its theme was: There must be no depression in the King's business.

THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of S. Luke, Evangelist. On Wednesday evening at 8, First Vespers of the Feast will be said in S. John's Chapel, followed by a brief address, and the simple form of Benediction. Since the Offices are no longer said publicly, such an opportunity will be given on the eves of the greater days. On the Feast Day there will be three Masses.

ON FRIDAY EVENING, the Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church, for all the Faithful Departed. This devotion, which we shall try to have monthly, is arranged especially for the members of the Guild of All Souls. The Holy Hour on the First Friday is the monthly devotion for the members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament.

ON SATURDAY of this week, the members of the General Convention are making a Pilgrimage to Philadelphia, and will spend the day in visiting our Churches and the places of historical interest. In the evening there will be a big dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, given under the auspices of the Church Club. The tickets are $2 apiece. Visitors will be admitted free of charge to the galleries.

OUR WEEKLY REQUIEMS will be said on Tuesday, the first free day in the week. Names for remembrance at these Masses may be handed or sent to the Priests.

THE SISTERS have need for a winter coat for a boy of ten, another for a boy of six, and coats for two girls of nine. There is always a demand for men's clothes, and particularly for shoes.

AN ORGANIZED DRIVE for Funds to maintain S. Elisabeth's Church for the next two years is now under way. This project has the special commendation and blessing of the Bishop. This is a most excellent Catholic work, both in the conduct of worship and administration of the Sacraments, and in its fine ministry to the bodies of the poor and needy in South Philadelphia. A number of our people here at S. Clement's are working in the drive, and I hope those who are able will give generously in support of it.

A CARD PARTY is scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 23rd. The proceeds will be given to the Poor Fund. There will be a prize for each table, and also a "door" prize. Tickets are 25 cents each, and refreshments will be ten cents extra. If you make up your own table of four, you may play any card game you choose.

Parish Notes

THE FIRST CARD PARTY of the season will be held in the Parish House next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The tickets are twenty-five cents each, and there will be an extra charge of ten cents for the refreshments. There will be a prize for each table, and also a door prize. The prizes are all new things which have been given for this purpose. Those who make up their own tables may play any card game they wish. Please come and bring your friends. The proceeds will be given to "The Poor Fund."

NEXT SUNDAY we shall be keeping the Feast of SS. Simon and Jude, Apostles. It is also the Feast of Christ the King. We shall keep the former Feast, and forego the latter this year. A Votive Mass of Christ the King will be said on the following Tuesday.

NAMES FOR REMEMBRANCE at the Masses on All Souls' Day should be handed to the Priests promptly. Blanks for your names and envelopes for your offering are to be found in the Rack at the Bulletin Boards. The lists of names are kept after All Souls' Day and are remembered again at one of the Low Masses of Requiem during the month.

THE BOHLEN LECTURES FOR 1934 will be delivered on successive Mondays, beginning October 29th, at 5 P. M., in Holy Trinity Church, 19th and Walnut Streets, by the Rev. Royden Keith Yerkes, Ph.D., D.D. The subject will be: The Quest of the Spirit. These lectures are open to the public.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S SMOKER, announced for Monday evening, October 29th, has been postponed until Tuesday evening, November 6th, at S. Elisabeth's Parish House, 16th and Mifflin Streets. Dr. Mockridge will speak on The General Convention. The election returns will be received over the radio.

THE ANNUAL RED CROSS DRIVE is now in swing, and Mrs. Mowry will be found in the Cope Room before and after Solemn Mass and Vespers for the next few weeks to receive subscriptions for 1935.

BISHOP SHERRILL OF MASSACHUSETTS SAYS: Many of us do not yet realize that the Church's mission is an integral and vital part of Christianity. Christ came as the Way, the Truth and the Life for all men, or else He did not come for you and me. We need greater appreciation of the message of Christ and of its application to the whole world and to every problem of life. . . . We are all missionaries in the fact of our Baptism, Confirmation, and especially in the case of the Priests, because of our Ordination. There can be no division into foreign, domestic, diocesan and parochial missions. It is one frontier, and we are all engaged in a common cause.

THE SOCIETY OF MARY is a Confraternity in the Church of England to promote amongst English Catholics the honour that is due S. Mary as the Mother of God. There is no similar society in the American Church. If any members of this parish, or any other, would like to associate themselves with their brethren in the Church of England in the Society of Mary, the Father Rector would be very happy to establish a Ward in S. Clement's. The annual dues will be fifty cents, and members receive the Society's quarterly publication, "Ave," whose latest issue will be found in the Tract Cases today.

SAINT CRISPIN

Saint Crispin was a shoemaker

Who lived in days of old;

An angel wore S. Crispin's shoes

To tread the streets of gold.

For he soled them with humility,

And stitched them with fidelity,

And waxed the thread with charity,

When so he wrought of old.

An Angel wore S. Crispin's shoes

To walk the golden way,

Perhaps I'd learn to follow him

Had I those shoes today.

O good S. Crispin, grant me grace

Such shoes as thine to wear,

All soled with sweet humility,

And sewn with true fidelity,

Waxed well with holy charity, -

And latched with prayer.

Parish Notes

NOVEMBER is a month of Feasts, beginning as it does with the great festival of all the Saints and closing on the note of our Patronal Festival. The Kalendar is issued today, and will require your close attention if you want to have a part in all the opportunities for worship, devotion and instruction that S. Clement's is offering you this month.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, First Vespers of All Saints will be said at 8 o'clock, to be followed by a short meditation and the simple form of Benediction. At the same hour on Thursday evening Vespers of the Dead will be said, to be followed by a brief address.

ON ALL SAINTS' DAYS there will be three Low Masses at the usual hours, and a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock.

ON ALL SOULS' DAY there will be three Low Masses of Requiem at the regular hours, and a Solemn Requiem at 11, to be followed by the Absolutions at the Catafalque. Names for remembrance at the Low Masses should be handed to the Priests at once. At the Solemn Mass only Priests, Benefactors and Communicants of the Parish are remembered.

THE COLLECTIONS on All Saints' Day are given to the All Saints' Sisters for their work at S. Anna's Home, and on All Souls' Day they are given to the Guild of All Souls.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept as usual on Friday evening from 8 to 9 o'clock, and there will be a social hour immediately after in the Parish House.

ABOUT FIFTY DOLLARS will be realized from last Tuesday evening's Card Party. We are very indebted to Mrs. Haselton and Miss Hurst for their very able management of it.

WHAT PRICE GLORY! The World War, all told, cost—apart from 30 million lives—400 billion dollars. With that money we could have built a $2,500 house, furnished it with $1,000 worth of furniture, placed it on 5 acres of land worth $100 an acre, and given this home to each and every family in the United States, Canada, Australia, England, Wales, Ireland, Scotland, France, Belgium, Germany and Russia. We could have given to each city of 20,000 inhabitants and over, in each country named, a five million dollar library and a ten million dollar university. Out of what was left we could have set aside a sum at five percent that would provide a $1,000 yearly salary for an army of 125,000 teachers and a like salary for another army of 125,000 nurses.—Nicholas Murray Butler.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will hold their first event of the winter on Tuesday evening, November 6th, with a Smoker at S. Elisabeth's Parish House, 16th and Mifflin Streets. The Rev. Dr. John Mockridge will speak about the recent General Convention. Election returns will be received over the radio during the evening. All the men of this Parish are most cordially invited. Here is a real opportunity for the laymen to do something really constructive for the Catholic Cause!

FATHER KNIGHT, Chaplain to the Sisters of the Holy Nativity at their Bay Shore house, was a guest in the Rectory this week. Fr. Otis, S.S.J.E., of the Staff at the Church of S. Mary the Virgin, in New York City, will visit us this week.

THE BARREL IN THE CHURCH CORRIDOR groans and yawns for your offerings of tinned goods and staple groceries. There is a constant demand for such things. The Sisters' supply shelves are quite empty. Will you not please help!

THE FATHER RECTOR wants to thank his many friends who sent cards and greetings for his birthday, and also those who contributed to the purse that was presented to him through Mrs. Pendleton.

Parish Notes

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet tomorrow evening. The Service and Instruction will be in S. John's Chapel at eight o'clock. Immediately after there will be a Social Hour in the Parish House.

THE SPEAKER at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock will be the Rev. J. Armestead Welbourn, of S. John's School, Japan. All the women of the congregation are urged to attend these monthly meetings of the Auxiliary. The Auxiliary is the Church's Missionary Society for her women.

AT THE NEEDLEWORK OF TODAY EXHIBIT at 1320 Walnut Street, under the auspices of the Society for the Preservation of Landmarks, the first prize in the Ecclesiastical Department was awarded to S. Clement's Church for the needlepoint cushions in our Lady Chapel. These cushions were the work and gift of Mrs. Sumner H. Cross.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE is still going on. Mrs. Mowry will be found in the Cope Room before and after the Solemn Mass on Sundays to receive your subscriptions for 1935.

THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, for the benefit of the Missionary Quota of our Parish, will be held in the Parish House Thursday afternoon and evening, December 6th. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Please mark this date on your Kalendar.

ON FRIDAY EVENING the Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church with the Intention for the repose of the souls of all the faithful departed. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will follow, and there will be the usual social time in the Parish House.

THE NAMES sent in for remembrance at the Masses on All Souls' Day will be reread at the several Requiem Masses during the rest of the month.

DO NOT FORGET the Regional Conference under the auspices of the Catholic Congress to be held here at S. Clement's on Wednesday, November 14th. Father Hughson will preach at the Mass.

THE DRIVE FOR S. ELISABETH'S CHURCH is being continued for another week. If any member of this congregation wishes to make a contribution to this most deserving work, the Father Rector will be glad to forward it to the proper authorities. It has been gratifying to see so many members of S. Clement's giving their time and work in this most worthy cause.

THE WORK OF REPAVING 20th Street is going on very steadily. With each such improvement we get a better view of how beautiful this section of Philadelphia will be some day. As one reaches the top of 20th Street just south of Arch, as they emerge from under the elevation, they are struck with the beauty and the spaciousness of the approach to the Parkway; and S. Clement's Church stands in the very midst of it all. We are very fortunate indeed to be in the very center of this vast project for the beautifying of our city.

NEXT SUNDAY will be the 16th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice at the close of the World War. The Father Rector will preach about "The Church Expectant." His subject this morning is "The Church Triumphant."

THE NOVEMBER ISSUE OF THE DIOCESAN NEWS will be found on the tables by the Tract Cases this morning. You are asked to put five cents in the Money Box for each copy that you take. It is an excellent number, with news about the General Convention, and S. Clement's is mentioned several times.

MEN! ATTENTION! MEN! The first meeting of the winter for the Catholic Laymen's Union will be held Tuesday evening at S. Elisabeth's Parish House at eight o'clock. It will be an informal smoker. Dr. Mockridge will speak about the General Convention. S. Elisabeth's is at the corner of 16th and Mifflin Streets. Mifflin Street is 1900 South. Take the trolley running south on 17th Street. Motorists can go south on Broad. Transportation from the Church here can be provided if the Father Rector is notified in advance.

Parish Notes

REQUIEM MASSES will be said on Monday, Tuesday and Saturday of this week. Names that were sent in for remembrance on All Souls' Day will be re-read at the Requiems during this week.

THERE WILL BE a meeting of the Vestry in the Clergy House on Tuesday afternoon at half-past four o'clock.

THE ANGLICAN AND EASTERN CHURCHES ASSOCIATION will be observing their seventieth anniversary on Wednesday. This society in the Church of England has worked for many years to promote understanding and conference between the Orthodox Churches of the East and the Church of England. The events of recent years that have drawn these two Churches into such close bonds of friendship and intercommunion have been due largely to the work of this Association. It is, unfortunately, little known in this country. Your prayers are asked for God's continued blessing on their work.

THE BESTOWAL OF THE AMERICAN EPISCOPATE was first instituted as a Feast Day in the Episcopal Church by the Order of the Holy Cross, who have kept it for many years, and have had an Office for it in their Breviary and Propers for the Mass. The day commemorates the Consecration of Samuel Seabury in Aberdeen, Scotland, as the first Bishop of the American Church.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK is the 150th anniversary of Bishop Seabury's Consecration. A Regional Conference under the auspices of the Catholic Congress has been arranged for Philadelphia and vicinity and will be held here at S. Clement's Church. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11.15 o'clock, when Father Hughson, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will preach. Four Cantors will sing Byrd's Mass for Three Voices. A Buffet Luncheon will be served after the Mass. There will be a charge of fifty cents for the Luncheon. Reservation should be made by telephoning RIT-1876.

BISHOP TAITT will preside at a Conference in the Parish House Wednesday afternoon immediately after the Luncheon, at about two o'clock. Father Hughson, O.H.C., will speak, and the Rev. Dr. Vernon, Rector of S. Mark's Church, will read a paper.

PLEASE MAKE THE EVENTS OF NEXT WEDNESDAY known to all of your friends. The day is designed to commemorate a really great event in the History of the American Church. The Speakers secured are the best our Church affords. It is an opportunity for Worship, Instruction and Fellowship.

THE NOVENA in preparation for our Patronal Festival begins on Wednesday. You are asked to say Our Father, Hail Mary and the Collect for Pentecost each day, for God's blessing on our Parish Life and Work. The Novena will be the Intention of all the Masses throughout the nine days.

ON FRIDAY we shall keep a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament as a part of our preparation for the Patronal Festival. The Sacrament will be Exposed in S. John's Chapel at 10 o'clock, and continue until the Service at 8 in the evening. A Chart will be found on the Bulletin Board in the Apple Tree Street entrance, and those who are able to give a half hour during the day for prayer and intercession are asked to put their initials against the period chosen.

THE MEMBERS OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY are asked to keep their day of prayer for the Missionary Work of the Church on Friday in connection with this day of prayer for the Parish. Tuesday is the day designated by the Auxiliary, but it is more convenient here to keep it on Friday.

LAST SUNDAY the Father Rector preached about the Church Triumphant. Today he is preaching about the Church Expectant. Next Sunday his subject will be the Church Militant.

Parish Notes

THE NOVENA, in preparation for the Patronal Festival, began last Wednesday, and is the intention of all the Masses through Thursday. Every one is asked to remember the Parish during these nine days, and to say an Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Collect for Pentecost, for the Parish, its life and its work.

EXTRA CONFESSION HOURS this week are arranged for Thursday. The Father Rector will be in Church in the afternoon from 3 to 5, and Father Horsfield in the evening from 7.30 to 8.

FIRST VESPERS OF THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL will be sung Thursday evening at 8. The Father Rector will preach. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given.

AT THE SOLEMN MASS on Friday, the Feast of our Patron, Dom Anselm Hughes, O.S.B., of Nashdom Abbey in England, will be the preacher. Dom Anselm visited us last year, and we all remember him with a great deal of pleasure. The Mass on S. Clement's Day will be one of Dom Anselm's own compositions, and the Credo will be from The Missa Brevis of G. P. da Palestrina.

DR. JOHN RATHBONE OLIVER will give a Lecture in the Parish House next Friday evening. His subject will be "An Evening with the Victorian Poets," and the young lady ushers will be dressed in gowns of the Victorian period. This Lecture is given under the auspices of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation of North Philadelphia. The Tickets are 50 cents.

BEFORE THE SOLEMN MASS next Sunday morning, the new Stations of the Cross will be solemnly blessed. The Music of the Mass will be Mozart's Seventh Mass in B flat.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING, there will be the usual annual procession of the Guilds, followed by a Solemn Te Deum and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The preacher will be the Reverend William P. S. Lander, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont.

THE COLLECT, EPISTLE and GOSPEL used today is that for the Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany. When there are more than 24 Sundays after Trinity, those between the 24th and the Sunday next before Advent are filled in with the Sundays after the Epiphany that were not used in the previous winter. This is in accordance with the rubrical direction in the Prayer Book.

MR. THERON BALL CLEMENT was elected at the Vestry meeting on Tuesday last to be the new Accounting Warden. He will succeed Mr. Sheldon Potter Ritter, who has served most faithfully for the past 12 years. The change will take effect on January 1st.

A PORTRAIT OF FATHER QUINN, done in pastels by the late Mrs. Anna W. Speakman, and given by her to Mrs. Mowry, has now been given by Mrs. Mowry to S. Clement's Church. It has been hung in the Sacristy of S. John's Chapel.

WE COMMEND TO YOUR PRAYERS AND YOUR GENEROUS GIVING the Welfare Federation Campaign. Church people are asked to remember, too, that several of our Church organizations are included in this Federation, and are urged to designate their gifts for such work.

YOUR VERY GENEROUS OFFERINGS are asked for the Parish during the Patronal Festival. We need $500 more than usual. We want to avoid even a small deficit at the end of the year.

It was about November tide An anchor round his neck they tied,
A long, long time ago, And cast him in the sea;
When good St. Clement testified And bravely as he lived he died,
The faith that now we know, And gallantly went free,
Right boldly then he said his say He rests—a many miles away,
Before a furious King; Yet here his name we sing,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day As all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.
Work in the mines they gave him then, Our fathers kept it long ago,
To try the brave old saint; And their request we make,
And there two thousand Christian men Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
With thirst were like to faint. For sweet St. Clement's sake;
He prayed a prayer, and out of clay And make his feast as glad and gay
He made the waters spring; As if it came in spring,
And therefore on St. Clement's Day When all upon St. Clement's Day
We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

THERE IS A DEFICIT so far this year of $764. Will you not please, each one, do all you can to wipe this out before December 31st?

INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS CARDS are for sale at the Sisters' House on Woodstock Street. They may be seen before or after any services in the Church, or by appointment with the Sister-in-charge.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR will be held on Thursday of this week. It opens at four in the afternoon. Useful and fancy articles will be for sale, candy, flowers, and household articles. Supper will be served from six to eight. Supper tickets are 50 cents.

MISS DEAN, who has worked for a number of years among the Italians in the Diocese, will speak at the Women's Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon at two. Every woman in the congregation is most cordially invited to attend these monthly missionary meetings.

THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will hold a meeting tomorrow evening at the Church Woman's Club, 132 South 22nd Street, to greet the new President and to hear her first address. S. Clement's is highly honoured in that both the new President and Vice-President belong to our congregation. Mrs. Cross has been elected to the former office and Miss Lea to the latter.

A QUIET DAY for the friends and Associates of the S. Margaret's Sisters will be held in their Mission House at 1831 Pine Street on Wednesday of this week. The Day begins with Mass at 8, and ends with the last meditation at 4. Father Gomph, Rector of Grace Church, Newark, will be the Conductor. If you wish to keep this day, please notify the Sister-in-charge.

WILL YOU NOT arrange to have your Supper here on Thursday evening, and drop in for a few minutes at the Christmas Bazaar? You will have a good supper, see many of your friends, and have a good opportunity to secure inexpensive but attractive gifts for the holiday season.

THE TRIDUUM FOR MISSIONS, now being kept, has been part of our Parish program for many years. Beginning with S. Andrew's Day and ending with the Feast of S. Francis Xavier, we say our prayers and offer our Masses for the Missionary Work of the Church. Are you doing your part?

THERE WILL BE A MASS at eight o'clock every day this week. There is a Mass at seven every day in the year. There will be a Mass at half-past nine on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

IT SEEMED BEST to postpone the Quiet Evening previously announced for last night. Since two such Quiet Evenings were being conducted under the auspices of the Committee on the Diocesan Celebration, it seemed out of order to have one here at the same time. It is hoped that S. Clement's was well represented both at S. James's Church and at the Church of S. Luke and The Epiphany. A Quiet Evening will be arranged for some date early in the new year.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept as usual Friday evening from eight to nine o'clock. The Rector would be very happy to see more people keep the First Friday of the Month as a day of special honour to the Mass and the Blessed Sacrament.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet tomorrow evening. After an instruction and Benediction in S. John's Chapel, there will be a social hour in the Parish House.

Parish Notes

THE CHILDREN'S MASS at 9.15 on Sundays, with the sung Propers, has not given a sufficient opportunity during the Mass for instruction. The High Altar seems so far removed from the children in the Choir, and the fifty to seventy-five people scattered over the body of the Church. We have now moved this Mass to S. John's Chapel. The Propers of the Mass will not be sung, but simple hymns instead. The arrangement of the Chapel will bring the children and the congregation closer to the Altar, and the Priest can give the instruction from the aisle. Holy Communion will be given as usual.

THE S. DUNSTAN SINGERS are a quartette of young men, three from our own Choir and one from the Choir of S. Paul's Church in Chestnut Hill, who are interested in the study of medieval Church Music, such as Plainchant and Polyphony. They sang the Requiem Mass here during the Catholic Congress, and also the Mass at the Seabury Anniversary. They will give a short recital of Medieval Church Music in S. John's Chapel next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Dr. Fry will give a short explanatory introduction to each group that will be sung. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given after the Recital.

A NEED HAS BEEN FELT for a long time for some suitable signs outside the Church, giving its name and the hours of services. Mr. Henry Hagert is now preparing designs for two such signs, one to be placed at the corner of 20th and Apple Tree Streets (facing south) and the other at the corner of 20th and Cherry Streets (facing east). When the designs are approved by the Vestry, they will be posted on the Bulletin Board. One of them is to be given by Miss Haffelfinger in memory of her sister, Mrs. Hagert. The other is still available as a memorial. They will be made of iron and steel, and will be quite worthy of the other beauties of S. Clement's.

FATHER WILLIAMS of S. Mary's in New York writes in his last Parish Paper: "Your Rector has for a long time urged a more general support of the parish through the weekly pledge envelopes. He has asked that those who can afford to give, let us say, only ten cents or twenty-five cents a week, nevertheless give that. Now it is more necessary than ever to insist that unless every one does what he or she can, we cannot hope to carry on. It can no longer be said, 'What does my little offering count in comparison with what Mr. B. or Mrs. C. gives?' They are the ones who support the Parish.' For the truth now is that Mr. B. and Mrs. C. no longer give large sums for this purpose, and very often give nothing at all. Regular giving to the Church is as much a Christian duty as saying our prayers, or making our Communions regularly." What the Rector of S. Mary's says to his congregation applies equally to us, and your Rector speaks to you with the same emphasis.

WHILE WE HAVE AN ENDOWMENT in the Parish, its income is too uncertain these days for us to depend upon it as we were once able to do. We are very dependent on the free-will offerings of our friends and visitors. Our deficit so far this year is $764. Will you not please help us with this before you begin to feel the financial pressure of Christmas pledges and gifts?

LAST YEAR the Sisters, through the response to the appeal for Christmas Charities, provided Christmas dinners for 25 families, and sent boxes of fruit and other dainties to 43 shut-ins. They also provided for the Christmas entertainments and parties. The Appeal for 1934 is now in your hands. What we can do this year depends on your response.

HE THAT TAKETH his own cares upon himself loads himself in vain with an uneasy burden. The fear of what may come, expectation of what will come, desire of what will not come, and inability of redressing all these, must needs breed him continual torment. I will cast my cares upon God; He hath bidden me; they cannot hurt Him; He can redress them. (Bishop Hall.)

Parish Notes

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY of this week are the Advent Ember days. They are days of Fasting and Abstinence. By public observance of these days at the four seasons of the year, the Church intends to remind the faithful that they are bound to remember in their prayers those about to receive the grace of Ordination, and not to be unmindful of those who are already in Holy Orders.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is also the Feast of S. Thomas, the Apostle. This will be kept as a Day of Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, in special preparation for the Feast of Christmas. The Sacrament will be exposed in S. John's Chapel from ten in the morning until eight in the evening. A Chart will be found on the Bulletin Board at the Apple Tree Street entrance of the Church for all who are willing to act as intercessors to sign their initials against the time chosen.

THURSDAY EVENING AT EIGHT, First Vespers of the Feast of S. Thomas will be said in the Chapel. There will be some hymns, a short meditation, and the simple form of Benediction will be given.

THERE WILL BE A MASS at both seven and eight o'clock every day this week, and another Mass at 9.30 on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

THIS AFTERNOON at four o'clock in S. John's Chapel the S. Dunstan Singers will give a recital of medieval music in both Plainchant and Polyphony. Dr. Fry will give a short explanatory introduction to each group. The hour will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THREE PLUM PUDDINGS, made by the President of the Woman's Auxiliary, are for sale at $1.25 each. They may be had at the Mission House on Woodstock Street, and the proceeds will be added to the Bazaar Fund. Since all the Bazaar returns have not been made, its total result cannot be given.

THERE HAS BEEN practically no response to the two announcements about the current deficit of $764. Perhaps you are all waiting to include your gift in your Christmas Offering. If everyone would give his share of this sum, and not wait for someone else to give it all, we could clear this small sum off our records at once.

THE COMMISSION ON MUSIC in this Diocese is sponsoring a series of four lectures by Dr. Sydney Nicholson, Founder and Director of the School of English Church Music, and Warden of the College of S. Nicholas in London. Dr. Nicholson is now making a world tour and will be in Philadelphia on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The evening lectures will be in Holy Trinity Parish House at 8.15, and the afternoon conferences in the Chapel of the Philadelphia Divinity School at three.

AN ELECTRIC CLOCK has been given by Miss Elizabeth Martin, and installed in the rear of the Church Corridor over the entrance to S. John's Sacristy and the Acolytes' room. We are very grateful for this much needed reminder of the "virtue of punctuality."

THE ANTIPHON TO THE MAGNIFICAT this evening is the first of The Great O's, O Sapientia. O Wisdom, which camest out of the mouth of the Most High, and reachest from one end to another, mightily and sweetly ordering all things: Come and teach us the way of prudence. These Antiphons are seven in number and continue through Vespers on December 23rd.

CHRISTMAS CONFESSIONS may be made next Sunday morning from ten to eleven and in the evening from 7.30 to 8. These hours are provided for those who come from a great distance, and to spare them the expense of another journey.

THERE WILL BE A PRIEST in the Church this morning from 10 to 11 and again this evening from 7 to 8 to hear Confessions.

THE CONFESSION HOURS tomorrow are from 10 to 12 in the morning, 3 to 5 in the afternoon, from 7 to 9 and from 10 to 11 in the evening. The Father Rector will be in his Confessional in the morning and again in the evening from 7 to 9. Penitents are asked to accommodate themselves to these hours as far as possible.

THERE WILL BE the usual Carol Service at 9 o'clock Christmas Eve, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the procession to the Crèche. The choir is singing one or two new Carols. For one of them Dr. Fry has composed the music, and it is being sung for the first time this year.

THE MID-NIGHT MASS will begin promptly at 12. The music of the Mass will be the Missa Marialis. Holy Communion will be given, and even with a great number of Communions, the Mass should not last much over an hour. Communicants will approach the Altar through the Choir gates, and leave the Altar after Communion by way of the Organ Vestibule or the Lady Chapel. While the Church requires fasting from mid-night only, it is expected that those who receive Holy Communion at this Mass will have spent the evening reverently, and in anticipation of the Holy Gift they are about to receive.

ON CHRISTMAS DAY there will be Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30. At the 8 o'clock Mass Christmas Carols will be sung. At the Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock, the Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei will be from Gounod's Mass of S. Cecilia.

ON WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and Friday, the Feasts of S. Stephen, S. John and the Holy Innocents respectively, there will be Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30; in fact there will be three Masses every day throughout the Octave of Christmas and until Epiphany.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY for the Parish will be held in the Parish House Friday evening. There will be a short Carol Service in the Church followed by Benediction, and at 8.30 we shall adjourn to the Parish House for a big party, the entertainment of which is being supplied through the kindness of Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Senior Warden of the Parish. The entertainers will be from some of the Recreation Centers in the city, and they will sing and dance; give several musical numbers, exhibitions of tumbling, and maybe a short play. Refreshments will be served. Every member of the Congregation is invited.

THE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY, under the direction of the Sisters, will be given Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5, in the Parish House.

THERE WILL BE a Carol Procession before the High Mass next Sunday morning. The Music of Christmas Day will be repeated on the Sunday in the Octave.

ON NEW YEAR'S EVE, S. Mary's Guild will have their Christmas Party. There will be a professional entertainment for them.

SAVE THE MONDAY EVENINGS in January for Fr. Gavin's Lectures on the Bible. Tell your friends about them.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1935 are now available in the Cope Room. If it is possible to increase your offering next year, will you not please do so. We want to increase the amount of our giving now at the beginning of the new year, so that we shall have no deficit to raise at the end of the year.

Christmas Day, 1934

Low Mass at 7, 8 and 9.30 A. M.

INTROIT—Light shall shine today upon us; for unto us is born the Lord: and he shall be called Wonderful, God, the Prince of Peace, Father of the World to come, and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Psalm. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself.

Glory be to the Father..... Light shall shine.....

GRADUALE—Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: God is the Lord who hath shewed us light. This is the Lord's doing: and it is marvellous in our eyes.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength. Alleluia.

OFFERTORY—God hath made the round world so sure: that it cannot be moved. Ever since the world began, O God, hath thy seat been prepared: thou art from everlasting.

COMMUNIO—Rejoice, O daughter of Sion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh: he is just, and having salvation for the world.

CAROL (Choir)—"The Light of Christmas Morn".....Henry S. Fry

The blasts of chill December sound
The farewell of the year,
And night's swift shadows gath'ring round
O'er-cloud the soul with fear;
But rest you well, good Christian men,
Nor be of heart forlorn;
December's darkness brings again
The Light of Christmas morn.

The welcome snow at Christmas-tyde
Falls shining from the skies;
On village paths and uplands wide
All holy white it lies;
It crowns with pearl the oaks and pines
And glitters on the thorn;
But purer is the Light that shines
On gladsome Christmas morn.

At Christmas-tyde the gracious moon
Keeps vigil while we sleep,
And sheds abroad her light's sweet boon,
On vale and mountain steep;
O'er all the slumb'ring land descends
Her radiance unshorn;
But brighter is the Light, good friend,
That shines on Christmas morn.

'Twas when the world was waxing old,
And night on Bethlehem lay,
The shepherds saw the heav'ns unfold
A light beyond the day;
Such glory ne'er had visited
A world with sin out-worn;
But yet more glorious Light is shed
On happy Christmas morn.

CAROL—"Let Us Now Go to Bethlehem".....Card
CAROL—"Venite Adoremus"Old English

The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright,
When Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
'Twas Mary, daughter pure of Holy Anne,
That brought into the world our God-made Man.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

She laid Him in a stall at Bethlehem,
The ass and ox shared the roof with them,
S. Joseph too was by to tend the Child,
To guard Him and protect His mother mild.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

The angel hovered 'round and sang this song,
Venite adoremus Dominum.
And thus that manger poor became a throne,
For He whom Mary bore was God the Son.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

O come then let us join the heavenly host,
To praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Parish Notes

A VERY BEAUTIFUL CAROL SERVICE has been arranged for this evening. The entire Choir of men and boys will take part. The Gospel story of the Nativity of our Blessed Lord will be read, and there will be a short sermon. There will be plenty of carols for the entire congregation to sing, so we hope you will help us fill S. Clement's with joyous Christmas praise this evening.

S. MARY'S GUILD will have their Christmas Tree and party in the Parish House tomorrow evening. There will be no service in the Chapel, but there will be a visit to the Creche before leaving for home.

TUESDAY IS THE FEAST OF OUR LORD'S CIRCUMCISION and a Holy Day of Obligation for all Catholic Christians. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, when Father Smith will be the Celebrant. It was a great pleasure to have him for the Celebrant on Christmas Day.

THERE WILL BE three Masses every day up to the Epiphany. 7, 8 and 9.30 are the hours for the daily Masses.

DUPLEX ENVELOPES. The Duplex Envelopes for 1935 are to be found in the Cope Room. They have been assigned to every one who had a set for 1934. About 245 sets were distributed for 1934. Out of this number 40 were never used at all, or not more than once. 20 sets are very badly in arrears. This places the regular support of the Parish on about 185 people. Isn't this grossly unfair? It is a very essential part of every Christian's duty to support the work of the Church, and to contribute to his Parish. Can we not have more regular contributors for the new year, even though the amount each contributor gives must be small? And will not those who now give regularly consider increasing their weekly pledge? We certainly ought not to reduce our Budget any further until we have made a Parish canvass in an effort to increase our income. This is a very, very serious matter, and constitutes a burden that you have no right to lay upon the Father Rector.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION Series of January Lectures will be given here on the Monday evenings as usual. The Subject of the Course this time will be "The Bible." The Rev. Dr. Frank Gavin, Professor of Ecclesiastical History at the General Seminary in New York City, will give all four lectures. The subjects are as follows:

- January 7th, "The Books of History."
- January 14th, "The Books of Prophecy."
- January 21st, "The Books of the Gospel."
- January 28th, "The Books of the Church."

This is a very timely subject, and Dr. Gavin is a recognized authority in our Church today. This is an excellent way in which to reach many of our non-Catholic friends, and to bring them within the sound of the Church's voice. We are THE "Bible Church," for the Bible is our Book. Do please be Missionaries, and bring your friends.

THE FATHER RECTOR and the Assistant Priests thank their many friends in the Parish for the beautiful Christmas Cards they have sent, and for the other expressions of their affection and good will.

THE PARISH KALENDARS for 1935 were delayed in the foreign mails, so they will not be ready for distribution until next week.

MAY THE NEW YEAR be one of real Spiritual progress for us all.

Parish Notes

WE HAD A MOST BEAUTIFUL Carol Service last Sunday evening. We shall be having another one, somewhat like it, tonight. The full Choir will assist. To many people the Epiphany Carols are more beautiful than the Christmas ones. There will be plenty of opportunity for the congregation to sing. If there was sufficient response, many Sunday evenings of this character might be arranged during the winter.

TOMORROW EVENING Dr. Gavin will give the first of Four Lectures on "The Holy Scriptures." His subject will be "The Books of History." A Silver Collection will be taken to defray the expenses of the course. Tickets may be had today from the Ushers at the rear of the Church.

THE ORGAN RECITAL tomorrow evening, before Dr. Gavin's lecture, will begin at 7.45 P. M., and will be played by Mr. Robert Jacoby, a student at the Virginia Theological Seminary. He is a member of the Parish of S. James the Less. He plans to pursue his study of music in England, after his Ordination.

WITH THE FIRST OF THE YEAR, Mr. Sheldon Potter Ritter has been succeeded by Mr. Theron Ball Clement as Accounting Warden of the Parish. We are very grateful to Mr. Ritter for his many years of painstaking work with the finances. It is a much harder and more exacting task than many members of the Congregation realize. We are very grateful to Mr. Clement for his willingness to take up the work, and welcome him into our official family.

THANKS TO YOUR GENEROUS RESPONSE to the several appeals made recently in the Weekly Leaflet, we were able to close the financial records of the Parish with a balance of several hundred dollars. Last year's deficit of eight hundred dollars remains, but we have not added to it this year. If every one could give just a little bit more during the course of the year, we would not have to make any special appeal at the end of the year, and there would be no deficits.

IF THE TWO HUNDRED SUBSCRIBERS to the Duplex Envelopes would increase their weekly giving by ten cents, it would increase our yearly income by $1,040. Twice that increase would restore the second Priest to the Staff, restore full salary to the Rector and the Choir Master, and enable us to expand the music, do some more advertising, and have an extra allowance for printing. The money is here. Will not each one try to do his share, week by week, through the Duplex Envelopes?

THE MISSIONARY OFFERINGS expected from the Parishes this year are allotted on a new basis. Heretofore our Quota has been $7900., which seemed to be an impossible sum to raise. This year we have given "on the Quota" about $3,500. The exact figures are not at hand. Our allotment from the Diocese for 1935 is fixed at $3,800. Surely we can give all of this, and the Father Rector has so pledged the Parish. An occasional extra offering in the Missionary side of your Duplex Envelope will help with this sum. We are far more interested in everybody having a share in these gifts, and each one giving his bit, than we are in having several people give it all.

THE COLLECTION AT THE SOLEMN MASS next Sunday morning will be the Annual Collection for the Parish Poor Fund. We expend from $75 to $100 a month from this account, and all of it goes to carefully investigated and worthy cases. Every penny is used in relief.

THE NEW OFFICERS FOR THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY were elected at their meeting last Wednesday. Mrs. Luckenbach, President; Mrs. Fritz, Vice-President; Miss Ball, Secretary; Miss Connelly, Treasurer.

Parish Notes

WE ARE VERY HAPPY to welcome the Very Reverend E. J. M. Nutter, D.D., Dean of Nashotah House, as the preacher at the Solemn Mass this morning. It is several years since the Dean has visited us, and he has come East now to attend the mid-winter meeting of the Alumni of Nashotah in New York City tomorrow. While he has not come to "beg," he is in need of funds to carry on his work, and offerings for Nashotah may be forwarded to him through the Father Rector or the Accounting Warden.

THE WOMEN OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA are invited to take part in a Missionary Day on Wednesday of this week, in Holy Trinity Church. The Bishop will be Celebrant at the Mass at 10.30, and Fr. Spence Burton, Superior of the Society of S. John the Evangelist, will be the preacher. Spirituals will be sung by members of the American Church Institute for Negroes. The noonday intercessions will be led by the Reverend Rector of S. Luke and The Epiphany.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON at 2 o'clock, at the regular monthly meeting of our own branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Wetmore from Christ School, Arden, North Carolina, will be the speaker. All the women of the congregation are cordially invited to attend these monthly missionary meetings.

THE TOTAL OFFERINGS IN THE PARISH during the month of January amounted to $935.84. Of this sum, $418.41 was received through the Duplex Envelopes and $212.23 through the loose offerings, making a total of $630.64 for Parish Expenses. The Poor Fund Collection amounted to $159.50, and $145.70 was given for Missions through the Envelopes. We expect to publish a summary of this kind every month.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House on Tuesday evening. Tickets are 25 cents, and refreshments will be served for 10 cents extra. Mrs. Rothwell and Mrs. Sholder are in charge of the arrangements. The proceeds will be given to Missions, but the main object of the Party is social. Tables can be made up for any card game. There will be prizes for all the tables, and a special "door-prize."

BECAUSE OF THE CANDLEMAS Procession on Friday evening, the Holy Hour was postponed until Friday evening of this week.

THE SISTERS OF S. MARY have opened a Hostel and Retreat House at 407 West 34th Street in New York City. A single room with breakfast may be had for $2. There are special rates for the week. Lunch and dinner is also served. Members of S. Clement's have been especially invited to use the Hostel, and reservations can be made in advance by writing to the Sister-in-Charge.

TODAY IS THE FEAST OF S. BLASE, so we shall follow our usual custom of blessing throats after all the Masses. This custom is said to owe its use to a miracle in which S. Blase healed a youth who was about to choke to death. In our use of the blessing, prayer is made to God that He will keep the one receiving the blessing "from all diseases of the throat and every other evil."

IT IS SOMETIMES OBJECTED to the use of blessings of this sort that they are "superstitious." Doubtless they may be so, if they are used in such a way, for prayer, the Bible, the Holy Sacraments can become superstitious if we forget that the God we worship is our Heavenly Father and a God of Love. We are not able to force God by any prayer or blessing to do our will: we can only open up to Him our hearts and minds that His will may be done. In this respect the blessing of S. Blase rests upon the same basis as all prayer, and all "faith healing"—trust in God's love. So employed, we may indeed find a blessing, and healing too, in having our throats blessed on S. Blase's Day.—Adapted.

CHANGE IN THE STAFF

THE REVEREND FATHER HORSFIELD has been called to the Rectorship of S. Paul's Church, Savannah, Georgia, and will be leaving us at the end of this month to take up this new work. We congratulate him, and S. Paul's, and wish him every success. His place on the Staff will be taken by the Reverend F. Rolland Severence, who served on our Staff in 1925-1926. Fr. Severence left us then to become a member of the Faculty of Nashotah House, where he has continued to serve until now. Owing to a reduction in the Staff at Nashotah, Fr. Severence is free to return to us, and we shall give him a most hearty welcome.

Parish Notes

THE COLLECTION RECEIVED at the Solemn Mass this morning is the Annual Offering for The Poor Fund. Many of our people are unemployed and in real need, and we must help them. We expend between $75 and $100 every month in aiding cases that are known to us. Every penny you give helps some needy person. May we not please have your generous support?

THE NEW ACCOUNTING WARDEN, Mr. Clement, requests that every one who expects to use the Duplex Envelopes during 1935 will please sign the little Pledge Card to be found in the envelope box and return it on the collection plate as soon as possible. This will give him the names and addresses of subscribers, and will also help us in estimating the probable income for the Church for this year.

SIGNING THE PLEDGE CARD, for your Duplex Envelope offering, is not like signing a note with a "solemn promise to pay." When you sign the card, you are simply saying that you will give this certain sum as long as you are able to do so. The signing of the card is your promise to do the very best you can.

THE TREASURER OF THE ALTAR FLOWER FUND reports that during the year 1934 she received $158.10 from members of the congregation, and that she has expended $143.25, which leaves a balance on hand of $14.85. Contributions for the current year may be sent to Miss Connelly, or marked for the "Flower Fund" and put on the collection plates.

THE SISTER MARY KATHLEEN, Sister in Charge of the Mission Work of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity in the Parish, reports that she received $283.50 in response to the appeal for the Christmas Charities. 25 Christmas dinners were sent out, 36 boxes to invalids and shut-ins, refreshments were provided for 3 Christmas parties, and gifts for the children of the Sunday-School were bought, amounting to a total expenditure of $222.26. The balance of $61.24 has been added to The Poor Fund. To the 61 members of the Congregation who gave so generously to this work we are most grateful.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, the Choral Club of the Musical Art Society of Camden will give their annual recital at S. Clement's. Dr. Fry is the Director of this Society, and he will intersperse the choral numbers with the Organ. The Father Rector will give a short address on "The Rite of Benediction," and the evening will close with Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The silver offering is for the work of the Society.

A FAIR CONGREGATION was present last Monday evening for the first of Dr. Gavin's four lectures on "The Holy Bible." His subject was "The Books of History." It was a brilliant lecture, and those who were here were more than repaid for their effort in coming. The second on "The Books of Prophecy" will be given tomorrow evening. Before the lecture, Mr. Henry Enders Kerr, a member of S. Clement's and organist at the Church of the Annunciation, will give a half-hour's Organ Recital. The silver offering taken at these lectures is expected to cover the honorarium for the lecturer and the expense of advertising.

AT THE MEETING OF THE VESTRY last Tuesday, a resolution was unanimously adopted in appreciation of Mr. Ritter's faithfulness in his office of Accounting Warden. Another resolution was passed, expressing appreciation of the services of the late William Weaver Lukens, who was a member of the Vestry for many years.

THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN has established an office on the third floor of the Parish House, and will conduct all the business of the Parish from this address. The services of a part-time Parish Secretary have been secured, to assist in the details of his work.

NOTICE

The Parish Kalandars for 1935 are now ready for distribution, and may be found in the Cope Room before and after all Services today.

Parish Notes

DOCTOR GAVIN will be giving the third of his lectures on "The Holy Scriptures" tomorrow evening at 8.15. The subject will be "The Books of the Gospel." The lecture will be preceded by an Organ Recital at 7.45, given by Dr. Fry. Here is an opportunity for the members of our congregation to do some real missionary work. Invite your friends, and bring them with you, to the two remaining lectures in this series. Dr. Gavin is without doubt the foremost scholar in the American Church today. "The Bible" is a most timely subject. It is too bad that every Churchman in the city of Philadelphia is not hearing these lectures.

THE CHURCH UNITY OCTAVE continues through Friday of this week, the Feast of the Conversion of S. Paul. It will be the Intention of the Mass each day. Please say the prayer "For the Unity of God's people" on page 37 in the Prayer Book, and use it every day for God's special blessing on all efforts to promote the Reunion of Christendom.

DURING THE YEAR 1934 there were 986 Masses offered in S. Clement's Church, and 11,792 Communion made at our Altars. The Blessed Sacrament was carried to the Sick on 126 occasions.

MRS. JOHN M. GLENN, President of the Family Welfare Association of America, and President of the National Church Mission of Help, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions, to be held at Holland's Restaurant, 114 N. 19th Street, on Monday, January 28th, at 12.30 o'clock. The meeting will be open to all interested persons. Reservations may be secured at 75 cents each from Mr. Geo. R. Bedinger, 311 S. Juniper Street.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS MEMBERSHIPS for 1935 are now due. The work of the Catholic Congress is a most important work, and never was their work so essential to the Catholic Cause as it is today. The Liberal forces in the Church are lining up in a very formidable array, and Anglo-Catholics seem to be "asleep." Catholic propaganda cannot be pursued without money. Members of the Congress are urged to renew their subscriptions promptly, and to give more than one dollar wherever it is possible. It will greatly facilitate the keeping of accurate records if these subscriptions are placed on the collection plates. They will be forwarded at once to Fr. Kennedy, and the membership cards will be distributed. It is expected that every member in our Congregation will renew his subscription, and it is hoped that every member will do it now.

OUT OF 600 SEATS IN THE CHURCH, but 49 of them are rented. Fifteen of these 49 are never occupied by the renters. It seems too bad that any one should be made to feel unwelcome when they happen by accident to get into a rented seat. There are six undesignated pews on the right hand side of the middle aisle in the front of the Church, and nine on the left hand side. The left hand side, towards the front, is very sparsely filled on Sundays; it is suggested that regular attendants use these seats, and leave some more of the seats further back in the Church free for the ushers to give to visitors.

AT THE MEETING OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Paul Franklin Mowry of our Parish was elected President of the Woman's Aid, and Miss Esther Ball, also of S. Clement's, was elected Treasurer. The Parish is honoured in having these high offices bestowed on members of our Congregation, and we extend them our congratulations and assure them of our prayers.

THE DEAN OF THE NORTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION will be the Preacher at the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning. He comes to tell us of the Church's work in our part of the city and not to beg money. It is hoped that a large congregation will welcome our Dean to S. Clement's.

Parish Notes

WE WELCOME THE DEAN of the Convocation of North Philadelphia as our Preacher this morning. Dean Stockman is thoroughly in touch with all the work of our Church in the northern section of Philadelphia, and we are very eager to hear him tell of the Missionary work the Diocese is doing all about us. He is not asking us for any money, but hopes to stimulate our interest in the Church's general missionary programme.

TOMORROW EVENING the Reverend Doctor Frank Gavin will close his series of lectures on "The Holy Scriptures" with "The Books of the Church," in which he will deal with the Acts of the Holy Apostles and the Epistles. Unfortunately the subject of this course does not seem to have struck the "popular appeal" and consequently we have had small congregations; but those who have come have been well repaid, and the Bible will certainly have new meaning for them. Dr. Gavin is repeating this course during Lent at S. Ignatius's Church in New York City.

THE ORGAN RECITAL tomorrow evening before Dr. Gavin's lecture will be played by Mr. Donald Wilcox, the Organist at S. Elizabeth's Church in South Philadelphia. Those who heard Mr. Wilcox's brilliant playing last year will want to hear him again tomorrow night at 7.45.

DO NOT FORGET the Christian Social Service Luncheon at Holland's Restaurant tomorrow noon at 12.30. Mrs. Glenn is to be the speaker. Tickets are 75 cents each.

SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary, popularly called "Candlemas." In addition to the three Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11.

THE SOLEMN BLESSING OF CANDLES and the Candlemas Procession will be held on the eve of the Purification, Friday of this week at 8 P. M. The full Choir will sing the Office and take part in the Procession. After a brief address, Benediction on the Blessed Sacrament will be given. The Holy Hour is postponed until the following Friday.

NEXT SUNDAY is S. Blase's Day, and throats will be blessed after all the Masses.

THE PREACHER NEXT SUNDAY MORNING will be the Very Reverend E. J. M. Nutter, D.D., Dean of Nashotah House. It is several years since the Dean has visited S. Clement's, and we are very happy to welcome him here once more. He comes East at this time to be present at the meeting of the Eastern Convocation of the Alumni of Nashotah House which meets the next day at the Church of the Transfiguration in New York City.

YOUR ATTENTION IS DRAWN to three items in the February Kalendar. There will be a Card Party, Tuesday evening, February 5th. The Tickets are 25 cents each, and refreshments will be ten cents extra. The proceeds will be given to the Missionary Quota. The pre-Lenten Quiet Evening for Women will be given by the Father Rector on Saturday evening, February 16th, beginning at five o'clock, and closing at nine. Reservations for Supper should be made with the Sisters. Some few of our young people will present a Dramatic Play, under the direction of Mrs. J. Alvin Thomas, on Wednesday evening, February 27th. The proceeds of this entertainment will also be given to Missions.

THE MEN OF THE CONGREGATION are invited to a Dinner to be given at Kugler's Restaurant on Monday evening, February 25th. This Dinner will be given under the auspices of the Catholic Laymen's Union. Bishop Wyatt Brown of Harrisburg will be the speaker of the evening. Please save this date.

Parish Notes

AN APPEAL IS MADE for clothes for babies, and also some warm dresses for women are needed. There is always a demand for men's clothing, and for shoes of all kinds. These things may be placed in the Barrel in the Corridor.

ABOUT SIXTY people came out for the Card Party last Tuesday evening. Many others were detained by the bad weather. The proceeds will be given towards our Missionary Pledge. The final amount realized by the Christmas Bazaar was $281.

ON LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY there will be a Solemn Mass and Procession of Acolytes' Guilds in the Church of S. Mary the Virgin in New York City. Fr. Williams will be the preacher, and there will be a buffet luncheon in S. Joseph's Hall.

THERE WILL BE A QUIET EVENING FOR WOMEN on Saturday of this week, beginning with Vespers at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The first meditation will follow Vespers, then Supper (fifty cents) and the second meditation at 7.30. The last of the three meditations, to be given by the Reverend Father Rector, will be at 8.30. It is suggested that those who keep these quiet hours try to prolong the quiet time until after they have received Holy Communion Sunday morning.

THOSE WHO WISH A RESERVATION for Supper at the Quiet Evening on Saturday should communicate with the Sisters of the Holy Nativity at SPR-2044. A charge of fifty cents is made to cover the cost of the supper.

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS is not necessarily a Lenten Devotion, although it is a most appropriate one for the Forty Days. It is our custom to say the Stations one Friday evening each month, with the special intention for the repose of the souls of all the faithful departed. As the Holy Hour on the first Friday is under the auspices of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, so the Stations are said on behalf of the departed under the auspices of the Guild of All Souls. Members of the congregation are urged to walk in the procession, and really make the Way of the Cross.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS are coming in very slowly. They are now due for 1935. The need for the Congress's work is very great, but what it can do depends on the memberships. The only money the Congress has to work with is what is received in this way. The Father Rector is a member of the central committee of the Congress, and he urges your prompt renewals.

A DEVOUT RHYME

(After George Herbert)

"Christ is all, and in all" (Col. 3: 11)

"Her light was clear as crystal.....The city was pure gold, like unto clear crystal.....The street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glory" (Rev. 21: 11, 18, 21).

The Heavenly City gleams with CHRIST-ALL clear,
For in CHRIST ALL is found that men hold dear:
CHRIST ALL my joy and never-fading pleasure,
CHRIST ALL my Love, and my heart's only Treasure,
CHRIST ALL my Light—Lord, open Thou mine eyes,
CHRIST ALL my Life—and all else in me dies.
Lord, dare I—chief of sinners—hope to stand
Amid Thy ransomed saints' adoring band
In the pure splendour of the CHRIST-ALL Land.—J. Wylde.

Parish Notes

BISHOP MORELAND, the retired Bishop of Sacramento, who is assisting Bishop Taitt, will visit us next Sunday evening, to give the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is hoped that a large congregation will be present, to assist with their prayers those now receiving this Sacrament, to revive the memory of their own solemn promises, and to welcome the Bishop to our Parish.

THE MEN OF THE CONGREGATION are reminded of the dinner to be given next Monday evening at Kugler's Restaurant, under the auspices of the Catholic Laymen's Union. The tickets are $1, and it is hoped that a goodly number from S. Clement's will be in attendance. The Father Rector has tickets for sale.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 27th, some of our young people are giving a Play in the Parish House, under the direction of Mrs. J. Alvin Thomas. Tickets are on sale today, at 25 cents each. The proceeds will be added to our Missionary offerings.

THE ENGLISH MISSAL is a small volume recently printed in England which contains the Propers as well as the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for all the Saints' Days in the Kalendar. The Altar Edition of this Missal has just been printed, and as soon as it is bound we hope to use it here at S. Clement's on all the days for which the Book of Common Prayer does not provide. Copies of the people's edition may be purchased in the Cope Room. As soon as we begin to use it, the page on which the Mass for the day is to be found will be published in the Weekly Kalendar and posted each day on the Hymn Board by the Lady Chapel.

FRIDAY, MARCH THE FIRST, will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, with the special intention for God's blessing on our Parish life and work during Lent. Please come for a half hour or so, and pray for yourself and others, as well as for S. Clement's.

A MISSION STUDY CLASS for Lent is in the course of organization. It will be conducted by the Sister Mary Kathleen of the Sisters of the Holy Nativity; the subject will be "Japan"; and the place of meeting will be S. Clement's Mission House, 110 North Woodstock Street. If you are interested in the Study of Missions, will you please speak to one of the Sisters, or to Mrs. Edwin M. Luckenbach, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, under whose auspices the course is to be given.

OF S. ANTHONY AND OF THINGS LOST AND FOUND:

I often think S. Anthony	Some things there are, lost every day,
Must toil with might and main	We never find again,
To gather up the things we lose	As when perchance we lose our hearts
And bring them back again.	Or when we lose our train.
We leave umbrellas on the bus,	But if we lose our tempers
And parcels in the train.	We shall never pray in vain,
But always good S. Anthony	If we pray to good S. Anthony
Can bring them back again.	To bring them back again.

—Jessie Bayes.

THE PASSION AND RESURRECTION OF CHRIST is the subject of an exhibition of Illustrations of New Testament themes by great Masters represented in the Rosenwald Collection of Prints, now being exhibited at The Pennsylvania Museum of Art, which is open Monday, Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday from 10.30 to 5 o'clock.

Parish Notes

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will give a Dinner tomorrow evening at Kugler's Restaurant at seven o'clock. More than 125 have already made reservations. The speaker of the evening will be Bishop Wyatt Brown of Harrisburg. The Father Rector has but a few tickets left.

A SPECIAL MEETING of representatives from the Women's Aid of the Convocation of North Philadelphia will meet in the Parish House Tuesday afternoon. Plans are already under way for next June's Garden Party.

WEDNESDAY EVENING at 8.15 a group of our young boys and girls will appear, under the direction of Mrs. L. Alvin Thomas, in a dramatic event, entitled, "Love a la Carte." The tickets are 25 cents each, and the proceeds will be given to our Missionary Offering.

THE CARD PARTY given two weeks ago under the direction of Mrs. Rothwell and Mrs. Sholder cleared $50 for Diocesan Missions.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament, with special intention for God's blessing on our preparations for a Holy Lent in the Parish. A Schedule for Intercessors will be found on the Bulletin Board at the Apple Tree Street entrance; please put your initials opposite the half-hour chosen.

THERE WILL BE A DIOCESAN PRE-LENTEN DEVOTIONAL MEETING for men next Saturday at Holy Trinity Church. There will be two Services, one at 4 and the other at 7.45, under the leadership of the Rev. Ernest C. Earp, Rector of the Church of the Redeemer in Bryn Mawr. It is hoped that S. Clement's laymen will be well represented.

FATHER HORSFIELD leaves us tomorrow for his new post as Rector of S. Paul's Church in Savannah, Georgia. Our best wishes and our prayers go with him.

Parish Notes

SINCE WE NOW HAVE the full Kalendar published each month, and a weekly resume of services appears in each issue of the Sunday Leaflet, it seems quite unnecessary to publish any Lenten Folder. There is nothing unusual in our Lenten schedule, but we do want to draw your attention to the regular routine that will be maintained during the next few weeks.

THERE WILL BE TWO MASSES EVERY DAY. One at 7, and a second at 8 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday the second Mass will be at 9.30. On Wednesdays at 10, the devotions for "penitence and prayer" put out by the Catholic Congress will be used.

FRIDAY EVENINGS AT 8, the Stations of the Cross will be said, followed by a short liturgical instruction on the special rites and ceremonies of Lent and Holy Week, to be given by the Father Rector. This in turn will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE MASSES ON SUNDAY WILL BE AS USUAL. Solemn Vespers will be sung at 8, when Fr. Severence will preach, and Benediction will be given.

FREQUENT ATTENDANCE at the Daily Mass is urged upon all the members of the Congregation for the first item of their Lenten Rule. Then the Friday evening devotions are of the next importance. And do please consider very seriously coming to Sunday evening Vespers. People do not come out Sunday evening simply because they are "out of the habit." Lent is just the time to get back into the habit. Vespers at S. Clement's is a most beautiful and inspiring service, both musically and liturgically; and you always hear a good sermon.

ON SHROVE TUESDAY, the Father Rector will be in his Confessional from 10 to 12 in the morning and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Father Severence will attend his Confessional from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

ON ASH WEDNESDAY the Low Masses will be at the usual hours of 7, 8 and 9.30. The High Mass will be at 11, and Solemn Vespers will be sung in the evening at 8. The Father Rector will preach in the morning at the end of Mass, and Fr. Severence will preach in the evening.

ASHES WILL BE IMPOSED upon the faithful before and after all of the services on Ash Wednesday. The faithful are asked to come to the Communion Rail and kneel there for the imposition of the ashes.

ON ALL DAYS IN LENT when a Feast of the Double Class occurs, the first Mass of the day will be of the Feast and the second Mass will be of the Greater Feria, that is, of the particular Lenten day. Feasts of a greater degree are kept at all the Masses and the Lenten Day is commemorated, and in both of these instances the Last Gospel is the Gospel for the Greater Feria. If the Feast be one of lesser degree than a Double, a simple commemoration is made at the Violet Mass.

AT THE MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY on Ash Wednesday afternoon at 2, the Reverend Ernest A. Rich, Church Chaplain at the County Prison, Holmesburg, will be the speaker.

A MISSION STUDY CLASS, with Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N., as leader, will meet Thursday evenings during Lent at 7.45, at S. Clement's Mission House, 110 N. Woodstock Street.

Parish Notes

WE EXTEND A MOST HEARTY WELCOME to the Reverend Father Severance who has returned to our Staff. Father Severance was with us at S. Clement's in 1925 and 1926, and was called from here to a place on the Faculty of Nashotah House. Because of the economic pressure, Nashotah House has had to curtail its Staff, so Father Severance was free to return.

THE REVEREND FATHER VAN COUENHOVEN, who has been staying with us for a few months, has been called to the Rectorship of S. Matthew's Church in Hallowell, Maine. We wish him every blessing in his new work.

THE TOTAL AMOUNT of the Collections for the month of February was $785.75. Of this sum $613.85 is for Parish Support, $500.82 being given through the envelopes and $113.03 in loose money on the plates. $171.90 was given for Missions. The offering at Confirmation was about $25 and this has been sent to the Bishop.

THE LENDING LIBRARY that has been standing in the South Room of the Parish House, on the Second Floor, has been moved to the Mission House on Woodstock Street, where the Sisters will be happy to help you in a choice of suitable reading material for Lent.

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL DIOCESAN Lenten Preaching Mission is being conducted this year in Holy Trinity Church on Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock. The preacher next Thursday evening will be the Rev. Arthur Lee Kinsolving, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church in Boston. The following Thursday, the Dean of S. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit is to be the Missioner.

MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION whose names are not on our records, and especially those who consider themselves as belonging to S. Clement's, are urged to make themselves known to the Father Rector. In the past few weeks the Priests have been called upon to minister to two families who were entirely unknown to them, either by name or faces, but who had been coming here for a long time. Our unfamiliarity with these families caused embarrassment on both sides. We are glad to help our friends, and to be of service to all who may need our help, but we would like to know the members of the Congregation who consider this their Parish, and who have never asked to be enrolled, so that when an emergency arises and we are called on for help, we may be fully aware of who it is that is calling, and be able to meet them as friends in their hour of need.

ABSTINENCE means abstaining from flesh meat. Every Friday in the year is a day of Abstinence. Fasting means taking less than the ordinary amount of food, and includes Abstinence. So the Forty Days of Lent are days of Fasting. But this strict rule is generally relaxed, and the faithful are enjoined to eat less food every weekday during Lent, and to abstain from flesh meat on Wednesdays, Fridays and the Ember Saturday in Lent.

THE LENTEN EMBER DAYS occur next week on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. While their primary purpose is to pray for those about to be ordained to the Ministry of the Church, you are urged to pray for all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and especially for the Priests of your own Parish.

COMMUNISM is but Paganism carved in a new fashion. Communism is spreading insidiously all over the world like a disease. In Communism the aim is to provide comfortable conditions for man as an animal. It seeks to provide these things by destroying all initiative of the individual. The antidote to Communism is not force; it is light.—Bishop Maxon.

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Baptismal Song.....Meyerbeer-Best

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"Forty Days and Forty Nights".....No. 92

INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy Him.

Psalm. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Glory be to the Father..... He shall call upon me.....

KYRIE—Adapted from the Serbian Liturgy.....Sebastian Dabovitch
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, pages 125 and 126 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High; shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty: I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold; my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter; and from the noisome pestilence: He shall defend thee under his wings; and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler; thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee: For he shall give his Angels charge over thee; to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands; that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone: Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my Name: He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

DO NOT FAIL TO RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP IN THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS. THE MOVEMENT NEEDS YOUR HELP—YOUR PRAYERS AND YOUR CONTRIBUTION OF MONEY.

Parish Notes

THE LITTLE RETREAT to be given this afternoon in S. John's Chapel is under the auspices of the Associates of the Companions of the Holy Saviour, and is for both men and women. The members of our congregation are invited to join them. The Conductor will be the Rev. George La Pla Smith, Vicar of S. Augustine's Chapel in New York City. The first meditation will be at 2.30, and tea will be served in the Parish House at 5.30.

THE ANNUAL QUIET DAY for the Members of S. Mary's Guild and their friends will be held, as usual, on Thursday of this week. Fr. Smith will give the meditations, at 10.30, 12 and 2. The Day begins with the Mass at 9.30, and closes with the address at 2. A collation will be served in the Parish House at 12.45. No invitations have been sent out, but if you wish a place at lunch, please notify the Sisters at SPR-2044.

THE SEVEN SORROWS OF OUR LADY, whose Feast we keep on Friday of this week, are: The Prophecy of Simeon; The Flight into Egypt; The Losing in the Temple; The Meeting with Jesus on the Way to Calvary; The Death on the Cross; The Deposition from the Cross; and The Burial of Jesus in the Sepulchre.

FIVE HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS was contributed by members of S. Clement's to the Drive for S. Michael and All Angels' Home for Coloured Crippled Children. Miss Williams was Chairman of the Parish Committee and was assisted by Mrs. Mowry, Mrs. Luckenbach, Miss Ball, Miss Connelly and Miss Hopkins.

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH is not a rich parish. In a real sense our services are supported by the voluntary offerings of those who worship here and value the Catholic privileges which we offer to the faithful. Unless our friends and parishioners give, and give liberally, to the work of the Parish, much of that work will have to be curtailed or abandoned.

EASTER DAY GIVES US ANNUALLY the opportunity for an act of real self-sacrifice in giving as generously as we can to the support of our Parish. A satisfactory offering means that every one who comes to S. Clement's to worship must give liberally in a spirit of real self-sacrifice. If you have denied yourself during Lent, you should have something to give to your Church in honour of the glorious feast of Easter and in thanksgiving to God for the privileges of the Catholic Religion. All offerings on Easter Day, whether in special envelopes or not, are counted for the Easter Offering.

THE HOURS FOR CONFESSIONS NEXT WEEK were listed in the Monthly Kalendar printed in last week's Bulletin. The Father Rector will attend his Confessional Wednesday afternoon and evening, Thursday morning, Friday morning and evening, and Saturday morning and evening. Fr. Severance will be in his Confessional, Thursday afternoon and evening, Friday afternoon, and Saturday afternoon and evening.

MISS PLATT AND MISS THOMPSON have resigned as Secretary and Treasurer of S. Clement's Branch of the Guild of All Souls. It was with great regret that their resignations were accepted, for they were most faithful and efficient officers. Their successors have not as yet been appointed, so the members are asked to hand their dues for the new year to the Fr. Rector, or to put them, properly marked, on the collection plates.

A FINE ASSORTMENT OF NEW TRACTS for Passiontide and Holy Week appear in the Tract Cases today. We expect a new lot of Anglo-Catholic Prayer Books in time for Easter presents, and The English Missal for the Laity is a very suitable gift for Easter. These Books will be found in the Cope Room.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"The Royal Banners Forward Go"...No. 96

INTROIT—Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

Psalm. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.
Give sentence with me.....

KYRIE—Adapted from The Serbian Liturgy.....Sebastian Dabovitch
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 132 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

TRACT—Many a time have they fought against me; from my youth up: may Israel now say; yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me; the plowers ploughed upon my back: and made long furrows; but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

According to the Missal

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succour far from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

Psalm. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

GRADUAL—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipped. And why, I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorn. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—(Traditional: VI Century).....Plainchant

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

HYMN—"Onward, Christian Soldiers".....No. 391

Notes

S. Clement's Church and its Services are largely supported by the voluntary offerings of its worshippers. If you value the Faith for which S. Clement's stands, and the Spiritual opportunities offered here, will you not please give generously through the Collection today and Easter?

At the Office of Tenebrae this year only the First Nocturn will be sung, to be followed by Lauds. The Miserere will be sung to a Polyphonic setting with Fauxbourdons.

Offerings of money for flowers for the Altar of Repose and for Easter may be sent to the Rectory.

Parish Notes

THE PARISH PRIESTS wish you all joy and happiness in the blessed Feast of Easter. A well spent Lent means a Holy Easter-tide. May the Risen Lord's Easter Peace abide with you always.

THE OFFERINGS TODAY are for the Running Expenses of the Parish, and they will determine our plans for the immediate future. Please give liberally, as the Lord hath prospered you, that His work in this Parish will not have be curtailed in any way.

WE ARE MOST GRATEFUL to our good neighbor, Dr. Mockridge, who preached the Passion for us so acceptably and helpfully on Good Friday.

SOME WOMEN OF THE PARISH, under the able direction of Miss Emma F. Neilson, met on Friday mornings during Lent and sewed for the Sewanee Mountain Mission of the Sisters of S. Mary. Last week they sent the following results of their Lenten work: 6 dozen dish towels, 2 dozen napkins, 22 aprons, 6 pairs of bloomers, 6 dozen pencils, 4 dozen turkish towels, 4 dozen wash cloths and 1 dozen hand towels. The members of the group contributed $51 and the full amount was spent for materials.

DISCIPLES OF THE LIVING CHRIST is the title of the Post-Easter manual set forth by the Church's Forward Movement. Those of you who used their Lenten manual will be glad to continue your devotions with these further helps. Lent is meant to prepare us for the Easter Feast, so that we may be impelled by its power to go forward. Easter is not the end of Lent. It is just the beginning of the advance that Lent has prepared us to undertake.

THIS IS A BELATED REPORT of the Church Offerings for the five Sundays in March. The total sum of the month's collections amounted to $1,008.11. Of this, $592.84 was given for the Parish through the Duplex Envelopes and $214.92 was given in loose currency. The Missionary offerings were $200.35.

THERE WILL BE A CONGREGATIONAL EASTER PARTY on Friday evening. A few hymns will be sung in the Church at 8 o'clock and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given. Immediately after there will be a party in the Parish House and refreshments will be served. There will be a party for the children, under the Sisters' direction, on Saturday afternoon.

A RECENT LETTER FROM THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA conveys his Easter blessing and affectionate greetings to all the members of S. Clement's Church and to his many friends in Philadelphia.

AN EASTER PRAYER

Peace deep and calm and still, that lasting peace
That comes to souls grown strong in love to Christ,
This is the gift I pray He may increase
Within you, at the Easter Eucharist;
That as you pass from thence to the great stress
Of daily work, and prayer for Him and His,
He, stooping to your human need, may bless
With Heavenly calm your soul's best energies. —(G. M.)

THE CESAR FRANCK Mass in A major is being sung for the first time in S. Clement's Church. The Mass next Sunday is another new one, written by Dr. Fry, and dedicated to S. Clement's Church.

SEQUENCE—Victimae Paschali.....Plainchant

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises.

A Lamb the sheep redeemeth:

Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and Life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest way-faring:

“The tomb of Christ who is living, the glory of Jesu's Resurrection:

Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee He goes before you.”

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

Joy to Thee, O Queen of Heaven. Alleluia!

He Whom thou wast meet to bear. Alleluia!

As He promised, hath arisen. Alleluia!

Pour for us to Him thy prayer. Alleluia!

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary. Alleluia!

R. For the Lord hath risen indeed. Alleluia!

O God, Who by the Resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, hath vouchsafed to give joy to the whole world: Grant, we beseech Thee, that with the help of His mother the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life; through the same, Christ our Lord.
A-men.

Parish Notes

MESSRS. CORNING, HOMAN, MORRIS AND TYSON were re-elected to the Vestry last Monday for the ensuing three years. At the Easter Meeting on Tuesday, Mr. John Kremer was elected to fill the existing vacancy. Mr. Clay continues as Secretary and Mr. Clement as Accounting Warden. The Fr. Rector re-appointed Mr. Woodruff to be Rector's Warden. Messrs. Clay, Morris and Homan were elected to the Finance Committee; Messrs. Mayer, Corning and Tyson to the Property Committee; Messrs. Homan, Ritter and Morris to the Insurance Committee; and the Father Rector appointed Messrs. Woodruff, Clement and Tyson to the Music Committee. Messrs. Woodruff, Clement and Morris were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention, with Mr. Tyson to serve as Alternate.

THE EASTER COLLECTION amounted to $1881.40, an advance of $240.50 over last year. This is most gratifying. If the pledges already made are maintained through the summer, we should be able to continue the year with the present budget.

THE FATHER RECTOR expects to be away from the Parish for the month of May. Father Severance, who has carried on so acceptably during Lent, will be in charge, and Fr. Bates and Fr. Smith will assist with the Masses. Members of the Order of the Holy Cross will preach at the Solemn Mass Sunday mornings.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet on Wednesday of this week at 2 P. M. The Chaplain of Byberry Hospital will be the speaker. The Auxiliary will give a Card Party on Wednesday evening, May 8th. Tickers are for sale at 25 cents each. Flowers, candy and cake will be for sale. Refreshments will be served. The proceeds will be for the Auxiliary's missionary funds.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept as usual on the First Friday evening, and S Mary's Guild will meet on the First Monday at 8 P. M.

THIS WEEK'S KALENDAR differs from that printed at the beginning of the month, in that there will be but two Masses tomorrow, and no Devotional Service on Tuesday evening.

THE SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE is discontinued after tonight until the Autumn.

Parish Notes

IT HAS BEEN OUR CUSTOM for many years to keep the nine days between the Feast of the Ascension and the Feast of Pentecost as a Novena of Prayer, following the example of the Apostles. This year we are keeping it for the Reunion of Christendom. Leaflets giving the daily intentions and some excellent prayers will be found in the Apple Tree Street Vestibule of the Church. These leaflets have been issued by the Catholic Congress in England and are being used this year throughout the Anglican Church. Daily attendance at Mass and frequent reception of Holy Communion are urged on all devout Catholics who long for the fulfillment of our Blessed Lord's desire "that they all may be one."

ON THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK, the annual Garden Party of the Woman's Aid of the North Philadelphia Convocation will be held at "Wyck," 6026 Germantown Avenue. The grounds open at 2 o'clock, and there will be music, entertainment, refreshments and supper. An offering of 25 cents is expected at the gate. Mrs. Mowry, president of the Woman's Aid, is chairman of the Garden Party, and many members of S. Clement's are helping her. It is hoped that many members of the Congregation will patronize the Garden Party and Fair.

THE BEAUTIFUL MASS of Caesar Franck in A major that was sung on Easter Day will be repeated here next Sunday. Dabovitch's Serbian Liturgy, with the Athanasian Creed in Procession, will be sung on Trinity Sunday, and on the following Sunday, in the Octave of Corpus Christi, the Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei will be from Gounod's Mass of S. Cecilia.

THE COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY is our Annual Offering to Missions. People who are so blessed as are the members of this Congregation with all the privileges of the Catholic Faith, should be most eager to extend that Faith, and to make generous contributions for the missionary work of the Church.

FOUR TIMES A YEAR special envelopes are mailed to members of the congregation asking for extra offerings. In three of these, at S. Clement's-tide, Christmas and Easter, the offerings are for ourselves. But the fourth is at Pentecost, the birthday of the Church, when our offerings are asked for the Church-at-large. Letters from the Father Rector enclosing the special offering envelopes are now in the mail. If you do not receive one, will you please notify him on a postal card, giving your full name and correct address?

BEGINNING today the Sung Mass at 9.15 on Sundays is discontinued for the Summer, and its place is taken by a Low Mass at 9.30.

COLLECTIONS FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL amounted to $2,363.83. $502.34 was received through the Duplex Envelopes. $1,861.49, including the Easter Offering, was in loose cash, and $159.80 was given for Missions. In May the total offerings amounted to $625.36. $395.37 was given through the Duplex Envelopes and $93.68 was in loose money. The Missionary Offerings were $136.31. When you study these monthly accounts you will realize how dependent we are on the extra offerings for the Parish that are asked for on the great feasts.

IF YOU WISH TO GET A BLESSING from the Sermons you hear in Church, then you should pray for the Priests there that we may be helped. We can do nothing of ourselves, however hard we try; whereas if God helps us, what then?—The Rev. John Mason Neale.

A NOTE FROM THE FATHER RECTOR

THE FATHER RECTOR regrets his continued inability to take full part in the Parish life and work. He is greatly improved in health because of his holiday during the past month, but nerves heal very slowly, and they cannot be hurried. Under the Doctor's orders he is refraining from taking any part in the public services of the Church until October. He is most grateful for the prayers of the congregation, and the affectionate sympathy of his many friends; and also for the helpful co-operation of brother Priests who have carried on the work so efficiently. Fr. Bert and Fr. Severance will be in residence during the Summer. The Father Rector is confident that he will be able to begin his sixteenth year as Rector with full vigor in the autumn.

Parish Notes

THE SUMMER EMBER DAYS occur during this week. They are set apart by the Church for special prayer for those who are to receive Holy Orders. You are also bidden to pray for all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and that other worthy men may respond to the call to serve in the Sacred Ministry. These days are days of both Abstinence and Fasting. A day of abstinence is one in which no meat is taken, while a day of fasting is one in which the food is more strictly limited, both in quantity and kind.

MR. WILLIAM JAMES BARNETT, JUNIOR, who graduated with honors at Nashotah House a few weeks ago, will be ordained Deacon on Friday morning of this week, by Bishop Taitt, in the Chapel of the Mediator, at 10.30 o'clock. We are very proud to be giving another of our young men, and a former acolyte, to the Sacred Ministry of the Church.

THE CHURCH EXPECTS you to continue faithful in fasting, almsgiving, and prayer, during the summer as during other seasons. This means observing Fridays, Ember Days, and certain Vigils, as well as being present at Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, and not neglecting your confessions, your communions and your prayers. (Fr. McCune.)

THE OBLIGATION to be present at Mass on Sundays is just as binding in summer as in winter. Do not choose for Sunday, much less for a whole vacation, a place where there is no church, and consequently no Mass. Inform yourself on Saturday, or even earlier in the week, of the location of the church and the hour of Mass. This may be learned from the newspapers or at hotels; but better still at rectories or churches. It is for us to plan our Sundays so that we may be in a place where there is a Mass. And if it be said in surplice and stole, or even in Latin, it is still Mass. For us there is only one question, "Were you there?" It is a test whether our loyalty is to our priest and our parish, to people and things as we like them, or to our Lord and His Church. (S. S. J. E. Bulletin.)

TODAY THE CHURCH OF THE ANNUNCIATION, our sister parish in this Convocation, is observing the fiftieth anniversary of their occupancy of the present church building, at 12th and Diamond Streets. Bishop Taitt, who was present on the first Sunday as a Deacon fifty years ago, will preach there this evening and administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is hoped that many members of S. Clement's will join with the Annunciation parish in their Jubilee this evening.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY, in their Mission Work during the past twelve months, have received in the Mission House 1719 visits; they have made 1235 calls; given 217 instructions, including Sunday School and other classes; they have given 175 private instructions, prepared ten persons for their first Confessions, and instructed five for Holy Baptism. In addition to this work at S. Clement's, they have given weekly instructions at S. John's House, monthly instructions to three guilds at S. Elisabeth's Church, and conducted two Mission Study classes in Lent. An address on "The Religious Life" was also given at the Chapel of the Prince of Peace.

A STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL will be held on the Church lawn Tuesday evening, June 18th, from eight to ten o'clock.

DR. FRY will be very glad for contributions for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp Fund. It is our custom to give the choir boys this outing every year, and we are sure that all who appreciate the boys' work will be glad to help in giving them this bit of holiday in the country.

THE COLLECTION TODAY is our annual offering for the Missionary Work of the Church. Freely ye have received, freely give.

Parish Notes

TUESDAY EVENING, if the weather permits, we shall be having a Lawn Party and Strawberry Festival in the Church Garden from 8 to 10 o'clock. There will be music in the garden, and ice cream, strawberries and cake will be served. Admission and refreshment tickets are 25 cents each. There will be radio music in the Parish House for dancing. If it is a stormy evening, the party, as well as the dancing, will be in the Parish House. It is hoped that the members of the congregation will make this a real social evening before they begin to leave the city for the summer.

THURSDAY IS THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI. There will be the usual Masses for Holy Communion at the early hours, and the Solemn Mass at 11 will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will make their fourth annual Corporate Communion at the 7 o'clock Mass on Corpus Christi Day. This will be followed by a breakfast in the Parish House. Members of the congregation are invited to the breakfast, if they will notify the Sisters of their intention to be present.

THURSDAY EVENING, St. Alban's Church, Olney, will have their Annual Festival, under the auspices of the Confraternity, in honour of the Blessed Sacrament. Vespers will be sung; there will be a Procession, and Benediction will be given. S. Alban's can be reached in 45 minutes from City Hall, by taking the Subway to Olney Avenue, and then on Car 46 east to 2nd Street, which is but one block from the Church at the corner of Tabor Road.

THE REVEREND WILLIAM JAMES BARNETT, junior, was Ordained to the Diaconate by Bishop Taitt on Friday morning in the Chapel of the Mediator. He was presented to the Bishop by the Father Rector, who also presented the Reverend Robert Jacoby. The Reverend William J. Barnett is acting as Deacon of the Mass this morning, and will continue to help us at S. Clement's until he secures a permanent post.

WE WELCOME FATHER BERT'S RETURN for the summer. He is really a part of our regular staff and we look forward to his annual visit in the summer months. He will be in residence until the middle of September, when he will be returning to his winter duties at Nashotah House.

THE ANNUAL NATIONAL FESTIVAL of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be held at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street, on Thursday, June 27th, the Octave of the Feast of Corpus Christi. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11, followed by the meeting of the Council. Luncheon will be served and there will be a Conference in the afternoon. All Catholics, whether or not they are members of the Confraternity, are invited.

A SUMMER CONFERENCE for Young Anglo-Catholics is an innovation this year. It is to be held at Valley Forge Military Academy from July 7th to 16th. The inclusive charge is $16. If you would like to attend, please speak to the Father Rector. If you would like to pay the expenses of a young man or a young woman, please speak to the Father Rector. The Programme and the details will be found on the Posters on the Bulletin Boards.

IN A RECENT LETTER FROM THE LORD BISHOP OF ALGOMA, he sends his very special remembrances and his episcopal blessing to his friends in Philadelphia and to the members of S. Clement's congregation.

MAY WE REMIND YOU of subscriptions to the Catholic Congress, the Guild of All Souls, and the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament. Are you paid for 1935?

Parish Notes

SOCIALLY, NUMERICALLY AND FINANCIALLY the Strawberry Festival was a great success last Tuesday evening; but climatically it was a colossal failure, for the rain fell, the temperature dropped and the wind blew a terrific gale! The party was held in the Parish House, where more than a hundred people had a happy time, with a stringed orchestra, and delicious refreshments. We are not daunted by our disappointment, and will try again on Tuesday evening, July 2nd. We will not sell any tickets in advance, but will urge all of our friends to come again, and will hope for a bright, warm evening! There will be music and refreshments.

ON THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK, the Octave Day of the Feast of Corpus Christi, the annual Festival of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, will be held at S. Mark's Church on Locust Street, between 16th and 17th Streets. There will be a Solemn Mass at 11. Luncheon will follow. In the afternoon a Conference will be held in the Parish House. Whether or not you are a member of the Confraternity you will be welcome at the Festival.

TOWARDS THE END OF THE CANON OF THE MASS, the Priest lowers his voice as he interpolates a memento of the departed. The prayer is as follows: "Be mindful, O Lord, of thy servants and hand-maidens who have gone before us with the sign of faith and now rest in the sleep of peace. To them, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant a place of refreshment, light and peace, Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord." Several people have asked about this pause in the Canon, and we are glad to give the prayer as it is used at our Altars.

THE DEATH OF BISHOP BOOTH is a great loss to the Church Militant, and to the Catholic Movement in the American Church. We have been honoured and greatly helped by his many visits to S. Clement's. More recently he has been deeply interested in the Retreat Movement. Whatever pertained to the deepening of the spiritual life won his full sympathy. May he rest in peace.

DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS extensive painting will be done in the Church and Parish House. The interior of S. John's Chapel will be redecorated, and so will the walls of the Church. Part of the Parish House will be repainted, and a number of rooms in the Rectory. This work is all done with funds in the Yarnall Endowment that can be used only for "Repairs and Maintenance of the Property of S. Clement's Church." None of the congregation's offerings are used in this work. Every bit of the collections received in the Church is used for the support of the Priests and the Services.

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH has 107 active members in its branch of the Guild of All Souls. Its chief work is to pray for the repose of the souls of the faithful departed. Connection with the Guild insures remembrance after death for all its members. The Father Rector would be glad to talk to any one who is interested in the life and work of the Guild.

NEW COTTAS FOR THE CHOIR BOYS have been cut out and are ready for sewing. If any of the women of the congregation would like a little sewing for the summer, Miss Emma Neilson will be glad to supply you with a cotta or two, all cut out and ready to be put together.

THE FRIDAY EVENING SERVICE, consisting of some prayers and devotions, a short meditation, and followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament continues through the summer. The Holy Hour is kept on the First Friday evening of the month.

Parish Notes

WE WELCOME FATHER TUHEY to the Staff today. He is the Deacon at the Solemn Mass this morning.

S. MARY'S GUILD will hold their first meeting for the autumn tomorrow evening. This is a devotional guild for women, and is open to all the women of the congregation. There is a simple rule of prayer and sacramental life. The monthly meeting falls on the first Monday, and consists of an address by the Father Rector and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This is followed by a social hour in the Parish House.

A CARD PARTY has been arranged for Tuesday evening. This is being sponsored by a group of the young girls and women in the Parish, and the proceeds will be sent to one of their former members who is now professed in the Community of S. Margaret and is working in the Missionary District of Haiti. It is a very lovely thing that Sister Mary Martha's friends are doing, and it is hoped there will be a very generous response.

TOMORROW is the 150th anniversary of the meeting of the first Diocesan Convention in this Diocese. It is to be celebrated appropriately with a great Service at Christ Church in the morning, a Church Club Luncheon at noon, and a meeting of the Convocation of N. Philadelphia on the following day. It is also the 100th anniversary of the consecration of the great Bishop Kemper, the Apostle of the North West, who was attached to S. Peter's Church at the time of his election to the Episcopate and was consecrated by Bishop White. Please say your prayers at this time for the Diocese and for the Missionary work of the Church.

SATURDAY has been assigned to us by the Catholic Congress as our day in the Cycle of Prayer for the Congress and the Missionary work of the Church. The Masses that morning will be Votive of the Holy Spirit, and there will be corporate intercessions before the Blessed Sacrament in the Lady Chapel from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. There is a schedule on the Bulletin Board where intercessors may designate the time they will pray in the Church.

Parish Notes

WE WELCOME Father Lightbourn to the Staff today. He is the Celebrant at the Solemn Mass this morning.

THERE IS A PRESSING NEED for good warm clothes, especially for a large size winter coat for a woman, and also for clothes for children over eight years of age. There is a constant demand for men's clothes, and particularly for men's shoes. These things may be placed in the Barrel in the Church Corridor, left at the Rectory, or at the Sisters' Mission House.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER FIFTH, has been set as the date for the Annual Christmas Bazaar. Committees are now being appointed, and work is beginning. Gifts of saleable articles and of money will be welcomed. Mrs. Mowry is the Chairman.

THE CHURCH SIGN at the Corner of 20th and Cherry Streets has been given by Mr. George Earnshaw as a memorial to his mother. The Apple Tree Street sign was given by Miss Haffelfinger in memory of Mrs. Charles Hagert. Mrs. Earnshaw and Mrs. Hagert were sisters of Miss Haffelfinger, and the signs are the handwork of Mrs. Hagert's son, Henry W. Hagert, of 1923 Manning Street.

AT THE MEETING OF THE VESTRY on Tuesday last, Mr. Sheldon Potter Ritter resigned from its membership. An appropriate resolution of appreciation was passed and spread upon the minutes.

SEVENTEEN YOUNG MEN are being assisted this winter with funds from the Yarnall Education Fund. These men are in college, preparing for Holy Orders. They come from various parts of the country. All have been commended to the consideration of the Committee of the Vestry, and have been thoroughly investigated. Two of them are from our own Parish. This is really a great work we are privileged to do through the benefaction of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Horner Yarnall.

THE REV. WILLIAM J. BARNETT, a former member of the Parish and the Acolytes Guild, who was ordained Deacon in June, is now a Curate at Christ Church, Binghampton, New York. He expects to be advanced to the Priesthood before Christmas.

TODAY is Fr. Joiner's Fifteenth Anniversary as Rector of S. Clement's.

Parish Notes

THE RED CROSS Annual Roll Call has begun, and Mrs. Mowry will be found in the Cope Room before and after the High Mass on Sundays to receive your subscriptions. Former members are urged to renew their subscriptions early, and new members will be most warmly welcomed.

MISS MARION THOMPSON has resumed the Secretaryship of S. Clement's Ward of The Guild of All Souls, and may be addressed through the Parish Offices at 2013 Apple Tree Street.

MUMBLING THE MASS is inexcusable. The words of the Mass are ceremonies as important as any other ceremonies, and to be carefully and reverently performed. But there is something to be said about the confusion between "mumbling" and the use of different tones. As on the Altar of the Cross our Great High Priest used three voices, (1) the loud voice, audible at some distance away, (2) the humble voice, audible only close at hand, and (3) the secret voice, audible to Himself alone, it became the established custom in Western Christendom to use these three voices, vox clara, vox humilis, and vox secreta. The Book of Common Prayer alludes to the two former tones and does not proscribe the third. On the principle that omission is not prohibition, it is reasonable to use the traditional tones in each part of the service, in each case, of course, using the distincto, which is not "mumbling." The loud tone is used for the variable parts of the Mass. The humble tone is for the Prayer for the Church and the Canon. The secret voice is used for the words of Institution and for the Priest's private devotions. There is but one tone prescribed for the congregation's responses, and that is the loud voice.

THESE WEEKLY BULLETINS will be mailed every Friday evening to any one who subscribes one dollar for the year.

FORWARD is the title of a little book of Bible Readings and Meditations for the Church Year put out by the Church's Forward Movement Commission. Copies have been in the Tract Cases for several weeks. The readings and meditations for the following week will be the subject of the Friday night instructions which the Father Rector will give during the winter.

FIFTY-ONE DOLLARS has been realized thus far from the Card Party given last week by the former members of The Girls' Club for the work of the Sisters of S. Margaret in Haiti. Are there any further contributions?

Parish Notes

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have its first meeting of the winter at S. Timothy's Church, Roxborough, on Tuesday evening. It will be a smoker and social evening. Notices of the winter's meetings have been sent to all the men in our congregation. If those who have cars, and those who have none, will meet here at the Church at 7.30, all can be transported to Roxborough and brought back here at the close of the evening.

BLANKS FOR YOUR ALL SOULS' DAY lists and Envelopes for offerings will be found in the Church Vestibules. The Offerings are given to the Guild of All Souls. The former members of the Parish who have died during the last ten years are remembered at the High Mass.

THE COLLECTIONS at the Masses on All Saints' Day are given for the work of the All Saints' Sisters at S. Anna's Home, and on All Souls' Day to the Guild of All Souls.

THE FATHER RECTOR wants to thank most heartily the many friends who remembered him on his recent birthday, and especially those who contributed to the Purse that was collected by Mrs. Pendleton.

THE FEAST OF THE DEDICATION commemorates the Consecration of a Church. The Patronal Festival commemorates the Saint in whose honour the Church is named. S. Clement's was consecrated on Tuesday, April 12th, 1864. When the date is one not connected with a Saint, and at a time when the anniversary festival would interfere with the Church Kalendar, the Dedication Feast is kept at some other time. In many places it is always observed on the first Sunday in October. We have never kept the Feast solemnly. Since November is our special festival month, and All Saints is one of our best loved feasts, it would seem fitting that we keep our Dedication Festival on the Sunday in the Octave of All Saints, which is usually the first Sunday in November. We shall be singing a special Mass next Sunday, and the Hymns will be appropriate to the occasion. A Collect, Epistle and Gospel is provided in the Prayer Book on page 259.

THE TOTAL OFFERINGS IN SEPTEMBER amounted to $1,081.09. $599.05 was given in the Duplex Envelopes and $282.24 in Cash, making a total of $881.29 for Parish Expenses. $199.80 was given for Missions.

Parish Notes

S. MARY'S GUILD is a Devotional Sodality for Women. There is a simple rule of prayer and sacramental life. The monthly meeting is held on the first Monday in each month. This winter the Fr. Rector is giving a series of instructions on some of "Our Familiar Devotions." Tomorrow evening his subject will be the Prayer for the Departed, "Rest eternal grant unto them." The meeting is closed with Benediction, and a social hour follows in the Parish House.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY will meet in the Parish House, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The Speaker this month will be Deaconess Colesberry, and her subject, "Work among the Isolated." All the women of the congregation are most cordially invited to the Auxiliary meetings.

THE CHURCH WOMAN'S CLUB has resumed its winter activities, and continues to use S. James's Church Parish House on 22nd Street for its headquarters.

THE NEED FOR THE RED CROSS is neither reduced nor replaced by Federal and State unemployment relief money or projects here or elsewhere. Nothing that Congress has done or proposes to do takes over from the Red Cross any of its services or obligations. The Annual Dues at $1 makes the Red Cross Membership possible to every one employed, but $5, $10, and $25 memberships are necessary from those who can take them, if the work is to be supported. Mrs. Mowry is in the Cope Room after Mass to receive your subscriptions.

THE SMALL ATTENDANCE AT VESPERS Sunday evening makes us wonder whether it is worth while to continue the Sunday Evening Service at S. Clement's. The Service is beautifully sung by the Choir of men, there is always a helpful sermon, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given, when a special anthem is sung. We ought to have at least 100 people here Sunday nights. So far this winter we have not had one-half that number. The Father Rector would be glad for your opinions about the value of the Sunday Evening Service.

THE WOMEN'S AID to the Convocation of North Philadelphia will give a Card Party in the Parish House of the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, Tuesday evening, November 12th. Tickets are 35 cents each.

FATHER HUGHSON, O.H.C., Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will be the special preacher during the Patronal Festival. He will preach at First Vespers, Friday night, at the Solemn Mass on Saturday, and both morning and evening on Sunday the 24th. Please make these occasions known to your friends.

Parish Notes

TOMORROW IS ARMISTICE DAY. The Masses here will be offered for the peace and concord of the Nations of the world. It is hoped that many of you will say your prayers for peace at the Altar, and make your Communions with the intention for the ending of all wars. There will be an additional Mass at 8 o'clock.

THE WOMEN'S AID to the Convocation of North Philadelphia will give a Card Party and Radio in the Parish House of the Church of the Advocate, 18th & Diamond Streets, Tuesday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock. The tickets are 35 cents each, and you are asked to bring your own cards. The proceeds will be used by the Aid in furthering the Missionary work of the Church in the North Philadelphia Convocation.

POCKET-BOOKS should not be left in the pews when you go to the Altar for your Communion, or into the Confessional. Last Sunday a hand bag was stolen while the owner was making her Communion at the 9.15 Mass.

ARTICLES SUITABLE FOR THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR may be sent at any time to either the Parish House or the Rectory. Fancy articles are needed, things for the kitchen, and "white elephants." The date of the Bazaar is Thursday, December 4th. Supper will be served that evening. Please reserve the date.

TWO WEEKS FROM YESTERDAY will be S. Clement's Day. Fr. Hughson, O.H.C., is to be the preacher. Schubert's Mass in G is to be the music of the Mass. We are quite dependent on the S. Clement's Day Collection to clear up our Parish Expenses for the balance of the year. It is hoped that no one will have to give less than they did last year, and if any can give more, will they please do so? Income from Endowments has been less this year, and while we have made further economies in expenses, we are not as well off as we were in 1934. Will all of our friends please help us with this annual offering?

THE COLLECTIONS FOR OCTOBER amounted to $819.96. $466.44 was received in the Duplex Envelopes and $193.12 in loose cash, making a total of $659.96 for the current expenses of the Parish. The offerings for Missions amounted to $160.40.

ON FRIDAY EVENING, the Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church for the intention of the Faithful Departed, and as a part of our November prayers for the Dead. Requiem Masses are being said on all the allowable days. It is a Catholic's duty to pray for the Dead, and especially for those who have no one to pray for them.

THE ANNUAL NOVENA FOR THE PARISH begins next Thursday. Please say the Veni Creator, Pater Noster and Ave Maria daily, for our Parish Life and Work.

Parish Notes

THE REV. DR. LEICESTER C. LEWIS gave the addresses for a Retreat for S. Ursula's Guild held yesterday in S. John's Chapel.

DR. ROLAND HOLROYD was elected on Tuesday to fill the vacancy on the Vestry caused by the recent resignation of Sheldon Potter Ritter. Dr. Holroyd, who is Professor of Botany at LaSalle University, has been acting as Sub-Deacon at the Solemn Mass.

PROGRAMS FOR S. CLEMENT'S-TIDE have been posted and should be in your hands by this time. If any members of the Parish have not received theirs, or if your addresses have been changed, will you please notify us in writing?

ALL THE SALARIES AT S. CLEMENT'S are still under reduction. The running expenses of the Parish have been cut to the lowest possible figure. We are spending every penny of our income with the greatest care for economy. Will you not please help us, to the best of your ability, with the Annual Collection for Parish Expenses on S. Clement's Day?

FATHER HUGHSON, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, and well-known to all of you, will preach a Series of Four Sermons for us during the Patronal Festival. Fr. Hughson is a great preacher, and these four sermons should be out-standing experiences in our Feast. Please make these occasions known to your friends.

IT IS EXPECTED that Fr. Hughson will be in the Church next Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5, for the purpose of hearing Confessions. This opportunity is arranged for the benefit of those who may have some special problem, or who may be in need of some special advice.

MRS. CHARLES VANDYKE JOLINE, who has served for many years with the Parish Altar Guild, has had to resign owing to her moving to Atlantic City. We are very grateful to Mrs. Joline for her many years of faithful service. Miss Emma F. Neilson has consented to take over the linen work, and will be responsible for the Priests' surplices and the Acolytes' cottas.

 It was about November tide An anchor round his neck they tied,
 A long, long time ago, And cast him in the sea;
 When good St. Clement testified And bravely as he lived he died,
 The faith that now we know. And gallantly went free.
 Right boldly then he said his say He rests a many miles away,
 Before a furious King: Yet here his name we sing,
 And therefore on St. Clement's Day As all upon St. Clement's Day
 We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.
 Work in the mines they gave him then, Our fathers kept it long ago,
 To try the brave old saint; And their request we make,
 And there two thousand Christian men Good Christians, one small mite bestow,
 With thirst were like to faint. For sweet St. Clement's sake;
 He prayed a prayer, and out of clay And make his feast as glad and gay
 He made the waters spring; As if it came in spring,
 And therefore on St. Clement's Day When all upon St. Clement's Day
 We go a-Clementing. We go a-Clementing.

Parish Notes

WE WELCOME OUR OLD FRIENDS, and the new ones, who may be worshipping with us during the Patronal Festival. This is one of the very few parishes in the country where the Feast of the Patron is kept with any solemnity.

THE ANNUAL PARISH RECEPTION AND TEA will be held in the Parish House next Tuesday evening from 8 to 10. From 8.30 to 9 there will be a musical program of both instrumental and vocal numbers. At 9 there will be some speeches about parish affairs, and the prospects for the new year. After that there will be ice cream, cake and coffee. But throughout the evening we look for good fellowship, and pleasant social intercourse. Every member of the congregation is most cordially invited and urged to come. This is the one opportunity during the year for us to meet together as a family in a social way, and it ought not to be neglected.

THANKSGIVING DAY, which always falls within the Octave of our Festival, is a day of National Thanksgiving. In spite of the difficult times, we all have much for which to be thankful. The word, Eucharist, so often applied to the Mass, means thanksgiving. So the best way we can show our thankfulness to Almighty God is by assisting at Mass on Thanksgiving Day. In addition to the Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11.

THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AND FAIR will be held in the Parish House on Thursday afternoon and evening, December 5th. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 for 65 cents. There will be all kinds of useful and fancy articles for sale. The entire proceeds will be given to the Parish Missionary Quota. Please come and bring your friends.

NEXT SATURDAY EVENING, beginning at 5 o'clock, the Father Rector will conduct a Pre-Advent Quiet Evening for Women. There will be three addresses. Supper will be served in the Parish House at 6.30. Those wishing supper will please notify Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N., in advance.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will hold a Quiet Evening at the Church of the Annunciation next Saturday evening from 5 to 9. Fr. Tiedemann, O.H.C., will give the meditations. The men of the Parish are urged to take part in this preparation for Advent. If you expect to be present, will you please hand your name to one of the Priests?

THE OFFERINGS ON THANKSGIVING DAY, for which special envelopes have been provided, are for the Episcopal Hospital, at Front and Lehigh Avenue. This is an annual Diocesan Offering.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY have a fine assortment of imported Christmas Cards for sale at the Mission House, 110 North Woodstock Street. They will be glad to show them to you at any time.

CHILDREN'S AND BABIES' CLOTHES are in constant demand for the needy in the Parish. They should be sent to the Sisters' House, or placed in the Barrel in the Church Corridor.

THE SISTERS will be glad to receive small articles of furniture, rugs, curtains, draperies and bedding, for distribution among the poor. The Sisters carry on a very active, but unadvertised, work among the needy and the unemployed. They will be most grateful for your help.

Parish Notes

S. MARY'S GUILD will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow evening, in S. John's Chapel, at 8 o'clock. This is a devotional guild for women, and new members are always welcomed.

THE TRIDUUM FOR MISSIONS, begun on S. Andrew's Day, is concluded on Tuesday, the Feast of S. Francis Xavier. This is a brief three days' period of prayer for the Missionary work of the Church, overlapping the Feasts of these two great Missionary Saints.

DR. HAROLD MORRIS, a Missionary Doctor in China, and whose home is in Philadelphia, will address the Woman's Auxiliary meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members of the Auxiliary and their friends are urged to come. Every baptized woman in the Church is a member of the Auxiliary.

THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BAZAAR and Fair will be held in the Parish House Thursday afternoon and evening of this week. There will be the usual array of useful and fancy articles, suitable for Christmas presents, candy, flowers, and many other interesting things for sale.

SUPPER WILL BE SERVED, under the direction of Mrs. L. Alvin Thomas, on Thursday evening, from 6 to 8 o'clock, in connection with the Bazaar and Fair. The charge for the Supper will be 65 cents.

CHRISTMAS CARDS of all kinds, and an especially fine choice of Religious cards, will be found at the Bazaar on Thursday.

THE PROCEEDS from the Christmas Bazaar and Fair on Thursday will be given for the Missionary Work of the Church, and will be applied on the Parish's Quota for Missionary gifts.

THE PATRONAL FESTIVAL of 1935 is one that will linger long in our memory. The Feast and the Octave was unusually well observed. The Masses and the Music were particularly beautiful. And Fr. Hughson's splendid sermons will continue to inspire us for a long time to come.

THE COLLECTION on the Feast Day and the Sunday in the Octave amounted to $1,800. We are most grateful to the members of the Congregation and our friends for their most generous response to our appeal.

NEXT SUNDAY EVENING we shall be singing the First Vespers of the Feast of the Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

HIS GRACE, THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, who has just arrived in this country for a brief visit, will broadcast on "The Episcopal Church of the Air" from the Bethlehem Chapel, Washington Cathedral, next Sunday, December 8th, at 10 A. M., over a nation-wide hook-up of stations of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR will be absent from the Parish from Monday until Thursday. He is preaching before the Catholic Club in Washington, D. C., tomorrow evening, and is conducting a Quiet Day at S. James's Church on Wednesday.

THE APPEAL FOR THE CHRISTMAS CHARITIES at S. Clement's is now in the mails. The proceeds from this appeal are used to provide complete Christmas dinners for all of our poor families; for small boxes of dainties for all the shut-ins; for toys and gifts for the children's Christmas Tree; and to provide refreshments for the several Christmas parties. The responses should be sent to Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N., 110 North Woodstock Street, Philadelphia.

THE PARISH CHRISTMAS PARTY will be entertained on Friday evening, December 27th, through the courtesy of Mr. Woodruff, by groups from several of the recreation centers in the city, who will give exhibitions of dancing, folk songs, gymnastics, and possibly a short play. Benediction will be given in the Church at 8, and the Party will follow at once in the Parish House at 8.30.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PARISH should be sent on Sunday mornings to the Children's Mass at 9.15. Immediately after the Mass, the Children have their instruction under the direction of Fr. Tuhey and the Sisters. While the Children's instruction is being carried on, Sister Mary Kathleen has a Bible Class in S. John's Chapel, for both men and women. If parents will come with the children to the 9.15 Mass, they can attend the Sister's Bible Class while the children are having their instruction, and then be ready to take the children home with them at its close. The Mass begins at 9.15. The classes are finished at 10.30.

ARTICLES THAT WERE UNSOLD at the Bazaar on last Thursday may be seen in the Parish House after the Solemn Mass this morning.

THE PARISH LEAFLET is being written before the Christmas Bazaar has been held, so the report of the Bazaar will appear in next week's issue.

CHRISTMAS CARDS will be available at S. Clement's Mission House, where the Sisters will be glad to show them at any time.

WE ARE VERY MUCH IN NEED of a new Thurible. The two we have are beginning to show signs of wear, and since they were designed for processional use, it would be well to conserve them, and have a new one for ordinary use at Mass and Vespers. This could be given as a memorial. The Father Rector will be glad to talk to any one who might be interested in making such a gift to the Church.

Parish Notes

THE REVEREND WILLIAM J. BARNETT, jr., is being Ordained to the Priesthood this morning by Bishop Taitt in Calvary Church, Germantown. He is one of our own boys, and is now a Curate at Christ Church, Binghamton, New York. We are remembering him very specially in our prayers today, and wish him every joy and blessing in his Priestly life and work.

FATHER BARNETT will sing his first High Mass at S. Clement's next Saturday, the Feast of S. Thomas, Apostle. The Mass will be at 11 o'clock. The Fr. Rector will be Deacon of the Mass, and Fr. Edwards will be Sub-Deacon. The Sermon will be preached by Fr. Barnett's Rector in Binghamton, New York, the Rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Fr. Dewees. After the Mass, Fr. Barnett will give his blessing to those who come to the Communion Rails.

THE FATHER RECTOR will give a Luncheon on Saturday after Fr. Barnett's first High Mass, for his family and some of his friends.

THE PRIESTS' CATHOLIC CLUB will be meeting at S. Clement's on Tuesday. There will be a High Mass at 10.30, to which every one is welcome. After the Luncheon, the members of the Club are to be the guests of the D'Ascenzo Stained Glass Studios.

THE APPEALS FOR THE CHRISTMAS CHARITIES are in the mails. We hope for your generous and prompt response.

THE CHRISTMAS BAZAAR held last week was a great success. 170 suppers were served, and there was a large crowd present all during the evening. Since all the accounts are not in, we cannot give the final financial result, but will run well over $200. We are very grateful to all who worked so hard to make it a success.

IF THE COLLECTION ON CHRISTMAS DAY is equal to that of last year, we shall be able to meet all the obligations of the Church for this current year, and also pay off an accumulated deficit of several years amounting to $800. This is an excellent record for the Parish. We hope to start off the new year with a "clean slate."

DUPLEX ENVELOPES FOR 1936 are now being addressed. These envelopes afford the best system for regular giving to the Church. Members of the congregation may secure a set by speaking to one of the Priests or by communicating with the Accounting Warden.

WE KEEP THE OCTAVE DAY of our Lady's Conception today. When a Feast with an Octave is transferred, the Octave Day is not moved.

Parish Notes

THE KALENDAR FOR THIS WEEK has been printed in the little folders that were mailed to all the members of the Parish during the past few days. Extra copies will be found in the Church Porch.

The CONFESSION HOURS for tomorrow (Monday) are from 3 to 5 in the afternoon, when the Father Rector will be in the Church; and in the evening from 7.30 to 8, when Father Tuhey will be in his Confessional.

ON TUESDAY the Confession Hours are from 10 to 12 in the morning; from 3 to 5 in the afternoon; from 7 to 9 and from 10 to 11 in the evening. The Father Rector will be in the Church in the morning, and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Father Tuhey and Father Lightbourn will be in the Church in the afternoon, and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Father Lightbourn will attend the Confessional from 10 to 11 P. M.

OUR REGULAR PENITENTS are urged to make their Christmas Confessions early, and to say the Confiteor before they enter the Confessional. This will be a great saving to the Priests, who are always rushed by the many business people who cannot come to their duties until the last minute.

THE MID-NIGHT MASS will begin promptly at 12.01 Christmas morning. Holy Communion will be given at this Mass. Those who expect to receive Holy Communion at this Mass should spend the evening quietly and devoutly, and in anticipation of the Holy Gift they are to receive.

THE USUAL CAROL SERVICE, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the procession to the Creche, will be held at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, Christmas Eve.

ON CHRISTMAS DAY, at the Solemn Mass, the Gloria and Creed will be from Mass in D by F. L. Moir, with the Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei from Gounod's Mass of S. Cecilia. On the Sunday after Christmas, there will be a Carol Procession before the Solemn Mass, when Schubert's Mass in G will be sung. In the evening there will be a Service of Carols, old and new, with a short Sermon by Father Tuhey, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE PARISH CHRISTMAS PARTY will be held in the Parish House Friday evening. There will be some carols in the Church at 8 o'clock, and Benediction will be given from the High Altar. Immediately after, there will be a very interesting entertainment provided in the Parish House by Mr. Woodruff, who is bringing a number of young people from various Recreation Centers in the City. There will be different kinds of dancing. There will be some singing numbers, and possibly a short play. This will be followed with the Christmas Tree, and ice cream and cake.

THE CHILDREN'S PARTY and Christmas Tree will be under the direction of the Sisters, and will be held Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5.

S. CLEMENT'S KALENDARS for 1936 will be found in the Cope Room, and may be had by applying there after Mass this morning.

THE DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1936 are also ready, and will be found in the Cope Room. It will be a great convenience if the subscribers will call there for the envelopes, and save the work and postage for mailing.

SAVE THE MONDAY NIGHTS IN JANUARY for Canon Bell's interesting course of lectures on the present day problems that confront all Christian people.

THE REVEREND CLERGY OF THE PARISH wish you all joy and blessing in the Happy Feast of Christmas, and Spiritual Progress in the New Year.

Christmas Day, 1935

Low Mass at 7, 8 and 9.30 A. M.

INTROIT—Light shall shine today upon us; for unto us is born the Lord: and he shall be called Wonderful, God, the Prince of Peace, Father of the World to come, and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Psalm. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself.

Music written for the Boys of S. Clement's Choir

Once in Royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a Mother laid her Baby
In a manger for His bed;
Mary was that Mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little Child.

And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love,
For that Child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heav'n above;
And He leads His children on
To the place where He is gone.

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars His children crown'd
All in white shall wait around.

CAROL—"Let Us Now Go To Bethlehem".....Card

CAROL—"Venite Adoremus"Old English

The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright,
When Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
'Twas Mary, daughter pure of Holy Anne,
That brought into the world our God-made Man.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

She laid Him in a stall at Bethlehem,
The ass and ox shared the roof with them,
S. Joseph too was by to tend the Child,
To guard Him and protect His mother mild.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

The angel hovered 'round and sang this song,
Venite adoremus Dominum.
And thus that manger poor became a throne,
For He whom Mary bore was God the Son.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

O come then let us join the heavenly host,
To praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Parish Notes

A VERY BEAUTIFUL SERVICE OF CAROLS has been arranged for this evening. The entire choir of men and boys will take part. The Gospel story of the Nativity of our Blessed Lord will be read, and there will be a short sermon by Fr. Tuhey. There will be plenty of Carols for the congregation to sing. We hope you will be among those to fill the Church with joyous Christmas praise this evening.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet in the Parish House this evening at seven o'clock, to receive their Christmas presents and have some simple refreshments, before attending the Carol Service in the Church.

WEDNESDAY IS THE FEAST of our Lord's Circumcision and a Holy Day of obligation for all Catholic Christians. In addition to the usual Low Masses, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock, when Fr. Smith will be the Celebrant.

WE ARE VERY GRATEFUL to Mr. Woodruff, who retires this week from public office as Director of Public Welfare after four years of faithful and conscientious service, for the very delightful entertainment which he provided for the Parish Christmas Party last Friday evening.

TOMORROW EVENING the Valley Forge Summer Conference for Young Anglo-Catholics will hold their mid-winter reunion in the Parish House. Any of our young people who did not attend the Conference last summer, but who may be interested in its work, are cordially invited to the Supper at 7 o'clock. The supper will cost fifty cents. There will be music and dancing later in the evening.

THERE WILL BE A SUPPER and Christmas Party in the Parish House on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock for the Acolytes and Junior Servers, and other young men and boys of the Parish. We are very grateful to S. Vincent's Guild for its faithful service at the Altar.

DUPLEX ENVELOPES for 1936 will be found in the Cope Room. Others may secure them by handing their name and address to one of the Priests. The S. Clement's Kalendars for 1936 will also be found in the Cope Room. None of them will be mailed this year.

THE KALENDAR FOR JANUARY is enclosed in the Parish Leaflet today. You will also find there a notice of Canon Bell's notable Lectures to be given in S. Clement's Church on the Monday nights in January. Please make these many opportunities at S. Clement's known to your friends.

THE REV. EDMUND L. SOUDER of the American Church Mission in Hankow, China, a native son of Philadelphia and an old friend of S. Clement's Parish, will be the Preacher at the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning.

THE FATHER RECTOR and the Assistant Priests thank their many friends in the Parish for the beautiful Christmas Cards they have sent, and for the many other expressions of their affection and good will.

A VERY HANDSOME IVORY CRUCIFIX in a Cabinet with antique Florentine doors, which hung over the prie dieu of the late Mrs. George Henry Lee, has been given to S. Clement's Church by her children, and placed on the North Wall of the High Altar Sanctuary, over the door leading into the Sacristy. We are very grateful for this beautiful addition to the ornaments of our Church.

MAY THE NEW YEAR be one of real Spiritual progress for us all.

The snow lay on the ground, the stars shone bright,
 When Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
 'Twas Mary, daughter pure of Holy Anne,
 That brought into the world our God-made Man.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

She laid Him in a stall at Bethlehem,
 The ass and ox shared the roof with them,
 S. Joseph too was by to tend the Child,
 To guard Him and protect His mother mild.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

The angel hovered 'round and sang this song,
Venite adoremus Dominum.
 And thus that manger poor became a throne,
 For He whom Mary bore was God the Son.
Venite adoremus Dominum.

O come then let us join the heavenly host,
 To praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Parish Notes

WE HAD A MOST BEAUTIFUL CAROL SERVICE last Sunday evening. In spite of the snow storm we had a good congregation, and S. Mary's Guild was present and sat together in the front of the Church. There will be another of these Carol Services this evening, with the full Choir assisting.

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY. In addition to the usual Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, there will be a High Mass at 11 o'clock.

TOMORROW EVENING, The Very Rev. Canon Bernard Iddings Bell will give the first of Four Lectures scheduled for the four Monday nights in January. The general subject will be: "A Catholic Churchman looks at the Modern World." The subject of this evening's Lecture will be: "Modern Man." A silver collection will be taken. No tickets of admission are required.

DR. FRY will be in charge of the half hour of music that will precede the Lecture tomorrow evening. The S. Dunstan Singers will sing several numbers of Medieval Music and Plainchant. Mr. Henry E. Kerr will give the Organ Recital next Monday evening.

THE BEAUTIFUL EVERGREENS decorating the Lady Altar were sent to us by the Rev. Alexander M. Lukens of Deer Lodge, Montana, and are placed there in memory of his father, William Weaver Lukens, a former Vestryman of S. Clement's, the first anniversary of whose death occurred today.

THANKS TO YOUR GENEROUS RESPONSE to the several appeals made recently in the Weekly Leaflet, we were able to close the financial records of the Parish for 1935 with a balance just short of $200. Not only did we meet our Budget for the year, but we also paid off an accumulated deficit of $800. This is a most commendable record. We begin 1936 without a single penny of any indebtedness whatever.

WE ARE QUITE DEPENDENT on the Sunday Collections for the regular running expenses of the Church. These collections can best be handled through the Duplex Envelope System. Then you are able to keep up your weekly pledge. Expenses go on week by week whether you are here or not. If you pay your subscription by the week, we are sure of our weekly income. If you are not a subscriber through the Envelopes, it is suggested that you consider this way of making your regular offerings to the support of the Church.

WHILE WE MADE A GOOD ACCOUNT of ourselves in offerings to the parish and its expenses, we made a poorer showing than usual in our missionary gifts. Last year we gave about $4000. This year we are more than $500 under this sum. We told the Diocesan authorities that we "expected" to give $3800. This was based on last year's giving. At the end of the year we had given a little less than $3300. This was all subscribed through the Envelopes, the Whit-Sunday offering and the proceeds of the Christmas Bazaar which amounted to about $275. If there are any further offerings for the 1935 Missionary Funds, they may be sent to the Accounting Warden. The Diocesan books are kept open for another two weeks.

FATHER SOUDER, who is preaching for us this morning, is one of our devoted missionaries in the American Church Mission in Hankow, China. He should stir us to greater missionary zeal and giving. If his work appeals to you, you may designate your offerings for his work, and they will be applied against our expectation. It is always a joy to welcome Fr. Souder to S. Clement's. He comes home to the States once in every five years, and he never fails to spend a Sunday here.

MRS. HARRY A. BAKER, another of our Missionaries, and this time from Alaska, will tell of her work Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at 2 o'clock. At this meeting there will be the annual election of officers.

Parish Notes

FORTY-NINE PEOPLE contributed $249.25 to the Christmas Charities in 1935. $212.00 was expended under the Sisters' direction for 27 Christmas dinners, 40 boxes of dainties and sweets for shut-in members of the congregation, refreshments for 3 Christmas parties, 200 boxes of candy, and 100 gifts for the children. The balance of $37.25 has been put in the Poor Fund. We are most grateful to all who helped us in making these good works possible.

A BRANCH of the Diocesan Organization of the League of Intercessors has been formed in the Parish. It seeks to engage in prayer for the deepening of our Faith and the extension of the Kingdom those who, through illness or other conditions, are not able to come to Church, but who are willing to give some time every day to the work of prayer. We already have 15 members in S. Clement's. If others are interested, will they please communicate with Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N.

THERE IS A CONSTANT DEMAND for children's clothing. Just now we are in very urgent need of dresses for girls of 8 and 10 years; underwear for a girl of 8; and clothing for boys of 6 and 9. Anything that you have, no matter how useless it may seem to you, can be made useful to some one else.

THE FELLOWSHIP OF BETHLEHEM is another organization for Prayer, with special intention for God's blessing and guidance for the children of the world. It is estimated that there are 600,000,000 children in the world, our future men and women. Members are asked to pray once a week for the children and to remember them at Mass, that they may be instructed in the Christian Faith, and also for their parents who have the awful responsibility of training immortal souls for God. There are no dues in either this society or the League of Intercessors.

CANON BELL will give the second Lecture in the Series, "A Catholic Churchman Looks at the Modern World," tomorrow evening at 8.15. His subject will be, "Modern Industry." The Organ Recital at 7.45 will be played by Mr. Henry E. Kerr, formerly organist at the Church of the Annunciation, and a member of this Parish. These lectures, dealing with vital social problems of the day, should fill S. Clement's to the doors with people eager to know how to live the Christian Religion.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY reports that they have 51 members on their roll, and that they held 8 meetings in 1935, with a visiting speaker on each occasion. Part of a missionary box was sent to the State of Washington, and the usual Lenten sewing was done and some Christmas gifts sent to North Carolina. And all the regular pledges of money were paid. Every baptized woman in the Church is a member of the Auxiliary. S. Clement's branch should have more than 51 on its roll.

THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN would be very grateful if Duplex Envelope subscribers would please sign the pledge cards and put them on the collection plates. This is not to hold you to any "solemn promise," but to check names and addresses, and to enable him to make some rough estimate as to our possible income for 1936. The Accounting Warden also suggests that since the books for 1935 are closed, subscribers bend their efforts to keep up to date with their new envelopes rather than neglect them in order to pay up back envelopes of 1935. While we will be glad to have the unpaid pledges of last year, it is more important now to take care of the ones for 1936.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the Catholic Congress for 1936 are now due, and may be handed to Mrs. Pendleton, the Congress Secretary at S. Clement's. The regular membership is $1, but larger offerings will enable the Congress to undertake advance work that is greatly needed for the cause so dear to all of us.

Parish Notes

AT THE MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY last week the Officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Luckenbach, President; Mrs. Fritz, Vice-President; Miss Ball, Secretary; and Miss Connelly, Treasurer.

TWO NEW LANTERNS have been installed in the Church over the Choir Stalls, and they greatly improve the lighting of the Church, and are a very attractive addition to the sanctuary. They cost $375, and if any one would like to give them as a memorial, the Father Rector would be happy to arrange it.

THE NEW THURIBLE that was asked for some weeks ago has been offered as a Memorial to the late S. Wesley Sears by a group of young men who sang under his direction and who were associated with him in the later years of his life. Mr. Sears never took his membership from S. Clement's, and always followed our life and work with the greatest interest. If any of his friends would like to have a part in this memorial, Mr. Harding of our Choir will be glad to talk to them about it.

CANON BELL will give his Third Lecture in the Series, "A Catholic Looks at the Modern World," to-morrow evening. His subject will be the one that was announced for last week, "The Church and Industry." Last Monday he spoke on "The Church and the State."

THE ORGAN RECITAL to-morrow evening will be played by Mr. Arthur W. Howes, jr., the Organist at S. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. We are very happy to welcome Mr. Howes to S. Clement's, and anticipate a very beautiful Recital from this brilliant player.

THE INTENTION of the Masses during the period of The Church Unity Octave will be for the Conversion of all men to the Catholic Faith and for the Reunion of Christendom.

A CLASS IN ECCLESIASTICAL EMBROIDERY will be held in the Altar Guild Room on Wednesdays, January 22nd, February 5th and 19th, and on March 4th. The instruction will be in charge of Miss Bronson of the Diocesan Altar Guild of New York. The classes will begin at 10.30 and close at 3, and the charge for the course will be $8. Instruction will be given in both silk and linen work. It is hoped there will be some applicants from the Parish, for our own Altar Guild is very much in need of workers.

Parish Notes

CANON BELL will give the last of his four lectures on the general subject, "A Catholic Looks at the Modern World," tomorrow evening, when his final topic will be "The Contemporary Church." The Canon tells us that these lectures will be published in book form by The Morehouse Publishing Company some time before Lent.

THE ADDRESSES at the Friday evening devotional services are based on the Bible readings and meditations for the following week as they are outlined in the Forward Movement pamphlets. These pamphlets give an excellent basis for daily Bible reading and meditation, and their value is increased by the fact that many thousands of people are using the same suggestions every day.

A PRELIMINARY MEETING for the revival of S. Vincent's Guild of Acolytes was held last Wednesday evening, S. Vincent's Day. Hereafter the Guild will meet on the first Wednesday evening in each month. At the next meeting the new servers will be admitted as Probationers.

THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN has sent copies of his annual report to the Vestry to all the members of the Congregation. It is hoped that they will study it carefully, and be moved to help as far as they can to increase the Parish income and our offerings for Missions.

MEMBERSHIP DUES in the Catholic Congress are payable now for the year 1936. It is most important for all our members to renew their subscriptions. It is an important year for the Congress in their advance work and in preparation for a Congress next year. These Dues may be placed on the collection plates at any of the services, or may be handed to the Parish Secretary for the Congress, Mrs. Pendleton.

NEXT SUNDAY is the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, commonly called the Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin. This Feast is also known as Candlemas, because candles are blessed before the chief Mass on this day, and carried through the Church, because of Simeon's reference to our Lord as "a Light to lighten the Gentiles." The usual Candlemas ceremonies will be observed before the Solemn Mass next Sunday.

THE ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR THE POOR FUND will be taken at the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning. All monies outside the Duplex Envelopes will be for this purpose.

DURING 1935 there were 959 Masses said at our Altars; 10,884 Communion were made in S. Clement's; and the Blessed Sacrament was given to the sick and infirm in their homes or hospitals on 120 occasions.

THE COLLECTION AT THE SOLEMN MASS this morning is for the Parish Poor Fund. The loose money, outside the envelopes, will be given for this purpose. "He that giveth to the poor, lendeth unto the Lord." We have tried, during all the years of the depression, to take care of the poor and needy in our Parish. Please help us to carry on this very worth-while work.

TOMORROW IS THE FEAST OF S. BLASE, the Patron of all those who suffer from any ailment of the throat. In anticipation of the Feast, throats will be blessed at the High Altar after the Solemn Mass this morning. The form used in the blessing is this: "At the intercession of S. Blase, Bishop and Martyr, may you be spared from all diseases of the throat and from every other evil, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. A-men."

S. MARY'S GUILD will hold its regular monthly meeting in S. John's Chapel tomorrow evening. This is a devotional guild for women communicants of the Parish. The members live according to a simple rule of prayer and sacramental life. The Sisters will be glad to talk to any who may be interested in joining S. Mary's Guild.

AT THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Woman's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, the Venerable Arch-deacon Baskerville, who is making his annual visit in the North, will speak about the work amongst the Coloured People in South Carolina.

S. VINCENT'S GUILD will hold the first meeting since its reorganization on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Any boys or young men who might be interested in serving will be welcome at this meeting.

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY for a Card Party in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, February 18th, at eight o'clock. This will be the last parish party before Lent.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE will visit the Parish Sunday evening, March 1st, the First Sunday in Lent, for the Sacrament of Confirmation. If any who are not already in touch with the Priests or the Sisters and who are considering Confirmation will please speak to the Father Rector, he will be glad to arrange for their instruction.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for 1936 Membership in the Catholic Congress are coming in very slowly. We are very anxious to make a good showing with our renewals at S. Clement's, so as to encourage the Central Committee, and to make our usual contribution to the great forward work planned for this year.

A FRESH SUPPLY of Anglo-Catholic Prayer Books and English Missals for the Laity have arrived from England, and may be found in the Cope Room.

THOSE WHO WISH SPECIAL PRAYERS, either for the Sick or the Departed, are asked to hand the names and requests in writing to the Priests. When these requests are made by word of mouth before or after a service they are sometimes forgotten.

THIS EVENING we return to the use of Prayer Book Evening Prayer for the 8 P. M. service. The Psalms for the Day will be sung; the two lessons will be read; and both the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis will be sung. There will be the usual Sermon, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. It is hoped this change in the Office may incite many more to spend Sunday evening at S. Clement's.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR is giving an Address on The Mass for the Catholic Laymen's Club of the Diocese of New Jersey, which meets tomorrow evening in Grace Church, Haddonfield.

THE ALUMNI OF NASHOTAH HOUSE, living in the East, will have two opportunities to meet Dean Nutter this month. Tomorrow the Dean will be in New York, and a meeting has been arranged with him at the Church of the Transfiguration, and next Monday he will be at S. Clement's in order to meet the Alumni who can come here more conveniently.

THE LENTEN SEWING GROUP which worked last year for S. Mary's School for Girls in the Southern Mountains, under the direction of Miss Neilson, will meet again this year on Friday mornings in Lent and will sew for the Maternity and Children's Wards of the Episcopal Hospital. Any women of the Congregation who would like to help with this work will be welcomed on Friday mornings in the Parish House. A subscription of $2 is asked for the purchase of materials.

THERE WILL BE A CARD PARTY in the Parish House one week from Tuesday. The tickets at 35 cents each are now on sale. There will be refreshments and prizes. Will you not interest your friends in this party, and bring them with you? This will be the last party in the Parish House before Lent.

THE ORDER OF THE HOLY CROSS is seeking to secure interest and support for its work in the Missionary District of Liberia in Africa by forming groups of ten people in a league, each member of which will give $1 a year to the work in Liberia. Each group of ten will have its own name and a secretary, who will collect the dues and give such information and literature as the Order may send out. If you are interested, please speak to the Father Rector and he will see that you are attached to one of the groups now being formed in the Parish.

BEGINNING WITH NEXT SUNDAY the Hymn Books will be found in the pews instead of in the racks at the rear of the Church. This is in accord with the practice in other Churches, and will be a great convenience to the strangers who worship with us. A new supply of Hymnals has just been received, and also some new Prayer Books for S. John's Chapel.

ASH WEDNESDAY is the 26th of February. Are you thinking about your Shrove Tuesday Confession, and your Rule of Life for Lent? These matters need careful study and preparation. Do not delay.

Parish Notes

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will have a Social Evening on Tuesday of this week at S. George's Church in West Philadelphia. It is hoped that our men will respond to this invitation. Fr. Edwards is the Rector of S. George's, and many of you will want to see him in his own Parish, where he is doing such a splendid work. Dr. Roland Holroyd, a member of our Vestry, will give an illustrated lecture on "Over the Andes and Down the Amazon," showing his own pictures. Eight o'clock is the hour, and S. George's Church is at the corner of 61st Street and Hazel Avenue.

DO NOT FORGET the Card Party in our Parish House on Tuesday evening. The tickets are 25 cents each. Refreshments will be 10 cents extra. There will be a prize for the high score at each table, and also a door prize. This will be the last party in the Parish House before Lent.

THE PRIESTS' CATHOLIC CLUB meets on Tuesday of this week at Calvary Church in West Philadelphia.

SOME OF THE ALUMNI of Nashotah House who are living in the vicinity of Philadelphia will have luncheon with Dean Nutter at S. Clement's Rectory tomorrow. At the stated meeting of the Eastern Convocation of the Alumni in New York City last Monday, the Father Rector was re-elected President for another year.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK will be kept as a Day of Intercession before the Blessed Sacrament in S. John's Chapel. The Sacrament will be Exposed from 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. The special intention for the day will be for a holy Lent in the Parish. Intercessors will please sign the Schedule in the Apple Tree Street entrance to the Church.

ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY, Saturday of this week, the Annual Corporate Communion of the Men of the Diocese will be held in Holy Trinity Church at 8 A. M. The Bishop of the Diocese will be the Celebrant. It is hoped that S. Clement's will be well represented at this Diocesan Service.

THE FATHER RECTOR is conducting a Quiet Day for the Laymen of the Diocese of Maryland at the Church of S. Michael and All Angels in Baltimore on Washington's Birthday.

ON THE FIRST FRIDAY evening in Lent, February 28th, the Convocation of North Philadelphia will hold a great service in the interests of the Forward Movement in S. Clement's Church. We shall set aside our Lenten Schedule for that one evening. The Preacher will be the Rev. Arthur M. Sherman, Secretary of the National Committee of the Forward Movement, and a former Missionary in China. The Litany will be sung in Procession with the full Choir.

Parish Notes

THE NOTICES OF THE LENTEN SCHEDULE have been posted to all the members of the Parish, and additional copies will be found in the Church Porch this morning. The Schedule needs no explanation. It needs only to arouse some definite action on the part of the Congregation. The Lenten Schedule varies but little from other years, yet it affords ample opportunity for the keeping of a holy and good Lent.

WE ARE CALLED, by the Presiding Bishop and the Bishop of the Diocese, to a Corporate Communion in our Parish Church, on the First Sunday in Lent. This is the proper way for every Churchman to begin the Holy Season. It is hoped that the members of this Congregation will show the seriousness of their Lenten intentions by receiving Holy Communion next Sunday, after a thorough preparation, and by a solemn resolution, offered at this Mass, to make this Lent a time of spiritual progress.

THE REVEREND ARTHUR M. SHERMAN, who will preach for us Friday evening at the great Service for the Convocation of North Philadelphia in the interests of the "Forward Movement," is the National Secretary of this Commission, and was formerly a Missionary in China. The new leaflets for the Lenten Daily Readings will be found in the Apple Tree Street Vestibule of the Church.

RESERVATIONS for Supper at the Quiet Evening for Women to be held next Saturday evening should be telephoned to the Sisters at SPRUCE 2044. The Rev. William P. S. Lander, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Rosemont, will give the Meditation.

EVERY DAY IN LENT is a Day of Fasting; that is, less food than usual is to be eaten. Wednesdays, Fridays and the Ember Saturday are days of Abstinence and Fasting; that is, in addition to eating less food, no flesh meat should be eaten. This rule should be followed by all Catholics, except the very aged and the unwell.

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—Adagio.....Pietro A. Von

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"Saviour, When in Dust to Thee"....No. 251

INTROIT—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.

Psalm. Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Glory be to the Father..... He shall call upon me.....

(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 125 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

TRACT—Whoso dwelleth under the defense of the Most High; shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty: I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong-hold; my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter; and from the noisome pestilence: he shall defend thee under his wings; and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler; thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee: for he shall give his Angels charge over thee; to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands; that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone: thou shalt go upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up because he hath known my name: he shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Parish Notes

THE KALENDAR FOR THE MONTH will be found on the fourth page of the Leaflet, and contains a full schedule of the extra Lenten devotions and exercises. Please keep it for reference.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE comes to us this evening to preach and to administer the Rite of Confirmation. It is hoped that a large congregation will welcome the Diocesan to the Parish.

S. MARY'S GUILD will meet in S. John's Chapel tomorrow evening. This is a devotional Guild for women, who live according to a simple rule of prayer and sacramental life. Visitors are welcome at the Chapel meetings, and any women who may be interested further, should speak to Sister Mary Kathleen, S.H.N.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY of this week are the Lenten Ember Days, and are days of both abstinence and fasting. The special duties of these days is to pray for the men who are preparing for Holy Orders, and especially those to be ordained at this time, and to remember all Bishops, Priests and Deacons.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY has its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week at two o'clock. The speaker will be Mrs. George B. Roberts, and her subject will be: The United Thank Offering. All baptized women are members of the Auxiliary, and new members would be warmly welcomed at the meetings.

THE LENTEN SEWING GROUP has begun its work in the Parish House on Friday mornings. The women of the Parish are sewing this Lent for the Maternity and Children's Wards of the Episcopal Hospital. The work is under the direction of Miss Emma F. Neilson. There is plenty of sewing for all who can come. A subscription of at least $1 is asked for the purchase of materials. Miss Sellers is reading during the meeting from H. V. Morton's "In the Steps of the Master."

THE REGULAR LENTEN SCHEDULE begins with the services of this week. On Friday evening we shall be saying the Stations of the Cross; Father Tuhey will preach; and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given. On Sunday evening next, the Litany will be sung in Solemn Procession, Fr. Lightbourn will preach a course of Sermons on New Testament subjects, and Benediction will be given.

LENTEN WEEK-DAY MASSES include two every day, at 7 and 9.30. There will be, in addition, a Mass at 8 o'clock on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

THE FATHER RECTOR has had a letter from Father Severance, who is now settled at Nashdom Abbey of the Benedictine Community in England, where he is finding the life very congenial and contenting. He sends his warm regards to his friends in the parish, and asks for their prayers for his life and work in England.

BISHOP TAITT is celebrating the Jubilee of his Ordination to the Priesthood this year. Instead of making him a personal gift on the occasion of this anniversary, at the Bishop's request the Diocese is endeavoring to increase the Episcopal Endowment. This will eventually reduce the parish assessments. Offerings for this purpose may be placed on the collection plates at any service, and should be marked "Bishop's Jubilee Fund."

Parish Notes

THERE WAS A VERY SERIOUS FIRE in the Clergy House last Friday morning. It started in a defective flue in the cellar and swept up the dumb-waiter shaft into the roof, where considerable damage was done. Smoke and water spoiled many of the contents of the house, and the two linen closets were completely destroyed. We are fully covered with Insurance, and the adjustments have been most satisfactory. The repairing of the House is already under way, but it will be several weeks before the House is ready for occupancy again.

THE PRIESTS are living at The Warburton Hotel, 20th and Sansom Streets, while the Clergy House is being put in order. The telephone there is RIT. 4870.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be in the Lower Sacristy every morning until noon. He has moved his office into the Parish House, and can be reached over Dr. Fry's telephone, LOC. 0791.

AN ORGAN RECITAL will be given in the Church Wednesday evening at 8.15 o'clock under the auspices of the American Organ Players' Club. The recital will be given by Winslow Cheney, a prominent Concert Organist of New York City. In one of the New York press notices it says of him, "The audience crowded the Church of S. Mary the Virgin.Mr. Cheney is one of the elect of his generation of organists. The performance of each number was an accomplishment of artistic finish, invested with vitality and warmth." The collection taken at this recital is given to the Club.

SEVEN PERSONS WERE CONFIRMED, three adults and four children, when the Bishop of the Diocese visited us last Sunday evening to administer the Rite of Confirmation. The Bishop preached a strong sermon on the Catholic Doctrine of the Incarnation, and his visit was always, was a delight to all who met him.

THE FATHER RECTOR was the preacher at the mid-week Lent Service at S. Mark's Church, Frankford, last Wednesday. He will preach at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, on Wednesday evening of this week.

A NEW SUPPLY OF TRACTS will be found in the Church Porch this morning. The prices are plainly marked, and the money may be placed in the little metal box on the Bulletin Board.

Parish Notes

THE CLERGY HOUSE was invaded early last Thursday morning by two young boys who escaped from the House of Detention at 22nd and Arch Streets. After breaking into the House through the Laundry, they went to the top floor and came out on the roof, but finding it impossible to reach the next house, they retraced their steps, and ran into the Church, where they were apprehended by the Police and the Sexton and removed from behind the High Altar, where they were trying to hide. Nothing was taken from the House, but several windows and doors were badly broken.

SATURDAY is the Feast of S. Benedict, Abbot. The alms placed in the box at the rear of the South aisle on Saturday will be sent to the Benedictine Abbey in England, where Fr. Severance is trying his Vocation for the Religious Life. We have been making this offering for many years, and the annual sum amounts to about $10.

NEXT SUNDAY IS MID-LENT SUNDAY, and the occasion of our Annual Quiet Day for Women. The Conductor this year will be the Rev. Dr. Leicester C. Lewis, Rector of the Church of S. Martin's in the Fields at Chestnut Hill. The Retreat Mass is at 8. The Meditations will be at 10, 2 and 3.15. The Day closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament from the High Altar at 4. Breakfast and Dinner will be served in the Parish House, and reservations should be made with the Sister-in-Charge at SPRUCE 2044.

THE BY-LAWS OF S. CLEMENT'S have been revised and re-edited, and a new edition has been printed. Copies of the Charter and the By-Laws may be had from the Accounting Warden at 25 cents each.

EDWARD BIDDLE CLAY has resigned as Secretary of the Vestry after a service of 17 years. The Vestry passed appropriate resolutions of appreciation for his long and faithful service at their meeting last Tuesday. His successor will be elected at the Easter Meeting on April 14th.

COPIES of The Anglo-Catholic Prayer Book (American Edition) and The English Missal for the Laity may be had after any of the Services. The former are $1 and the latter $1.50 each. Most of our public extra-liturgical devotions are taken from the A. C. Prayer Book, as well as the form used in saying the Stations of the Cross.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—"The Royal Banners".....No. 96

INTROIT—Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

Psalm. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Give sentence with me, O God.....

KYRIE—Missa Sancti Clementis.....Henry S. Fry
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, Page 132 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

TRACT—Many a time have they fought against me: from my youth up. May Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers ploughed upon my back.

And made long furrows: for the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Parish Notes

THURSDAY IN PASSION WEEK is the Annual Day for S. Mary's Guild and their friends to keep a Quiet Day. It will begin this year with Mass at 9.30, and Fr. Smith will give the addresses at 10.30, 12 and 2. A slight collation will be served at 12.45, for which reservations may be made through the Sisters. None of our Services, nor such spiritual privileges as this Quiet Day, are designed for S. Clement's people alone. They are opportunities for any who may desire to share in them.

THE FLOOD SUFFERERS are very much in our hearts and prayers. The Red Cross is the best agency through which we can help them with material things. Already we have sent off a great boxful of clothing. Money offerings may be placed on the collection plates if properly marked. Offerings of clothing and things of household necessity, if marked for the Red Cross, may be put in the Barrel in the Church Corridor.

WORK IS PROGRESSING very slowly in repairing the Clergy House, and it does not seem possible now that the Priests can return there until after Easter.

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED to the hours for Confession in Holy Week in preparation for Easter. The regular Penitents in the Parish are urged to come to the Confessionals as early in the week as possible, and to say the Confiteor in the Church before entering the Confessional Box. By following these two suggestions, the members of the Congregation can, at this time, do much to relieve the physical strain on their Priests.

HE HATH GREAT tranquility of heart that setteth nothing by praisings or blamings.—Thomas a Kempis.

ANGLO CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS and THE ENGLISH MISSALS (for the Laity) will make very acceptable Easter presents. We have a new supply now, that just arrived from England this past week.

THERE WILL BE A SHORT SERMON at the Solemn Mass next Sunday, being the last one in the Father Rector's Lenten Series on The Holy Mass.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GUILD OF ALL SOULS will be held in the Church of S. Edward the Martyr in New York City on Saturday, May 2nd. There will be a Solemn Mass of Requiem at 11.30, and a Conference after the luncheon.

PROCESSIONAL Improvised
SOLEMN BLESSING OF PALMS and PROCESSION

According to the Missal

INTROIT—O Lord, remove not thy succour far from me; have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion; yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

Psalm. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

KYRIE Johann Sebastian Bach

GRADUALE—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. Truly God is loving unto Israel; even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipped. And why, I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT—My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint? O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee, and were holpen; they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorn. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

CREDO—Traditional VI Century Melody..... Plainchant
SERMON..... THE REVEREND FATHER RECTOR

OFFERTORY—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

HYMN—"Onward, Christian Soldiers".....No. 391

SANCTUS, BENEDICTUS and AGNUS DEI.... Johann Sebastian Bach
MOTET—Ave Maria

COMMUNION—O my Father, if this Cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it: thy will be done.

Parish Notes

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, Low Mass will be said in the Church at 7, 8 and 9.30. The Stations of the Cross will be said in the Church Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8, and on Good Friday morning at 9.

TENEBRAE will be sung in the Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 8. As one of the ancient services of the Church, it is of such exceeding beauty it deserves to be more generally known and used. It is the Night Office (Matins and Lauds) for Wednesday and the two following nights in Holy Week. The name Tenebrae is derived from the ceremonial accompaniment of extinguishing the lights one by one until the Church is in complete darkness.

ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT the passages in Tenebrae deal with the Agony and the Betrayal of our Lord; on Maundy Thursday night they are connected with His Crucifixion; and on Friday night they represent the Burial. These three portions of the Office have been compiled with marvellous insight; a thorough study of them will reveal their full beauty and significance. (Quoted.)

MAUNDY THURSDAY, the Solemn Mass will be sung at 7, when all the faithful are urged to receive Holy Communion. Following the Mass there will be the Procession to the Altar of Repose in S. John's Chapel, where the Watch will be kept until the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified at 10 A. M. on Good Friday.

THE HOURS FOR CONFESSIONS in Holy Week are as follows:

Wednesday,	3-5	The Father Rector.
	7.30-8	Fr. Tuhey
Thursday,	3-5	The Fr. Rector
	7.30-8	Fr. Lightbourn
Friday,	11-12	Fr. Lightbourn
	3-4	Fr. Tuhey & Fr. Lightbourn
	7.30-8	The Fr. Rector
Saturday,	10-12	The Fr. Rector
	3-5	Fr. Tuhey & Fr. Lightbourn
	7-9	All the Priests

STRICT ORDER should be observed by those waiting in the Church to make their Confessions. "First come, first served," should be the rule, except that Priests, Religious, Doctors and Nurses should be allowed to come first at any time on account of their work.

FLOWERS, or money with which to buy flowers, will be welcomed for the Altar of Repose on Thursday, and for the High Altar on Easter. If flowers are sent for Thursday, they should be in the Parish House early Wednesday afternoon, and the Easter flowers should be here Saturday morning.

A RADIO PARTY is being planned for the women of S. Clement's congregation under the direction of Mrs. Thomas W. Moore. On Wednesday afternoon, April 15th, the group will meet in the reception room on the second floor of Station WCAU, 1622 Chestnut Street, at 1 P. M., and visit the auditorium for the half-hour broadcast and demonstration by Elsie Carol, Directress of the WCAU Women's Club of the Air. The broadcast is followed by a program which includes the awarding of several door prizes. Those interested are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Moore at once, so that the final arrangements can be made. A thoroughly entertaining afternoon is promised.

S. VINCENT'S GUILD OF ACOLYTES will give a Card Party and Entertainment in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, April 21st.

THE EASTER LETTERS are in the mail. If you do not receive one, please speak to the Father Rector, so that he may have the mailing list corrected.

THE MUSIC OF THE MASS on Easter Day will be "Troisieme Messe Solennelle" (De Paques) by Charles Gounod.

Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?

"The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection:

Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting,

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining,

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! A-men. Alleluia.

Parish Notes

THE FATHER RECTOR, and the Assistant Priests, wish all the members of the Church and Congregation a very happy and blessed Easter.

THE MASSES during Easter Week will continue on the Lenten Schedule. Two Masses each day, one at 7 and the other at 9.30; and a Mass at 8 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

IF THE PRIESTS are notified of any shut-ins who have not been able to make their Communion at the Church, they will be glad to arrange to take the Blessed Sacrament to them in their homes.

THE RADIO PARTY announced in last week's Leaflet is a visit to a broadcasting station. The admission of 25 cents will be given to S. Clement's for Missions. Meet Mrs. Moore at WCAU, 1622 Chestnut Street, on Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN occurs tomorrow.
A list of those entitled to vote is posted in the Church Porch. Those coming up for re-election tomorrow are the two Wardens, Mr. Mayer and Mr. Kremer. The Easter Meeting of the Vestry will be held in the Parish House, Tuesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock.

THE FRIDAY EVENING DEVOTIONAL SERVICES continue throughout the year. Each year it is hoped that many more who have come on Friday evenings during Lent will continue their Friday evening attendance. There is a simple instruction, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. After the service, there is a brief social hour in the Parish House and refreshments.

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH, like every similar institution, has suffered in recent years from loss of income both through Endowments and the Offerings of the Congregation. Our small reserves are pretty well depleted. We really need the generous help of our friends. The size of the congregations and the interest in our presentation of the Catholic Faith makes us feel that we have a work to do. Please help us. By so doing, you are helping the Catholic Faith, and the cause of our Blessed Lord in the world today.

Parish Notes

AT THE EASTER VESTRY ELECTION, the two Wardens, Mr. Mayer and Mr. Kremer, were re-elected to serve for the next three years. At the Easter Meeting of the Vestry, Mr. Clement was elected Accounting Warden, and the Father Rector appointed Mr. Woodruff to continue as Rector's Warden. Dr. F. D. W. Lukens was elected Secretary, to succeed Mr. Clay, who has resigned after a service of 17 years. The following Committees were elected: Finance, Messrs. Clay, Homan and Morris. Property: Messrs. Mayer, Corning and Tyson. Insurance: Messrs. Kremer, Clement and Casey. The Father Rector appointed Messrs. Woodruff, Clement and Tyson to serve on the Music Committee.

THE EASTER COLLECTION amounted to about $100 more than last year, and this in spite of the fact that we have lost by death since last Easter two very liberal contributors. We are very grateful for this generous offering.

ON TUESDAY EVENING the Acolytes are giving a Card Party in the Parish House. There will be a table where Bingo can be played. Refreshments will be served, and there will be a Prize for the high score at each table.

NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 23rd, a Concert will be given by the Coloured Missions of the North Philadelphia Convocation in the Parish House of the Church of S. Jude and the Nativity, 11th and Mt. Vernon Streets, at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 35 cents, and the proceeds of the Concert will be given to the Missionary work in this Convocation. Tickets may be had from Mrs. Mowry.

ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 3rd, there will be a Convocation Service for the Sunday School Children in the Church of S. Simeon at 8th Street and Lehigh Avenue. The Sisters would be glad to hear from members of the congregation who will lend their automobiles to take our children to the service at 3 o'clock, and bring them back to the Church afterwards.

THE ANNUAL COLLECTION for the United Thank Offering is now being received by Miss Grace L. Hoffman of 2118 DeLancey Place, for the Women's Auxiliary. This offering, collected every year, is presented at the meeting of General Convention, and given by the women of the Church, is now supporting over 200 women missionaries in all parts of the world. Offerings for this purpose, if plainly marked, may be placed on the collection plates.

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS (At Benediction)

The Sacred Heart of Jesus
Is a new-blown Rose of Red;
And in this Holy Chalice
Fade all the tears we shed.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus
Is a Blossom, where within
Is held in dear compassion
Each tired mortal's sin.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus
Is a Shrine, where we may pray;
There all our pain and sorrow
Will truly die away.

Dear Blessed Font—desiring
To soothe life's troubled part;
O may my soul be worthy
To find Thy Sacred Heart.

(Flora Warren.)

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME begins with next Sunday. All of our Services will be according to this Summer Time. Vespers and Benediction in the evening will be discontinued after next Sunday until the first Sunday in November.

BISHOP CAMPBELL, O.H.C., Retired Bishop of Liberia, will be the preacher on Sunday, May 3rd, at the Solemn Mass, the Feast of the Finding of the Holy Cross. Bishop Campbell comes to preach a Missionary Sermon.

THE REGULAR SCHEDULE of Masses is resumed this week. Mass is said daily at 7. There is a Mass at 8 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. There is a Mass at 9.30 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Parish Notes

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK is the Feast of SS. Philip and James, Apostles. There will be an additional Mass that day at 8.

FATHER HUGHSON, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, has written about the Memorial Altar to Father Huntington, the Father Founder, that the Order wants to build over the Father's grave, which is under the Chapel. Many people will want to have a share in this memorial. If any member of S. Clement's wants to give $1 or more, they may place it on the collection plates, in an envelope marked O. H. C., and it will be forwarded to Father Hughson.

BISHOP CAMPBELL, O.H.C., retired Bishop of Liberia, will be the preacher at the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning. He comes to us in the interests of the Missionary Crusade in the Diocese, and will preach a Missionary Sermon.

THE TWO LOW MASSES and the High Mass next Sunday will be of III Easter, but the Solemn Mass at 11 will be of "The Finding of the Holy Cross," with commemoration and Last Gospel of the Sunday.

THE FOREIGN COMMITTEE of The Women's Auxiliary is trying to raise a deficit in their offering for Foreign Missions. They are trying to secure a "Mile of Pennies", and to this end are distributing small envelopes for such offerings. There are 16 pennies in a Foot, and 48 in a Yard. Will you not help?

THE KALENDAR FOR MAY will be published next Sunday. The Women's Auxiliary is planning a Card Party for May. The Children of the Parish, under the direction of the Sisters, will give a pantomime of the Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, for the May meeting of S. Mary's Guild on Monday evening, May 4th.

THE EVENING SERVICE tonight will be the last Sunday evening service until the first Sunday evening in November. The Friday evening devotions, followed by Benediction, will continue throughout the summer.

WE ARE VERY GRATEFUL to Miss Newman for her beautiful painting of the Paschal Candle this year. She has used the ancient motif of the Butterfly as the symbol of the Resurrection, and her decorations are worthy of close study.

THE WOMEN'S LENTEN SEWING CLASS, under Miss Neilson's direction, have sent 86 garments for babies and young children to the Episcopal Hospital. $18.50 was contributed in money, and this was spent for materials and for some ready-made articles, while a great many lovely things were given by members of the congregation and friends. The Hospital is most grateful for such gifts, and wants to thank all who have had a part in it.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Guild of All Souls will be held on Saturday of this week at the Church of S. Edward the Martyr in New York City. All the members of the Guild are invited to attend the Mass and Luncheon, to be followed by the business meeting and an Essay in the afternoon.

DURING EASTER-TIDE, instead of the Angelus, the Regina Coeli is said. It is as follows:

Hail to thee, O Queen of Heaven, Alleluia.

He whom thou wast meet to bear, Alleluia,

Is arisen, as He said, Alleluia.

Pray thou unto God for us, Alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia.

R. For the Lord is risen indeed, alleluia.

Let us pray.

O God, who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the Resurrection of thy Son, Jesus Christ, from the dead; grant, that we, being holpen by the prayers of the Virgin Mary, His Mather, may come to the joys of everlasting life; through the same.....

Parish Notes

IT IS A GREAT JOY to welcome Bishop Campbell to S. Clement's once again. It is his first visit since his retirement and return from Liberia. He comes in connection with the Diocesan Campaign to arouse our interest in Missions. Our Annual Missionary Collection will be taken on Whitsunday.

BISHOP CASADY of the Missionary District of Oklahoma will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon at 2. It is confidently expected that a large attendance will greet Bishop Casady. There is no solicitation for funds at these meetings of the Auxiliary.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE ASKED for the Guidance of the Holy Spirit to the meeting of the Diocesan Convention in Holy Trinity Church on Monday evening and Tuesday of this week.

THE CHILDREN OF THE PARISH will give a little pageant, "The Glories of Mary," for the May meeting of S. Mary's Guild tomorrow evening. Benediction will precede the pageant, and a social hour will follow it.

THE CLERGY HOUSE is now completely renovated and the Priests are once more in residence. The House will be open after the late Mass this morning, and members of the Congregation are invited to inspect the House, and see how very delightfully it has been repaired.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be absent from his Confessional on Friday afternoon of this week, but he will conduct the evening devotions as usual at 8 P. M.

Parish Notes

ON THE FIRST FREE DAY in each week, Masses of Requiem are said as the regular Parish Masses. These Masses are offered especially for the former members of our Congregation, the anniversary of whose death occurs during the week. We are always glad when any other names are given for remembrance at these weekly Requiems.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY. During this month the Church should be filled with devotion to Her. Since our Lady is in Heaven, our devotion can best be expressed in the recitation of such prayers as "The Hail Mary", "The Salve Regina" and "The Rosary". At this season too our gardens yield flowers which may appropriately be brought to Her shrine in the Church. Meditate on Mary's role in the Incarnation and hear the voice of Her Son saying, "Behold thy Mother!"

THE MASSES ON SATURDAY will be in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and will be offered with the intention for a greater devotion to her and to all the Saints on the part of all Catholic Christians.

THE SPRING MEETING OF THE DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD will be held on Tuesday evening of this week in St. James's Church at 7.30. Father Souder of the American Church Mission in Hankow, China, will make the address. In the afternoon there will be an exhibition of Altar Linens and Church Vestments in the Chapel. Every one is welcome at the Exhibition and at the Service in the evening. This is a work that should be enthusiastically supported by the members of S. Clement's Church and Congregation.

WHY WERE THE SAINTS, Saints? Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful, patient when it was difficult to be patient; and because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still, and kept silent when they wanted to talk, and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. That was all. It was quite simple, and always will be.

WE HAD THE UNUSUAL EXPERIENCE of having two Missionary Bishops as our guests this past week. Bishop Campbell, O.H.C., Retired Bishop of Liberia, preached for us last Sunday, and on Wednesday afternoon, Bishop Casady, of the Missionary District of Oklahoma, spoke to the Women's Auxiliary. It is hoped that our interest in Missions is as wide and comprehensive as from Liberia to Oklahoma, and that our zeal is equally divided between the Foreign and the Domestic Fields.

OUR ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR MISSIONS is taken on Whitsunday, which falls on May 31st this year. This is the only collection in the year that we give away. Let us be more unselfish than usual this year, and give generously for the support of the Missionary Work of our Lord and of His Church.

SINCE THE INVITATION was a sudden one, some of our friends who were absent from Mass last Sunday had no opportunity to see the Clergy House in its renovated dress. The House will be open again this morning after the Solemn Mass, and we shall be happy to have any of our friends who care to do so, stop and inspect it.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will be having their Annual Festival Service at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, on the eve of Ascension Day, Wednesday, May 20th. This service is under the auspices of the Laymen's Union, but women as well as men are most cordially invited. There is usually a procession of Acolytes. S. Clement's congregation should be most conspicuous at this Festival Service. The Father Rector would be glad to know of people with automobiles who will stop here at the Church on their way to S. Luke's and take with them those who have no other means of transportation.

ARE THERE ANY MORE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS for the Catholic Congress, for the current year of 1936? A number of people have not renewed, and we are eager for as many members as possible.

Parish Notes

TODAY, THE SUNDAY BEFORE ASCENSION DAY, is called Rogation Sunday, from rogare, "to ask", because on this day the Holy Gospel contains the record of our Blessed Lord's promise that whatever His disciples ask of His Father in His Name shall be given to them.

THE THREE DAYS BETWEEN THIS SUNDAY and the Feast of the Ascension are also called Rogation Days. They were anciently called "Gang Days", because processions were made, hymns and canticles being sung, and prayers offered at various halting spots or stations for a blessing on the fruits of the earth. It is impossible for a city parish to observe these ancient processions, but the Masses on the Rogation Days are offered with this intention.

TUESDAY IS THE FEAST OF SAINT DUNSTAN. In the evening, a group of young men, several from our own choir, who are interested in unaccompanied singing of ancient Church music, will sing Vespers in S. John's Chapel, and give a brief Recital of unaccompanied music. The Father Rector will make an appropriate address, and a silver collection will be taken.

WEDNESDAY, the Vigil of the Ascension, the Father Rector will be in the Church for Confessions for an hour after the second Mass, from 10 to 11, and Father Lightbourn will be in the Confessional from 7.30 to 8 in the evening.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, the Catholic Laymen's Union will have their annual festival service at S. Luke's Church, Germantown, at 8 o'clock. There will be a procession of Acolytes, and the Rev. Gordan Wadhams, Rector of the Church of the Resurrection in New York City, will be the preacher. While the service is held under the auspices of the Laymen's Union, it is a service for women as well as men. Will people who have automobiles please stop at the Church on their way to Germantown, in order to carry along any who may be waiting here for such means of transportation. We are counting on a large group from S. Clement's assisting at this service.

ON ASCENSION DAY, in addition to the three Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30, there will be a Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock.

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

Grant me a steady hand and a watchful eye,
That no man shall be hurt when I pass by.

Thou gavest life, and I pray no act of mine
May take away, or mar that gift of Thine.

Shelter those, dear Lord, who bear me company,
From the evils of fire, and all calamity.

Teach me to use my car for others' needs;
Nor miss, through love of speed,

The beauties of Thy world; that thus I may
With joy and courage go on my way.

(English Church Times.)

NOVENA TO THE HOLY GHOST. Beginning on Friday, the day after the Ascension, and continuing through the Eve of Whitsunday, is a period of nine days, when our Lady and the Apostles and some of the Disciples waited in the upper room in Jerusalem for the coming of the promised Paraclete. In imitation of their nine days of prayerful waiting, we keep annually a Novena to the Holy Ghost, in preparation for the Feast of Pentecost. The Veni Creator will be said each day after Mass and the Prayer for the Church on page 37 in the Prayer Book. Those who are unable to assist at Mass during this Solemn Novena are urged to keep it in their prayers at home.

THE ANNUAL CHOIR RECITAL will be given in the Church Friday evening at 8.15 o'clock. Dr. Fry is making a choice selection of Anthems and Motets, as well as parts of the various Masses we sing, and the programme will be both varied and interesting. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given at the end. The collection taken on this occasion is the parish's offering for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp Fund.

Parish Notes

THE COLLECTION TODAY is our annual offering for the Missionary Work of the Church, and the sum received is applied against the Parish Expectation to the Diocese. Your generous support of the Church's Missionary Programme is most earnestly solicited.

THE ATHANASIAN CREED will be sung in Procession before the Solemn Mass next Sunday morning. The Music of the Mass will be Dabovitch's adaptation of the Serbian Liturgy.

THE HOLY HOUR will be kept as usual on Friday evening of this week at eight o'clock. The First Friday evening in each month is given over to this ancient observance of spending one hour in our Lord's Sacramental Presence. The meditations, to be given by the Father Rector, will be appropriate to the Octave of Pentecost.

Solemn Mass at 11

PRELUDE (Dr. Fry)—"Pomp and Circumstance".....Edgar Elgar

SOLEMN PROCESSION—"Athanasian Creed"Plainchant

HYMN—"Holy, Holy, Holy".....No. 160

INTROIT—Blessed be the Holy Trinity, and the undivided unity: we will praise and glorify him, because he hath shewed his mercy upon us.
Psalm. O Lord our Governour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world.

Glory be to the Father..... Blessed be the Holy Trinity.....

KYRIE } Mass Adapted from The Serbian Liturgy
GLORIA IN EXCELSIS } Sebastian Dabovitch
(Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 186 in the Prayer Book)

GRADUAL—Blessed art thou, O Lord, which beholdest the great deep: and sittest upon the Cherubim. Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven: and above all to be praised and glorified forever.

ALLELUIA—Alleluia. Alleluia. Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: and worthy to be praised for evermore. Alleluia.

HYMN—"To the Trinity".....P. I. Tchaikowsky

Blessed angel spirits offer praise undying,
Ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.
Saints and Martyrs praise Thy Name, Trinity life-giving,
Earth-borne sorrow leaving, before Thy Throne
Ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.

Father omnipotent, mighty in glory,
Christ, Thy Son, our Saviour, Who died that we might live,
Holy Spirit, mystic dove, dwelling with us evermore,
We praise Thee, Blessed Trinity.

With the Angels' sacred hymn, all Thy might proclaiming,
With the mystic Cherubim, in songs of praise we join,
Holy, Holy, Holy, join we all in songs of praise,
In songs of praise for ever, Alleluia, Lord God of Sabaoth.

CREED—Mass Adapted from The Serbian Liturgy...Sebastian Dabovitch
OFFERTORY—Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God; and blessed be the Holy Spirit: for the mercy he hath done unto us.

Parish Notes

BEGINNING THIS MORNING, and continuing through the Summer, the Sermon will follow the Mass, after the Choir has left the Church. It is suggested that those who are not staying for the Sermon should leave with the Choir, and not wait until the Sermon has been begun.

THE ANGELUS, which is resumed today after the Regina Coeli which has been said during Easter-tide, will follow the Sermon. The Congregation should stand for the Angelus, rising with the first stroke of the bell.

IT IS THE GENERAL CUSTOM throughout the Church for the Congregation to sit during the Gloria in Excelsis and the Creed, as soon as the Sacred Ministers have taken their seats at the Sedilia. The Gloria and the Creed are said privately before sitting, and the singing of these Liturgical Hymns are then construed as Anthems.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI falls on Thursday of this week. There will be a Solemn Mass, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 11 o'clock. There will be the usual Low Masses at 7, 8 and 9.30.

THE CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will make their Annual Corporate Communion at the 7 o'clock Mass, and breakfast will be served in the Parish House immediately after the Mass. The breakfast is "open" for any who may wish to stay.

WE WELCOME FATHER BERT, who returns to spend another summer in the Parish. We all look forward to these annual visits, and his many friends will be glad to see him again. He will be with us until after the first week in September.

MR. PAUL DOANE COLLINS will be ordained to the Diaconate tomorrow morning in Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel, by the Bishop of the Diocese. He is a member of this Parish, although not well known to many of you. He is the tenth young man that the Father Rector has presented for Ordination since he has been Pastor at S. Clement's.

THE OFFERING FOR MISSIONS last Sunday amounted to $527. It should have been more than double that sum. If there are any further gifts for the Missionary Work of the Church, it is not too late to add them to this offering.

FATHER SEVERANCE has been clothed as a Novice with the Order of Saint Benedict in England. He has taken the name of "Paul" in Religion, and is now to be addressed as "The Rev. Fr. Paul Severance, Novice of the Order of Saint Benedict," which is abbreviated to Nov. O.S.B. His address is Nashdom Abbey, Burnham, Bucks.

FATHER BARNETT has just received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from his Alma Mater, Nashotah House. This degree is awarded one year after graduation to those men who completed their course with an average better than 85%, and who have presented a satisfactory thesis to the Seminary Faculty.

Parish Notes

THE VESTRY held their final meeting of the season in the Rectory last Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting plans were made for extensive improvements and additions to the Church property during the summer. It is to be understood that none of this expense is taken out of the offerings of the congregation. The Yarnall Endowment Fund for the Maintenance and Repairs of the Property covers all the work that is planned.

AFTER THE FIRE, both the Insurance Companies and the City Authorities made a thorough inspection of our buildings and later submitted certain precautions that we would have to erect to safeguard both the properties and the congregation from danger in case of another fire. The fulfilling of these requirements will be a part of the work done during the summer. At the same time, a great deal of painting will be done in the Parish House.

WHEN THE IMPROVEMENT of the walls in the Church proper has been under consideration, the opinion has always been that until the windows in the Church were changed it would be foolish to do anything with the walls. Stained glass men have been looking at the Church and windows and have submitted plans for replacing the present windows with new glass. The new windows will not be "picture" windows, but will be of conventional glass and simple medallions. The present windows in the center of each side of the Church will be moved to the rear of the Church. Samples of the suggested glass will be put in the Church in a few weeks so that members of the congregation can express their opinions before the work actually goes forward.

THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY NATIVITY, during the past twelve months, have made 1293 visits in the Parish and received 1574 callers in the Mission House. They have given 171 public instructions, and 354 private instructions, and prepared 9 women for their first confessions. Addresses on the "Religious Life" have been given in 4 parishes and in the Church Training School, and regular instructions have been given at S. Elisabeth's Church and at the Chapel of the Holy Nativity. The Sister-in-Charge also gave two Mission Study Classes during Lent on "Latin America."

THERE WILL BE A RETREAT for Laymen at Holy Cross Monastery over the Fourth of July, beginning at 7 P. M. on July 3rd, and closing at noon on July 5th. This is an annual affair, and it would be a great gratification to have some laymen from S. Clement's at the Retreat this year. Every Catholic should make some sort of a Retreat at least once a year.

THE ACOLYTES' GUILD is giving a Card Party and Dance in the Parish House on Wednesday evening. The tickets are 35 cents each. There will be prizes and refreshments. Their last party was a great success, and this one promises to be "bigger and better".

ONLY FOUR PERSONS have made an offering for the Memorial Altar at Holy Cross that the Fathers are hoping to raise in memory of Fr. Huntington. It was hoped that S. Clement's might send at least $100. Are there 96 more who will give $1 each? Fr. Huntington was led to the Religious Life through a Retreat that he attended as a young man here at S. Clement's, and the last sermon he preached was from this pulpit. During the many years of his ministry he was a frequent visitor at S. Clement's. He was one of the greatest stalwart champions the Catholic Faith has had in this country. Our Parish should have a real share in his memorial.

PLANS WILL BE MADE DURING THE SUMMER to conduct an Every Member Canvas in the fall in S. Clement's Church and in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese. The Bishop has appointed a special committee to undertake this means for arousing Churchmen in Philadelphia to the great missionary programme of the Church. Please give this work a place in your prayers during the summer.

Parish Notes

THIS IS THE LAST SERVICE BULLETIN FOR THE SUMMER. The Leaflet next Sunday will contain the Kalendar for the next three Summer months.

THE FATHER RECTOR will be in Retreat from Monday evening until Friday morning at the Valley Forge Military Academy. This Retreat is given under the auspices of our Diocesan Retreat Committee and will be conducted by the Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, D.D., of Trinity Chapel in New York City.

FATHER LIGHTBOURN has resigned from the Staff and has now left for his holiday. During July and August he will be taking summer duty at S. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, and hopes to have a teaching position in the autumn.

FATHER TUHEY will be away from the Parish during July, when he is having his holiday. During July, Fr. Bert will preach at High Mass on Sunday, and the Father Rector will conduct the Friday evening devotions. During August, Fr. Tuhey will preach at the High Mass on Sunday, and Fr. Bert will conduct the Friday evening Devotions. In September, the Fr. Rector will preach at the High Mass on Sunday, and Fr. Tuhey will conduct the Devotions on Friday evenings.

THE FATHER RECTOR expects to be absent from the Parish during August and the first week in September. He will be in the country adjacent to Philadelphia, so as to be near his mother, whose continued illness makes it impossible for her to be moved from the city during the summer.

CONTRIBUTIONS for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp Fund are solicited. About $90 is in hand. We would like to have $150. This money should be given to Dr. Fry.

BEGINNING WITH THE WEEK OF JULY 5TH, the 9.30 o'clock Mass on Monday and the 8 o'clock Mass on Saturday will be omitted until autumn. The Masses on Sunday will be as usual. On week-days, there will be Mass at 7, with a second Mass at 8 on Tuesday and Thursday, and at 9.30 on Wednesday and Friday. The Friday afternoon Confessions hours will not be kept by the Fr. Rector until October.

DO NOT FORGET YOUR OFFERINGS for your Home Parish while you are away this summer. The Accounting Warden will be grateful if those who are leaving for the summer will pay their subscriptions in advance. Envelopes will be sent out in a few days for the extra offering that we ask during the summer, and do not forget the great cause of Missions, whose work is carried on throughout the year.

THE VALLEY FORGE CONFERENCE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE will hold their Second Annual Conference from July 12th to July 18th. It is designed for young people between the ages of 16 and 28. The total cost for each person is $16. Several of our young boys and girls are planning to attend. The Father Rector or the Sisters would be glad for contributions towards helping some who are unable to pay the full tuition.

FRESH GARDEN FLOWERS are always acceptable during the summer months, in order to keep the Altars and the Shrines suitably decorated. They may be left with the Sexton or at the Rectory. Bring as many as you have and as often as you have them; it is impossible to have too many!

THE EDITOR wishes you all a very happy and beneficial summer and holiday. Do not neglect your duty and obligation for Mass on Sundays. Surplice or Chasuble makes no matter; Latin or English makes no matter; it is the Mass that matters. The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent, one from another.

Parish Notes

ICE CREAM AND CAKE will be for sale after the Recital this evening, and the proceeds will be added to the evening's collection for the Choir Boys' Summer Camp Fund. If the weather is fair, the refreshments will be served in the Church Garden; if not, they will be served in the Parish House. They will also serve Ice Cream and Cake after the Recital next Wednesday evening.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, May 27th, at 8.30 o'clock, there will be a Choral and Organ Recital in this Church under the auspices of the American Guild of Organists, several chapters of which will be in Convention at Camden next week. Faure's "Requiem" will be sung by the Choir of Trinity Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE has sent a personal letter, inviting the members of S. Clement's Church to the annual May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital on Wednesday the 27th, from 11 to 5 P. M. As the Bishop says, "We have no institution in our Diocese that is more worthy of your support than the Episcopal Hospital, and I trust that our people will come out in very large numbers to see this institution and aid it in its work by such purchases as they may make at the May Fete."

A SOLEMN NOVENA (Nine Days of Prayer) is kept every year from the Feast of the Ascension to the Feast of Pentecost, in honour of the Holy Ghost, and to prepare our hearts and souls for the anniversary of His descent and the Birth of the Catholic Church on Whitsunday. Come to Mass every day, if it is at all possible; but do not fail to say the Veni Creator every day.

THE COLLECTION ON PENTECOST is our annual parish offering for the Missionary Work of the Church. This is the only collection during the year that we give away. It should be as generous as those we keep for our own life and work. Let it be a thank-offering for our many blessings.

FATHER TUHEY is spending this week at the College of Preachers in Washington, where a conference is being conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lewis of S. Martin's Church, Chestnut Hill.

Parish Notes

WITH THE FIRST SUNDAY IN OCTOBER the Winter Schedule of Services begins, and everything is noted in the Kalendar on the other side of this page. The chief events of the next three months have been presented to you through the Quarterly which you have received through the mail during the past week.

S. MARY'S GUILD has its first meeting for the new season tomorrow evening. This is a devotional guild for women, who live a very simple rule of prayer, and follow the Precepts of the Church. There is a brief service and address at each meeting, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Father Rector is the Chaplain. The monthly service is open for any who may wish to come. Those who wish to become members of S. Mary's Guild should speak to one of the Sisters.

THERE WILL BE A MISSIONARY MEETING for the Convocation of North Philadelphia in the Parish House tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Bishop's Missionary Research Committee. Bishop Jenkins of Nevada will be the speaker. The meeting is open to everybody. There will be no collection. There will be a similar meeting with a Missionary Bishop as speaker in each of the Convocations.

ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON at 2 o'clock, the Women's Auxiliary will resume its work and meetings for the Winter. The Father Rector will make a missionary address at this meeting, and tell the women something of the Bishop's plans for the future of our missionary work. The women of the congregation are urged to identify themselves with S. Clement's Branch of the Women's Auxiliary.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY is planning for a Card and Radio Party in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, October 20th. This will be the first party of the season, and the Women's Auxiliary is noted for its splendid parties. The proceeds will be used towards materials for the Missionary Box which the Auxiliary is preparing to send into the Mission Field this autumn. Please save this evening, and plan for a good time.

ON THURSDAY EVENING we shall be reviving S. Clement's Guild, which was known formerly as The Mothers' Meeting. Its abandonment meant a real loss to our Parish Life, and it will be resumed "under new management." There will be sewing, or entertainment during the early part of the evening, and after the refreshments, there will be a service in the Chapel which will be over, positively, by 9.30 o'clock. A great deal of effort is being made to promote this work, and we hope for the cooperation of the former members, and the support of many new ones.

THE FRIDAY EVENING DEVOTIONAL SERVICES continue, and the splendid congregations testify to its usefulness and helpfulness. The service consists of a few hymns, some prayers and a Litany, an address on some Church Feast, or an instruction on some phase of Church teaching, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Since refreshments will be served at S. Clement's Guild on Thursday evening, the refreshments on Friday evenings will be discontinued.

BEGINNING THIS MORNING, the Father Rector will shorten his Sunday morning sermons by about five minutes, and preface his sermon with a five minute instruction on some point of Doctrine, Ritual or Cereimonial. Much of the instruction that is being given regularly at mid-week services is not available to the Sunday morning congregation. These instructions will not be given on great Feast Days. The Father Rector will be glad to have people ask questions, so that he may have suggestions for these instructions.

FATHER ARNOLD CRAVEN is welcomed to the Staff today. After a short missionary experience in San Domingo, he has been attached to S. Luke's Chapel in New York City. The Father Rector hopes you will give him a hearty greeting.

Parish Notes

BISHOP JENKINS of the Missionary District of Nevada was the speaker at the Missionary Meeting for the Convocation of North Philadelphia in the Parish House last Monday evening. It was a most inspiring Missionary Address. The Bishop was our guest in the Clergy House until Wednesday.

TOMORROW EVENING there will be the Second of the Series of Missionary Meetings in our Parish House at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be in the interest of Foreign Missions, and the Speaker will be the Rev. Alan B. Bragg, one of our Missionaries in Liberia. Fr. Bragg is a young Priest, a Seminary-mate with our Fr. Craven at the General Seminary in New York, and a most forceful speaker. Please come and bring your friends.

THE VESTRY will have their first meeting of the autumn at the Clergy House next Tuesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock.

THE CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA will meet on Tuesday afternoon of this week at S. Barnabas's Church, Kensington. The Father Rector would be very glad to know of any men in the Congregation who would be willing to attend these Convocation meetings as representatives of S. Clement's. A number of our women are interested in the Women's Aid, but we should have some male representation.

ON ONE FRIDAY EVENING in each month we try to arrange to say the Stations of the Cross in the Church with a special intention for the Faithful Departed. The Holy Hour, which we keep on the First Friday evening, is the monthly meeting for the members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament. So the monthly recitation of the Stations is intended as the meeting of the members of the Guild of All Souls.
